

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

So then Faith cometh by Hearing, and Hearing by the Word of GOD.

Αεα η πιστις εξ ακουης.*

I. WHAT Faith?

1. An historical, S. Jam. ii. 19.
2. A dogmatical, Act. viii. 13, 23. S. Luk. vi. 41.
3. A temporary, S. Luk. viii. 13. S. Joh. v. 35.

II. What Word, by the hearing whereof Faith comes?

1. Not the Word of Men.
2. Not the Word of Angels, Gal. i. 8.
3. But the Word of GOD.

III. What is meant by Hearing this Word?

Hearing it,

1. Read,
2. Expounded,
3. Preached.

IV. How is Faith wrought by the Word? Not as by the principal, but only instrumental Cause. Thus,

1. The

2. The Ears of the Hearer take in what the Mouth of the Preacher ſpeaks, and convey it to the Underſtanding: But That cannot receive it, 1 Cor. ii. 14. Therefore,

3. The Spirit goes along with the Word, and enables the Underſtanding to receive, and underſtand it.

4. The Spirit having enabled the Underſtanding to receive it, it inclines the Will to embrace it, Phil. ii. 13. Rom. vii. 15. Hebr. iv. 12.

6. Such as do believe what they mind, but will not resolve to practise what they believe, Ezek. xxxiii. 32.

7. Such as will resolve to practise what they believe, but will never practise what they resolve, S. Jam. i. 2, 3, 4, 5.

R O M. xi. 33.

O the Depth of the Riches both of the Wisdom and Knowledge of God!

Ὡ βάθος τῆς πλύτης καὶ τῆς σοφίας καὶ τῆς γνώσεως τοῦ Θεοῦ.

OBSERVATION.

THE Great GOD is a Wise GOD, Job ix. 4.
and xxxvi. 5. Rom. xvi. 27. 1 Tim. i. 17.
S. Jude 25.

Where, by Wisdom, I mean, that Attribute in GOD, whereby He orders and manages whatsoever He takes in Hand, by the best Means, in the best Manner, and to the best End, that possibly can be imagined; so that it is impossible for us, or, I may say, for Himself too, to find out better Means to make use of, a better Way to go in, or a better End to aim at, than Himself makes use of, goes in, and aims at, in every Thing that ever did or ever shall come from Him.

And if we descend into Particulars, we may read this His infinite Wisdom,

I. In His Contrivance of the World; so that you cannot look upon the Workmanship of the least Creature, but it sufficiently argues the Wisdom of its glorious Creator; and for our clearer apprehending this infinite Wisdom, let us consider, how before the Sun, Moon, Stars, Heaven, Earth, or any Creature else was, there was no other Being in the whole World but this One most moſt Glorious GOD. This Great GOD, yet, it ſeems, was pleaſed, and had ſo decreed from Eternity, to make Himſelf known to ſome Beings, beſides Himſelf. This He could not do, unleſs Himſelf created ſome ſuch Perſons, as may thus conſider and admire His Glory, and alſo ſome ſuch Creatures, wherein His Glory might be thus conſidered and admired. Hence it pleaſed this Sacred Deity to fall to the Raiſing of this ſtately Fabrick of the World, that you and I live in. By what Means doth He do it? Even by His Word. He did but ſpeak the Word, and immediately the empty Womb of Nothing delivered itſelf of that Lump and confuſed Chaos, which the Great GOD, afterwards, by His Wiſdom and Power, digeſted into that Frame, Faſhion and Order we now ſee it in; and verily, His infinite Wiſdom ſhined forth ſo clearly in the Management of every particular Circumſtance in this great Work, that ſhould I hold my Tongue, as my Saviour ſaith in another Caſe, the very Stones would immediately cry out, Ob the Depth, &c. So that we cannot look above us, about us, below us, within us; we cannot look upon the leaſt Spire of Graſs, or Piece of Earth, the Stones we ſtand on, or the Seats we ſit on, but we may ſtill hear every Thing crying aloud in our Ears, or calling upon us to cry out, Ob the Depth, &c. If to Heaven, Pſal. cxxxvi. 5. If to the Earth, Prov. iii. 19. Man, Pſal. cxxxix. 14, 15.

II. Providence.

1. Preſervation; for His Wiſdom appears as much in preſerving Things in the Beings He gave them, as in firſt giving Beings unto them; the the Means whereby He upholds the World, is the same with that whereby He made it, Hebr. i. 3.

2. Government; Sun, Moon, Stars, Earth, Clouds, Job xxxvii. 16. Men.

3. Redemption. And verily, if upon Consideration of the Works of the Creation, we may cry out, Oh the Depth: Here, Oh the Depth of the Depth, &c. The greatest Wisdom is seen in bringing about Things of the greatest Difficulty; and the greatest Difficulty is in bringing into One, Things of the greatest Distance and Opposition, which cannot but be acknowledged to be in the Work of Redemption. For, What is there in the World that is at a greater Distance from, and Opposition against, GOD, than Man. GOD is a Holy Spirit, Man sinful Flesh, and so more contrary to Him, than either the Beasts or Devils themselves; the Beasts, though Flesh, yet are not sinful; the Devils, though sinful, yet are they Spirits; but Man is neither a Spirit, nor yet void of Sin, and by Consequence, of all the Creatures in the World, the most contrary and opposite to a Holy God; yet in this Work, we have GOD reconciled to Man, and Man reconciled to GOD; and that by GOD's assuming of the Humane, and Man's partaking of the Divine Natures; so that three Things, especially in this great Work, manifest the Wisdom of Him that did it.

1. GOD's being reconciled to Man.
2. Man's being reconciled to GOD.
3. In the Manner how all this is brought about by GOD's cloathing Himself with the Humane, and filling Man with the Divine Nature.

I COR. X. 16.

The Cup of Blessing which we bless, Is it not the Communion of the Blood of Christ? The Bread which we break, Is it not the Communion of the Body of Christ?

WHosoever rightly receives the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, doth really partake of the Body and Blood of Christ.

I. What is the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper?

1. GOD had no sooner made Man, but He enters into a Covenant of Works with Him, Lev. xviii. 5.

2. The Covenant of Works being broken, He enters into a Covenant of Grace, Gen. iii. 15.

2. Fixed, Circumcision, Gen. xvii. and the Passover, Exod. xii.

4. Under the New Testament, He was pleased to change these Seals into Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

5. These of the New differ in several Things from the Old.

8. Theſe Things therefore being all applied to the Lord's Supper, will diſcover the Nature thereof to be an Ordinance inſtituted by Chriſt, wherein, under the outward Signs of Bread and Wine, Chriſt is repreſented, offered, conveyed, and ſealed to the worthy Receiver.

1. It is an Ordinance inſtituted by Chriſt, and in his Inſtitution of it, two Things are conſiderable.

Bonds of Charity, 1 Cor. xi. 27.

7. To bind Chriſtians, as by an Oath of Allegiance, to ſerve the Living
G O D.

8. To be a Means of Grace, in the Uſewhereof GOD conveys Grace into us.

Now unleſs a Man knows theſe Ends,
he cannot intend them.

2. Repentance; for until thou haſt repented,

7. And the Way to it.

II. DIRECTIONS.

1.. Whatſoever ye do, let it be according to G O D's Word, Iſa. viii. 20.

2. Do it in Obedience to His Word, 1 Sam. xv. 22.

3. Do it as in His Sight, Pſal. cxxxix. 5, 6, 7.

4. Do it with all your Might, Eccleſ. ix. 10.

5. Do it with Faith, Rom. xiv. 23. Hebr. xi. 6.

6. Do it with Meekneſs and Humility, S. Jam. i. 20.

7. Do it with Chearfulneſs and Alacrity, Rom. xii. 8.

I COR. xi. I.

Be ye Followers of Me, even as I also am of Christ.

I. DOCTRINE.

WE ought to follow the Examples of former Saints, so far as they walk in the Laws of GOD.

1. Though by Nature all be Sinners, yet by Grace many in all Ages have been Saints.

2. The Lives of many Saints are recorded for our Imitation, S. Jam. v. 10, 11, 17. Phil. iv. 9. and iii. 17.

3. But every thing that is recorded of them, is not to be followed by us.

1. Not such Actions of theirs, as are condemned.

2. Not all such, which are not condemned, Gen. xix. 8. xlii. 15, 16. and xxvii. 25, 26, 27.

3. Nor all such, as are approved.
For,

1. Some things are only as in part approved, S. Luk. xvi. 8. Exod. i. 19, 20.

2. Some things were done by the extraordinary Call and Instinct of GOD, Num. xv. 7, 8. 2 King. i. 10. S. Luk. ix. 54, 55. So Abraham offering to sacrifice his Son. Unde constat, quod non omnia quæ à sanctis & justis viris legimus facta, transferre debemus ad n.ores. S. Aug.

4. In our Imitation of the Saints, we must observe,

1. Whether what they do be according to the Law of G O D.
2. The Circumstances of their Actions,
Amos vi. 5.

U S E S.

1. Read the Lives of former Saints. Longum est iter per praecepta, breve & efficax per exempla, Seneca. 1 Cor. x. 11.

2. Follow their Examples.

Especially,

1. The whole Course of their Life.
2. The particular Graces wherein they are recorded as Eminent, Num. xii. 3. 1 Sam. iii. 18. Job i. 21. Act. v. 41.

II. DOCTRINE.

Christ is the grand Example of a Christian; which we ought to imitate.

1. What is it to imitate Christ?

It implies,

1. That we do what He did, S. Job. xiii. 15, 16.

2. In Imitation of Him.

3. As He did it.

1. Understandingly, S. Job. iv. 22.

2. Obedientially, S. Luk. ii. 49. 1 Sam. xv. 22.

3. Sincerely, S. Job. iv. 24. 2 Cor. i. 12.

4. Wholly, S. Matth. iii. 15. S. Job. xvii. 4.

5. Believingly, S. Job. xi. 41, 42.

6. Chearfully, Isa. liii. 7. Hebr. x. 34. Rom. xii. 8.

7. Humbly,

7. Humbly, S. Matth. xi. 29.

8. To the Glory of GOD.

Because,

1. GOD doth all Things for His own Glory, Prov. xvi. 4.

2. He is the ultimate End of all Things.

3. Whatsoever is not done to the Glory of GOD, is a Sin, 1 Cor. x. 31.

2. What are those Works, which we are to imitate Christ in ?

1. Christ was truly GOD from Eternity, S. Joh. viii. 58. πέν 'Αεράμ γενέσθ, ἐγὼ εἰμι, S. Joh. i. 1.

2. Became truly Man, in Time, S. Joh. i. 14. 1 Tim. ii. 5.

3. He was and is truly both GOD and Man in one Person, Act. xx. 28.

4. Whatsoever Christ did in the Flesh, He did under one of these three Notions.

5. We are not to follow Christ, in what He did as GOD ; such are His Acts,

1. Of Omnipotence.

1. Healing the Sick, S. Matth. ix. 20, 21. S. Matth. viii. 13.

2. Casting out Devils, S. Matth. viii. 16. and xiv. 17, 21.

3. Feeding thousands with five Loaves, S. Matth. xv. 34, 38.

4. Raising the Dead, S. Mar. vi. 41. S. Joh. xi. 43.

2. Of Omniscience, S. Luk. xi. 17. and xiii. 32.

3. Of Sovereignty, S. Matth. xxi. 2, 7.

6. Nor in what He did as GOD-Man, in the Acts,

1. Of His Prophetical-Office, Deut. xviii. 15. S. Joh. xv. 15. Act. iii. 22.

2. His

2. His Priestly-Office.

1. Satisfying for our Sins, 1 S. Job.
ii. 5.

2. Interceding for our Souls, Hebr. vii.

3. His Kingly-Office, Isa. ix. 7.

7. But we are to follow Him in what He did as meer Man.

1. He was subject to His Parents, S. Luk.
ii. 57.

This Subjection consisteth,

1. In reverencing them, Lev. xix. 3.

2. In obeying them.

1. Harkening to their Instructions,
Prov. xiii. 1. and xxiii. 22.

2. Performing their lawful Commands, Col. iii. 20. Eph. vi. 1.

3. Submitting to their Corrections,
Prov. xxix. 17.

3. In Thankfulness.

1. Acknowledging their Care.

2. In providing for their Necessities,
1 Tim. v. 4. Gen. xlvii. 12.
S. Job. xix. 26, 27.

Consider,

1. This is pleasing to GOD, Eph.
vi. 1.

2. It hath a promised Blessing,
Eph. vi. 2, 3. Exod. xx. 12.

2. He committed no Sin, 1 S. Pet. ii. 22.
Isa. li. 9. 1 S. Job. iii. 5.

1. How are we not to sin?

1. Not with Love to it, Psal. cxix.
104, 113.

2. Nor with Delight in it, Prov. ii.
14.

3. Nor

3. Nor ſo as to continue in it, Rom.
vii. 24.

2. Motives. Conſider,

1. What a righteous Law it tranſgreſſeth,
1 S. Joh. iii. 4.

2. What a precious Soul it defileth, Tit. i.
15.

3. What a gracious GOD it diſpleaſeth,
Iſa. i. 2.

4. What glorious Mercies it depriveth us of,
Jer. v. 25.

1. The Love of GOD, Iſa. lix. 2.

2. The Peace of Conſcience.

3. Eternal Happineſs.

5. What dreadful Miſeries it produceth.

1. In this, Mal. ii. 2.

2. In the other World, 2 Theſſ. i. 9.

3. We muſt imitate Chriſt in Prayer.

4. In Love.

5. In Submission.

6. In Meekneſs and Holineſs.

7. In hearing.

8. In finiſhing His Work.

9. In taking all Opportunities of doing Good.

3. Means.

1. Watch always over thy Heart, 1 S. Pet. v.
8. Prov. ix. 23.

2. Live ſtill as under the Eye of GOD,
Pſal. xiii. 9.

3. Conſider that thou art a Chriſtian.

I C O R. XI. 23.

For I have received of the Lord. —

TH E Sacrament of the Lord's-Supper is of Divine Institution.

I. What is a Sacrament? An Oath. Sacramento contendere pro jurejurando affirmare, Cicero.

Στεγλιωτικὸς ὅρκος, by Herodian, l. 8. is called;
Τῆς Ρωμαϊκῆς ἀρχῆς σέμνον μυστήριον.

In general, it is the visible Sign of an invisible Grace.

1. As G O D hath used Covenants, so also Sacraments always.

2. They are Part, not of His natural, but instituted Worship.

3. They are all Pledges of the Covenant of Grace.

4. They all represent Christ the Mediator,

1. To suffer,

2. Or having suffered.

5. In all Sacraments, there are two Parts:

1. The Thing signifying.

2. The Thing signified.

II. What is the Lord's-Supper?

A Sacrament, wherein the outward Signs are Bread and Wine.

III. What are we to understand by Divine Institution?

That it was instituted of G O D, as the other were not, which the Church of Rome maintain to be be Sacraments, viz. Confirmation, Orders, Penance, Matrimony, and Extreme-Unction.

IV. How does it appear to be of Divine Institution? S. Luk. xxii. 19, 20.

V. Wherefore was it instituted by GOD?

1. When GOD had made Man, he entred into a Covenant of Works with Him, Lev. xviii. 5.

2. This Covenant Man broke, and so became miserable.

3. Hence GOD, of His Mercy, enters into a Covenant of Grace, Jer. xxxi. 33.

4. This Covenant of Grace was established in Christ, Hebr. xii. 24. 2 Cor. i. 20.

5. This Covenant Man is also apt to miscarry in; so as,

1. To be forgetful of it.

2. Not to believe in it.

3. To receive no Benefit from it.

6. Hence GOD instituted this Sacrament.

1. To make us mindful of this Covenant and Christ, S. Luk. xxii. 19.

2. To confirm and seal it to us, Rom. iv.

II.

3. To convey the Benefits of it to us.

U S E S.

1. Be thankful for this Sacrament.

2. Do not neglect the Use of it.

3. Prepare yourselves for it.

1. Acquaint yourselves with the Nature of it.

2. Repent.

3. Act Faith in Christ.

In

In the following Words we have,

1. The Symbols and Rites of the Sacrament.
2. The Words added to the Rites.
3. The End.
4. The right Use of the Sacraments.

Two Things premised,

1. The Author, Jeſus Chriſt, whom he mentions ;

1. To ſhew us the Divine Authority of it.
2. To make us uſe it with Reverence.
3. That we may receive the more Comfort from it.

2. The Time. In the ſame Night. He was betrayed ; παρεδίδωτο.

1. Traditus à Patre, Rom. viii. 32. παρίδωκεν αὐτόν.

2. Proditus à Juda, Mar. xiv. 10. ἵνα παραδῷ αὐτόν.

But why not ſooner ?

1. Becauſe it ſucceeded the Paſſover.
2. Becauſe it might be his laſt Will and Teſtament.
3. That we may remember His Death.

This premised : Here is,

1. The Rites or Symbols.

1. He took Bread ; Not Himſelf.

2. He gave Thanks ; Εὐχαριſτήſας,
1 Tim. iv. 4, 5. Εὐλογήſας, and both.

So we ſhould give Thanks,

1. For GOD's Love in ſending Chriſt.
2. For Chriſt's Love in coming.
3. For the Benefits we have by His Death.
4. For our Admittance to the Sacrament.

3. He

3. He brake it ; κλάσας τὸ ἄρτον, Act.
 iv. 20. to signify that His Body was broken for our Sins,
Isa. liii. 4, 5.

U S E S.

1. Be thankful for this Sacrament.
2. Address yourselves aright to it. That is,
 1. With Fear and Reverence.
 Considering,
 1. G O D's Greatness, Job xlii. 5, 6.
 2. Our Vileness, Isa. vi. 5.
 2. With Sorrow and Repentance.
 Considering,
 1. Our Sins.
 2. Christ's Sufferings.
 3. With Faith and Confidence.
 Considering,
 1. G O D's Promise.
 2. Christ's Intercession.

I C O R. xi. 24.

---- And said, Take, eat. ----

IT is the Disciples of Christ only, that should take and eat, S. Matth. xxvi. 26.

I. Who are Christ's Disciples?

He that,

1. Knows G O D, in His Existence and Properties.

2. That knows Christ.

3. Believes in Christ.

1. That He was begotten of G O D His Father from Eternity, and so was G O D.

2. Born of the Virgin His Mother in Time, and so was Man.

3. That He suffered for the Sins of Men, and so is a Saviour.

4. That He fulfilled the Prophecies of the Old Testament, and so is the Messiah.

5. That He now intercedes for us, and so is our Mediator.

4. Believes in the Trinity, S. Matth. xxviii. 19.

5. Makes Profession of this Belief.

So as,

1. Not to deny Him in Word, S. Matth. x. 32, 33.

2. Nor in Deed, 1 Tit. i. 16.

II. R E A S O N S.

1. Because the Sacrament is a Pledge and Badge of our Christian Religion.

2. None can be worthy Partakers of it, without they be Disciples.
3. Our Saviour Himself commands we be first Disciples, and then baptized,
S. Matth. xxviii. 19. Πορευθέντες ἐν, μαθητεύσατε πάντα τὰ ἔθνη.

U S E S.

1. Be Christ's Disciples.
2. Live like Christ's Disciples.
 1. Believing on Him.
 2. Loving Him, S. Luk. xiv. 26.
 3. Obeying Him.

And He said, Take, eat, ἄγετε, φάγετε.

1. Take. Non ore sed manu. So S. Cyprian saith, Populum sacra mysteria propriis manibus accepisse à Diaconis.

How should we take it?

1. Knowingly, 1 Cor. xi. 29.
 1. What it is in itself; Bread, 1 Cor. x. 16.
 2. What it represents unto us; the Body of Christ. Hac oblatio est figura corporis & sanguinis Domini nostri Jesu Christi. S. Ambros.
2. Humbly. Considering,
 1. G O D's Greatness that gives.
 2. Our Vileness that do receive, Isa. vi. 5.
3. Believingly.
 1. That Christ is really present with us, S. Matth. xviii. 20.
 2. Doth really offer His Body to us.
 3. That if we worthily receive, we are really Partakers of all the Merits of His Death and Passion, 1 Cor. x. 16.

So

So that,

1. Our Sins ſhall be pardoned, S. Matth.
xxvi. 28.
2. Our Natures cleansed, Act. iii. 26.
4. Thankfully.
 1. That He was pleaſed to offer Himſelf for us.
 2. That He is now pleaſed to offer Himſelf to us.

Obſerve,

2. Eat, not take and lay up; not take and carry about; break, not take and worſhip; but take and eat.
2. Take and eat Bread, not yet my Body:
 1. With Repentance, Exod. xii. 8.
 2. Faith.
 3. Thankſgiving, 1 Tim. iv. 4, 5.

U S E S.

1. Prepare yourſelves for this ſpiritual Banquet.
2. Receive it with Faith.
3. Feed with Thankfulneſs.
4. Endeavour to get that Nouriſhment from it, as to ſerve GOD better hereafter.

I COR. XI. 24.

---- This is my Body, &c.

WHAT are we to understand by these Words, This is my Body?

I. Negatively. Not that it is really the Body of Christ, or transubstantiated. This Error was broached by Damascene and Amalarius; opposed by a Synod at Constantinople of 338 Bishops, in the East: Paschasius, Radbertus, Bertrannus, Johannes Scotus Erigena, and Berengarius, in the West. The Word Transubstantiation, coined in the Lateran Council, anno 1215. Transubstantiatis pane in corpus, vino in sanguinem.

This,

1. Is not grounded on Scripture.

1. Not on S. Joh. vi. 55. For,

1. These Words were said before the Sacrament was instituted, ver. 4.

2. This doth not prove Bread to be turn'd into Christ's Body, but Christ's Body into Flesh.

3. These Words are to be understood spiritually, v. 50, 51, 56. "Α λέγει, ἐκ ὧν σαρκινὰ, ἀπὸ πνευματικὰ, S. Athanas.

2. Not on I Cor. xi. 24. [See Gen. xli. 26. Dan. ii. 38. I Cor. x. 4.]

2. Contrary to the Scriptures, as τὸτο τὸ σῶμα μου, nothing can be the Antecedent to this, but Bread; for the Body of Christ was not yet consecrated.

[See I Cor. xi. 25. S. Matth. xxvi. 20. I Cor. x. 16.]

3. It

3. It takes away the Nature of the Sacrament, there being no Sign.

II. Positively. This is my Body; that is, the Sign and Sacrament of my Body. [See Gen. xvii. 10, 11. Exod. xii. 11.] Hoc est corpus meum, id est, figura corporis mei. Tertull.

Non enim Dominus dubitavit dicere, hoc est corpus meum, cum signum daret corporis sui. S. Aug.

Which was broken for you.

1. How broken? Bruis'd, pierc'd, S. Joh. xix. 33, 34. He suffered Torment.

2. For what?

1. G O D is our Governour.

2. Hath given us Laws to observe, Gen. xxvi. 5.

3. Annexed Promises and Threatnings to His Laws, Lev. xviii. 5. Gal. iii. 10.

4. Man hath broken these Laws, Psal. xiv. 22.

5. And so is obliged to the Punishments.

6. These Punishments He cannot bear, without being eternally Miserable, S. Matt. xxv. 46.

7. Hence Christ, the Son of G O D, undertakes to bear them for him, Isa. xxxiii. 4, 6.

8. This He could not do, unless He became Man.

9. Neither must He be Man only, but He must suffer, Hebr. ix. 22.

10. These His Sufferings are the Things represented by the Bread and Wine.

3. For whom? Believers, S. Joh. iii. 16.

4. What Benefits have we by these Sufferings?

1. It is only by them our Sins can be pardoned, S. Matth. xxvi. 28.
2. G O D reconciled, Rom. v. 1.
3. Our Natures renewed, Act. iii. 26.
4. Our Souls saved, Hebr. ii. 10. and v. 9.

U S E S.

1. Admire the Love of Christ in Dying for us.
2. Be always mindful of it.
3. Frequent the Sacraments, especially appointed to put us in mind of it, but come preparedly.
 1. Penitently.
 2. Believingly.
 3. Charitably.

I C O R. xi. 24, &c.

--- Do this in Remembrance of Me.

Here is,

- I. A Duty. This do.
II. The End. In remembrance of Me.

I. The Duty. This do.

1. What must we do?

1. The Minister must,

1. Take Bread.

2. Bless it.

3. Break it.

4. Give it to the Disciples, S. Matth.
xxvi. 26.

The People must,

1. Take it.

2. Eat it.

2. How must we do this?

1. Understandingly, 1 Cor. xi. 29.

2. Penitently, Exod. xii. 8.

3. Believingly, Hebr. xi. 5.

1. That Christ is really present, S. Matth.
xviii. 20.

2. Really died for Sin, Rom. iv. 24, 25.

3. Really offers His Merits to us.

4. Will really nourish our Souls to eternal Life, S. Joh. vi. 55.

4. Reverently, Ecclef. v. 1.

5. Charitably, S. Matth. v. 23, 24.

6. Joyfully.

7. Thankfully.

II. The End. In remembrance of Me.

We are to remember,

1. What He was from Eternity, GOD, Rom. ix. 5.
2. What He became, Man, S. Joh. i. 4.
3. What He did, and how He lived.
 1. Humbly, S. Matth. xi. 29.
 2. Charitably.
 3. Righteously, 1 S. Pet. ii. 22. S. Matth. iii. 15.
 4. Inoffensively, S. Matth. xvii. 27.
 5. Obedientially.
4. What He suffered.
 1. Contempt, Isa. liii. 3.
 2. Pain in His Body, Isa. liii. 3.
 3. Grief of Heart, S. Matth. xxvi. 37. S. Luk. xxii. 44.
 4. Death.
 1. A shameful,
 2. A painful,
 3. A cursed Death, Gal. iii. 13.
5. Whom He suffered so much for ; For us, Isa. liii. 5, 6.
6. What Benefit we have by it.
 1. Pardon, Rom. v. 1.
 2. Reconciliation to GOD, 2 Cor. v. 18.
 3. Mortification of Sin, Rom. viii. 1, 2. S. Matth. i. 21.
 4. Grace here.
 5. Glory hereafter, S. Joh. iii. 16.
7. What He did after His Death.
 1. He rose again, Rom. iv. 25.
 2. Ascended, Act. i. 11.
 3. Sits at the Right Hand of GOD, Rom. viii. 34.

4. Maketh Interceſſion for us, 1 3. Joh. ii.
1, 2.

5. Will e'er long come and judge us,
2 Cor. v. 10.

For Preparation ;

1. Review your Lives.

2. Examine your Hearts, 1 Cor. xi. 28.

1. The Strength of your Sins.

2. The Growth of your Graces.

3. Pray to GOD for His Aſſiſtance.

I C O R. xi. 26.

For as oft as ye eat this Bread, and drink this Cup, ye do ſhew the Lord's Death till He come.

I. O B S E R V A T I O N.

IT is Bread we eat, and Wine we drink, in the Sacrament, not the real Body and Blood of Chriſt.

II. O B S E R V A T I O N.

We are to eat this Bread, and drink this Cup.

1. What is it to eat this Bread, and drink this Cup ?

1. To ſave loſt Man, the Son of G O D aſſumed the Humane Nature, Gal. iv.

4, 5.

2. Being Man, our Sins were laid on Him,
Iſa. liii. 6.

3. Hence He came to ſuffer, Iſa. liii. 5.

4. It

4. It is only by His Sufferings that our Sins can be pardoned, Col. i. 14.
5. We can have no Benefit by His Sufferings, unless we believe, S. Job. iii. 16, 18.
6. We cannot believe on Him aright, unless we often think of Him.
7. Hence, that we might often call Him to mind, the Sacrament of the LORD's Supper was ordained, wherein every Circumstance represents something of Christ; 1 Cor. xi. 24.
 1. The Consecration, Act. ii. 23.
 2. The Bread, His Body.
 3. The Breaking of the Bread, Isa. liii. 5.
 4. The Wine, His Blood, S. Matth. xxvi. 28.
 5. The Pouring forth of the Wine, S. Job. xix. 34.
 6. The Offering of both to the Receiver, Isa. lv. 1.
8. Therefore, the right eating this Bread, and drinking this Cup, consisteth in three Things.
 1. In remembering Christ.
 1. What He was from Eternity ; GOD, S. Job. i. 1.
 2. What He became in Time ; Man, S. Job. i. 12.
 3. What He did ; Miracles, Act. x. 38.
 4. What He suffered.
 1. Reproach in His Name, S. Matth. xxvi. 65. and xxvii. 29.
 2. Grief in His Heart, S. Matth. xxvi. 38.
 3. Pain in His Body, S. Matth. xxvii. 29, 30, 31.
 4. Death

4. Death itſelf, the Death of the Croſs, Phil. ii. 8.
2. In aſſenting to theſe Things, we remember, 1 S. Joh. v. 9, 10.
3. In applying the Benefits of them to ourſelves.
 1. Remiſſion of Sins, Col. i. 14.
 2. Juſtification, 2 Cor. v. ult.
 3. Inherent Holineſs, Act. iii. 26.
 4. The Favour of GOD here, Rom. v. 1.
 5. The Salvation of our Souls hereafter, S. Joh. iii. 16.

III. We ought to eat this Bread, and drink this Cup often.

This appears,

1. From Chriſt's Command, S. Luk. xxii. 19.
2. From the Practice of the Primitive Church, and of the Apoſtles.

Eucharistiæ Sacramentum in omnibus mandatum à Domino, etiam antelucanis cætibus, Tertull.

Τῇ τῷ ἡλίῳ λεγομένη ἡμέρᾳ, Just. Mart.

S. Chrysostom calls it, καθημερινὴν θυσίαν.

Eucharistiam quotidie ad cibum salutis accipimus, S. Cyprian.

S. Basil received four Times a Week, but ſaith, that to receive it every Day, is καλὸν καὶ ὑποφελές.

The Apoſtles received it every Day, Act. ii. 46. or, at leaſt, upon the LORD's Day, Act. xx. 7.

3. From the End of the Sacrament.

1. To repreſent Chriſt's Death to us, 1 Cor. xi. 26.
2. To ſeal it, Rom. iv. 11.

3. To

3. To convey it, S. Joh. vi. 53, 54, 55.
4. From the Necessity of frequent Communion.
 1. To manifest ourselves to be Christians.
 2. To enable us to walk as such, S. Joh. vi. 56. and xv. 5.

I COR. XI. 28.

But let a Man examine himself, and so let him eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup.

THese Words shew how we should be prepar'd for a worthy Receiving the Blessed Sacrament. Let a Man examine, &c. δοκιμαζέτω.

Wherefore examine,

- I. Your Knowledge.
- II. Repentance.
- III. Faith.

I. Knowledge, 1 Cor. xi. 29.

We are to know,

1. The Author; Christ who was Author, 1 Cor. xi. 23.

1. Not as G O D.

2. Nor as Man.

3. But as G O D-Man, and Head of the Church.

1. It is corrupt.

2. GOD hath given you Means whereby to do it.

3. You have continued in your Sins too long already, Rom. xiii. 11. 1 S. Pet. iv. 3. And the longer you keep it on, the worse it will be.

4. It is a thing that must be done, or you undone for ever; for the new Man cannot be put on, till the old be put off.

EPHES.

E P H E S. iv. 23.

And be renewed in the Spirit of your Mind.

I. WHAT is the Spirit of the Mind?

The whole Soul; not only the inferior Faculties, but supreme too; the Mind, and so the whole Man.

3. That hath only a natural, this a moral Excellency, and actually glorifies GOD.

2. It is created after GOD in His Likeness, *1 S. Pet. i. 15.*3. It partakes of the Divine Nature, *2 S. Pet. i. 4.*4. It prepares a Man for every good Work, *Ephes. ii. 10.*5. It inclines the Soul wholly to GOD, 2 Cor. v. 14.

6. It lifts a Man above himself, and so makes him happy even here.

we are not capable of Happiness.
 1. Because of GOD's Decree, Hebr. xii. 14. S. Luk. xiii. 3.

Object. It is only GOD's Work, Ephes. iv. 20, 21.

PHIL. iii. 1.

Finally, my Brethren, rejoice in the Lord. -----

IT is GOD's Will that we should rejoice in Him.

I. What is it to rejoice?

Delight is the Soul's Acquiescence, or Resting itself, in what it apprehends to be Good.

There is a two-fold Delight.

Διηρόδωσαν ὃ αἱ ψυχικαὶ καὶ αἱ σωματικαί, Aristot. Ethic. l. 3.

1. Bodily or Sensitive, call'd Pleasure; which proceeds from some Impression made by a suitable Object upon the Senses. Of which note,

1. This in itself is not sinful, because both the Sense and Object, and the Suitableness of them, were all made by GOD.

2. Hence it is permitted by GOD, Eccles. iii. 22. and v. 19.

3. But corrupt Man is too apt to sin in those sensitive Pleasures.

1. Either in the unlawful Object, Psal. lxi. 4.

2. Or else in the Manner, by Excessiveness, S. Jud. ver. 12.

2. Rational or Spiritual Joy, seated in the Soul itself.

Οἷον φιλοψυχία, φιλομάθεια, Aristot.

II. What is it to rejoice in the Lord?

1. GOD was pleased at first to order the Soul of Man so, that it had a natural Tendency and Suitableness to the Nature of GOD.

2. But

2. But the Soul being diſordered by Sin, is apt to rejoice in nothing but Externals.

3. It is therefore GOD's Will, that we labour after our Primitive Perfection and Joys, ſo as to delight ourſelves in Him and His.

1. In Him:

1. As GOD.

2. As our GOD, Pſal. xxviii. 7. Deut. xii. 12, 18.

2. In His:

1. His Works, Pſal. civ. 31.

2. His Word, Pſal. i. 2. and cxix. 103.

3. His Properties.

1. Goodneſs, S. Luk. xviii. 19.

2. Mercy.

3. Juſtice.

4. Power, Pſal. lxxiii. 5, 6, 7.

5. Wiſdom.

6. Truth.

7. Immenſity and Omnipreſence.

III. How doth it appear, that we ought, and may thus rejoice?

1. From Scripture.

1. From GOD's Commands, Pſal. xxxii. 11. Phil. iv. 4.

2. Our Saviour prays for it, S. Job. xvii. 13.

3. This is one great End of His Promiſes, Rom. xv. 4.

4. It is one End of the Miniſtry, Iſa. lii. 7. Rom. x. 15. 2 Cor. i. 24.

5. It is the End of Chriſt's ſending His Spirit, S. Job. xvi. 7.

The Spirit comforts us,

1. By renewing us.

2. By convincing us it is our Duty, S. Job. xvi. 9.

3. By witnessing our Adoption, Gal. iv. 6.
4. By blessing his Ordinances to us.
5. By bringing and directing us to Christ for it, S. Joh. xiv. 26.
6. By weaning us from fleshly Delights.
7. By powerful working Comfort in us, Gal. v. 22.

6. This was the End of Christ's Coming.

2. From Reason.

1. It is certain, that we should rejoice, because GOD hath given us that Power.
2. It is as certain, there is nothing in this World that we can have any solid Joy in, because not suitable to the Soul.
3. And then there is none, but GOD, we can rationally rejoice in.

Objeſt. But doth not GOD command us sometimes to weep and mourn? Eccleſ. iii. 4. Iſa. xxii. 12. Jeſ. ii. 12, 13.

Anſw. 1. This Sorrow conſiſteth not in abſtaining from ſpiritual, but natural Joy.

2. It maketh way for ſpiritual Joy.

3. It ſhould be accompanied with it, Pſal. ii. 11.

III. Forgiveness of Sins is one of the great Benefits we receive by Christ's Blood.

1. What

1. What is Sin?

1. Habitual, Rom. viii. 17, 18.

3. To Man mixt of both.

2. These Laws are either, (Psal. xxxvii. 27.)

1. Negative.

2. Affirmative.

3. As some Angels, so all Men transgress these Laws, Rom. iii. 23.

4. This Transgression is properly Sin.

2. How many Things are there to be considered in Sin?

1. Difformity to the Law, 1 S. Joh. iii. 4.

2. Privation of Righteousness, Eccles. vii. 29. Not removed by Remission.

3. Offence to GOD, Psal. xcv. 10. 2 Sam. xi. 27.

4. Turning from GOD, Exod. xxxii. 8. Isa. lix. 2.

2. The Nature.

Forgiveness of Sin is an Act of GOD's Grace, whereby He absolves us from the Obligation to such Punishments, as Himself hath threaten'd against those Sins that are committed by us.

Three Things premised.

1. Remission is not the same that Mortification.
2. It is put for Justification, Synechdochically, Rom. iv. 6, 7, 8.
3. Yet is not the whole of it, Rom. iv. 25.
In the Definition observe,
1. The general Nature; an Act of GOD's Grace.

1. An Act.

2. Of GOD.

1. It is aſcribed to Him alone,

2. It is of His Grace, that we have Faith to apply Chriſt to us,

3. It is of His Grace to accept it.

2. The ſpecifical Difference.

Whereby He abſolves us, &c.

wards and Punishments; Deut.
xxx. 15, 16, &c.

3. We have broken the Laws, Rom.
iii. 23.

4. And

4. And so are obliged to the Punishments.

5. Yet GOD of His Mercy doth not punish us, Exod. xxxiv. 6, 7.

6. Nay, He takes away our very Obligation to those Punishments, Psal. xxxii. 1. And this is properly Remission.

4. Why GOD pardons Sins on the Account of Christ.

1. GOD in Mercy pities Man's Misery, Isa. lxiii. 9. Hos. xi. 8.

2. His Justice calls for the Execution of His Laws.

3. Hence Christ undertakes to accomplish His Mercy, and satisfy His Justice.

3. GOD accepts of these Sufferings for our Sins, Isa. liii. 4, 5, 6, 11, 12. Rom. v. 8.

4. Therefore looks upon His Justice as satisfied, Ephes. v. 2.

5. And so pardons us Sinners, Psal. xcix. 8.

5. What is required of us, to partake of this Forgiveness?

1. Repentance, Ezek. xviii. 30. Act. ii. 38.

2. Faith, Act. x. 43. and xiii. 38, 39.

Whereby,

1. We lay hold on Christ.

I TIM. ii. 1, 2, 3.

Ver. 1. I exhort therefore, that first of all, Supplications, Prayers, Intercessions, and Giving of Thanks be made for all Men :

Ver. 2. For Kings, and for all that are in Authority ; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable Life in all Godliness and Honesty.

Ver. 3. For this is good and acceptable in the Sight of GOD our Saviour.

T*Imothy* being preferred to be Pastor of Ephesus, and so the Ambassador of the Lord of Hosts to his People there, the Apostle thinks fit to instruct him in the way, and to shew him the Duties that lay upon him. Having therefore, in the first Chapter, exhorted him to suppress Errors, and uphold the Truth, in this he enters upon the other Part of his ministerial Function, viz. Prayer ; and in particular, that I may not discourage your Attention with any tedious Preface, in these Words we find these Four Things,

I. Apostolum exhortantem ; I exhort.

II. Exhortationis subjectum ; To pray for others, which is farther set forth,

1. Ab enumeratione partium ; which are four :

1. Δεήσεις, Supplications, or rather Deprécations.

2. Προσῆχαι, Prayers, or Petitions.

3. Ἑνδιξείς, Intercessions.

4. Εὐχαριστία, Thanksgivings.

2. Ab objecto.

1. Generali ; for all.

2. Particulari ; for Kings and all in Authority.

III. Subjeḗti hujusce prioritatem ; first of all, παρακαλῶ ἐν πρῶτον πάντων.

IV. Argumentum aut exhortationis rationem ; two-fold,

1. Ab utili.

2. A commodo.

1. It is the Duty of Elders to instruct their Juniors.

2. GOD is pleased so far to condescend to His Creatures, that He doth not always deal with them by Command, but sometimes, yea, often by Exhortation.

3. In our Addresses to the Throne of Grace, we are not to be mindful of ourselves only, but of others too.

1. We are to make others Sharers in every Part of our Prayers.

2. To that end, we are to observe GOD's Dispensations to others, as well as to ourselves.

1. It is not only for our Friends and Relations, or for this, or that Sort, that we are to pray, but for all.

2. We

2. We are in a more eſpecial manner to pray for ſuch as ſit at the Stern, and are in Authority.
4. We are to be ſo careful of this Duty, as to place it in the Fore-front.
5. It is the Duty of Governours to endeavour the Peace and Quietneſs of their Subjects: And they are ſo to look to the Peace and Quietneſs of their Subjects, that this Peace and Quietneſs ſtill be joined with Godlineſs and Honesty.
6. That the People that would live quiet and peaceable Lives in all Godlineſs and Honesty, under their Governours, muſt be often ſoliciting the Throne of Grace for it; for,
 1. Thus to pray for others, and eſpecially for Governours, is a good Thing. 'Tis good,
 1. Materially, formally, finally, effectually.
 2. As 'tis good in itſelf, ſo it is acceptable in the Sight of GOD.
 3. Its being ſo ought to ſtir us up to the Performance of it.
7. In the Performance of every Duty, we are to look to the pleaſing of GOD, and to have a Care that what we do be good and acceptable in His Sight.

I TIM. ii. 5.

For there is One GOD, and One Mediator between GOD and Men, the Man Christ Jesus.

DOCTRINE I.

Jesus Christ is Man, as well as GOD, in One Person.

1. That He is GOD.

1. He had a Being before born, S. Joh. xvi. 27, 28.

2. He was before the World, S. Joh. i. 3. Coloss. i. 16.

Πάτερ Θεῶν ἔλω ἀμείβεσθαι ἀτέρμονι σωθέντων ἑδρην, Norvig.

Φωτίζετο τὸν κάτω κόσμον καὶ ἀπὸ Μαρίας ἀρχομήν, Greg. Nazianz.

3. This His Being was truly Divine, S. Joh. i. 1, 2. 1 S. Joh. v. 20. Rom. ix. 5.

Quod essent soliti statim die ante lucem convenire, carmenque Christo quasi Deo dicere, Plin. Epist. ad Trajan.

4. This His Divine Nature was the same with the Father's, Phil. ii. 6, 7. Isa. xl. 25.

5. This Christ received of the Father, S. Joh. v. 26.

Pater vita in semetipso, non à Filio; Filius vita in semetipso, sed à Patre, S. August.

Θεὸς ἐκ Θεῶν, ὡς ἐκ φωτός, πατὴρ μὲν γὰρ ὢν ὁ ἐτέρω τῷ υἱῷ καὶ τῷ ὁμοίαν ἑαυτοῦ φύσιν τῷ ἀρχῇ παλαιῶν, S. Basil.

2. He

2. He is Man as well as G O D.

1. He had a Body, Hebr. ii. 14. S. Joh. i. 14. S. Luk. xxiv. 39. 1 S. Joh. iv. 3.

Simon Magus, Saturnus, Isidorus, Secundus, Marcians, Heraclionita, Ophita, Cerdon, Marcion, &c. these were δοκῆσαι ἢ παντασiasαι, supposing Christ to have no real Body.

2. A Soul, S. Luk. ii. 52. S. Matth. xxvi. 38. S. Luk. xxiii. 46.

Arius and Eunomius said, Θεότης ψυχῆς ἐνεργεῖναι τὴν χρεῖαν, Theodoret.

3. This Soul and Body He had by the Power of the Holy Ghost, S. Luk. i. 35. and iii. 23.

3. He is both G O D and Man, and yet but One Christ or Mediator.

Ὁ λόγος, ὁ μόνος ἀμφὶ Θεός τε καὶ ἄνθρωπος, Clem. Alex.

So that,

1. His Natures were not mix'd
2. Nor changed one into the other.

Ἀσυγχύτως, ἀτρέπτως, ἀδιαρέτως, ἀχωείως, Concil. Chalced. Act. xx. 28. Isa. vii. 14. S. Matth. i. 23.

II. This Christ is the One Mediator between G O D and Man.

1. G O D and Man are at odds, Rom v. 10.
2. No Man can reconcile them, 1 Sam. ii. 25. Job ix. 32, 33.
3. Hence Christ alone could do it, as alone G O D and Man.

1. On G O D's Part, Hebr. v. 1.

1. By Satisfying, Hebr. ii. 10. 1 Tim. iv. 6. ἀντίλυτρον ὑπὲρ πάντων.

2. By Interceding, 1 S. Joh. ii. 1. Hebr. vii. 25.
2. On our Part, by giving us his Spirit, Coloss. i. 19. S. Joh. i. 16.

U S E S.

1. Comfort, 1 S. Joh. ii. 1. Rom. viii. 33.
2. Exhortation.
 1. Bless GOD for this great Mercy.
 2. Often think of Christ.
 3. Rejoice in Him with Spiritual Joy, 1 S. Pet. i. 8. S. Luk. xlv. 47. and ii. 24.

DOCTRINE II.

Christ, as GOD-Man, was our Mediator, and therefore was anointed to be a Priest, a Prophet, and a King.

1. Christ was a Priest, Psal. cx. 4. Hebr. vii. 13, &c.

Here I might shew,

1. That He was the only Priest that offered Sacrifice upon the Altar for our Sins, as GOD-Man.
2. He was the Sacrifice, that was offered upon the Altar, Isa. liii. 10. as Man.
3. He was the Altar, upon which the Sacrifice was offered, Hebr. xiii. 10. as GOD.

But I shall rather shew you what Christ was to do, and did for us, as He was our Priest.

1. He made Satisfaction to GOD's Justice for us.

Now, there were two Things wherein GOD's Justice should be satisfied.

1. It required Punishment of our past Sins.

2. Per-

2. Perfection of our future Life.

Now, Christ, as our Mediator, did both these Things for us.

1. By His passive,
2. By His active, Obedience. By the first, He satisfied GOD's Justice :
By the second, He purchased
His Favour for us.

1. His passive Obedience, which was His undergoing all those Punishments, which were due to us for our Sins. He suffered,

1. In His Life, S. Matth. iv. 2.
S. Joh. iv. 6.

2. At His Death.

1. In His Body, S. Matth.
xxvii. 30, 38. Gal. iii. 13.

2. In His Soul, S. Luk. xxii.
44. Isa. liii. 10. S. Matt.
xxvii. 46.

And all this Christ did not suffer for Himself, but for us ; and though He suffered but as Man, yet seeing the same Person that suffered; was both GOD and Man, it thence follows, that His Sufferings were more than if all the Men in the World had suffered for ever.

U S E S.

1. Loath thyself for Sin.
2. Admire the Love of Christ.

3. As Christ died for Sin, do you die to it. Let not that Sin live in you, that forc'd Christ to die for you.
4. As Christ died for you, do you live to Him.
2. His active Obedience, S. Matt. iii. 15. As by His passive Obedience, we are freed from the Guilt of Sin; so by His active Obedience, we are invested with Righteousness. By His Sufferings, He was made Sin for us; by His Obedience, we are made the Righteousness of GOD in Him, 2 Cor. v. 21.

U S E S.

Then let us not only lay hold upon what He suffered; but likewise, upon what He did for us.

2. He maketh Intercession for us, Rom. viii. 34.
 1. He maketh Request for us.
 2. Pleads our Cause, 1 S. Job. ii. 1.
 3. Presents our Prayers to GOD.
 4. Covers our Sins from GOD.

U S E S.

1. Then we need not fear falling away from Grace.
2. We may go with Boldness to the Throne of Grace.

2. A Prophet, Iſa. lxi. 1.
 1. To reveal the Will of GOD, S. Matth. xi. 27. S. Job. xv. 15.

2. Lead your Lives according to His Precepts and Example.

 1. By Donation.

 1. GOD the Father, S. Job. xli. 50.

 1. Repentance, 2 Tim. ii. 19.
 2. Faith, Rom. iii. 27. S. Mar. i. 15. 1 S. Job. iii. 23.
 5. What are the Penalties annex'd?
 1. The Wrath of GOD, S. Mar. ix. 44.
 2. The Worm of Conſcience.
 6. What Judges try all the Cauſes, and ſentence the Offenders in this Kingdom?
 1. The King Himſelf, S. Job. v. 22, 27.
 2. The Saints, 1 Cor. vi. 2.
 7. When doth this King bring His Subjects to the Bar?
 1. At the private Sessions of every Man's Death.

2. At

2. At the general Assize, the Judgment-Day; S. Matth. xii. 36.
3. What are the Honours, which He will bestow upon His faithful and loyal Subjects?
 1. They shall live in His own Court, S. Joh. xii. 26. and xvii. 24.
 2. Eat at His own Table, S. Luk. xxii. 30.
 3. And be themselves, as so many Kings and Priests in Him, and with Him, Rev. i. 6.

 5. That must crown you with Glory hereafter.

I T I M. iv. 8.

For bodily Exercise profiteth little; but Godliness is profitable unto all Things, having Promise of the Life that now is, and of that which is to come.

DOCTRINE.

Godliness is profitable to all Things. Ευσέβεια προς πάντα ὠφελιμὸς ἐστίν.

I. What is meant by Godliness?

It implies,

1. The Conformity of the Will of Man to the Will of G O D, 1 S. Pet. ii. 15.

2. Of the Life of Man to the Law of GOD,
Psal. cxix. 24.

1. In its Principles.

2. In its Matter.

3. In its Manner.

4. In its End of our Actions.

II. How is it profitable for all Things? That is,
It is the Way whereby we may attain whatsoever is really Good to us, and so it is profitable,

1. For the Soul:

1. In its Understanding and Judgment.

1. By drawing it from Errour.

2. By settling of it in necessary Truths.

2. In its Will, by undeceiving of it, and by fixing it upon what is really, and not only apparently, Good, and so

ſo in the right ordering of its Affections.

1. Love and Hatred, Pſal. cxix. 113. Amos v. 15.

5. Fear and Hope, Iſa. viii. 13.

6. Anger, Ephes. iv. 26.

2. To the Body.

1. In this Life, by preventing Diſeaſes; for as Sin is a formal Sickneſs to the Soul, ſo it is the Cauſe of Sickneſs to the Body; ſo that there had never been any Sickneſs in our Bodies, had there never been any Sin in our Souls. And beſides, the Judgment of GOD upon ſome Sins, do of themſelves, under GOD, raiſe Diſeaſes in our Bodies, as Adultery, Drunkenneſs, Intemperance.

2. In the other World, Phil. iii. 21. 1 Cor. xv. 42, 43, 44.

3. To our Names, Prov. x. 7.

1. By taking of our Ill-Name from us.

2. By putting a Good-Name upon us, Iſa. lvi. 5.

4. To our Enjoyments.

1. By improving what we have here, Prov. x. 22.

2. By aſſuring what we ſhall have hereafter, Prov. xxii. 4. which indeed are truly call'd Riches, 1 Tim. vi. 6.

1. They are true Riches, Prov. xxiii. 5. S. Luk. viii. 18.

2. Suitable.

3. Satisf-

3. Satisfying, 1 Cor. vii. 31. Pſal. xvii. 15.
4. Certain, Prov. xxiii. 5.
5. Neceſſary.
6. Durable, Prov. viii. 18.

U S E S.

1. Inferences. Hence obſerve,
 1. How fearfully worldly-minded Men are miſtaken in looking after Riches.
 2. Sin is good for nothing.

2. Example.

Signs,

1. Sincere eying the Will of GOD more than any Thing elſe in what we do ; more than,

 2. In the Life to come.
 7. How you will one Day wish you were so; they that despised Holiness here, will admire it hereafter.
 8. When Holy, you will have all Things you can desire.

I TIM. vi. '6.

But Godliness with Contentment is great Gain.

I. WHAT is Godliness?

1. Negatively.
 1. Not avoiding of Sin only.
 2. Nor a bare Profession of Religion.
 3. Nor performing outward Duties.
2. Positively.

But the Conformity of the Heart and Life of Man, to the revealed Will of GOD.

1. Of the Heart, and its Affections.
2. The Life, and its Actions.

II. To be ſo, is great Gain; we gain,

xiv. 24. 1 S. Pet. ii. 7. Τοῖς δὲ σοδοῦν ἢ τιμῇ.

3. Pleaſure.

We muſt add Contentment to Godlineſs.

I. What is Contentment? A gracious Diſpoſi-tion of the Soul, whereby it reſts fully ſatiſfied with whatſoever Condition GOD is pleaſed to place it in: To it is requiſite,

1. That we be not carkingly careful about the Things of this Life, S. Matth. vi. 25.

2. That we do not murmur at any Providence that befalls us.

ST. Paul was now near his End, at leaſt in his own Apprehenſion, ver. 6.

Hence he reflects upon his Life, Iſa. xxxviii. 3. and finds that he can give a good Account of it, and ſo expects Happineſs. I have fought a good Fight.

The Words contain a Deſcription of a Chriſtian's State in this Life and the next.

I. In this Life. The Chriſtian's Life is a Warfare; and,

1. He fights a good Fight; Good, becauſe in a good Cauſe, and becauſe it is well fought.

A good Fight. A Chriſtian's Life is frequently compar'd to a Warfare.

all Things.

4. After other Things, He made Man, and that after His own Image, Gen. i. 26.

5. This Man fell from that Eſtate of Happineſs, into Sin and Miſery, Eccleſ. vii. 29.

6. Of himſelf, he was unable to get out of it again.

7. Therefore, to manifeſt His Love to him, one of the Perſons, viz. the ſecond in the Trinity, undertook to ſuffer for his Sins, and ſo redeem him to Happineſs.

8. But ſeeing, as GOD, He could not ſuffer, Himſelf became Man.

9. He ſo became Man, as ſtill to remain
G O D.

10. And ſo is GOD and Man in one Perſon,
Iſa. vii. 14.

4. Why is it only by this Chriſt, we can come to GOD? S. Job. xiv. 6. Becauſe He alone was GOD and Man, and therefore by whom,

1. Our Sins can be pardoned.

2. Our Perſons juſtified, Gal. ii. 16.

3. Our Hearts purified.

4. Our GOD reconciled, Rom. v. 1.

U S E S.1. Bless GOD.

1. For sending Christ to die for you, and for all He did.
2. For revealing Him to you, as at this time.

2. Come to GOD.1. Motives. Consider,

1. GOD hath found out a Way, whereby ye may come unto Him.
2. GOD Himself came to you, that you might come to Him.
3. Unless you come unto Him, you cannot expect a Blessing from Him.
4. Unless you come unto Him here, you must go from Him hereafter, S. Matt. xxv. 41.
5. Come to Him in Time, and live with Him to Eternity, S. Matth. xi. 28.

2. Directions. Come,

1. Sincerely.
2. Resolvedly, Psal. xxxix. 1.
3. Humbly, Mich. vi. 8.
4. Wholly.
5. Incontinently, Psal. xcv. 7.
6. Believingly; come in Christ, believing that through Him, ye shall be accepted.

DOCTRINE II.

Christ is an All-sufficient Saviour, or able to save us to the utmost.

I. What is it, to save to the utmost? Εἰς τὸ πάντεσσι.

1. To the End; in eternum, as the Syr.

2. Per-

2. Perfectly ; ad extremitatem perfectionis, as the Arab. so that all comes from Him ; He can,

1. Begin it, Hebr. xii. 2.
2. Carry it on.
3. Perfect our Salvation, Hebr. xii. 2.

II. How to the utmost ? He saves,

1. From all Evil.

2. To all Good.

1. From the Evil,

1. Of Sin.

2. Of Misery.

1. From the Evil of Sin, S. Matth. i. 21.
Act. iii. 26.

2. Evils in Sin.

1. Guilt.

2. Strength. Christ saves from both.

1. From the Guilt.

1. What is Guilt ? Know and consider, that Sin,

1. Depriveth thee of former Innocency.

2. Polluteth with Filth, S. Matth. xv. 20.

3. It turns the Soul from G O D.

4. It offends G O D.

5. It transgresseth the Law,
1 S. Joh. iii. 4.

6. It deserveth Punishment.

7. It actually obligeth a Man to the bearing of it, and this is that we call Guilt, when a Man is actually obliged to Punishment.

2. How

2. How doth it appear, that Christ saves us from the Guilt of Sin?

1. Because in Christ we are pardoned, which properly lies in taking away the Guilt of Sin, or its actual Ordination to Punishment, Ephes. iv. 32.

2. GOD is reconciled in Christ, Rom. v. 1.

3. Our Persons are justified in Christ, Gal. ii. 16.

3. How doth Christ do this to save us from Guilt?

By bearing the Punishment which our Sins obliged us to.

For the opening of this, consider,

1. Christ was GOD and Man.

2. Both in One Person.

3. This G O D - Man suffered, Isa. liii. 3.

1. In His Life,

1. From Satan, S. Matth. iv.

2. From Men.

2. At His Death; yea,

1. A cruel,

2. A cursed, Gal. iii. 10.

3. An ignominious, Isa. liii. 3.

4. A voluntary Death; for He caused them to live, whilst they brought him to Death.

4. Seeing the Person thus suffering was G O D as well as Man, these His Sufferings were more and of a greater Value, than if all the Men in the World had suffered.

5. These

5. These Sufferings were only upon the Account of Men, Isa. liii. 4, 5.

Not,

1. For Himself, Hebr. ii. 16.
2. The Angels.
3. Devils.

6. Such as believe in this Christ, GOD accepts of His Sufferings, as undergone for their Sins.

7. The Punishment of their Sins being thus undergone, their Obligation to it is taken away, and so Christ saves us from the Guilt of Sin.

U S E S.

1. Information.

1. See here the odious Nature of Sin, Psal. v. 9. Prov. xv. 8.
2. The Justice, Mercy, and Wisdom of GOD, in the Pardon of it.

2. Exhortation.

1. Bewail those Sins that Christ suffered so much for.
2. Endeavour to turn from them.
3. Lay hold upon Christ for the Pardon of them.

Considering,

1. You are guilty of many and great ones, Ezra ix. 6.
2. There is not the least, but deserves Hell.
3. There is no way for them to be pardoned, but by Christ.
4. Come to Christ, and He will save you from them.

DOCTRINE

DOCTRINE III.

But farther to explain the All-sufficiency of Christ to save us, let it be consider'd,

I. That Christ is able to make us Holy.

1. What is Holiness?

It is a sincere and constant Obédience to all the Commands of GOD.

1. It is the Obedience; to which is required,

1. The Knowledge of what is commanded.

2. The doing of what we know to be so commanded.

3. Our therefore doing it, because commanded. Believe, quia ipse dixit; obey, quia ipse voluit.

2. It is sincere; for,

1. It is not necessary it should be perfect.

2. But it is, that it should not be hypocritical; so that, if it be not sincere, it is not Obedience; to Sincerity is required,

1. A right Principle.

2. Right Ends.

3. Constant, Psal. cxix. 112.

4. To the Commands of GOD, not Men.

5. To all the Commands, Psal. cxix. 6.

1. Of the Law.

1. Of the first Table.

2. Of the second Table.

2. Of the Gospel, S. Matth. v. 44.

2. How doth it appear, that Christ can make us Holy?

1. He is our Sanctification, 1 Cor. i. 30, 2.

2. He came on Purpose, Act. iii. 26.

3. He

3. He can bring us to Heaven, Hebr. xii. 14.
3. How doth Christ do this for us?
 Know,
 1. All are Sinners.
 2. None can make himself Holy.
 3. Christ undertook it for us.
 4. And therefore pours forth His Spirit upon us.
 1. To enlighten our Minds, S. Job. xiv. 26.
 2. To rectify our Wills and Affections.

U S E S.

1. Consolation, S. Matth. xi. 28.

 you to do it.

 2. What Means He hath given you for the Attainment of it.
 1. His Ordinances.
 2. His Providences, Hebr. xii. 10.
 3. How much Christ hath done to purchase it for you.
 4. How miserable you are until you have it.
 5. How happy with it.

2. A perfect Subjection and Death of all Sin.

3. A Perfection of all Grace.

4. Perfect Vision and Fruition of GOD, 1 Cor. xiii. 17.

2. How doth it appear?

Because He ever lives to make Intercession for us. Where consider,

1. How appears it, that He makes Intercession? Isa. liii. 12. Rom. viii. 34. 1 S. Job. ii. 1.

2. How doth He intercede? Know,

1. Christ died.

2. After, He rose again.

3. After

3. After forty Days, He ascended up to Heaven.

4. There He hath been ever since, and is now.

5. He is not there for nothing, but performing Part of His Priestly-Office, interceding for us.

1. Making Request for us, shewing His Blood He offered, Hebr. ix. 24, 25, 26.

2. Defending us from all Accusations.

HEBR. XI. 5.

~~-----~~ For, before his Translation, he had this Testimony, that he pleased GOD.

THIS Chapter may well be call'd Fidei encomium; A Chapter made in the Praise of Faith. In the first Verse, there is the Nature of Faith described; in the second, the Description of Faith confirmed; in the rest of the Chapter, there is this Confirmation illustrated by the Induction of several Examples of GOD's Worthies under the Old Testament; what noble Exploits thy did, by the Vertue of this Grace of Faith. Some Examples he brings of those that lived before the Flood, others of those that lived after the Flood; before the Flood, Abel, Enoch, Noah. 'Tis Enoch that is the Person spoke of in my Text, and therefore passing by the others, let us fix our Meditations a little upon him, and for the better Cognizance of him, I would desire you to turn unto the fifth of Genesis, where you have a Catalogue of the Patriarchs that lived before the Flood; and amongst the rest, in the 21, 22, 23, 24, ver. you have a brief History of this Enoch, wherein are two Things considerable, that conduce to the explaining of my Text.

I. His Life, his Conversation, his Walk.

II. His Change, Translation, or Rest.

1. His Life; His Walk was always with GOD, which you have explained, Cap. vi. 9. both which Places Onkelos, in his Chaldee Paraphrase, explains it it by וַיֵּלֶךְ בְּדַרְחֵי יְהוָה; And he walked in the Fear of GOD; and so Jonathan and T. H. expound that in the Sixth; but concerning Enoch, וַיִּשְׁתַּחֲוֶה אֱנוֹךְ בְּקִדְשׁוֹ קוֹם יְיָ וּבְלֵה; And Enoch worshipped GOD in Truth, Chap. v. 24. But the great Question is, Where Enoch had this Testimony, spoken of in my Text, that he pleased GOD? To this I answer; That the Bible that was most commonly in use in our Saviour's and the Apostles Days, was not the Original Text, but the Greek Translation, or the Septuagint; and therefore it was, that the Evangelists and Apostles, in quoting the Old Testament, do not quote it according to the Hebrew Text, but Greek Translation; especially, seeing that they wrote in Greek, and so, if they would have quoted it according to the Hebrew Text, themselves should have been at the Pains to have translated it, which would have been more than needs, they having so good a Translation fitted to their Hands, and so generally receiv'd amongst them, as the Septuagint Translation was; and therefore it was, that in most, or all their Quotations of the V. T. they make use of the Greek Copy, not the Hebrew Text, as I could shew you by the Induction of the Places themselves, was it either necessary or pertinent to the Truth I intend to handle. And truly, if I had undertaken it, I needed not have gone far for a Proof; for my Text itself is a pregnant Example of it. In Gen. v. 22, 24. אֱנוֹךְ לֵהוָה וַיֵּלֶךְ בְּדַרְחֵי יְהוָה And Enoch walked with GOD, which the Septuagint translates, Ευνόεσσε Ενωχ τῷ Θεῷ; and so the Syriack, And Enoch pleased GOD. And hence it is, that the Apostle, in citing the Testimony which GOD gave of Enoch, cites it not according to the Hebrew Text, but Greek Translation, And

he

he pleased GOD; which likewise seems to me a sufficient Argument to prove, that this Epistle to the Hebrews was not written, as some would have it, originally in the Hebrew, but Greek Language; it seeming altogether improbable, that the Apostle should make use of any Translation, if himself had used the Language that the Text itself was written in; this would be to translate a Translation into that Language, from which that Translation was first translated.

2. His Change, ואִינוּ כִּלְקַח אֶתוֹ אֱלֹהִים. And he was not, for GOD took him.

And he was not; not simply he was not in being, for he was the same after, which he was before his Translation; but as the Targ. Jon. אֵינָא וְדֵא לִיתוּרָא עִם דְּיִי. And behold, he was not with the Generations upon Earth, he was not any longer with the Children of Men in this lower World, for GOD took him, viz. unto Himself, and that, as it seems, not the common way of Death, but by an extraordinary Translation of him; which may appear,

1. In that it is not said of him as of the rest, וְיָמָר.

2. Onkelos in his Chaldee Paraphrase saith expressly, וְיִיתוּרָא אִרִּי לֹא אִמְרָא יִיתָה, And he was not, but GOD did not kill him.

3. The Apostle saith plainly, Μελέριον οὐ μὴ ἰδεῖν θάνατον, That he should not see Death.

But I come not hither to Day, to preach Controversy, but to preach Duties; 'tis not my Intent, to fill your Heads with notional Speculations, but, if possible, your Hearts with Affections; and therefore, fore, 'tis not how Enoch was changed, but how he lived ; not how GOD took him, but how he pleased GOD, that I shall make the Matter of my Discourse at this time.

He had this Testimony, That he pleased GOD. Certainly, my Brethren, what was Enoch's Testimony, ought to be our Duty, and what GOD commands in one, He commands in all ; and therefore I shall turn Enoch's Testimony into this

DOCTRINE.

'Tis every one's Duty to please GOD.

Five Queries.

I G O D doth not punish us for His Pleasure, but our Profit.

1. Not His Pleasure; as appears,

 1. Not as if we always thought it so.
 2. Nor as if it did always really prove so, Isa. i. 5.
 3. But so as that GOD intends our Profit.

II. The Profit of Afflictions is, that they are Means, whereby we are made Partakers of His Holiness.

1. What is Holiness ?
2. Why His Holiness ?
 1. He is the Fountain.
 2. Rule and Pattern.
 3. Cause.
 1. Meritorious.
 2. Efficient.
 3. Final.
3. What is it to partake of His Holiness ?
 1. Naturally we are full of Sin.
 2. When converted, we are said to partake of Holiness.

If any of you lack Wisdom, let him ask of GOD, that giveth to all Men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

DOCTRINE.

Payer is the Means to the Attainment of spiritual Mercies.

I. What Prayer is.

It is a Holy Calling upon the true GOD, in the Name of Jesus Christ His Son our Saviour, for the bestowing of some Mercy that is desired, the preventing of some Danger that is feared, or the removing of some Misery that is felt, by ourselves or others.

1. It is a Calling, which is either mental, Rev. vi. 10. or vocal, S. Job. xvii. 1.

2. A Holy Calling, as we call upon a Holy GOD, so we must call upon Him, in a Holy Manner.

3. Upon GOD, not upon Angels, nor Saints, nor any Creature, because they can neither know what we ask, nor supply what we want, 2 King. xxii. 20.

4. Upon the true GOD, not only GOD in our Fancy, but in Reality, 1 King. xviii. 27. they call upon a GOD, but a false one, and therefore not heard, Rom. x. 13, 14.

5. In the Name of Christ, S. Job. xiv. 13, 14. and xv. 16. and xvi. 24, 26.

6. For

6. For the bestowing of some Mercy, that is lacking.

7. The preventing of some Danger, that is feared ; or,

8. The removing of some Misery, that is felt.

9. By ourselves or others, 1 Tim. ii. 1. and with much Faith, S. Matth. xxi. 22.

II. How doth it appear, that Faith is thus a Means to spiritual Mercies ?

1. From G O D's Promises, S. Matth. vii. 7. and xxi. 22. S. Job. xvi. 23.

2. The Saints Practices, who, whatsoever they wanted, would still address themselves by Prayer to GOD for it.

U s e s .

1. Exhortation. To pray.

Motives.

1. Consider what an easie way this is to get Mercies, but ask and have, S. Matth. vii. 7. and 'tis not worth having, if not worth asking.

2. How many Mercies we want: What great Mercies.

3. It is a constant Attendant of Grace, Zach. xii. 10. Act. ix. 11.

4. No Promise shall be fulfilled to us, without our Prayer to GOD, Ezek. xxxvi. 37.

5. It is the chief way of our Worship we owe to G O D, Gen. iv. 26. Psal. lxxix. 6. Isa. lxiv. 7.

6. It is the chief way of our enjoying GOD in this World.

2. Direction how to pray and ask of GOD.

Something is to be done before, in, and after Prayer.

1. Before, 1 S. Pet. iv. 7. Kai nūphate eis tās neeodχds.

1. Meditation.

1. Of G O D's Glory, which we are then going before, thinking with ourselves, Well, I am now going into the Presence of the Great G O D, &c.

2. Our own Necessity, what we want and stand in need of; as, if the King should make a Promise to any of us, that whatsoever we would ask of Him, He would give it us, we would presently be-think ourselves, what we stand in the most need of, and that be sure we should ask, Esth. v. 3. S. Matth. xiv. 7, 8.

2. Repentance; we must empty our Hearts of Sin, before G O D will fill our Hearts with Mercy, Psal. lxi. 18.

3. Faith, S. Matth. xxi. 22.

2. In Prayer.

1. Call upon Him under some of those Names and Titles, which He hath given Himself in His Holy Scriptures, as in the LORD's-Prayer.

2. Do not only raise up a Holy Fear and Reverence of Him, at the first, by those Compellations, but keep a lively and constant Sense and Apprehension of them in thy Heart, all the
the

the while thou art praying to Him ; especially, in every new Petition, do thou call in fresh Apprehensions of His Glory to whom thou makest them ; and those, suitable to the Petition thou art putting up ; as, if thou askest Forgiveness of thy Faults, apprehend Him as a GOD infinitely merciful ; if Grace, as one just to all his Promises, &c.

3. Then humbly confess thy Sins to Him, humbly desiring a Pardon from Him of thy Sins, all, original and actual, &c. so far as thou canst remember thy Sins ; in particular, such and such a Sin, 1 S. Joh. i. 9.
4. Bewail thy Corruptions to Him, and desire they may be subdued by Him, especially such as thou findest most strong within thee.
5. Having desired thy Sins may be subdued under thee, desire GOD's Grace to be implanted in thee.
6. Be sure to ask nothing of GOD, but only in the Name of Christ, S. Joh. xvi. 23. and therefore, I would have thee put in, for the sake of Christ, to the End of every Petition, tho' not with thy Voice, yet, howsoever, in thy Thoughts. Pardon this Sin for the sake of Christ ; Give me this Grace for the sake of Christ, &c.
7. Be sure to proportion thy Desires to GOD's Promises ; what He hath promised absolutely, that mayst thou ask ask absolutely ; what He hath promised conditionally, that must thou ask conditionally.

8. All the while thou prayest, apprehend Christ, as handing thy Prayers to His Father, and desiring they may be granted, Hebr. vii. 25. saying, as S. Paul to Philemon for Onesimus, ver. 9, 10. nay, not only desiring, but pleading for the Audience of our Prayers, 1 S. Joh. ii. 1.
9. Never pray for thyself, but remember to pray for the Church too, Psal. li. 18. and cxxxvii. 5. שׂאִין בֹּה מַלְכוּת אֵינָהּ בִּרְכָה כֹּל בִּרְכָה.
10. Never go to the Governor of Heaven, but be sure to pray for thy Governor upon Earth, 1 Tim. ii. 1.
11. Mix Praises with thy Prayers.
12. Whatsoever thou askest, be sure to ask in Faith, S. Matth. xxi. 22. S. Jam. i. 6.
3. After Prayer. So soon, therefore, as thou hast prayed, thou shouldst not presently remove thy Heart to thy worldly Occasions, as some will do ; as if Heaven and Earth were so near together, that one might step from the one to the other ; but, as it is a good while, before we can get up our Hearts from Earth to Heaven, so it should be a good while too, before we should bring down our Hearts from Heaven to Earth again ; and questionless, it will be so, if our Hearts be really mounted up in the fiery Chariot of a fervent Prayer to those Things that are above ; above ; for to me it ſeems a thing impoſſible, for one that hath had a View of thoſe unſpeakable Glories that are in Heaven, preſently to be taken with theſe unprofitable Vanities upon Earth. And therefore it is, that I always did, and ever ſhall, ſuſpect, that that Man, whiſt he prayed, was never raiſed up to the Things that are above, who, when he hath prayed, can immediately fall down to thoſe Nothings that are below : And indeed, Prayer being the whole Work and Buſineſs of the Soul for the preſent, I cannot ſee how we can paſs from it to earthly Employments, if we would ; or howſoever, I cannot ſee, how we might, though we could ; for, I cannot but look upon it to be a Chriſtian's Duty, to watch after, as well as unto, Prayer ; and that it is a great Miſtake in ſilly Man to think, that when he hath ended his Praying, he hath no more to do with his Prayers ; for if we ſeriously conſider it, we ſhall find, that the Uttering of our Prayers before GOD is the leaſt Part of our praying to Him ; and that our hardeſt Work begins, when our Prayer is ended : And this is that, which, by the Aſſiſtance of my GOD, I ſhall endeavour to direct you in at this time ; and the rather, becauſe though many have writ and preached much concerning what we are to do, before, and in our Prayers ; yet few or none, that I could ever ſee or hear of, have handled this great Work the Soul hath to do after Prayer,

Prayer ; or howsoever, not so fully as I think it ought to be spoken to ; which therefore, that I may something direct you in, let me advise you, so soon as your Prayer is ended, to pause a while, to be silent and quiet in yourselves, not suffering other Things to come into your Heart, nor your Heart to go out to other Things, but reflect upon what you have been doing of ; and observe these three Things :

1. The Manner.
2. The Matter.
3. The Returns of the Prayers you have put up to G O D.

1. The Manner, and how ill, and how well you have prayed, and for that consider.

1. The Imperfections of your Prayers to GOD, what strange Distractions, and vain Imaginations possess'd your Spirits, and so defiled your Prayers ; what vain Thoughts the Devil suggested, and yourselves indulged.

2. The Communications of G O D's Grace to you ; as you are to consider what the Devil did against you, so likewise, what GOD did for you ; what Influences of His Spirit, Incomes of His Grace, and Discoveries of His Glory He vouchsafed to you ; and be humbled under the former, and thankful for this latter.

2. The

2. The Matter ; wherein,

1. Confession ; which is a Part of Prayer, Deut. ix. 4. and as we are to confess the Sins that were committed by us, that G O D might pardon them, so we are to remember the Sins which were confessed by us, that we might forsake them ; without which, we may confess our Sins to GOD, but GOD will never pardon them to us, Prov. xxviii. 13. and truly, without this, the Confessions of our Sins unto GOD, will but be the Aggravation of our Sins against Him.

2. Petition ; as we are to consider what Sins we have confessed before Him, so likewise, what Mercies we have desired of Him ; that so,

1. We may expect them from Him, Isal. v. 3. What Archer is there, that will shoot, and not observe whether his Arrow hit the Mark ? What Merchant, that will trade, and not look for the Return of his Ships ? Or Husbandman, that will sow, and not expect the Harvest ? And why should a Christian, of all People, work, and not expect a Blessing ? Certainly, to desire a Mercy of GOD, and never to look for it from Him, is but to mock GOD, making Him believe

- lieve we would have such a thing, when we matter not whether we have it or no.
2. Serve Providence in the Use of Means; for the Attainment of what thou desirest. Though G O D hath promised to give Mercies to His praying People, yet He never promised to work Miracles; and it would be a Miracle, for GOD to give Mercies without Means; when He hath appointed Means for the Attainment of them; G O D wrought a Miracle for S. Peter, in opening the Prison-Door, because there was no-body else would do it; but S. Peter must knock, when he comes where the Disciples were met, Act. xii. 10, 13.
3. Thanksgiving; Remember what Mercies thou gavest G O D Thanks for with thy Mouth, that so thou mayst perfect His Praise for them in thy Life. And from this Consideration of our reflecting upon what we have desired, I think, may be raised a Plea for the Use of a Form of Prayer, especially for those of weaker Memories, who cannot remember half the things they prayed for, if any thing at all, unless they have the Prayer before them to consider afterwards.
3. The

3. The Returns. Whether GOD give unto thee what thou deſiredſt of Him or no; and if, upon diligent Search, thou findeſt, GOD hath given thee the Mercy thou deſireſt of Him,

1. Look upon it as the Return of Prayer.

2. Be thankful for it, Pſal. cvii.

3. As thou receivedſt it from GOD's Mercy, ſo improve it for His Glory, 1 Sam. i. 28.

4. Be encouraged thereby to be more frequent and conſtant in thy Addreſs to the Throne of Grace, Pſal. iii. 26.

If, upon diligent Enquiry, thou canſt not find thy Prayers answered, nor thy Petitions granted; there are ſome Things I would have thee not to do; as,

1. Take not every Delay for a Denial.

2. Think not GOD hath not heard thy Prayer preſently, becauſe thou doſt not find He hath; thou mayſt have the Mercy, and yet not know it.

3. Look not upon every Mercy thou deſireſt of GOD, as a Denial of the Prayer thou madeſt to Him: Though He doth not give thee the Mercy thou deſireſt, He may give thee a Mercy thou more lack'eſt; though He doth not give it it thee in specie, He may in genere, 2 Cor. xii. 8.

And some Things there are, thou shouldst do ; as,

1. Consider the Matter thou prayedst for ; perhaps, it might not be for GOD's Glory, and thy Good ; and if so, GOD answered thy Prayers, in not giving thee the Thing thou prayedst for, Psal. lxvi. 18.

2. Consider the Manner of thy Praying ; perhaps, thou didst not pray for the Mercy thou thinkest thou didst ; thou mightst desire it with thy Mouth, but thy Heart might be against it, ready to call back thy Words again ; or howsoever, perhaps, whilst thy Mouth was speaking the Words, thy Heart was about other Matters, and so, tho' thou didst ask the Mercy of GOD, yet thou didst not pray for it to Him ; for, Prayer is the Work of the Soul, it is elevatio cordis ad cælum, & ascensus mentis ad Deum ; and therefore, thou canst not expect, GOD should ever hear thy Prayers, when thou never madest them.

3. Consider, whether thou hast made use of the right Means that GOD hath appointed for the Attainment of it.

4. If

4. If thou findest all Things right, and yet thou hast not the Mercy, wait and pray, and pray and wait, till GOD bestows it upon thee; and if thou canst do so, be sure thy Prayers are answered, tho', perhaps, thou hast not the Thing desired; for thou hast received a Mercy, as great a Mercy as thou canst desire of GOD, or GOD can bestow upon thee, on this side Heaven, even an holy praying and waiting Frame of the Spirit.

From these Directions, I observe,

1. How few there be in the World, that ever pray.
2. How seldom they, that pray the ofttest, do pray; every Saying of our Prayers is not a Prayer.
3. What short Prayers the best of GOD's People make; they may say many Words, but alas, they pray but a little; if we should take out of them every imperfect and distracted Petition, How little little would there be left behind, that could be called a Prayer? so that in six Words, a Man may pray more, than perhaps another doth, that is saying his Prayers for a whole Hour together.

Whatſoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might, &c.

First, THE Advice, Whatſoever, &c.

I. What things are we to do with our might?

1. Negatively. Not Sin, Lye, Steal, Drink, Swear, Cheat, &c. Iſai. v. 22.

4. Receive Sacraments.

5. Meditate upon G O D and the World to come with thy Might,
1 Tim. iv. 15.

Secondly, The Reason: Because there is no Work, &c.

I. Negatively.

1. Not as if Souls deceased did not live after, as well as before Death, Act.
vii. 59.

2. Not as if they did no Work; for in Heaven they Praise G O D, or else in Hell curse themselves, Rev. vii. 10.

3. Nor as if they had no Knowledge; for without that there would be no Happiness in Heaven, nor Misery in Hell, 1 Cor. xiii. 10, 11.

II. Positively. Nothing in order to our eternal Happiness can be done hereafter.

ECCLES.

ECCLES. xiii. 7.

Then shall the Dust return to the Earth as it was: and the Spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

First, THE Body of Man is Dust.

I. It was made of Earth, Gen. ii. 7.

I Cor. xv. 47.

II. Maintained by Earth, Isa. xl. 6. I Pet. i. 24.

USE.

1. See what little Cause we have to be proud of our Bodies.
2. Learn not to indulge them.

Secondly, It must return to the Earth, Ps. xc. 3.

Thirdly, The Spirit of Man is given by G-o-d,

Gen. ii. 7. Num. xvi. 22.

1. The Soul is not made of Earth.

2. Nor consequently propagated from the Parents.

3. But is created by G-o-d himself immediately.

USE.

Learn to prize them, Matt. xvi. 26.

Considering,

1. Their Divine Original.
2. Excellent Faculties.
3. Immortality.

Fourthly, The Spirit doth not die with the Body, as appears,

1. From Scripture.

1. The Old Testament, Exod. xxxvi. 15.

Matt. xxii. 32.

2. The New Testament, Acts vii. 59.

5. Heavenly-mindedness, Col. iii. 2.

2. To crown them hereafter.

Fifthly, The Spirit return to God, 1 Thim. v. 23.

1. Particularly by itself.

2. Jointly with the Body, 2 Cor. v. 10.

Use.

Prepare for your appearing before God.

ECCLES. xii. 1.

Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy Youth.

WHEN God had promised Solomon to give to him whatsoever he asked of him, he was pleased, at the same time, to give him so much Wisdom, as to enable him to ask Wisdom above all things else, 1 Reg. iii. 9. and Solomon therefore asking Wisdom of God, God did presently grant out Wisdom unto him, v 12. And he having receiv'd this Wisdom from the Creator, he employs it in the Contemplation of the Creatures; and the more he employs himself in the Contemplation of the Creatures, the more is he struck into admiration of their Creator. He look'd so long upon the Creatures, that at length he could not but look through them to GOD: and having once fixed his Eyes upon God, he scarce knew how to cast them down upon the Creatures again: having once beheld the transcendent Glory of the eternal God, his Eyes were so much dazled with it, that he could not look upon any thing else. But now all things, besides God, seem as Vanity and vexation of Spirit in comparison of him; and therefore as God had given Wisdom to him, he lays it out in preaching the Glory of God: But seeing he could not preach up the Glory of the Creator, until he had first preached down the Glory of the Creatures, he takes the Creatures themselves for his Text to preach on; shewing their Vanity in comparison of God and then God's Glory in com-compariſon of them, ſtill making Vanity of Vanities, all is Vanity, as the burden of this his Spiritual Song. There is nothing under the Sun but he ſhews, from his own Experience, that it is Vanity. And having long diſcourſed upon the Vanity of the Creatures, he here, in this laſt Chapter, minds us of the Glory of their Creator, Remember now thy Creator; as if he ſhould have ſaid, Tho' the Creator be all Glory, yet the Creature is all Vanity; and ſeeing therefore there is nothing but Vanity to be had in the Creature, forget it, and remember thy Creator. Neither do thou only reſolve to remember him hereafter, but endeavour to remember him now; nay, tho' thou beſt but young, yet remember him now; Remember now, &c.

I. What is our Creator we are to remember? Jehovah. And what in him muſt we remember?

1. His Perſon. The Chiefeſt Good, the Ocean of Happineſs, the Fountain of Comfort, who hath all things in himſelf; yea, is all things to himſelf; Life itſelf, Light itſelf, &c.

2. His Son. Remember him that died for thee, remember him in thy Youth, that remembered thee in thy Sins; that left the Joys of Heaven, and his Father's Boſom, to come and die for thee.

3. His Word. Remember what God would have thee to do, and how he would have thee to walk; remember the Threatnings of his Words, the Promiſes, Commands of his Word; what God hath revealed to thee in his Word, and what he requires of thee in his Word.

4. His Works. Not only what he is, but what he hath; not only what he hath, but what he doth, Pſal. cv. 5. His Works of Mercy, where he he smiled upon thy Soul ; his Works of Justice, when he laid Affliction upon thy Loins ; remember what he doth for thee, and what he doth to thee.

II. How remember him ?

1. So as to fear him ; his Favour, so as to fear to lose it ; his Anger, so as to fear to incense it, Job xxi. 6. Jer. xlv. 7.

2. So as to admire him ; admire what he is in himself, and admire what he hath been to us, Psalms lxxviii. 11.

3. So as to love him ; fix thine Eyes upon him, till thine Heart be fired with Love unto him ; remember and meditate upon his Glory, till his Glory hath ravished thy Heart ; yea, never think thou dost remember him, until thou seest him.

4. So as to obey him ; so as to perform the Duties he Commands from thee, and obey the Precepts he hath laid upon thee : So as to worship his Person, to sanctify his Sabbath, and to glorify his Name.

III. Why remember our Creator in the Days of our Youth.

1. Because he is our Creator ; that when we were not, made us to be ; and now we are, keeps us in our Being ; our Creator that loved us before we loved him ; yea, before we had any Being to love him in : He loved us when we were not, so as to make us Beings. Who remembered us before we knew him ; yea, so remembered us, as to make us to remember him. It was he that put forth his Almighty Arm, and drew thee out of the Womb of nothing : and it is he that holds thee up with the same Arm, that thou thou doſt not fall down to nothing again. And ſeeing it is he that gave thee thyſelf, certainly there is all the Reason in the World that thou ſhould'ſt remember him, yea, and in the Days of thy Youth too; even ſo ſoon as ever thou canſt remember any thing, thou ſhouldſt remember him, who enables thee to remember other things: without him thou canſt remember nothing, and therefore him ſhouldſt thou remember before all things.

2. Because they are the Days of thy Youth, even the fitteſt time thou wilt ever have to remember him in, as being not as yet cumbred with too much worldly Buſineſs; but our Hearts are in Youth ordinarily more pliable than afterwards, before the World hath ſtole away our Hearts from us.

U s E.

I. To Youth: Remember your Creator now, as conſidering,

1. You do not know whether you may have an Old Age to remember him in, or no. Such as are Old know they have been Young, but ſuch as are Young know not whether they ſhall be Old; for there is no Promise of Old Age in all the Scripture; and if God never promiſed it to us, we can have no Ground to expect it from him; nay, what God never promiſed, it is the beſt way for us never to look for: as in this Caſe, God having never promiſed Old Age, we ſhould not expect it, but live in our Youth as not looking for any more Days to live in.

2. If thou doſt live to Old Age, thou canſt not promiſe thyſelf that thou wilt remember thy Creator then: Or rather, thou may'ſt expect that thou ſhalt not remember him then ſo well as now. Alas ! he that ſpends his youthful Days in ſerving the Devil, and ſatisfying his own brutal Luſts, inſtead of glorifying God, cannot expect that he ſhould be more deſirous of glorifying God than of ſatisfying his Luſts when old. Whereas,

3. Unleſs thou remembreſt him while Young, he will remember thee when Old ; even remember to puniſh thee in thy Old Age for thy not remembering to ſerve him in thy Youth, Job xiii. 26. And ſo thou that deferreſt thy Repentance of Sin until thy Old Age, ſhalt then find how bitter the Sins of thy Youth were.

4. It is a great Work thou haſt to perform, many things thou haſt to remember, and therefore thou haſt need begin betimes. The Way from Egypt to Canaan, from Earth to Heaven is long, and he that would ever arrive there, muſt begin his Progreſs betime, Phil. ii. 12. And the firſt part of your Work is Knowledge, that you would remember to endeavour after the Knowledge of God. To this end, let it be your chief Concern to learn the Catechiſm in our Common-Prayer, which all Miniſters are appointed to make uſe of in this great Work. The principal Excellency of this is, that it doth in ſo few Words contain all things neceſſary to be known, and ſo fitter for thoſe of tender Years.

II. You whom God hath entrusted with Children and Servants, let me exhort you to mind them of this Duty ; do you remember them, that they may remember their Creator. And do not only allow them time to look after the Knowledge of their Maker, but ſee they do it, preparing them at home to give an Account of their Faith here.

III. To

III. To all. Remember your Creator, considering,

1. You can remember other things. I know 'tis a usual Plea, your Memories are short, you cannot retain things in your Memories so well as others, whereas there's none but can remember the Trifles of this World, and why then cannot you remember your Creator?

2. GOD always remembers you. When you lie sick upon your Beds he remembers to restore you to Health: He remembers to give you all the Necessaries for this and the other Life; and shall he be thus mindful of you, and will you be forgetful of him?

3. There is nothing necessary to be remembered but GOD. If you remember other things and forget him, you remember nothing; and if you remember him, tho' you forget all things else, you remember all things.

4. Remember GOD here, and he will remember thee hereafter, Luke xxiii. 42.

Remember him now; put it off no longer; you know not whether you may have another Time or Day to remember him in.

Do thou remember thy Creator in the Days of thy Youth, and thy Creator will remember thee at the Day of Death.

*This is my beloved, and this is my friend;
O daughters of Feruſalem.*

THIS Book is a Spiritual Song, indited by the Holy Ghoſt, and penned by Solomon, to be ſung, as it were, at the Eſpouſals and Nuptials of a Soul to Chriſt, wherein Heaven ſeems to Liſp to Earth, and God ſpeaks to Man, as a Nurſe to a Child, which utters not her Mind in full Sentences, but ſtammers it out in broken Language, fitted to the ſhallow Capacity of its tender Years; ſo here, God willing to condeſcend to the low, weak Apprehenſions of his People, ſpeaks unto them in their own Language: and as once he took upon him the Nature of Man, that ſo Man might ſee and behold him; ſo here, he ſpeaks after the manner of Men, that Man might hear and underſtand him, deſcribing his Affections to us, by our Affections to one another; and ſets forth the ſweet Intercourſe of Divine Love betwixt Chriſt and a Soul, by the amorous Expreſſions between a Man and his Spouſe, in the loving embracement of one another; inſomuch that there is ſcarce any endearing Expreſſion uſed by us, but what is here tranſlated into a Spiritual Senſe by Chriſt, ſometimes calling his Church, My Siſter, my Spouſe, my Love, my Dove, my undefiled; and the Church ſometimes replying in the like Expreſſions to him again, in particular in this Chapter, ver. 1. Chriſt calls the Church, My Friends, and my beloved; and ver. 16. the Church calls Chriſt ſo too, This is my beloved, this is my friend, O daughters of Jeruſalem.

In the whole Chapter ye have theſe things conſiderable,

First, Chriſt's Love and Kindneſs to the Church, ver. 1.

Secondly, The Church's unkindneſs to him, ver. 2, 3.

Thirdly, This unkindneſs to Chriſt occaſion'd him to withdraw from her, ver. 4, 5, 6.

Fourthly, The Church's Condition when Chriſt was gone, ver. 7.

Fifthly, Her behaviour in that condition, ver. 8.

Sixthly, Her Companions after Chriſt, upon her looking after, who it was ſhe thus ſought for, ver. 9.

Seventhly, Her Deſcription of Chriſt from Head to Foot, ver. 10. to 16. intimating, that every thing about him is lovely and amiable; his Incarnation, Birth, Life, Paſſion, Death, Reſurrection, Aſcenſion, Interceſſion, are all moſt admirable and excellent. And ſhe Summs up all, v. 16. He is altogether lovely. Indeed ſhe deſcrib'd him ſo, that they who heard her had no ſooner heard of him, but they were taken with him; and, inſtead of asking What he was, they now ask Whither he is gone, that they may go ſeek him too, chap. vi. 1.

Eighthly, The Church's Confidence in Chriſt, even when ſhe was deſerted by him, v. 16.

This is my beloved, this is my friend, O daughters of Jeruſalem.

Where obſerve,

I. The Church loves Chriſt, even when Chriſt ſeems to forſake her, This is my beloved ſtill.

II. There

II. There is no time but ſtill Chriſt is a Friend to his Church, My Friend, not only beloved by me, but a Friend unto me.

III. This the Church believes, and is confident of, even when CHRIST ſeems to be gone from her : This is, not only was, my beloved, this is my Friend.

It is the middle of theſe which I choſe this Text for, and therefore ſhall principally ſpeak unto, viz. That GOD and CHRIST is always a Friend to his Church and People. The other I ſhall ſpeak to in the Application.

GOD and CHRIST is always a Friend to his Church and People.

I. That GOD is a Friend to his People here appears,

1. From Scripture ; as indeed there is ſcarce a Line in Scripture but commands our Love to GOD ; ſo there is ſcarce a Line but proclaims GOD's Love to us ; as our Duty to him, ſo his Friendſhip to us appears,

1. From Scripture Affertions, Cant. v. 1.

John xv. 14, 15. Prov. viii 17.

2. Scripture Expreſſions, calling GOD ours, as Pſal. xviii. 2. and lxii. 2.

3. Scripture Promiſes, Jer. xxxi. 33.

4. Scripture Relations, he is

1. Our Husband, Iſai. liv: 5. Iſai. lxii. 4. Hoſ. ii. 16.

2. Father, 2 Cor. vi. 18. Luke xii. 32.

1 John iii. 1. There is more Fatherlineſs in GOD, than in all the Fathers in the World beſides, Pſal. xxvii. 10. and lxxxix. 26.

2. Experience. There was never yet a Saint on Earth, but he hath ſtill had a Friend in Heaven: GOD was a Friend to Abel in avenging his Innocent Blood; to Noah, in delivering him from the World-destroying Flood; to David, in preſerving him from his Enemies; to Job, in ſupporting him under his Afflictions; to Daniel, in ſtopping the Lyons Mouths; to the Three Children, in reſtraining the Fury of the Fire; to Jonah, in defending him in the Water, and ſetting him ſafe on Shore: So he always was a Friend to all that ever were, and will be a Friend to all that ever ſhall obey him; a Friend to thee, a Friend to me, a Friend to us all, &c.
2. What a Friend is he? What is thy Beloved more than another Beloved, or one Friend more than another Friend? He is
 1. A Cordial Friend, one that loves us, and loves us heartily; one that doth not only pretend to be, but really is our Friend; one that loves us with all his Heart, as he expects we ſhould love him with all our Hearts; one that loves us not out of any By-ends. Alas! What can he look for from us, who is the Fountain of all things to us? No, Deut. vii. 8. He loves us, not becauſe we are ſtronger, wiſer, richer, or better than others, but meerly becauſe he loves us.
 2. A wiſe Friend, one who not only is a Friend, but knows how to manifeſt it to us. His Love is not cæcus, but prudens amor, a wiſe Love; yea, the Love of one who is infinitely wiſe, and knowing how to expreſs his Love and Kindneſs towards us: indeed a Saint hath many crafty Enemies; there there is the Wiſdom of the Fleſh, the Wiſdom of the World, the Wiſdom of Satan, that old Serpent, all againſt him; but he hath one Friend for him, infinitely wiſer than they all, the only wiſe God, 1 Tim. i. 17. whoſe judgments are unſearchable, Rom. xi. 33. whoſe underſtanding is infinite, Pſal. cxlvii. 5. and who knows, therefore, how to deliver the Godly out of all their Temptations, 2 Pet. ii. 9. He hath caught Satan long ago in his own Craftineſs, in his tempting both the firſt and ſecond Adam: By which we may ſee he hath Depths beyond Satan's Depths, Devices beyond Satan's Devices, Wiſdom beyond Satan's Subtilty, and ſo his Friendſhip is beyond Satan's Enmity; and ſo he is a greater Friend than all the World can be a Foe unto us.

3. A powerful Friend. He is not only the All-wiſe, but the All-powerful God, the Lord All-mighty, 2 Cor. vi. 18. As there is nothing that he can but he will do for us, ſo there is nothing that he will, but he can do for us. This our one Friend, as he is wiſer, ſo is he ſtronger than all our Enemies: This our beſt Friend is more potent than our worſt Foe; He is more able to do us good, than all our Foes are to do us harm; nay, they can do nothing at all, much leſs do any harm to us, unleſs they receive Power from him to do it. The Devil himſelf is in God's Chain, and cannot go one Link beyond his leave. So that there is no Affliction that any of our Enemies can bring us into, but ſtill this our Friend is able to deliver us out of it. If we be in Want, he can ſupply us; if we be in Danger, he can deliver us. Do we want Bread? he can rain it from Heaven. Do we want Drink? he can draw it out of a Rock. Do we want Flesh? he can bid the Ravens bring it us. Are we in Prison? He can feed us. Are we in the midst of Flames? He can quench them. Are we amongst Lyons? He can tame them. Are we in the midst of the Sea? He can send a Fish to set us safe on Shore in its own Belly. Nay, He is not only so strong as to deliver us from, but in all Afflictions. He is so good a Friend that he would not suffer any Evil to fall upon us, unless he was so strong as to be able to turn it unto good unto us. He can change the very Nature of Afflictions, and turn our seeming Evils into real Goods, our Miseries into Mercies, our Crosses into Crowns, our Troubles into Comforts. He can turn a Prison into a Palace, a Lyon's Den into a safe Tower; yea, the furious Lyons themselves into harmless Companions, as he did for Daniel. Are we cast into a fiery Furnace? God can make use of it to burn our Bonds, and set us at Liberty, as he did for the Three Children.

4. A present Friend, a Friend always at hand, Pſal. xlv. 1. We can be in no Place, in no Company, about no Employment, in no Condition, but still this Friend is present with us to guide, help, direct, prosper us, Iſai. xli. 10. chap. xliii 2. with Joseph in the Dungeon, Noah in the Ark, Israel in Egypt, David upon the Mountains, Job upon the Dunghil, Daniel in the Lyon's Den, the Three Children in the Fire, and Jonah in the Water. So will this Friend be with us too: Where? In Prison, in Bondage, in Affliction, in Sickneſs, in Poverty; with us in Fire, Water, yea, Death itſelf: With us! how? By his Wiſdom to direct us, by his Power to protect us, by his Spirit to comfort us, by his Grace to bleſs us:

us : So with us, as none but himself can be with us.

5. An amiable Friend, one who doth not only love us, but deserves to be loved by us ; one who hath all the attractives of Love in himself, being the supreme, the only chiefest Good : An Ocean of all Beauty and Loveliness in himself, and the Fountain of all that is in any Creature : His Person is amiable, his Son, his Word, his Works, his Ways, all amiable, Psal. lxxxiv. 1. All other Goodness and Loveliness can scarce be called a Drop, a Shadow, or Picture of that Infinite Goodness that always flows in him. And if there be any Friend in the World that deserves our Love, for what he is in himself, as well as for what he gives to us, certainly he is a Saint's Friend, into whose dear Embracements whosoever comes cannot but take his fill of Love.

6. A necessary Friend. Man's Friendship is not at all necessary ; a Man may not only live, but well and happily without it ; but so cannot we without G O D's : because we can have nothing, we can do nothing, we can enjoy nothing at all without him. There is nothing can stand us in stead or help us, unless G O D be our Friend ; Riches cannot help us, Honours, Preferments, Relations, Gifts, Ministers, Ordinances, nothing can help us, unless G O D be pleased to help us. Without him it is not in Food to nourish us, in Cloathes to warm us, in Relations to comfort us, in Physick to heal us, in Strong-Holds to defend us, in Houses or Gardens to delight us, in Ministers to direct us, in Ordinances to refresh us. Indeed, without him nothing can do us good, with him any thing shall serve the turn.

7. A constant Friend : Not one that will be familiar with us in Prosperity, and not know us in Adversity : Not one that now is our Friend, and anon our Foe. No ! whom God loves he loves unto the end ; and the Ground of his loving of us is the Cause of the Constancy of his love unto us, Deut. vii. 8. Whatsoever befalls us, still he loves us ; our Riches may be turned into Poverty, our Honour into Reproach, our Friends into Foes, our Health into Sickneſs, our Liberty to Bondage, but still will the Love of God be towards us : Tho' all things else fail, yet this our Friend will never leave us nor forsake us, Heb. xiii. 5, 6.

8. An everlasting Friend. Tho' our other Friends should keep Promise with us, and be constant to us, yet it is not long e're they must be taken from us, or we from them. We must not always live as we now live, do what we now do, nor enjoy what we now enjoy ; no, these things are but Creatures, and therefore always at the beck and command of the great Creator, and so we know not how soon we may be deprived of them, but we know we must, e'relong, be commanded from them. These cannot be properly lasting things, because we cannot say we have them any longer than just we see we have them ; but this our Friend is a lasting, an everlasting Friend, Jer. xxxi. 3. Indeed so lasting, that Eternity itself shall not destroy, but discover and improve his Friendship more unto us. Here we can see but small Sparks to these Flames of Love which then we shall delight ourselves withal.

II. Wherein doth GOD manifest himself to be a Friend to his People?

1. Negatively. Not in these poor things below, Ecccl. ix. 1.

2. Positively. Here I shall shew you how every Person in the Godhead is a distinct Friend to the Church.

1. GOD the Father.

1. In his Election of us, Isai. xlv. 4.

2. In his sending his Son to die for us, 1 John iv. 10.

3. In his Compassion towards us. A Father loves his Children, and usually more than the Children love their Father; Love rather descends than ascends, 1 John iii. 1. A Father's Bowels melt toward his Children; yea, tho' unkind and unnatural, as David pitied Absalon, even when Absalon was up in Arms against him, Psalms ciii. 13. Hence, as a Father hath a great encounter in himself, before he can correct his Child, so doth GOD conflict within himself about the Chastisement of his People, Hos. xi. 8. Isai. xlix. 14, 15.

4. In making use of all Means to bring us to himself, Isai. v. 4.

2. GOD the Son, Eph. iii. 18.

1. He was our Friend when upon Earth.

1. In his Birth and Incarnation. He was not born in a Palace, but a common Inn; not in the Guest-Chamber, but Stable; there being no room for such poor Guests as they in the Inn, Luke ii. 67. He that was clothed with Glory, now

now was wrap'd in Swadling-Cloaths; he that laid the Foundations of the Earth, is now himſelf laid in a Manger.

2. His Life and Converſation.

3. His Death and Paſſion, Rom. v. 6, 7.

Thus the Light of the World was extinguished, the Health wounded, the Comfort grieved, Life killed, and our Redeemer condemned.

Conſidering,

1. Who it was.

2. What it was.

3. By whom it was.

4. For whom it was, Rom. v. 8.

Iſai. liii. 3.

4. His Merit and Satisfaction. He hath merited,

1. Remiſſion of our Sins, and the Juſtification of our Perſons, Eph. i. 7. Rev. i. 5.

2. Adoption into God's Family, Gal. iv. 4, 5.

3. Acceptation of our Performances.

4. Redemption of our Souls from Sin, Wrath, the Curſe of the Law, Death, Satan, this Evil World, and Earth, Tit. ii. 14.

5. The Donation of his Spirit to us, Gal. iii. 14.

6. Admiſſion into Heaven, Heb. x. 19.

2. He is a Friend now he is in Heaven.

1. In interceding for us, Iſai. liii. 12.

1 John ii. 1. Heb. vii. 25.

2. In

2. In presenting our Performances to the Father, Rev. viii. 3. 1 Pet. ii. 5.
3. In preparing a Place for us, John xiv. 3.
4. In preparing us for that Place, John xvi. 7. Rom. viii. 34, 35.
5. In securing us from all oppositions Charges, Accusations, &c. John xvii. 15.
6. In receiving our Souls when we go hence, Acts vii. 59.
3. G O D the Spirit is our Friend.
 1. In the Illumination of our Understandings, Eph. i. 17, 18.
 2. Conviction of our Sins, John xvi. 8.
 3. Mortification of our Corruptions, Rom. viii. 13.
 4. Sanctification of our Natures, Exek. xxxvi. 25.
 5. Direction of us in Duty, and helping us, Rom. viii. 14, 26.
 6. Consolation of our Hearts, John xiv. 16.

U S E I.

Inference. If G O D be a Friend to a Saint, then is he an Enemy to a Sinner. A Sinner is an Enemy to him, and he is an Enemy to a Sinner: They hate G O D, and G O D hates them. As G O D is said to have loved Jacob and hated Eſau, Rom. ix. 13. So he loves every righteous, and hates every wicked Man in the World; He hates his Person, Performances, Thoughts, Words, Actions, yea, Religious Duties, Amos v. 21. O the woful Condition of an unrepenting Sinner! He hath not only the Devil, but G O D himself too for his Enemy; and as if God be for us, who can

can be againſt us ; ſo, if God be againſt us, who can be for us ? If God hate thee, what can all thy Friends do for thee ? Be where thou wilt, do what thou canſt, thou wilt ſtill have an angry God frowning upon thee, and manifeſting his deſerved Hatred againſt thee. An Enemy thou wilt have, that can turn all thy Comforts into Troubles, all thy ſeeming Mercies into real Miſeries, thy Plenty into Poverty, thy Health into Sickneſs, thy Life into Death, and all thy Friends into perfect Enemies, whenſoever himſelf pleaſeth. O what a glorious Friend hath every Saint ! what a dreadful Enemy hath every Sinner.

2. Conſolation. Is God our Friend ? O what Comfort, what Support, what Refreshment, what Reviving doth this afford to the Children of God ; who tho' they cannot ſay, ſuch Great Perſons love me, my Neighbours reſpect me, they that are about me are Friends unto me ; yet they can ſay, God the Father loves me, the Son and Holy Ghoſt loves me, every Perſon in the ſacred Trinity, is a diſtinct and cordial Friend unto me. And what if the Creatures hate thee, when thy Creator loves thee ? What if Man deſpiſed thee, when God himſelf reſpects thee ? What if all thy Fellow-Worms, that creep and crawl with thee upon the Face of the Earth be thy bitter Enemies, when the glorious Deity that reigns in the higheſt Heavens is thy Friend ? What Condition canſt thou be in, what Diſpenſation canſt thou be under, but ſtill this one Truth will give Comfort and Conſolation to thee ? It will comfort thee. What will it comfort thee againſt ? Why it will comfort thee againſt the multitude of thy Tranſgreſſions, the Power of thy Corruptions, the the greatness of thy Wants, the violence of Temptations, the sharpness of Afflictions, yea, and the Terrors of Death itself.

I. The multitude of thy Transgressions. It is the thoughts of Sin that are the most cutting and killing to a Child of GOD, even of those Sins, whereby he hath transgressed GOD's Holy Laws, grieved his Holy Spirit, wounded his Saviour, displeased his Father, and incensed the great GOD against himself: That he was born a Sinner, and hath lived a Sinner, yea, that every Faculty of his Soul, and Member of his Body hath hitherto been but as an Instrument of Sin, &c. Sinning in all Places, Companies, and Employments. This makes him weep in Secret, and mourn before GOD. But when such Thoughts possess thy Heart, consider, glorified by GOD. By this Means it is, that all the Sins that we truly repent of, CHRIST hath certainly purchased a Pardon for. And as thy Sins are laid upon him, so shall his Righteousness be laid upon thee; by which means, tho' thou be'st in thyself a Sinner, yet shalt thou be accepted of as a Righteous Person, by the Righteousness of CHRIST imputed to thee. Hence it is that tho' there be none that ever lived upon the face of the Earth but were guilty of many Sins, yet there are many we have read of whom GOD accounted and called Righteous; Abel, Mat. xiii. 35. Noab, Gen. vii. 1. Lot, 2 Pet. ii. 8. and so Abraham, David, &c. nay, in CHRIST we are not only made Righteous, but Righteousness itself, yea, the Righteousness of God, 2 Cor v. 21. And hence it is that GOD is still our Friend. And further, As our own Performances cannot make him our Friend, so neither will our Sins make him our Enemy, if we do but repent of them, and turn from them.

1. GOD is thy Friend, and so he will pardon these and all thy Sins: Tho' thou hast committed many Sins against GOD, yet GOD thy Friend will pardon them all to thee, if thou dost but repent of them all before him. He will not be thy Judge, but thy Father, thy Friend, Love covereth a multitude of Sins, 1 Pet iv. 8. yea, all Sins, Prov. x. 12. GOD hates thy Sin, but still he loves thy Person.

2. CHRIST is thy Friend too, and so thy Sins shall not only be pardoned by GOD the Father, but also thy Person justified by CHRIST the Son. They shall be pardoned by the Father, because expiated by the Son. What Sins thou art guilty of, CHRIST hath made Satisfaction for: He died that thou might'st live, He was wounded that thou might'st be healed, He was punished that thou might'st be spared, He was condemned that thou might'st be acquitted, He was crucified by Men, that thou might'st be glorified.

II. Against the Power of thy Corruptions: Thy Provocations are not only many, but thy Corruptions strong: Thy Life hath not only been sinful, but thy very Heart, and Soul, and Nature, and all is sinful. Consider, GOD is thy Friend, and so both can and will

1. Subdue thy Corruptions under thee: Tho' they be too strong for thee, they are not too strong for him; tho' they worst thee, he can conquer them, and drown them all in CHRIST's Blood, as easily as he did the Egyptians in the Red-Sea. Be not therefore so much troubled at the strength of thy Corruptions, as comforted with the Power of thy Friend, thy GOD, and not only thy Friend, but their Enemy.

2. He

2. He will not only ſubdue thy Sins under thee, but implant the contrary Graces in thee; as he will not only pardon thy Tranſgreſſions, but juſtify thy Perſon; ſo he will not only ſubdue thy Corruptions, but ſanctify thy Nature: So that where Sin before domineered, now the contrary Grace ſhall reign. He will not only deaden thee to Sin, but quicken thee with Grace; not only rent thy Heart from Earth, but raiſe it up to Heaven; not only take off thy Affections from the World, but raiſe them up unto himſelf; not only keep thee from being a rebellious Sinner, but make thee a glorious Saint. And thus tho' thou waſt Covetous, he can make thee Liberal; Carnal, he can make thee Spiritual; Earthly, Heavenly; Deceitful, Upright; Paſſionate, Meek; Proud, Humble; Idle, Diligent; Careleſs, Watchful; yea, tho' thou be'ſt Dead, yet he can quicken thee; and as he can, ſo he will, for he is thy Friend.

III. Againſt the violence of Temptations: Whiſt we are in this World we have not only inward, but outward Enemies to encounter and grapple with; not only a wicked Heart within us, but a wicked Devil continually about us, ready each Moment to enſnare our Souls in Sin; and be ſure the weaker our Corruptions are, the ſtronger will our Temptations be. So that they who have the moſt of G O D within them, ſhall be ſure to have the Devil moſt againſt them. You never ſee him ſo hot againſt a formal Sinner, as againſt a real Saint. He looks upon Sinners as ſurely his already; and therefore need not ſtrive to make them ſo: They are more deſirous to be tempted by him, than he is to be tempting them; nay, they often tempt him to tempt them: and thus the Devil is often himſelf tempted by Sinners; but beſure Saints are often tempted by him; and the more Holineſs any have received from G O D, the more Temptations ſhall they find from Satan. Never any more Righteous than the firſt and ſecond Adam, and we read of none ſo much tempted by the Devil as they; and, 'tis obſervable, we never read of the Devil's tempting Adam after, but only before his Fall; and we never read of any ſuch ſtrong Temptations laid againſt any one, as againſt our Saviour, who was perfectly void of Sin: And as he began with C H R I S T, ſo he goes on with Chriſtians; as he fought againſt C H R I S T, the Captain of our Salvation, ſo doth he againſt us who fight under his Banner. So that as we can never expect to be freed from all our own Corruptions, ſo neither from Satan's Temptations till we come to Heaven; he will ſtill be battering and aſſaulting us ſo long as we are upon Earth, tempting us to Sin, or troubling us for it, fighting againſt both our Graces and our Comforts; inſomuch that the Saints themſelves are often like to be worſted by him, and to ſay as David did of Saul, I ſhall one day fall by the hands of Satan: But comfort yourſelves; conſider,

I. Your Friend is above your Enemy, and hath him always in a Chain, ſo that he can do nothing without his Permiſſion: Thy beſt Friend is above thy worſt Foe, and thy Foes can do nothing without firſt obtaining leave from thy Friend. The Devil could not touch Job's Goods till he had received Commiſſion from G O D; neither could he touch his Body, till he had renewed his Commiſſion. He could do nothing more than juſt what G O D had given him leave to do. Nay, there are no leſs than four Links in one Chain, Rev. ii. 10. 1. Some, not moſt, or all; 2. into Priſon, not into Fire, Sea, Hell; 3. tryed, not damned, racked, torn, puniſhed; 4. ten Days, not a Month, Year, Age, for Ever, but only ten Days.

2. As thy Friend is above thine Enemy, ſo he never ſuffers thy Enemy to tempt thee, but he himſelf will be preſent to aid and aſſiſt thee: he will either bring down the Temptation to thy Strength, or bring up thy Strength to the Temptation. And ſo, tho' he give him leave to encounter thee, he will never give him leave to conquer thee; to tempt thee, not to deſtroy thee, 1 Cor. x. 13. Eph. vi. 16. and therefore he will ſtill be ſupporting thee with Faith.

3. He will not only ſee that the Devil may not conquer thee, but that thou may'ſt conquer him, by turning all his intended Evils into real Goods, and all his Temptations into Advantages. Several Advantages there are which GOD will give thee, from the Devil's tempting of thee.

1. Make thee conformable to CHRIST.

2. Teach thee how to help and ſuccour others, Luke xxii. 32. of Patients they become Phyſicians.

3. Put thee upon the exerciſe of thy Faith: This Warfare keeps thy heavenly Armour from ruſting.

4. Give thee occaſion of Joy and Triumph: No Battel, no Victory; no Fight, no Conqueſt; no Temptation, no Triumph.

IV. Againſt the greatneſs of thy Wants. Whiſt upon Earth a Saint hath ſtill his Wants; Spiritual Temporal, Outward, Inward, Soul and Body Wants; againſt all which GOD is our Friend and great Comfort. Our outward and temporal Wants, as none truly hath more, ſo none commonly wants more than a Chriſtian; ſometimes he wants Food, ſometimes Raiment, Health, Strength, Liberty, a Good-Name, always ſomething; but here is Comfort againſt them all. Conſidering,

1. His Friend can ſupply all his Wants by his ordinary Providence, or his extraordinary Power; ſo that he is ſure never to want any thing that is good ſo long as G O D himſelf can help him to it; Pſal. xxxiv. 10. When the Iſraelites were in Wants and Streights G O D commanded, and the Red-Sea ſhrunk up together to give them Way, the Heavens rain'd them Bread, the Rocks ran them Water, the Clouds directed their Paſſage, their Garments waxed not old, neither did their Feet ſwell for forty Years together. But thou may'ſt ſay thou wanteſt Health and Strength; yea, Food and Raiment: Why 'tis becauſe they are not good for thee; thou wanteſt Health, becauſe Health is not good for thee; Riches, Honours, Pleaſures, Relations, Children, becauſe they are not good for thee; it is better for thee to want them, than to have them; therefore art thou denied them, Pſal. lxxxiv. 11. therefore ſay Pſalm xxiii. 1.

2. Thy G O D, thy Friend, will be inſtead of all things unto thee, which can be wanted or deſired by thy Health in Sickneſs, thy Strength in Weakneſs, thy Honour in Diſgrace, Glory in Reproach, Riches in Poverty, Comfort in Trouble, Liberty in Bondage, Conſolation in Afflictions, Rock in Tempeſts, Support in Tryals, thy Light in Darkneſs, and thy Life in the very ſhadow of Death. Nothing that can be promiſed by G O D to thee, or expected by thee from G O D, but thou haſt it in having him to be thy thy G O D, thy Friend; whilst thou canst say, This is my Beloved, and my Friend. Nay, thou hast not only as much, but more than if thou hadst all things in the World besides; as, 1 Sam. i. 18. So, Why weepest thou? Why art thou troubled? Why is thy heart grieved? Why is thy Spirit disquieted? Is not the L O R D better unto thee than ten such Worlds as these are?

V. Against the sharpness of Afflictions. As Sinners in Hell have not only Pœna damni, but Sensûs; so have Saints on Earth, Malum damni & Sensûs, they not only want many seeming Goods, but undergo many seeming Evils; they not only want Riches, but are pinched with Poverty; not only want Ease, but are rack'd with Pains; not only want Friends, but are trampled upon by their Enemies; yea, commonly the more Religion a Man hath in him, the more Afflictions lie upon him, Psal. xxxiv. 19. Deus unicum habuit filium sine peccato, nullum sine flagello. We must bear the Cross before we wear the Crown; we must be Afflicted before Glorified. But here is Comfort,

I. These Afflictions come from thy Friend; yea, the best Friend thou hast in all this World, thy Maker, Saviour, Father, Comforter, G O D: They are not the Wounds of an Enemy, but only the Strokes of a Friend: He doth not strike thee because he hates thee, but he therefore strikes thee because he loves thee: He therefore lays these Afflictions upon thee, because he is a real Friend unto thee, Amos iii. 2. Psal. cxix. 75. Whether G O D gives a Sinner Riches, or takes them away it is in Anger, Hos. xiii. 11. So whether he gives a Saint Comfort, or takes it away, it is in Love.

2. There is no Affliction lies upon thee, but ſtill thou haſt this thy Friend preſent with thee, Iſai. xli. 10. to Comfort, Support, and keep thee up with his Conſolations, yea, ſtrong Conſolations, Heb. vi. 18.

1. To pity thee, Iſai. lxi. 9. He ſmarts in thy Pains, bleeds in thy Wounds, grieves at thy Sorrows, is afflicted in thy Afflictions.

2. To ſupport thee under them, Iſai. xli. 10. 13, 14. God's gracious Preſence is an aſſiſting, ſtrengthening, ſupporting Preſence. If God be with us, how eaſily may we do or ſuffer any thing?

3. To keep off the Evil of their Afflictions; ſo that by his Preſence they are rather Shadows than real Afflictions, 2 Cor. vi. 8, 9, 10.

4. To ſuit his Comforts to their Troubles, Heb. vi. 18.

5. To do them good by their Afflictions, and to do thee good by Afflictions; the Nail ſhines brighter by wearing, the Pomander ſmells ſweeter by rubbing, Cammomil grows better by treading, Heb. xii. 10. Hereby they are convinced, humbled, proved, ſtrengthened, excited to Duty.

6. To deliver them, 2 Tim. iv. 17. Pſal. xci. 15.

VI. Againſt the Terrors of Death: Death is that wherein all Afflictions meet, and therefore is accounted the King of Terrors: There is nothing ſo near and dear unto us on Earth, but we muſt part with at Death, Eſtates, Preferments, Friends and all. But here is Comfort againſt that,

1. God will prepare thee for it.

2. Thou haſt a Friend that will be with thee in Death as well as Life.

1. To

1. To conquer the Temptations.
2. Allay the Fears, Pſal. xxiii. 4. and
3. Sweeten the very Pangs of Death itſelf.

1 Cor. xv. 55. GOD hath taken out all the Venom, Poyſon, Curſe, Sting, Miſchief, and Evil of Death, and all becauſe he hath pardoned their Sins; and all in CHRIST. So that tho' we may tremble when we look down upon the Curſe of Death, yet we may triumph when we look up to the Croſs of CHRIST, who, by dying, hath killed Death, hath buried the Grave, by being buried in it; and by ſubmitting to this King of Terrors he triumph'd over him: And if CHRIST hath conquered Death, certainly Death ſhall never conquer thee. Hence tho' of Sinners it may be ſaid they are Death's Servants, Slaves, Captives, yet of Saints it is ſaid, Death is theirs, 1 Cor. iii. 22. their Friend, not Foe; Reſt, not Labour; Meſſenger of Peace, not King of Terrors; Diſſolution, not Deſtruction; their Gain, not Loſs; their Advantage, not Miſery.

3. Thou haſt a Friend that will receive thee from it when thou dieſt; ſo that Death to thee ſhall but be an entrance into Life. At Death a Sinner goes to the worſt of his Enemies, Satan; a Saint to the beſt of his Friends, GOD. Never was any of you ſo welcome to any Friend on Earth, as your Soul will then be welcome to your Friend in Heaven. Then write upon all thy Loſſes, Croſſes, Vexations, Afflictions, Pains, Diſeaſes, Corruptions, Temptations, Bonds, Reproaches, Poverty, and the Forehead of all thy Sufferings, Still GOD is my Friend.

USE II.

Exhortation. Is GOD a Friend to you? Be you a Friend to him. Doth he love you? Do you love him. Is he your Friend? Let him be your Beloved too. And, O that I knew what Words to take unto myself, whereby I might prevail with you to love GOD! This is one End of my chuſing this Text, and this is the Great Errand which the King of Glory ſent me about this Day unto you, even to beſpeak your Love and Affection to himſelf; that you would looſen your Hearts from the Creatures, and faſten them upon the glorious Creator; that you would rend your Affections from Sin; and fix them upon GOD; and that you would love him, not with ſome, but with all your Hearts, and Souls, and Might, and Mind, Deut. vi. 5. that you would love him, not only above ſome things, or many things, or moſt things, but above all things in the whole World; above your Eſtates, Relations, Treasures, Honours, Preferments, Health, and Life it ſelf. This is the End of my Preaching, and your Hearing; this is the End why the Word was written, CHRIST Crucified, Miniſters ordained, Ordinances inſtituted, the Spirit promiſed, even to deaden your Affections to the World, and to enſlave your Hearts with Love to GOD. I fear you all think you love GOD well enough already, and that it is in vain to heap up Arguments to perſwade you to it. Did you love him indeed, as well as you think you love him, or would ſeem to love him, the Work would be done to my Hand, and I need not ſpend my Breath to blow up the Fire of your Love to GOD. Before, therefore, I bring Motives to ſtir you up to love GOD above all things, things, give me leave to convince you, that as yet you ſcarce love him above any thing; for before I have convinc'd you that you do not love him enough, it is in vain for me to perſwade you to love him more than you do. All ye therefore that think you love God well enough already, conſider with me theſe following Particulars, and then tell me whether you think in your Conſciences you love him as you ought to do? For did you love him above all things,

I. You would prefer him before all things. It is apprehended Goodneſs that is the Ground of real Love; our Affections to a thing always are according to our Apprehenſions of it, and therefore the better we think any thing to be, the more we love it; and the more we love any thing the better we think it to be; and, by conſequence, the things we love moſt, we think beſt. And ſo we ſhall prefer him, before that we love above all other things; and therefore if we love God, as we ought to do, above all things, we ſhall account of him, and prefer him before all things too. But, alas! we that pretend to love God above all things, how do we prefer all things before God? The Covetous Man prefers his Riches before God, the Voluptuous Man his Pleaſures, the Ambitious Man his Honours, the Senſual Man his Fleſh; yea, do we not moſt, if not all, prefer our Sins, our very Sins before God? And is this to love God above all things? Or, is it not to love all things, yea, Sin itſelf, that is worſe than nothing, before him? Tell me, which of you but love the World, the Riches of the World, the Preferments of the World, the Poſſeſſion, Friendſhip, Delights of the World.

And can we love the World and GOD too? No, 1 John ii 15. Jac. iv. 4. And, alas! how evidently do most Men prefer and love the World before GOD? GOD bids them repent, believe, obey, seek, serve, and honour him with all their Hearts, but they have this worldly Business to follow, that worldly Employment to look after; and this keeps them from hearkening to GOD's Will, or obeying his Word. GOD saith, He must be glorified, but the Flesh saith that must be gratified; GOD saith he must be obeyed, Sin saith it must be indulged; GOD saith he must be served, the World, it must be sought after. Now tell me which of these do you most hearken to and prefer? Is it not the Flesh, Sin, and the World? Is it not the World's Trinity (pardon the Expression) that all Men naturally adore, Pleasure, Profit, and Honour? What running and riding, what labouring and toiling is there? What compassing both Sea and Land? What endangering and hazard-ing of Lives in the World? And what is all this stir and bustle in the World for? Is it to serve GOD? To make sure of Heaven? Or to get an Inheritance in the Land of Canaan? Alas! these things are seldom thought of, never sought after. No, no, all this that we see in the World, is only for the World; to get an House or Land, more of, or an higher Place upon this Dunghil Earth. And tell me what is, if this be not to look for all things before GOD? To prefer all things above him, and so to love all things more than GOD, instead of loving GOD more than all things? Search therefore into your Hearts, and try your Reins, let not your subtle Enemy deceive you, let not your own sinful Hearts delude you into a vain Perswasion that you love GOD, till you Esteem him, Prefer him, and look after him him more than after all things in the World besides.

II. You would think of him more than all things. If our Affections be really towards him, our Thoughts will be constantly upon him, Pſal. ix. 14. cxix. 97. David was a Man full of Love to GOD, and he was always thinking of him, Pſal. cxxxix. 18. whereas, What is there in the World that we think of leſs than GOD?

III. You would fear him more than all things, his Frowns, his Diſpleaſure, Anger, Juſtice, yea, and Mercy too, Pſal. cxxx. 4.

IV. Hope in him more than all things. We cannot love GOD unleſs we know him, Ignoti nulla cupido, and ſo we cannot know him but we ſhall truſt in him, Pſal. ix. 10. Nay, did we know GOD aright we ſhould truſt him more, when there is no Means viſible, than all the World beſides, when all Means poſſible are at hand; becauſe no Means can be Means to any Good without him; any thing ſhall do with him.

V. Grieve for his Abſence and Diſpleaſure more than all things. Nothing is ſuch a Joy unto us as to be preſent with, nothing ſuch a Torment as to be abſent from them we love. Hence David was ſo much troubled when forſaken of GOD; GOD's Preſence was all his Comfort, and his Abſence all his Sorrow, Pſal. xiii. 1, 2. Pſalm lxxxviii. 14, 15, 16, 17. So Job vi. 2, 3, 4.

VI. Rejoice in him above all things. As there is no Joy but what proceeds from Love, ſo there is no Love but what iſſues forth itſelf into Joy. There are three Acts which Love naturally exerciſeth upon the Object beloved.

1. Benevolence, or well-willing to it, becauſe 'tis lovely in itſelf, tho' it be not as yet enjoyed by me.

2. Deſire of Union to it, or the Enjoyment of it. Lovelineſs in any Object draws the Hearts, Affections and Deſires after it.

3. Complacency, acquieſcence, or delight in this Union to, or enjoyment of the thing we love : So that as there is an uniting, ſo there is alſo a delighting property in Love, all Men naturally rejoicing in the embracement of what they love. And thus will it be in our Love to GOD, if it be real and ſincere. And if we love him more we ſhall rejoice in him more than in any thing, or all things in the World beſides; ſo as to rejoice in him when we have nothing, and when we have all things elſe to rejoice in.

VII. Deſire him more than all things. As we naturally rejoice in the thing we love, if we have it, ſo we are always deſirous of it if we want it : And therefore if we love GOD we ſhall deſire GOD more than all things.

VIII. If you loved GOD above all things, you would love the Godly above all Men : For if you loved him above all things you would love him in all places, even whereſoever you find him. Now there is never a truly Holy Man in the World but GOD himſelf dwelleth in him ; and therefore our Affections ought to be placed upon upon him. Hence God himself who beſt knows what manner of Love he would have from us, faith, 1 John iv. 20. So that I can never be ſaid to love GOD as the beſt of Goods, until I love the Godly as the beſt of Men. Whereas, who more hated, ſcorned, contemned, derided, afflicted, trampled upon, and ſcoffed at, than the Godly? And is this to love GOD?

IX. Did you love GOD above all things, you would love all things belonging unto GOD.

1. His Son.
2. His Spirit.
3. His Word.
 1. Commands.
 2. Promiſes.
 3. Threatnings.
4. Miniſters.
5. Ordinances.
 1. Prayer.
 1. Private.
 2. Publick.
 2. Preaching.
 3. Sacraments.
6. Providences.
 1. Mercies.
 2. Judgments.

X. Did you love GOD above all things, you would endeavour to obey him in all things. Nothing that he hath commanded from you, but you would endeavour to perform to him, had you any real Affection for him, John xiv. 15. The ſincerity of our Affections to GOD, and the Piety of our Converſations for him always go together. So that we can never ſay we love GOD aright, till it is our conſtant endeavour to please and obey him in every thing we think, speak, and do, through the whole course of our Lives. But how few such are there in the World, that endeavour to please GOD in every thing? Indeed, How few that endeavour to please him in any thing? And is this to love GOD?
to

MOTIVES to love GOD.

I. 'Tis commanded: Thus saith the Lord of Hosts, Josh. xxiii. 11. Psal. xxxi. 23. Deut. vi. 5.

II. He is the most lovely Person and Being in the World.

Do we love

1. Wisdom? He is the Fountain of Knowledge, the Ocean of Goodness, the Spring of Life, the Principle of all the Creatures Motions, Psal. cxlvii. 5. 1 Tim. i. 5.
2. Power? The Waters expect his Beck, turning and winding as he pleaseth: The Planets rowl by his Measure; He works and turns all things with a Fiat.
3. Riches? Sea, Land, Birds, Beasts, Fishes, all are his: All that lie hid beyond the glorious Sun and dazling Stars, all his.
4. Goodness? Luke xviii. 19.
5. Pleasure? When there was nothing but himself he was brimful of Glory, infinitely satiated with himself; being essentially Joy and Pleasure to himself. He had never the less when he had nothing but himself; nor hath he more now: he hath made all things for himself;

self; He is no whit better for any or all his Creatures.

6. Glory? They are all eminently, infinitely comprehended in him, Cant.v.16.

7. Truth? Deut. xxxii. 4.

8. Love? 1 John iv. 16.

III. He only deserves our Love, if we consider,

1. What he did for us, in his Election of us before Time was.

2. In his Creation of us at the beginning of Time.

3. In his Redemption of us in the Fulness of Time, John iii. 16.

4. In his Preservation of us from Time to Time.

5. In his Absolution of us at the End of Time.

6. In his Glorification of us when Time shall be no more.

And to heighten his Love, consider,

1. How little we have deserved his Love, Gen. xxxii. 10.

2. How much we have deserved his Hatred.

IV. Loving GOD above all things is the Sum and Ground of all Duty, without which we neither do nor can do any thing, Mark xii. 30.

V. It is the surest Sign of true Grace, and the best Evidence of our Title to Heaven, Rom. viii. 28. Jac. i. 12.

VI. Love to GOD is the Way to have Love from GOD, Prov. viii. 17.

VII. All

VII. All things shall work for your Good;
Rom. viii. 28.

VIII. 'Tis your Glory, as well as Duty.

If you love GOD

First, Generally. Keep his Commandments,
John xiv. 15, 23. Psal. xcvii. 10.

Secondly, Particularly. If you love GOD, manifest it in these Particulars,

I. Think frequently and seriously of him.

1. Transiently.

2. Fixedly.

II. Speak reverently of him, and valiantly for him. Third Commandment.

III. Pray fervently to him, delighting your-selves in Communion with him:
Pray

1. In Secret, Matt. vi. 6.

2. In your Families, Josh. xxiv. 15.

3. In Publick.

IV. Take all Occasions and Opportunities to hear his Word and Law explained.

V. In all your Fears and Dangers put your Confidence in him.

VI. Improve your Power and Authority for him, over your Children, Servants, and Friends.

VII. Study

VII. Study how to manage and improve your Estates most advantageously for his Glory, 1 Cor. x. 31.

VIII. Be willing to part with any thing when he calls for it, Luke xiv. 26.

IX. Rejoice in him in the loss of every thing.

X. Love his Children, 1 John iv. 10.

XI. Live above the Love of Life and Fear of Death.

XII. Never think you love GOD enough.

II. Labour to have GOD to be your Friend, then

1. Angels.

2. Saints.

3. All Creatures, Job v. 23.

4. Your Enemies shall be your Friends.

How shall we get GOD to be our Friend? By

1. Repentance.

2. Faith.

3. Love.

III. Do not only endeavour to love GOD, and to be loved by him, but to know it too.
'Tis your Duty to love him, but your Comfort to know you love him, to say, This is my Beloved and my Friend, &c.

ISA I. i. 2.

Hear O Heavens, and give ear O Earth: for the Lord hath ſpoken, I have nou-riſhed and brought up Children, and they have rebelled againſt me.

First, IT is GOD that nourishes and brings us up, that made and preserves us.

USE. Did GOD make us?

- I. Let us admire him, Pſal. cxxxix. 15. Pſal. cxviii. 23.
- II. Adore him, Pſal. xcv. 6.
- III. Be thankful to him.

Doth GOD preserve us?

- I. Let us acknowledge our Dependance upon him.
- II. Let us submit unto all his Providences, 1 Sam. iii. 18.
- III. Let us be thankful to him.
 1. For whatsoever we have, 1 Sam. ii. 6, 7, 8:
 2. Are.
 3. Can do.
- IV. Seeing GOD preserves us, let us serve him, 1 Cor. vi. 20.
- V. Let us not rebel against him.

Secondly, Tho' it is GOD that nourishes and brings us up, yet naturally we all rebel against him.

He ſpeaks indeed of his own peculiar People,
but

but if they rebel, certainly all the reſt muſt needs.

I. What is it to rebel?

1. To reſiſt and oppoſe him.

1. In ourſelves.

2. In others.

2. By reſuſing Obedience to him.

1. Either to the neceſſary Precepts he commands with his own Mouth.

2. Or to the lawful Injunctions he lays upon us, by his Under-Officers in Church or State.

II. How doth it appear that all are Rebels?

1. All were tainted in Adam.

2. All are Sinners, Pſal. xiv. 4. 1 Job. i. 10.

3. All are Enemies, Rom. viii. 7.

Uſe,

1. Conviction, that we, in particular, are Rebels.

There are Ten ſorts of People that God proclaims Rebels by the Mouth of his Prophet, in this Chapter. And give me leave to proclaim them ſo too, from the Great God, in this Congregation. I fear none, or very few of us but ſhall be found Guilty.

1. Such as know not God, ver. 3.

2. That know, but do not conſider; ver. 3.

3. Such as are Corrupters, ver. 4.

4. That forſake the Lord, ver. 4.

5. Such as go backward from Religion, ver. 4.

6. Such as are not better'd by Afflictions, v. 5.

7. Whoſe Hands are full of Blood, ver. 15.

8. That have no Soundneſs in them, ver. 6.

9. That are laden with any Iniquity, ver. 4.

Vol. IV.

E

10. Such

10. Such as put him off with outward Performances inſtead of real Worſhip.

II. Exhortation. That you would no longer be Rebels, but Loyal Subjects.

1. What Folly and Madneſs is it for ſuch ſilly Worms to rebel againſt ſo Great a God? Job ix. 4.

2. What an aggravated Sin it is.

1. It is Perjury in all that have taken the Oath of Allegiance.

2. It is rebelling againſt him who gives all things you have to you.

3. God looks upon it as bad as Witchcraft, 1 Sam. xv. 23.

3. What will be the End of it? God will, e'rlong, ſend his Sergeant, Death, to Arreſt thee, &c. Iſai. i. 19, 20. What ſhould we do?

1. Lay aſide your hoſtile Weapons, your Sins. Every Tranſgreſſion of God's Precepts is Rebellion againſt his Perſon, Iſai. i. 16, 17, 18.

2. Go to God by Prayer and by Repentance; beg your Pardon.

3. Be ſure to make God the Son thy Friend, before thou goeſt to God the Father for thy Pardon, Job ix. 33.

1. To bring thee to God.

2. So as to have God reconcil'd to thee, and thyſelf to God.

ISAIAH i. 5.

Why should ye be stricken any more?

WHEN a People grow worse by Judgments,
GOD oft removes his Judgments in Judgment from them.

First, GOD intends us Good by all Afflictions.

I. To shew his Power and Justice.

II. To make us sensible of Sin, Job xxxvi.
8, 9, 10.

III. To humble us for it, 2 Chron. xxxii.
24, 26.

IV. To turn them from Sin, Job xxxvi.
8, 9, 10. Isai. xxvi. 8, 9. Psal. cxix. 67.

V. To exercise our Graces, Rom. v. 3, 4, 5.

1. Fear.

2. Patience.

3. Hope.

4. Trust.

5. Heavenly-mindedness.

VI. To stir them up to Prayer.

VII. To prevent Hell, 1 Cor. xi. 32.

VIII. To prepare us for Heaven, Acts xiv.
22. 2 Cor. iv. 17.

Secondly, Yet many grow worse rather than better by them, so as

I. To charge GOD with Injustice, Lam. iii. 10.

II. Be more hardened in their Sins.

III. Despair of the Mercy of GOD.

Thirdly, What is the Reason that so many grow worse rather than better?

I. The blindness of our Minds, because we do not know

1. The Greatness of God that doth afflict us.

2. Nor the sinfulness of those Sins for which we are afflicted.

II. The Corruptions of our Wills; we being more prone to Evil than Good.

Fourthly, It is the saddest of all Judgments, for God to remove his Judgments in Judgment; Hos. xiii. 11.

I. It argues God's greatest Displeasure against us, Hos. iv. 7. Isai. v. 3, 4. Rev. iii. 19.

II. It proves the occasion of our greater Judgments, we being not restrained from Sin.

Use,

I. Let us examine ourselves, whether we be not worse by God's Judgments.

II. Do not Murmur, but bless God for their continuance, until sanctified.

III. Labour to answer God's Expectations in his Judgments. Consider,

1. Then God will soon remove them, Psal. lxxxi. 13.

2. Then he will remove them in Mercy.

ISA I. ix. 6.

ISA I. ix. 6.

And his name ſhall be called Wonderful, Counſellor, the mighty God, the everlaſting Father, the Prince of Peace.

Fiſt, Counſellor.

I. Wherein is he called a Counſellor?

3. Eternal Life, and counſelled us to ſeek after it, Mat. vi. 33. c. vii. 13, 14.

II. What kind of Counſellor is he?

1. Universal for all things.

2. Infallible, 2 Pet. i. 19.

3. Eternal, Heb. vii. 25.

Uſe,

1. Bleſs God for giving you ſuch a Coun-ſellor.

2. Ask Counſel of him, Pſal. cxix. 24.

Secondly, The mighty GOD. אֱלֹהֵינוּ

I. GOD.

1. Otherwise he could not expiate our Sins.
Act. xx. 28.

2. Or save our Souls.

3. We ought not to trust on him, Jer. xvii. 5.

II. The mighty GOD; which is added

1. For our Instruction, to shew he is truly
GOD.

2. For our Dread, that we may Fear him,
Psal. ii. 9.

3. For our Comfort, that we may believe and trust on him, Eph. vi. 13, 16.

U S E

I. See and admire the Mystery,

1. Of the Incarnation, 1 Tim. iii. 16.

2. Man's Redemption.

3. The Sacrament wherein this mighty GOD is represented to us, as he was Man too.

ISA I. IX. 24.

--- For all this his Anger is not turned away, &c.

UNless a People answer God's Expectations in his Punishments, they may justly expect the Continuance of them.

First, It is GOD that punisheth, as appears,
 I. From Scripture, Isai. xlv. 7. 2 Chron. vii.
 13, 14.
 II. From Reason.

Secondly, What doth GOD punish for? Sin.
 I. Because Sin is contrary to his Nature.

VII. Trust only in him in the midst of them.

VIII. Turn

VIII. Turn from our Evil Ways, 2 Chron. vii. 14.

Fourthly, Why may we expect their Continuance?

- 1. Because GOD promises the removal of them only upon Repentance, 2 Chron. vii. 14. 1 Pet. v. 6.
- 2. Threatens the Continuance and Increase of them, Lev. xxvi. 14, 15, 16, 21, 27, 28.
- 3. The Cause is not removed till we have Repented.

USE

- 1. See the Cause of the Continuance of GOD's Judgments.
 - 2. Examine whether you have answered his Expectations.
 - 3. Answer them, Psal. lxxxi. 13, 14.

ISA I. xxvi. 9.

For when thy Judgments are in the Earth, the Inhabitants of the World will learn Righteousness.

Secondly,

Secondly, What is Righteouſneſs? πῶς

Δικαιοσύνη ἐστὶν ἡ ἐκ μέρους ἡμῶν καὶ ἀπὸ τοῦ Θεοῦ ἐκδομένη ἰδὼν ἀποκρίματα δικαιοσύνης.

Giving what is due, Tit. ii. 12.

Righteouſneſs is twofold,

I. Implanted,

1. That our Sins may be subdued, Act. iii. 26.

2. Our Souls enabled to act juſtly; ſo that the Sins might be firſt pardoned, for which God judgeth us: ſecondly, That God may ſtill accept of us as his People.

II. Exercis'd.

1. Towards God.

1. That we acknowledge him.

2. Examination, whether we be better or no.

3. Exhor-

3. Exhortation. Learn Righteousness by GOD'S Judgments.

Consider,

1. From whom they come? GOD. Amos iii. 6.

3. Why? that we might learn Righteousness,
Heb. xii. 10.
4. Unless we learn Righteousness by these,
GOD hath worse Rods to use than yet
we have felt, John v. 14.

ISA I. Liii. 5.

But he was wounded for our Transgressions, &c.

First, CHRIST suffered for our Sins.

I. Who was it that suffer'd? CHRIST, God-man, as Man, not as GOD, Acts xx. 28.

II. What did he suffer?

1. In the Garden, Matt. xxvi. 36. Luke xxii. 43, 44.

Chryſ.

3. A curſed Death, Gal. iii. 13.

1. Not for himſelf, 1 Pet. ii. 22.
2. Not for the Holy Angels.

IV. What neceſſity was there of his Sufferings? No Happineſs without Suffering? No. Conſider,

1. All Men have ſinned,  Reg. viii. 46. Jac. iii. 2. Rom. iii. 10, 11.*
2. All Sin is committed againſt an infinite G O D.
3. Therefore it deſerves infinite Punishment.
4. What Sin deſerveth, infinite Juſtice cannot but lay upon it, Exod. xxxiv. 7.
5. But Man is never able to bear ſuch Punishments, Iſai. xxxiii. 13, 14.
6. And therefore none but one who is G O D as well as Man could do it, and ſo none but C H R I S T; nor C H R I S T only, but by Suffering.

U S E

1. Hence obſerve the Evil of Sin.
2. Be humbled under the ſence of it.
3. Admire the Juſtice of G O D.
4. Let us live to C H R I S T, that dy'd for us.
5. Seeing

5. Seeing CHRIST hath ſuffered ſo much for your Sins, do not you grudge to ſuffer for his ſake.

6. Remember his Sufferings, Luke xxii. 19.

Secondly, We are ſaved by his Sufferings.

I. What are we ſaved from? Sin, Matt. i. 21. and ſo from all Evil. Particularly,

1. The Guilt of Sin, and ſo

1. From Horror of Conſcience.

2. The Wrath of GOD, Pſal. vii. 11.

3. Eternal Damnation, Mark ix. 44.

2. The Power of Sin; our Luſts, Covetouſneſs, Pride, &c. Acts iii. 26.

II. How are we ſaved by his Sufferings?

1. From the Guilt of Sin, by the value of his Death.

2. From the Filth of Sin, by the Vertue of his Death.

1. A Moral Vertue, to perſwade us.

2. An Exemplary Vertue.

3. A Meritorious Vertue, whereby he hath purchaſed the Donation of the Spirit, for the Mortification of our Sins, John xvi. 7.

III. Who are ſaved by his Sufferings.

1. Not all Creatures, but only Men.

2. Not all Men, but only ſuch as have heard of him.

3. Not all that have heard of him, but only ſuch as profeſs him.

4. Not all that profeſs him, but only ſuch as truly believe in him, Matt. vii. 21.

U s E.I. Inſtruction.

1. Obſerve the infinite Mercy of G O D the Father.
2. The wonderful Merits of G O D the Son.
3. Man's Salvation is not of himſelf; by his Stripes, not by our Works.

II. Conſolation.III. Exhortation.

2. Thank C H R I S T for G O D's Love, and for all the Mercies thou enjoyeſt.

 1. Without Faith thou can'ſt not but miſs it.
 2. With Faith thou can'ſt not but find it.
4. Live like one who art ſaved from thy Sins by C H R I S T's Sufferings.

FJ E R.

JER. ii. 13.

For my People have committed two Evils, they have forsaken me the Fountain of living waters, &c.

 2. He is the Object of all the Happineſs of the Creature, Pſal. xvi. 11. Pſal. xvii. 15.
 3. He is the Worker of all Happineſs.
 4. And the End of it.

Secondly, It is a great Sin to forſake this Fountain of Living Waters.

I. It is a Sin,

1. Againſt the Law of Scripture, Deut. x. 20. cap. xiii. 4.

2. Againſt the Law of Nature, Jer. ii. 11.

II. It is a great Sin: For it is

1. Againſt Knowledge, Jobn iii. 19.

JER. ii. 13.

----- And bewen to themſelves Cifterns, broken Cifterns that will hold no Water.

Λ Αἵ κες συντετριμμέναι τὰ ἱδωλὰ προσηγέρουσιν, Theodoret.

It may be taken not only for artificial, but all Idols, and ſo all Creature-Comforts that we ſo Idolize.

רשעו בזה מעמדה ואין להן טובת וצדק ולא יכלו
Targ. קימה מזה

Creature-Comforts are called

I. Cifterns, באר

1. Becauſe there is but little Comfort in them.
2. Becauſe it is all derived from another.

II. Broken Cifterns, באר נשברים

1. With Sin and Corruption, Rom. viii. 20.
2. — Trouble and Vexation.

III. Cifterns that hold no Water, אין להם מים; becauſe there can be

1. No real, Prov. xxiii. 5. Luke viii. 18.
2. No conſtant, Prov. xxiii. 5. 1 Tim. vi. 17. Iſai. lv. 2.
3. No ſatisfying Comfort in them, Eccleſ. iv. 8.

DOCTRINE.

It is a great Sin to take up with the Creature inſtead of GOD.

First, What do we mean here by Creatures?

I. Generally, every thing besides GOD.

Εὐφροῦμεν εἰς τὴν κτίσιν καὶ ἀκτίστον τὰ πάντα διατεταγμένα. Justin.

II. Particularly, The World's Trinity,
I John ii. 16.

1. The Luſts of the Fleſh, or carnal Pleaſures, Phil. iii. 19.

2. The Luſt of the Eye, or Riches, Eccleſ. iv. 8. cap. v. 11.

3. The Pride of Life, or Vain-gloꝝy.

Secondly, How appears this to be a Sin?

I. It is contrary to GOD's Command,
Col. iii. 2.

II. It is a complex of Sins.

1. Contempt of GOD, I Sam. ii. 30.

2. Abuse of the Creature to a contrary End than what GOD appointed it for.

3. Idolatry, giving the Worſhip that is due only to the Creator, to the Creature; as Eph. v. 5. Col. iii. 5. Phil. iii. 19,

1. Love, Matt. xxii. 37.

2. Fear.

3. Hope, I Tim. vi. 17.

4. Joy.

5. The chief and ultimate End, I Cor. x. 31.

Tu voluptatem complecteris, ego compesco; tu voluptate fruëris, ego utor; tu illam summum bonum putas, ego nec bonum; tu omnia voluptatis causâ facis, ego nihil. Seneca.

Quid mihi voluptatem nominas? Hominis bonum quære, non ventris, qui pecudibus & belluis laxior est. Senec. de beat. vita.

Thirdly,

Thirdly, Who are guilty of this Sin.

- I. Such as desire the Creature more than G O D, Job xxi. 14.
- II. Such as will not part with the Creature that stands in Competition with G O D, Matth. xvi. 24, Mark x. 28.
- III. That please themselves more in the Creature than in G O D, Psal. iv. 7.
- IV. Such as Labour more for the Creature than for G O D, Matt. vi. 33.
- V. That put more Trust and Confidence in the Creature than G O D, 1 Tim. vi. 17.
- VI. That rest satisfied with the Creature without G O D, Luke xii. 18, 19.

U S E,

- i. Reproof.
- 2. Exhortation.

M O T I V E S.

Consider the vast Difference betwixt G O D and the Creature-goods ; for so you take up

- 1. With a Finite, instead of an Infinite.
- 2. A seeming, instead of the real, Luke viii. 18.
- 3. A mixed, instead of a Simple.
- 4. An empty, instead of a satisfying, Psal. xvi. 11, Psal. xvii. 15.
- 5. A particular, instead of an universal.
- 6. An impertinent, instead of a necessary, Luke x. 42.
- 7. A transient for an everlasting.
- 8. An inferior for the supreme Good.

JER. ix. 3.

And they know not me, ſaith the Lord.

First, IT is a great Sin not to know the Lord.

I. What are we to know concerning him?

1. From his Works, Rom. i. 19, 20.

2. The Order of Cauſes.

3. The univerſal Conſent of all Nations.

Πάντες γὰρ ὅτι ὅτιν ὁ θεὸς ὁμολογῶσι κοινῇ unt, id enim vitioſo more offici ſolet, om-nes tamen eſſe vim & naturam divinam arbitrantur, Cicero.

2. His Nature; that he is

39. Iſai. xlv. 5. 1 Cor. viii. 4.

2. Reason.

1. The Order of Cauſes.

1. One Summum bonum.

2. One Omnipotent.

2. Spiritual, John iv. 24.

3. Infinite, Pſal. cxlvii. 5.

4. Incomprehenſible.

5. Of himſelf, Exod. iii. 14.

3. His

3. His Persons, 1 John v. 7. Matt. xxviii. 19.

1. The Father, Ἀρχὴ μὲν ἐν πατρὶ ὁ δευῖα, ἀρχὴ δὲ τὸ υἱὸς ὁ παῖς, Basil.

Μίαν γινώσκουμεν τὸν πατέρα ἀσίαν καὶ ῥίζαν καὶ πηγὴν τῆς θεότητος, Concil. Florent.

2. The Son; of whom know.

1. That he received his Divine Essence from the Father, yet so as to be of the same Substance with him, John v. 16. Ὁμοῖσι.

2. This Person became Man, Heb. ii. 16. For,

3. He so became Man as still to remain GOD. Forma servi accessit, non forma Dei recessit, hæc est assumpta non illa consumpta, Aug.

4. Being thus GOD and Man he underwent many Sufferings, and at length Death itself.

5. What he suffered was upon our Account, Isai. liii. 4, 5.

6. After three Days he arose.

7. Having continued a while upon Earth he ascended up to Heaven He continued a while, Ἐλεγχον διδὼς ἐν τοῖς μακρῷ χρόνῳ ὄψας τῆς οἰκίας, Chrys. Acts i. 9.

8. That he is now there in Soul and Body, making Intercession for us.

9. That this Person is the Saviour of the World, and none else, Acts iv. 12.

10. That whosoever doth not know and believe in this Person shall never be saved, John xvii. 3. c. iii. 18. }

3. The Spirit.

1. That he proceedeth from the Father ther and the Son. *Αεε θεο εν π-τεο η υι πνευμα, Epiphan.

2. That he is really and truly GOD,
Acts v. 3, 4. *Ουτως ουναιδιον τη πατρι ουτως την ισλαν ταυτην, Justin.

3. That as CHRIST is our Redeemer, so the Spirit is our Sanctifier and Comforter, 1 Pet. i. 2. John xiv. 26.
cap. xv. 26. cap. xvi. 7.

4. His Properties, which we must not apprehend, as distinguished either from his Essence, or from one another. Consub- stantiale illi est quicquid ejus est, Aug.

1. Omnipresent, Psal. cxxxix.

2. Wise.

3. Almighty.

4. Just.

5. Good.

6. True.

7. Merciful.

8. Eternal.

5. His Works.

1. That he made all things, and that of nothing. Nemo querat ex quibus ista
materiis tam magna tam mirifica opera
Deus fecerit, omnia enim fecit ex nihilo, Aug.

2. That he also upholds and preserves all things: He is the Cause that every thing is that is, and by him their Essence is sustained or upheld, and from him they have their duration;
so that if we should suppose his Essence to be taken away, there would be nothing.

3. That

3. That he disposes and orders all things,
Matt. x. 29, 30.

From the Consideration of the Providence of
G O D we should learn,

1. To acknowledge and admire him.
2. To fear and reverence him, Matt. x. 28.
3. To submit patiently and quietly to whatsoever befalls us in the World, as the Product of infinite Wisdom and Goodness.

Secondly, How does it appear it is so great a Sin not to know G O D?

- I. In that G O D hath so frequently commanded us to know him; as,
1. 1 Chron. xxviii. 9.
 2. Hof. ii. 20.
 3. 2 Pet. iii. 18.

- II. In that G O D is so much displeased with those that know him not, and complains of them, and expostulates with them, Jer. ix. 3.
Isai. i. 2, 3. Hof. iv. 1.

- III. In that he hath denounced so great Threatnings against them; as,
1. Job xviii. 21.
 2. Hof. iv. 6.

- IV. In that he inflicteth the greatest Punishments upon them, Rom. i. 28. Jer. x. 25.

- V. In that this is the Cause and Occasion of all other Sins, 1 Cor. ii. 8. for what Sin dar'st

dar'ſt thou commit if thou kneweſt aright and conſidered'ſt,

1. The Greatneſs of GOD.
2. The Knowledge.
3. The Power.
4. The Juſtice of GOD.

VI. In that this corrupts all Duties, and makes them Sins too ; as,

1. Praying, 1 Cor. 14, 15.
2. Hearing.
3. Receiving Sacraments, 1 Cor. xi. 29.
4. Giving Alms.

VI. It is the cauſe of Deſtruction and Ruine,

1. A Man cannot believe, Rom. x. 14. John
iii. 18.
2. Nor Live aright without Knowledge,
Heb. xii. 14.

VIII. It is a great Sin for us not to know the LORD, becauſe we have ſo many Means whereby to come to the Knowledge of him, John iii. 16, 19.

Thirdly, How may we know whether we know
GOD?

I. By fearing him, 2 Chron. vi. 33.

1. His Glory and Goodneſs, Gen. xxviii.
16, 17.
2. His Grace and Goodneſs, Pſal. cxxx. 4.

IV. By loving him, 1 John iv. 8.

V. By longing to come to him, Pſalm xlii. 1. Pſal. lxxiii. 25. Phil. i. 23.

1. His Wiſdom.
2. — Power.
3. — Mercy.

VII. By delighting ourſelves in him, as the Fountain of all Joy and Comfort, Pſalm lxxxiv. 10.

VIII. By making him our principal and ultimate End, 1 Cor. x. 31.

IX. By being humbled for what heretofore we have done againſt him, Pſalm li. 4.

JER. ix. 9.

Shall I not viſit them for theſe things? ſaith the Lord: Shall not my Soul be avenged of ſuch a Nation as this?

First, GOD takes ſpecial notice of National Sins.

- I. GOD takes notice of all Sins, ſo as,
 1. To remember, Hof. vii. 2. Jer. xiv. 10.
 2. To judge Men according to them, 2 Cor. v. 10.
- II. GOD takes notice of the Sins of ſome Perſons more than others, Amos iii. 2. 1 Chron. xxi. 7.
- III. GOD takes notice of ſome Sins in all Perſons more than others, Heb. xii. 1. Job x. 6. Pſal. xxv. 11.
- IV. GOD takes notice of National Sins moſt of all, Iſai. i. Mal. iii. 9. Jer. v. 9, 20. Such as
 1. Are moſt frequently committed in a Nation, Jer. v. 9.
 2. Such as are committed by the Governours of a Nation, 1 Chron. xxi. 7.
 3. Such as are committed againſt the Law of Nations.

Secondly, GOD will puniſh National Sins with National Judgments.

1. GOD will puniſh Sins, Iſai. xiii. 11.

2. GOD

II. GOD fits the Punishment of some Sins, to the Sins he punisheth, Jud. i. 7.

III. GOD will punish National Sins with National Judgments, Isai. lx. 12. Jer. xxv. 12.

1. Spiritual, by taking away the Gospel, Rev. ii. 5.

2. Temporal, 1 Chron. xxi. 11, 12. by

1. Sword, Jer. xxvii. 8.

2. Famine.

3. Plague,

USE, INFERENCE.

1. GOD that takes notice of National Sins must needs be every where, and know every thing, Psal. lxvi. 7.

2. If GOD punisheth National Sins with National Judgments, then we have no Cause to complain of National Judgments.

3. National Sins require National Repentance.

EXHORTATION.

1. Take notice of National Sins.

2. Be humbled under them, Lament. v. 16.
2 Sam. i. 19, 20.

3. Pray for the Pardon of them, so

1. You may divert the Judgment from the Nation; Jer. xv. 1. or howsoever

2. From yourselves, Ezek. xiv. 14. Gen. xix. 12, 19, 20.

J E R. X. I.

Hear ye the Word which the Lord speaketh.

First, WHAT is the Word ?

- I. The Word of G O D's Providences.
 1. Mercies.
 2. Judgments, Mich. vi. 9.
 1. To Repent, Joel ii. 13.
 2. To Turn.
- II. The Word of his Prophets, 2 Tim. iii. 16.
2 Pet. i. 21.
- III. The Word Preached, 1 Thess. ii. 13.

Secondly, What is it to hear the Word ?

It implies,

1. That we wait upon G O D's Ordinances,
Prov. viii. 34. Luke xxi. 38.
2. That we observe what we hear.
3. Understand what we observe.
4. Believe what we understand.
5. Remember what we believe, Heb. ii. 1.
6. Practise what we remember.
7. Continue in what we Practise.

Thirdly, Why should we hear ?

- I. The οτι, G O D hath commanded it.
- II. The διουτι.
 1. He is our Maker.
 2. Preserver.

3. Redeemer.
4. Governor.
5. Our God.
6. His Word only shews us the way to Happiness.

USE,

I. REPROOF to them

1. That do not come to hear.
2. That do not hear when they are come.
3. That do not mind what they hear.
4. That do not understand what they mind.
5. That do not believe what they understand.
6. That do not practise what they believe.

II. EXHORTATION, Hear GOD's Word,

1. With Reverence, considering,
 1. His Greatness.
 2. Our Vileness.
2. With Caution, Luke viii. 18.
3. With Faith, Heb. iv. 2.
4. With Attention, attending
 1. To the thing spoken.
 2. To the Authority of the Speaker.
 3. Our Obligation to Obey, Deut. xxxii. 46, 47.
5. With Intention
 1. Not only to know,
 2. But to do, John xiii. 17.
Our Intention should be
 1. Absolute and universal, Deut. v. 33.
Jer. xlii. 3, 5, 6. Jac. ii. 10.
 2. Strengthened with a Vow or Oath,
Psal. cxix. 106.
 3. Present, cxix. 60.

4. Re-

4. Renewed every time we hear, Psal. xxvii. 8.
5. Grounded on GOD's Grace, not our Strength. 2 Cor. iii. 5.

MOTIVES.

Consider,

- I. It is GOD's Mercy that we have the Word to hear ; it being the Means
 1. Of Repentance, Acts ii. 37, 38.
 2. Faith, Rom. x. 17. Acts xiii. 48.
 3. To Comfort, Psal. xix. 8. Psal. cxix. 103.
 4. To Eternal Life.
- II. Unless we Hear, GOD may deprive us of his Word.
- III. You frustrate GOD's End in sending his Word.
- IV. The Time will come that you will wish you had heard.
- V. If you do not hearken to GOD, he will not hearken to you, Prov. i. 24, 25.

L A M. iii. 22.

It is of the Lord's Mercies that we are not consumed, because his Compassions fail not.

THE Jews designed to be destroyed in all the Empire of the Medes and Persians, Eſther iii. 9, 11. Being preserved, they appoint a yearly Commemoration of it, Chap. ix. 21, 22, 27. Tho' but of Ecclesiastical Institution, it was always strictly observed.

Our Fifth of November is of the same Nature.

This, as all other our Preservations, must be ascribed to the Mercies of the LORD.

To explain this,

I. We were then, and always are in danger of being consumed.

1. In Body ; as by Gun-powder then, so by a thousand things that may happen continually.
2. In our Estates ; subject then, and every Moment, to be taken from us one way or other, Prov. xxiii. 5. Job i.
3. In our Souls ; by having a false Religion introduced, prejudicial to our Souls Health ; yea, destructive to them.

In what Danger had your Souls been, if Popery had been brought in amongst us ? Then

1. You would not have been permitted to have read the Scriptures in the Vulgar Tongue.
- Nor

Nor ſo much as the Creed, Lord's-Prayer, and Commandments.

Whereas the Scriptures may make you wiſe to Salvation, 2 Tim. iii. 16, 17.

2. Your Publick Devotions muſt have been in Latin too.

So that you could have received no Benefit by the Publick reading the Scriptures.

Nor by the Publick Prayers, 1 Cor. xiv. 15, 16.

Indeed there would not have been properly any Common-Prayer, or Publick-Worſhip; becauſe the People could not have join'd in it.

3. In the Sacrament of the Lord's-Supper you muſt have been forced to believe the Conſecrated Elements to be the very Body and Blood of CHRIST, and ſo to worſhip them.

Yea, and deprived of one half of the Communion, and ſo of the benefit of the whole, Matt. xxvi. 27.

4. You muſt have worſhip'd Images and pray'd to Saints, contrary to the Second Commandment, and ſo have lived and died in a Mortal Sin.

II. We muſt aſcribe it wholly to the LORD that we are not thus conſumed.

1. To his Omnſcience, that knows all their Deſigns, and is preſent at their Conſults, Ezek. xi. 5. 2 Reg. xix. 27.

2. To his Omnipotence; for nothing but that can prevent or fruſtrate the Devil's Deſigns againſt us, Eph. vi. 12. Matt. xvi. 18.

3. It is not only of the LORD, but of his Mercies, that we are not consumed.

For we have highly sinned againſt him, and therefore, without infinite Mercy, muſt needs have periſhed, by Rebellion, Faction, and Diviſions, 2 Tim. iii. 4.

The Novatians and Donatiſts, in Africa, like our Sectaries, deſtroyed that Church.

U S E,

1. Serve GOD that is ſo merciful to you.

2. Live up to the Church he hath ſo miracu-louſly preſerved.

3. Truſt on GOD only for his Preſervation of you for the future, 2 Cor. i. 9, 10.

4. Give Thanks to GOD, and Praise his Name for your Deliverance, Pſal. cxxiv.

L A M. iii. 39.

Wherefore doth a living Man complain, a Man for the puniſhment of his Sins.

First, AFFLICTIONS are the Punishments
of Sin.

I. What are Afflictions?

1. Temporal.

2. Spiritual, Rom. i. 26.

Both are

1. Personal, or,

2. National, Rev. ii. 5. 2 Chron. vii. 13, 14.

II. What by Sin?

The Transgression of the Law, 1 John
iii. 4. 1 Sam. xv. 24.

Consider,

1. God's Will is the Rule of Man's Duty.
2. This Will was first enſtamped on our Hearts.
3. But afterwards it was blotted out by Sin; so that we were ignorant of it.
4. Hence God was pleased to reveal it in Writing.
5. Conformity to this Revealed Will is Holineſs.
9. The Transgression of it is Sin. It may be transgreſſed,
 1. By Omiſſion.
 2. By Commiſſion.

Both,

1. In the Matter.
2. — Manner of the Performance.

III. In what ſenſe are Afflictions ſaid to be the Punishments of Sin?

1. Sin being contrary to GOD's Word, is alſo contrary to his Will.
2. Being contrary to his Will, is contrary alſo to his Nature, Iſai. lix. 2.
3. Therefore it muſt needs diſpleaſe him, Pſal. vii. 11. Pſal. xi. 5.
4. And therefore he cannot but manifeſt his Diſpleaſure againſt it.
And this he doth,
 1. Immediately to the enlighten'd Soul.
 2. Or elſe by laying ſomething upon us which is contrary to our Wills and Natures.
5. This actual manifeſtation of GOD's Diſpleaſure is the Punishment of Sin.

IV. How doth it appear that Afflictions are thus the Punishments of Sin?

1. From Scripture, Pſal. cvii. 17. Lam. i. 8.
2. Reason; becauſe GOD is juſt.

Uſe,

- I. See the Fountain of all Afflictions.
- II. See hence the only Way for the removal of them.
 1. By repenting of, 2 Chron. vii. 14.
 2. Turning from our Sins.

Secondly,

Secondly, We have no Cause to complain of our Afflictions.

1. Considering we have deserved them, Rom. vi. 23.
2. They are less than we have deserved, Ezra ix. 13. Psal. ciii. 10.
3. We enjoy Mercy we do not deserve.

USE

1. Let us acknowledge GOD's Justice in our Punishments, Psal. li. 4.
2. Bless his Mercy.
3. Be humbled for our Sins, 1 Pet. v. 6.
4. Lay hold upon CHRIST for the Pardon of them.

L A M. iii. 40.

Let us search and try our ways, and turn again unto the Lord.

וְנִחַן בְּדַרְכֵינוּ וְנִסֶּה בְּדַרְכֵינוּ

WHEN God afflicts us we should not complain, but search and try our ways, and turn unto him.

First, We should search and try our Ways.

I. What is it to search?

To look into, observe and consider how we walk

1. Towards God.
2. Towards Man.

II. What is it to try our Ways?

1. That we do not only search for, but search until we have found out our Ways.

2. When found out we should try them.

1. By the Revealed Will of God,
Isai. viii. 20.

2. Impartially, Isai. v. 20.

3. Universally.

4. Constantly.

III. What are the Ways we should search and try?

1. Generally: Our whole Man.

2. Particularly:

1. Our

1. Our Understandings ; whether we know what GOD hath commanded us to know.

1. Concerning himſelf, Hoſ. iv. 1.

2. ——— His Son, 1 Cor. ii. 1, 2.

3. ——— His Law.

2. Our Judgments ; whether they be rightly fixed upon his Truths, Eph. iv. 14.

3. Our Thoughts.

4. Our Affections.

1. Whether we Love.

2. ——— Desire.

3. ——— Hope.

4. ——— Grieve.

5. ——— Rejoice as he would have us.

5. Our Words, Jer. viii. 6.

6. Our Actions.

1. Civil

2. Spiritual.

Whether we do them

1. From Right Principles.

2. After a Right manner : Or,

3. To Right Ends.

IV. What neceſſity is there of ſearching and trying our Ways ?

It is neceſſary

1. To the Knowledge of ourſelves, 1 Kings viii. 38.

2. To Repentance of our Sins, Pſal. xvii. 3, 4.

3. To our Converſion to GOD.

4. To our right ſerving him, Pſal. iv. 4.

5. To the Salvation of our Souls.

V. How

V. How muſt we try ourſelves ?1. Negatively.*1. Not by others Examples.*2. Not by our Profeſſion of Religion,
*Röm. ii. 28, 29. Matt. vii. 22.3. Not by our being of ſuch or ſuch a Party, *Matt. v. 20.2. Positively. By the Word of GOD, *Jac.
ii. 12.Secondly, We ſhould turn unto the Lord.*Conſider,*I. We are all born with our Backs to GOD, *Pſal. li. 5.II. Our Hopes are alſo contrary to him.*III. It is our Duty therefore to turn our- things.3. GOD himſelf will try you ere long, *Eccleſ. xii. 14.4. Your not ſearching your Ways is a your Souls, *Matt. xvi. 26.II. EXHOR-

II. EXHORTATION.

Conſider,

First, How eaſy and dangerous it is to be miſtaken in this Point.

I. How eaſy.

1. By reaſon of Self-Love, Matt. vii.

1, 2, 3.

2. By reaſon of the deceitfulneſs of our Hearts, Jer. xvii. 9. Pſ. xix. 12.

3. By reaſon of the outward Likeneſs between real and counterfeit Grace.

II. How dangerous.

1. Thou art ſtill in thy Sins.

2. Wilt continue in them.

3. And ſo go on to Hell, Matt. xxv. 8, 9, 10, 11.

Secondly, How advantageous it will be to ſearch and try your Ways.

1. This will keep you Humble in your own ſight, Job xlii. 5, 6.

2. Take you off from vain Diſputations in Matters of Religion. 1 Tim. vi. 4.

3. Make you more Circumſpect for the future.

4. Make you more ſerious in all Religious Performances.

5. Excite you eſpecially to be looking after CHRIST, Matt. xi. 28, 29.

DIRECTIONS.

1. Set apart ſome Time each Day for this Work, Pſal. iv. 4.

2. Then ſeriously conſider your former Actions and preſent Diſpoſitions.

3. Com-

3. Compare them impartially with the Word of GOD.

4. Never leave off till you have passed Judgment upon yourselves, 1 Cor. xi. 31.

5. If you find your Ways Good, continue in them; if not, amend.

L A M. iii. 40.

----- And turn again to the Lord.

First, WHAT is it to turn again?

I. Man naturally is averse from GOD, Jer. xxxii. 33.

II. Every Sin drives him farther and farther from GOD, Isai. lix. 2.

III. Hence the Scriptures stile our Repentance and Obedience, a turning to the LORD. And so it implies,

1. Repentance of our former Sins, Ezek. xiv. 6.

2. Our forsaking of them.

3. Our preferring GOD before all things.

4. Our Obedience to his Precepts, Ezek. xxxiii. 19.

Secondly, How must we turn?

I. Heartily, Joel ii. 12. Deut. xxx. 10.

II. Universally, Ezek. xviii. 21, 30.

III. Stedfastly.

IV. Pre-

IV. Presently, Jer. xviii. 11.

Thirdly, Why turn again to the Lord?

I. GOD commands it, Zech. i. 3, 4.

II. It is the only Way to Life, Ezek. xviii. 32.

III. If we turn to GOD he will turn to us, Zech. i. 3.

IV. GOD is the only rest of our Souls, Mat. xi. 29.

USE,

I. REPROOF.

II. EXAMINATION.

- 1. Do you forsake the Sins you have been guilty of?
- 2. Perform those Duties you have neglected.

III. EXHORTATION.

Consider,

1. Who you should turn to? Isai. xl. 15, 16, 17, 22.

2. You are all in a possibility of Conversion, Matt. xix. 26.

3. It is GOD's earnest Desire, Ezek. xxxiii. 11.

4. You are obliged to it,

1. By all your Mercies.

2. By all your Judgments.

5. Until you turn you are in a most miserable Condition.

1. Your Sins are not pardoned, Isa. lv. 7.

2. You are obnoxious to every Sin, both as to the Guilt, and Power, or Filth of it.

3. Every Action you do is Sin; your

1. Natural Actions, 1 Cor. x. 31.

2. Civil, Prov. xxi. 4.

3. Spiritual, Prov. xv. 8. Chap. xxi. 27. Chap. xxviii. 9.

4. GOD

4. God is always angry at you, Pſ. vii. 11.
5. All the Threatnings of the Law may be inflicted upon you, Deut. xxix. 19, 20.
6. Your very Bleſſings are curſed, Deut. xxviii. 15, 16. Mal. ii. 2.
7. You are not ſure to be out of Hell one Moment, Luke xii. 20.
8. You will be miſerable to Eternity, Matt. xxv. ult.
6. No ſooner turned than happy.
 1. In the Pardon of Sin, Ezek. xviii. 30.
 2. In cleaſing your Hearts.
 3. In having your Perſons and Performances accepted, Iſai. lxvi. 2.
 4. In God's rejoicing over you, Zep. iii. 17.
 5. In your Title to all the Promiſes, Heb. xiii. 5.
 6. Bleſſed in all you have, Deut. xxviii. 23.
 7. Live in Heaven for ever, Mat. xxv. 46.

M E A N S.

- I. Knowledge, Iſai. i. 2, 3.
- II. Conſideration, Ezek. xviii. 28.
 1. Of the Glory of G O D.
 2. The ſinfulneſs of Sin.
 3. The Proffers of the Goſpel, Mat. i. 29.
 4. The Vanity of the World, 1 Cor. vii. 31.
 5. The Torments of Hell.

- VII. Believe in CHRIST, Acts iii. 16.
- VIII. Continue in Obedience to the Commands of G O D, Acts xiii. 43.

EZEK. xviii. 30.

Repent and turn yourselves from all your Transgressions, so Iniquity shall not be your ruine.

HERE is
First, The Duty, Repent and turn.

Secondly, The Reason, so Iniquity shall not be your ruine.

I. The Duty twofold.

1. Repent.

1. What is it to Repent?

1. To be convinced of Sin, John xvi. 8, 9. Acts ii. 37.

1. Of the Evil of it.

2. Of our Guilt of it.

1. Original, Psal. li. 5.

2. Actual, Psal. lvii. 3, 4.

1. We have done what we ought not.

2. We have not done what we should, Mat. xxv. 41, 42.

3. Of the greatness of our Sins.
We have sinned

1. Against GOD himself, Psal. li. 4. 1 Sam. ii. 25.

2. Against CHRIST, Job. iii. 19.

3. Against frequent Reproofs,
Jer. xxix. 18, 19.

4. Against the Spirit of GOD,
Rev. iii. 20. 1 Thess. v. 19.

H

5. Against

5. Against our own Vows,
Pſal. lxxvi. 13, 14.
2. In Sorrow for our Sins.
 1. Hearty, Joel ii. 13. Acts ii. 37.
 2. Sincere.
 1. Because they offend GOD.
 2. Defile our Souls.
 3. Deserve Hell, Matt. xxv. 41.
 3. Universal, Pſal. xix. 12.
 4. Exceeding all other Sorrow,
Zach. xii. 10.
 5. Accompanied with Shame,
Ezr. ix. 6. Ezek. xxxvi. 31, 32.
3. Forsaking it.
 1. Totally, without reserving any Love to it, Pſal. cxix. 128.
 2. Constantly, so as never more to return to it, 2 Pet. ii. 21, 22.

USE,

- I. Consider what Sins you have committed, and repent of them.
- II. Consider what Sins you are still defiled with, and forsake them.

Consider,

1. Otherwise you live in continual offending of GOD.
2. In continual Curses.
3. In continual danger of Hell.
4. Unless you forsake Sin, GOD will forsake you, Isai. lix. 2.
5. Unless we forsake them, GOD will never forgive them, Isai. i. 16, 17.

What necessity is there of our Repentance and Turning?

It is neceſſary,

1. Neceſſitate Præcepti, Acts xvii. 30.
Matt. iv. 17.
2. Neceſſitate medii,
 1. To Pardon, Acts viii. 22. Chap.
v. 31. Luke xxiv. 47.
 2. To true Faith, Mark i. 15. Acts
xx. 21. Heb. vi. 1.
 3. To our Intereſt in CHRIST,
Mark xvi. 16.
 4. To the Favour of GOD, Rom. v. 1.
 5. To prevent Judgments, Jonab
iii. 5, 6, 7, 10.
 6. To attain true Mercies, Ifai. i.
16, 19.
 7. To avoid Hell, Luke xiii. 3.
 8. To bring us to Heaven, 1 Cor.
xv. 50.

To ſave impenitent Sinners doth not conſiſt,

1. With the Juſtice of GOD, Gen. xviii. 25.
2. With the Mercy of GOD, Ifai. lv. 7.
3. With the Faithfulneſs of GOD, Heb.
xii. 14. Luke xiii. 3.
4. With the Deſign of CHRIST's Death,
Rom. iii. 26. Matt. ix. 13.
5. With the Nature of Heaven.
 1. With the Company, Heb. xii. 23.
 2. With the Objects, 1 Cor. xiii. 12.
 3. With the Employment, Rev. vii.
9, 10, 11, 12, 13.

OBJECTION I. I ſhall then leave my Pleaſures.

1. The Scriptures judge otherwiſe of Sin, that there is no Pleaſure in it, Ifai.
lvii. 20, 21.

2. They are at beſt but brutiſh Pleaſures, Luke xii. 19.
3. They are but for a Moment, Heb. xi. 25. 2 Cor. iv. 17.
4. They will end in Sadneſs and Miſery, Rom. vi. 21. Prov. xxiii. 31, 32.
5. Thou loſeſt greater Pleaſures for them, Pſal. xvi. 11. 1 Pet. i. 8.

OBJECTION II. But there is Profit in them, Acts xix. 27, 28.

1. It is but a ſeeming Profit, Prov. x. 2. Jac. v. 2, 3.
2. We loſe more than we get, Mat. xvi. 26.
3. There is a Curſe attends all ſuch Profits, Mal. ii. 2.
4. Thou wilt gain more by loſing ſuch Profits, 1 Tim. iv. 8. 1 Tim. vi. 6.
1. The Favour of G O D.
2. A Bleſſing upon what thou haſt, Deut. xxviii. 2, 3, 4.
3. Everlaſting Life, Matt. vi. 19, 20.

OBJECTION III. My Sins are great.

1. So were the Iſraelites, yet G O D calls on them to turn, Ezek. xxxiii. 11.
2. Yet if thou turneſt from them they ſhall be pardoned, Ezek. xviii. 21, 22. Iſa. lv. 7.
3. The longer it is before thou turneſt the greater they will be.
4. Tho' they be great G O D's Mercies and C H R I S T's Merits are greater, Pſal. ciii. 9, 10. Heb. vii. 25. Matt. xi. 28.
5. Turn, and Iniquity ſhall not be thy ruine.

MEANS.

I. Meditation. Often conſider the odious and deteſtable Nature of the Sins you have committed, Iſai. iv. 1, 4.

1. How great a GOD it offends, Jer. v. 22.

1. It is poſſible for any one to turn, Matth. xix. 24, 25, 26.
2. It is probable for us more than others.
3. If we Turn G O D will not reject us, John vi. 37.

EZEK.

EZEK. xxiii. 38.

— And have profan'd my Sabbaths.

IT is a great Sin to profane the Sabbath.

Q. What is the Sabbath?

In general, it is Rest. But to understand this more fully, consider,

1. God made all Things of nothing in Six Days.
2. The Seventh Day he rested from the Work of Creation.
3. It being a Day of Rest to himself, he commanded it to be a Day of Rest also to his People, Gen. ii. 2.
4. This Command, as well as others, being almost forgotten by the Fall, He enjoined it again on Mount Sinai, by Moses.
5. When Christ came, He again established the Rest, but alter'd the Day of it, from the Seventh to the First, as appears,
 1. In that He was as faithful as Moses, Heb. iii. 2.
 2. In that the Apostles do not make mention of this Day as lately Instituted, but as before observ'd, Acts xx. 7. 1 Cor. xvi. 2.
 3. It was most fitting that He should ordain and appoint the Time of Worship, who appointed the Worship itself.

4. None but GOD could alter the Day, which GOD himself had set apart for his own Worship.
5. It was upon this Day that our Saviour did in an especial manner appear to his Disciples, John xx. 19, 26. Acts ii.
6. If CHRIST himself had not appointed it, but the Apostles, when they went from the Jews, about Three Years after the Resurrection, then for that Time there would have been no Obligation to this Command.
7. It is expressly call'd, ἡμέρα κυριακή, Rev. i. 10. as, ὁ κύριος κυριακὸν, 1 Cor. xi. 20. and by this Name did the Primitive Christians call it. Vid. Exposition on John xx. 26.
8. The Reason of the Change seems to import the same, it being from the Resurrection of CHRIST; Περὶ ἧς παρασχυνὲ τὸ Πάσχα, τὸ σαββατον τῆς Τετάρτης, ἡ κυριακή τὴν Ἀνάστασιν, Ignat. ad Trall. — So Justin saith, they kept that Day Holy, because Jesus Τῇ αὐτῇ ἡμέρᾳ ἐκ νεκρῶν ἀνέστη. And therefore St. Austin saith, that as soon as CHRIST was risen, jam etiam Dies Dominicus, id est Octavus, qui & primus, incepit celebrari. So that we may very well say with Arbansius, Μερίσμεν δὲ ὁ κύριος τὴν αὐτὴν σαββάτου ἡμέραν εἰς κυριακήν.

II. What is it to profane the Sabbath?

1. It denotes the doing any thing common or worldly upon that Day, Nebem. xiii. 19. Levit. xxiii. 3. Isai. lviii. 13.

2. The

2. The not doing every thing Spiritual that GOD requires from us.

III. How doth it appear to be a Sin thus to profane the Sabbath?

1. Tho' the Day itself be of Positive, yet it is of Divine Institution, and it is GOD's Command that we observe and keep it Holy, Ex. xx. 10. Deut. x. 4. Mat. v. 18.
2. The Duty and Service requir'd upon it is Moral and of Perpetual Obligation.
3. And so also are the Reasons assign'd for the keeping and observing of it.
 1. It is the Sabbath of the LORD.
 2. Because GOD rested on it from his Work.
 3. He blessed and sanctify'd it.

IV. Who are guilty of this Sin?

1. Such as follow their worldly Employments on it, unless necessary, Iſa. lviii. 3.
2. Such as use Recreations and Sports, Iſai. lviii. 13.
3. Such as neglect Private Duties.
4. Such as absent themselves from the Publick Ordinances.
5. Such as do come, but yet do not Worship GOD in Spirit and in Truth.
6. Such as suffer their Families to profane it.

USE,

Remember the Sabbath-Day to keep it Holy.

And to walk humbly with thy God.

WE should walk humbly with GOD.
Two things required.

*First, To walk with GOD.

I. To walk with GOD.

1. What is it to walk?

1. To move the Body from Place to Place.

2. For the Motion of Spirits, Job i. 7.

3. Improperly it is taken for Living,

DOCTRINE. IT is a Sin not to receive Cor-

1. To the deadning of Sin, Job xxxvi.
8, 9, 10. Ifai. xxvii. 9.
1. Of the Sin in particular the Judgment comes for.

1. How may we know it?

1. By the nature of the Judgment,
*1 Chron. xxi. 12. Jud. i. 6, 7.*2. The Time of it, 1 Reg. xiii. 4.
Act. xii. 22.

2. How are we to improve Afflictions to deaden a particular Sin?

1. GOD manifests his Displeasure against it.

2. He hath warned thee to have a care of it hereafter.

3. The next time thou committeſt it it will be greater.

4. And therefore thou may'ſt expect a greater Punishment, Jobn v. 14.

2. All Sin: Conſidering,

Fourthly, Who are guilty of this Sin ?

1. All that are not sensible of, nor affected for Corrections.
2. All that murmur against G O D for them.

7. Improve your Afflictions aright in time, and you shall be free from Afflictions to Eternity, 2 Cor. iv. 17.

ZEPH. iii. 2.

בִּיהוּרָה לֹא בִטְחוּרָה

She trusted not in the Lord.

IT is a great Sin not to trust in the Lord.

First, What is it to trust in the Lord?

It is an Act of Faith whereby the Soul relies and depends upon the Lord for whatsoever it wants or desires. What in the Old Testament is בִּיהוּרָה בִּטְחוּרָה in the New Testament is πιστεύειν εἰς τὸν θεόν.

To open this consider,

- I. It is God's Prerogative, as God, not to depend upon any one.
- II. All Creatures, in that they are Creatures, do incessantly depend upon him that did create them.
- III. Man being fallen from God doth naturally forget his dependence upon him.
- IV. But, howsoever, being still an infirm Creature, is forced to lay itself upon something or other: Therefore all trust in something.

V. There-

V. Therefore when GOD commands us to trust in him, his Will is, that we leave all our other Confidences, and rely and depend only upon him for whatsoever we want or desire.

This relying is called,

1. The hoping in GOD, Pſalm cxxx. 7.

יְהוָה יִשְׁרָאֵל אֱלֹהֵינוּ

2. Expecting from GOD, Pſalm xlii. 5.

כִּי מִמֶּנּוּ חֲקוּוֹתַי

3. Staying upon GOD, Iſai. x. 20.

וְנִשְׁעָן עַל יְהוָה παραθήσεται ὁ θεὸς τὸν ἐλπίον.

Chap. L. 10. שְׁעָן

4. Trusting in GOD. בְּטַחָהּ

Secondly, What is there in GOD we should trust in? GOD, absolutely considered, is not the Object of trust; but,

1. His Wisdom, Pſal. cxlvii. 5. 2 Pet. ii. 9.

2 Chron. xx. 12.

2. Power, Matt. xix. 26. Iſai. li. 5.

3. Goodness and Mercy, Pſalm cxxx. 7.

Pſal. lii. 8. Pſal. xlii. 5.

4. Faithfulness, Deut. xxxii. 4.

5. Eternity, 1 Tim. vi. 17.

Thirdly, What should we trust in GOD for?

For all that concerns either Soul or Body.

1. Of Soul; as,

1. Pardon of Sin, Iſai. xliii. 25.

2. Gratification, Rom. v. 1.

3. Cleansing of our Hearts, Eze. xxxvi. 26.

4. Saving of our Souls.

2. Body, 1 Tim. iv. 8.

There are three Seasons when we ought to trust in GOD especially for our outward Estate.

1. When we fear Affliction, Pſalm lvi. 3.
we are then to truſt
 1. That GOD will prevent them, Pſalm cxix. 39.
 2. Or enable us chearfully to go through them, Phil. iv. 11, 12.
 3. Or turn them for our good.
2. When we feel Afflictions, Jer. xvi. 19.
then truſt in GOD.
 1. To ſanctify them.
 2. To ſupport you under them, 1 Cor. x. 13.
 3. To deliver you from them, 2 Pet. ii. 9. Pſalm xxxiv. 19.
3. When we are free from Afflictions, truſt in GOD.
 1. To bleſs this prosperous Eſtate unto you, and enable you to make a good uſe of it.
 2. To continue it unto you ſo long as it is good for you, Pſal. xxx. 6, 7.
 3. To prepare you for a Change, whenſoever he ſhall think it beſt for you.

Fourthly, How ſhould we truſt in GOD?

- I. So as to truſt in none but him, Prov. iii. 5.
 1. Not in Wickedneſs, Pſalm lxii. 10. Iſai. xxx. 12. Chap. xlvii. 10.
 2. Not in our own Righteouſneſs, Ezek. xxxiii. 13.
 3. Not in any Secular Power, Jerem. xvii. 5. Pſalm cxlvi. 2.
 4. Not in Wealth and Riches, Pſal. xlix. 6. Mark x. 24. Pſalm x. 7.
- II. So as to fear none but him, Iſai. xii. 2. Pſal. xxvii. 1. Pſal. xlvi. 1, 2. Pſal. xxiii. 41.

III. So

III. So as not to use any indirect Means for the attainment of our Desires.

IV. So as still to use the Means he himself hath appointed.

V. So as still to be much in praying to him, Ezek. xxxvi. 37.

VI. Trust in him always, Pſal. lxi. 8. yea, in the greatest Exigencies, Job xiii. 15.

Fifthly, What Grounds have we whereon to put our trust in GOD?

I. His Promises.

1. GOD hath given us Promises as well as Precepts.

2. His Promises are either Spiritual or Temporal, 1 Tim. iv. 8.

3. They are either Absolute or Conditional.

4. In Conditional-Promises the Condition must be fulfilled before the Promise is performed, Ezek. xxxiii. 14, 15. Matt. xi. 28. Rom. viii. 28. Pſal. xxxiv. 9, 10.

5. All Absolute Promises in themselves are Conditional: but when the Condition is performed, certain and infallible, Heb. vi. 17, 18.

II. CHRIST'S Merits; in him the Promises are confirmed, Rom. xv. 8. Gal. iii. 17. 2 Cor. i. 20.

1. The Promises are ratified and confirmed by his Death, Heb. ix. 15, 16.

2. The Blessings promised cannot be obtained but only by CHRIST.

3. They can be obtained but only by Faith in CHRIST.

Sixthly,

Sixthly, How doth it appear to be a Sin not to trust in GOD?

1. It is contrary to GOD's Command, Prov. iii. 5. Pſal. vi. 2, 8. Pſal. cxv. 9, 10, 11.
2. It is much displeasing to GOD, 2 Chro. xvi. 12.
3. It is much dishonouring him, Rom. iv. 20.

Seventhly, How may we know whether we trust in him? They trust not in GOD,

1. Who know him not, Pſal. ix. 10.
2. Who use unlawful Means for the attainment of their Desires.
3. Who fear any thing more than GOD.
4. Who trust in any thing besides GOD.

USE.

I. Repent of this Sin.

II. Reform it.

Consider,

1. GOD takes special notice of them that trust in him, Nabum i. 7.
2. This is put for all Worship, Pſal. cxv. 9.
3. By this means thou may'st have whatsoever good thou desirest, Pſal. xxxvii. 5.
4. Our trusting in him endears him to us, Pſalm xvi. 1. Pſalm cxliii. 8. Pſalm vii. 1. Pſalm xxxvii. 40.
5. There is nothing we can have any ground to trust in but GOD.
6. GOD oft-times brings his People into Afflictions, on purpose that they may exercise this Grace.
7. They that trust not in the LORD can never expect any Mercy, as a Mercy, from him.
8. There is no other Way to Happiness, but by Faith and Trust.

9. Trust-

9. Trusting in GOD keeps the Heart in a continual Quietness and Tranquility, Pſal. xlv. 1, 2.

10. They that trust in GOD are sure to be happy, Prov. xvi. 20. Psalm xxxi. 19.

OBJECTION.

I. Some have trusted in the LORD, and yet have been in as great Afflictions as others; as David, CHRIST.

ANSWER.

1. The Saints of GOD have experienced in all Ages, that if they trusted in GOD, he did help them, Pſal. xxii. 4, 5. Pſal. xxviii. 7.
2. And therefore when they were still afflicted, those Afflictions became Mercies to them; and so they were delivered from the Affliction, or evil of the Affliction.

II. But I have trusted and am not helped.

1. Examine whether thou hast trusted aright.
2. Perhaps thou hast not performed the Conditions of the Promise.
3. Perhaps thou trustedst in GOD for what he knew was not good for thee.
4. Perhaps he hath given thee something better instead of it.
5. Or else thou hast not trusted long enough.

III. But I am a Sinner and dare not.

1. It is true we Sinners have cause to fear him.
2. But so as to trust in him, Pſal. xl. 3.
3. The greater Sinner thou art the more need thou hast to trust in him.
4. Not trusting in GOD will not lessen, but encrease thy Sins.

ZEPH. iii. 2.

She drew not near to her God.

לֹא קִרְבָּה אֶל אֱלֹהֶיהָ

First, HOW should we draw near to God?

I. Generally, by Worshipping him, Matt.
 xv. 8, 9. So the Targum.
 וּלְפֹלַחַן דִּאֱלֹהֵיהָ לֹא אֶחְקִרְבָּהּ

II. Particularly.

1. In the Performance of Duties.

1. Hearing, Ezek. xxxiii. 31.
2. Praying, Isai. xxix. 13.
3. Receiving the Sacraments.
4. Meditation.
 1. Of his Word, Psal. i. 2.
 2. Works, Psal. lxxvii. 11, 12.
 3. Perfections, Psal. lxiii. 6.

2. In the Exercise of Graces.

1. Love, Deut. vi. 5.
2. Desire, Psal. lxxiii. 25.
3. Hope, Heb. vii. 19.
4. Trust, Psal. lxxiii. 28.
5. Joy, Phil. iv. 4.

Secondly, How does it appear to be a Sin not to draw nigh to God?

1. It contradicts the Divine Commands,
Jam. iv. 8.
2. It is displeasing to God, Isai. xxix. 13.
3. It is a dishonour to him.

Thirdly,

Thirdly, Who are guilty of this Sin?

1. Such as are ignorant of GOD.
2. Such as absent themselves from the Ordinances of GOD.
3. Such as continue in Sin, for they keep at a distance from GOD, Isai. lix. 2.

USE. Draw nigh to GOD.

Consider,

1. It is your Privilege, as well as Duty, a Privilege purchased by CHRIST, Heb. iv. 15, 16.
2. If there be any real Pleasure to be enjoy'd on this side Heaven, certainly it is in drawing near to GOD, Psal. lxxiii. 28.
3. It is not only the greatest Pleasure, but the highest Honour we are capable of, Psal. lxxiii. 28. יְהוָה אֱלֹהֵינוּ יִשְׁמְרֵנוּ וְיִשְׁכְּלֵנוּ וְיִשְׁמְרֵנוּ וְיִשְׁכְּלֵנוּ
4. Do you draw nigh to GOD, and GOD will draw nigh to you, Jac. iv. 8.
5. Unless you draw near to GOD in time, ye must be separated from GOD to Eternity.
6. Draw near to GOD whilst you live, and you shall be sure to come to him when you die.

ZACH.

ZACH. i. 3.

Thus ſaith the Lord of Hoſts, turn ye unto me, ſaith the Lord of Hoſts, and I will turn unto you, &c.

CONVERSION is a Duty that concerns all Men.

Impediments to Conversion,

I. Ignorance, Hof. iv. 6. That Man muſt not go to Heaven without true Knowledge, but he cannot ſee if he hath it not. Hence the State of Sin is called a State of Ignorance, 1 Pet. i. 14. Ignorance

1. Of GOD: The great Reason why Men do not turn unto him is, becauſe they do not know him.

2. Of themſelves: Neither what they are, nor whoſe they are, nor how miſerable they are.

3. Of the true nature of Conversion, even a giving up themſelves wholly to the Love and Service of GOD.

II. Inconſideratenefs, Iſai. i. 3.

III. Want of Self-Examination: Men take it for granted that they are turned already, and therefore ſeek not for any further turning.

IV. The Cares of this World and deceitfulneſs of Riches, Mark iv. 19.

V. Preſent Impunity, Eccl. viii. 11.

VI. The ſtrength of our darling Sins, Pſal. xviii. 23. Heb. xii. 1.

VII. Bad

VII. Bad Examples, Eph. v. 6, 7.

VIII. The subtilty of Satan, 1 Pet. v. 8. if all should turn to GOD he should lose all his Subjects.

IX. The Sins of Professors.

X. Prejudices against, and Mistakes about Religion ; as,

1. A despised,

2. A melancholy kind of living.

USE, Exhortation to turn.

First, Motives to it.

Secondly, Directions about it.

I. Motives : Considerations, Suppositions.

1. Consider

1. Who it is that calls upon you to turn.

The Great GOD ! Isai. xl. 15, 17, 22.
not benefited by you.

2. Who you are that he calls upon to turn : His own Creatures, his professed Servants.

3. What Engagements lie upon you : He made, maintained, sent his Son to save, his Spirit to sanctify you.

4. What Misery you'll lie under unless you turn.

1. Never a Sin is pardoned to you till you be turned to GOD, Isa. lv. 7.

2. Never a Sin is subdued under you till you be turned to GOD : So that you cannot promise yourselves exemption from Atheism, Blasphemy, Idolatry, Rebellion, Witchcraft, Adultery, Murder, or any other Sin.

3. No-

3. Nothing you do but is a Sin, natural Actions, 1 Cor. x. 31. Civil, Prov. xxi. 4. Spiritual, Prov. xv. 8. Cb, xxi. 27. Cb. xxviii. 9. Isa. lxvi. 3.
4. Hence, as you at all times Sin against GOD, so GOD at all times is angry with you, Pſal. vii. 11.
5. Hence there is never a threatening against what Sin ſoever, but is denounced against you, and you know not how ſoon it may be inflicted upon you; becauſe you lie under both the Guilt and Power of every Sin, but never a Fromiſe for you, Deut. xxix. 30.

DIRECTIONS.

I. Endeavour to get a right Knowledge of GOD, and the chief of Christian Religion. 'Tis Ignorance that is the first Impediment that keeps us from GOD, and it is Knowledge must be the first Means to bring us to him. To Sacrifice to an unknown God was indeed the Athenian, but is no true Christian Worship. No, we must either first know the God we ought to serve, or we can never serve the God that we are to know, 1 Chron. xxviii. 9. Light was the first thing GOD made in the Creation of the World, and 'tis the first thing he doth in the Conversion of a Soul to himself; without which 'tis as impossible for us to turn to GOD, as it is to be Converted and not Converted at the same time; for our true Knowledge of GOD is one, yea, and the first part of our turning to him. And so to say that Man is Converted that doth not know GOD, is as much as to say, that Man is Converted that doth not love GOD. And how to love GOD, and yet not to know him, is a thing impossible. 'Tis the Eye that affects the Heart; unseen Beauty, be it never so lovely in itself, it is not at all taking unto others. Whoever yet loved a Person he never saw? Or was enamoured with that he never heard of? Whoever was afraid of an Hell, or desirous of an Heaven he was never made acquainted with? Or fell in love with that GOD he never attained to the Knowledge of? No, we must either first know GOD rightly, or we can never serve him faithfully. And not only GOD in his Nature and Attributes, but likewise in his Works and Word; for as it is impossible for you to serve the God you do not know, know, so it is impossible for you to perform right Service to him, unless you know the Service you ought to perform; so that all ye that ever desire to serve GOD here, or enjoy him hereafter, must labour for a certain Knowledge of both the Fundamental and Practical Principles of Religion, and to use all Means to the attainment of such a Knowledge, to pray, read, hear, and study the Scriptures; without which it is as impossible for us ever to come to Heaven, as it is to come to a Place, and yet never go the way that leads unto it. 'Tis Prayer, and Reading, and Hearing, that is the Way to Heaven; and if any of you think much to walk in this Way, I pray you think not much if you never come thither; for this is the Way that GOD hath chalked out for us, and he that will not walk in it must be content never to come to the Place that it leads unto.

II. Consider what you know. And truly this is as necessary as the former; for it is not the habitual, but the actual Knowledge and Consideration of what we know that will be advantageous to us, Ezek. xviii. 28. It is not the Potion we have, but the Potion we drink that cures the Disease; neither is it the Plaster we keep, but the Plaster we apply that heals the Wound: So it is not the Things we know, but the Truths we consider that do us good. And consider, how to consider is a thing you can all do, and do all do almost every Moment of your Life; and why then not consider of what doth so nearly concern you as this doth? Therefore betake yourselves to some private and solitary Place, remote from the Cares, and Fears, and Tumults of the World, very seriously to consider of what you know concerning GOD and CHRIST, the World to come, and the way unto it ; in particular,

1. The Glory of that GOD every Sinner offends.
2. The Holineſs of that Law every Sinner tranſgreſſes.
3. The ſinfulneſs of every Sin that every Sinner commits.
4. The many Proffers of the Goſpel that every Sinner neglects.
5. The Vanity of the World that every Sinner embraces.
6. The greatneſs of that Torment that every Sinner deſerves.

III. Examine yourſelves by what you do conſider. Do not only conſider what Sin is in general, but examine yourſelves concerning your own Sins in particular, both of the Sins you are guilty of, and alſo of the Sins you are defiled with, Lam. iii. 40.

IV. Be humbled under both the Guilt and the Filth of Sin ; ſo as to look upon thyſelf as the ſinfulleſt of all Creatures, and the miſerableſt of all Sinners, crying out, as Lam. v. 16.

V. Having humbled thyſelf before GOD, pour out thy Soul unto him, go with the Publican, Luke xviii. 13. or with the Prodigal, Luke xv. 21. Thus do thou confeſs the greatneſs of thy Tranſgreſſions to him, and bewail the ſtrength of thy Corruptions before him. Send up thy Sighs and Tears to GOD, that he may ſend them down again in Bleſſings unto thee.

VI. Lay

VI. Lay hold upon CHRIST with the hand of Faith, for thy Saviour and Redeemer, apply his Merit to thy Person, to take away the Guilt of all the Sins that were committed by thee; and his Spirit to thy Nature, to take away the Filth of those Sins that have dominion over thee; close with him upon his own Terms.

VII. Having laid hold upon the Spirit of CHRIST by Faith, endeavour to act the Graces of CHRIST in thy Life. 'Tis CHRIST that first puts Grace into our Hearts, but we must put it forth in our Lives, and that not only one or two, or many, or most, but all the Graces of the Spirit, Gal. v. 22.

VIII. Continue in the exercise of these Graces; as we must not act only one, but all the Graces, so we must not act Grace only at one, but at all times, Acts xiii. 43.

De Ritibus Ecclesiasticis.

1 COR. XI. 16.

*Si quis autem contentiosus esse videtur ;
nos talem consuetudinem non habemus, neque Ecclesie Dei.*

QUOT, quantisque controversiis Ecclesia Anglicana hisce diebus exercitatur, quamque potentibus pariter ac infestis cingitur inimicis, omnes videmus quidem & moleste ferimus, sed non miramur, utpote pro comperto habentes, hoc constans fere ac perpetuum fuisse Ecclesie verè Christianæ ubicunque constitutæ fatum. Si omnes enim Ecclesiasticas ab ipsis Apostolicis usque ad hæc nostra tempora deductas evolvamus historias, nullam inveniemus ætatem, quâ Ecclesia Catholica vel ab Hæreticis vel a Schismaticis, vel ab utrisque simul non infestata fuit. Nimirum in Domini agro zizania juxta triticum ab inimico sata sunt, & usque ad messem unâ crescent. Verumenimvero is est Domini nostri in agrum suum amor, ea Dei optimi maximi erga Ecclesiam suam benevolentia, ut Triticum à Zizaniis, Evangelicam doctrinam ab hæresi, aut à scismate disciplinam penitus suffocari nunquam permiserit. Ac proinde nihil est quod vereamur, ut Ecclesia nostra tot adversariorum impetus sustineat, cum ipsa a Deo omnipotenti sustentetur, tanquam purum sanumque Ecclesie suæ universæ membrum.

At vero quo purior, quo sanior, Deoque gratior est nostra Ecclesia, eo plures & atrociores inter

inter homines adverſarios habet, qui ultra citra-que ei ſe totos opponunt, & ſi deſtruere non poſſunt, ſaltem perturbare conantur. Hinc enim Pontificii, illinc Sectarii, & dictis eam & factis inceſſunt, carpunt, exagitant, omnes experiuntur machinas quibus nova ſua dogmata ritusque nobis obtrudant, noſtramque adeo Eccleſiam vel diruant prorſus vel corrumpant.

At nos interea Dei præſidio freti, ad univerſalem provocamus Eccleſiam, ſingula cujuſque modi adverſariorum tela, hoc uno ſancti Apoſtoli clypeo excipientes, nos talem non habemus conſuetudinem, neque Eccleſiæ Dei. Nec quidem opus eſt aliud regeramus, cum hoc palmarium illud ſit argumentum, quo omnes Eccleſiæ adverſarii redarguantur, atque eo etiam nomine digniſſimum, de quo hoc loco & tempore pauca differamus.

Imprimis igitur annotare licet, inter eos qui Eccleſiam Corinthiacam recens fundatam ſollicitabant, non fuiſſe, qui viros quidem capitibus velatis ſive tectis, mulieres vero retectis ſive non velatis, in publicis verſari cœtibus oportere contendebant. Contra hunc ritum à nonnullis tunc temporis introduci cœptum, Apoſtolus in hoc undecimo capite primæ ad eos epiſtolæ, capite a primo uſque ad hunc decimum ſextum verſiculum fuſe diſputat, & contrarium, quo viri quidem retectis, tectis autem capitibus mulieres Deum publicè adorent, ubique obſervandum eſſe pluribus graviſſimiſque argumentis demonſtrat. Primo enim argumentatur è Teſtimonio divino, non quidem directe, ſed per conſequentiam, ex eo ſcilicet quod è ſacris Scripturis conſtet, virum eſſe imaginem & gloriam Dei, & caput Mulieris, Mulierem vero gloriam eſſe viri, ex eo & propter eum conditam, adeoque viro inferiorem, unde infert Apostolus, virum decere capite aperto esse quod tunc temporis eminentiæ erat signum; Mulierem autem Velamen, subjectionis indicium gestare, præsertim in sacris conventibus, ubi omnia decenter ac ordine fieri debent, quandoquidem ipse Deus peculiari modo per angelos suos præsens adest, ubi religiosus ipsi cultus exhibetur. Hoc argumentum late tractat, usque ad versiculum duodecimum, & deinde alterum sumit à jure Naturali, à communi hominum consensu & consuetudine. Apud vos ipsos, inquit judicate, num decorum sit mulierem non velatam Deum orare? Annon ipsa quidem natura vos doceat quod viro comatum esse dedecori sit? Contra mulieri comatam esse decori sit; Nam Coma pro velamine data est ei. Ultimo autem in loco clarissimum suum certissimumque profert argumentum, his verbis conceptum, si quis autem contentiosus esse videtur; nos talem non habemus consuetudinem, neque Ecclesiæ Dei.

Ac si dixisset Apostolus, Quod si quis adeo contentiosus est, ut hisce non victus rationibus adhuc contenderit, quod viro quidem recto, mulieri autem nudo capite Deum orare liceat, unum adhuc superest argumentum, quo & ipse & omnes Christiani necesse habent se convictos fateri, hoc scilicet, quod nos talem consuetudinem non habemus neque Ecclesiæ Dei: Sed apud nos, & apud omnes alias Dei Ecclesias, contraria prorsus consuetudo obtinuit, quâ viri quidem capita sua retegant, sua vero tegant mulieres quandocunque sacra Deo peragunt.

Hic verus est ac genuinus horum Apostoli verborum sensus, isque adeo perspicuus certusque, ut ampliori explicatione non indigeat. Veruntamen hoc unum adnotare liceat, verba illa ἐκκλησίας ὡς Θεοῦ in nonnullis Græcis Manuscriptis legi in numero singulari, ἐκκλησία ὡς Θεοῦ. Sic etiam legit Syrus Interpres, veris enim ܝܠܗܐ ܕܝܗܘܐ ܕܥܝܠܐ ܕܥܝܠܐ Neque Ecclesia Dei. Quæ ipsa etiam sunt verba vulgatæ Latinæ versionis, eademque habentur apud D. Cyprianum, aliosque Patres Latinos. Sed sensus eodem redit. Nam ἡ ἐκκλησία in singulari, universalem denotat, ex omnibus Ecclesiis constantem: Et αἱ ἐκκλησίαι in plurali, ut indefinitè posita, omnes significant Ecclesias, è quibus universalis constat. Utrouque itaque modo ad universalem Ecclesiam hic appellatur, & argumentum ab illius consuetudine ducitur. De quo propterea S. Theodoretus, recte ait, Ἐκκλησία ἓν ἐστὶν ὁ λόγος ἐν πλείοις καὶ πρὸς λίαν ἑιρημίας. Sufficit hoc ad refellendos vel maxime contentiosos. Ostendit enim Apostolus non sibi soli hæc ita videri sed omnibus Dei Ecclesiis. Adeo ut qui contra fecerit ὁ λόγος τῇ ἐκκλησίᾳ Universæ Ecclesiæ adversetur, ut Theophylactus, & ante eum Divus Chrysostomus in locum annotavit.

Hæc Apostoli verba breviter sic explicata, luculentam nobis materiam præbent, ad differendum de rectâ Ecclesiarum Provincialium constitutione, & de optimâ ratione quâ Ecclesiasticæ quævis, præsertim de ritibus, controversiæ dirimantur. Enimvero per omnia usque à Christi Passione secula quam plurimæ Ecclesiæ Provinciales in universo fere terrarum orbe constitutæ fuerunt, quæ omnes collectæ unam illam faciunt Ecclesiam, quam propterea Catholicam sive universalem vulgo nuncupamus: Quæ scilicet ex universis Ecclesiis, non iis tantummodo quæ uno eodemque temporis articulo existunt, sed quæ unquam extiterunt, computandâ est.

Hæ porro omnes omnium ſeculorum Eccleſiæ in neceſſariis fidei articulis ſemper conſenſerunt. Quantum autem ad ritus attinet, iſti partim ſingularibus Eccleſiis proprii fuerunt ac peculiareſ, partim vero omnibus communes. Ritus qui uni vel alteri Eccleſiæ proprii ſunt, ab eâdem prohibitu abrogari poſſunt, vel retineri; & ab aliis etiam vel repudiari poſſunt, vel admitti. Adia-phororum enim naturam habent, atque ideo vim nullam obtinent, niſi quam ab iſtâ recipiunt Eccleſiâ, cujuſ autoritate ſanciti ſunt. Qui vero Eccleſiæ univerſali, hoc eſt omnibus per omneſ ætates Eccleſiis, vel quod tantidem eſt, maximæ illarum parti ſemper communes fuere ritus, iidem à ſingulis etiamnum Eccleſiis obſervari debent. Neque enim in ſingularis cujuſpiam Eccleſiæ poteſtate ſitum eſt, ritus ab univerſali Eccleſiâ vel obſervatos rejicere, vel rejectos obſervare. Si qua horum alterutrum fecerit, Schiſmatica eſt, a Chriſti Corpore ſe diſjungens. Ut quævis autem Eccleſia rectè conſtituatur, & ita ut verum ſanumque Catholicæ membrum permaneat, neceſſe eſt, ut ad Catholicam ſive univerſalem, in omnibus quoad fieri poteſt, ſe conformet, & diſciplinam rituſque illius æque ac doctrinam religioſe complectatur. Quod ne temerè à me dictum videatur, hiſce argumentis confirmatum dabo.

Primum nobis argumentum ſuppeditant hæc ipſa Apoſtoli verba, quæ ſub manibus habemus. Enimvero Corinthiaca Provincialis erat Eccleſia, in quam nonnulli novum quendam ritum invehere conati ſunt, ut viri ſcilicet tectis, mulieres nudis capitibus Deum orarent. De quâ re Apoſtolus certior factus, contra iſtum ritum hoc loco diſputat, probatque eum nequaquam ab iſtâ Eccleſiâ admitti poſſe. Et ultimum præcipuumque argu-argumentum ſuum ducit è conſuetudine Eccleſiæ univerſalis, ut ante obſervatum eſt, ex eo nimirum quod aliæ omnes Eccleſiæ non talem, ſed contrariam prorſus conſuetudinem haberent, ut viri ſcilicet nudis, mulieres vero tectis capitibus adorarent. Quod ſi quis inquit contentioſus eſſe videtur, nos talem conſuetudinem non habemus neque Eccleſiæ Dei. Nimirum ac ſi in hunc modum argumentaretur, Quod contrarium eſt conſuetudini ab aliis omnibus Eccleſiis receptæ, non debet admitti à Corinthiaca.

Atqui hoc contrarium eſt conſuetudini ab aliis omnibus Eccleſiis receptæ.

Ergo, &c.

Quod ſi Eccleſia Corinthiaca ad alias omnes Eccleſias ſe accommodare, & earum conſuetudines ritusque obſervare non teneretur, hoc Apoſtoli argumentum nullius ponderis aut momenti eſſet. Ex hâc enim hypotheſi ritus iſte admitti potuiſſet ab Eccleſiâ Corinthiaca etiamſi contrarius eſſet conſuetudini ab aliis omnibus Eccleſiis receptæ: ideoque major propoſitio apertiſſimè falſa eſſet. At vero Apoſtolum legitime argumentatum fuiſſe extra dubium eſt. In hiſce enim conſcribendis ipſo Dei Spiritu, quæ ſumma eſt ratio, concitatus erat. Adeo ut neque in ipſo argumento neque in argumentandi modo vel fallere poſſet vel falli. Ac proinde ſumma etiam ratio poſtulat, ut unaquæque talis, qualis erat Corinthiaca, Provincialis ſcilicet Eccleſia, omnium aliarum ſive Eccleſiæ univerſalis conſuetudines accuratè obſervet. Si qua enim eas non obſervat, hoc ipſo infallibili argumento gragravissimi erroris Schismaticisque convincatur. Neque possibile est, ut sese quovis prætecto defendat. Cum ipse enim Deus hoc argumentum Apostolo suo dictaverit, necessario etiam exinde sequitur, ipsius Dei voluntatem esse, ut singulae Ecclesiae Provinciales Universali conformes sint; Atque etiam ut hunc argumentandi modum ab ipso edoctum ad determinandas Ecclesiae controversias semper adhibeamus. Hoc itaque primum sit nostrum argumentum, ab ipso Apostolico seu divino potius argumentandi modo assumptum.

Deinde ad rectam Provincialis cujuscunque Ecclesiae constitutionem, necessarium esse, ut Ecclesiae universae disciplina ac ritus ab eadem observentur, constat ex ipsa Ecclesiae naturâ ac notione. Ecclesia enim generatim sic dicta, una est permagna hominum ubicunque terrarum Christi fidem profitentium Societas aut Congregatio, cujus, singulae Provinciales Ecclesiae totidem sunt partes sive membra. In omnibus autem hujusmodi Societatibus qualis est Ecclesia, pars omnis toti suo congrua, & pars minor majori consentanea esse debet. Hoc ratio suadet. Hoc jus naturale edicit. Hoc communis hominum consensus necessarium esse statuit. Adeo ut si quid à majori, multo magis quod à maxima cujusvis Societatis parte constituitur, eodem pars reliqua constringatur, illudque observare necesse habeat, si membrum manere & Privilegiis istius Societatis gaudere velit. Quod cum in omnibus cujuscunque generis Societatibus valeat, multo magis in Ecclesia valere debet, quam omnium ordinatissimam esse decet.

Secundum hæc magni hujusce corporis, quæ Ecclesia universa dicitur, caput est ipse Christus, qui spiritum suum in omnia illius membra æqualiter liter diffundit. Hanc Ecclesiæ Ideam sive notionem Sanctus Apostolus in Epistola ad Ephesios alibique passim explicat. Cum ipse itaque Christi spiritus in omnia corporis ipsius membra, quæ Provinciales dicuntur Ecclesiæ, diffundatur, eaque ducat, & gubernet, quicquid ab omnibus hæc membris peragitur, ipsi Sancto Spiritui jure acceptum referatur. Quamvis enim singula membra aliquid fortasse humanum pati possint, quod tamen omnia conjunctim semperque fecerunt, aliunde proficisci non potuit, quam à communi, ut ita loquar omnium principio à divino nimirum Spiritu, quo omnia communiter acta sunt: Ac proinde non potest non necessarium esse à singulis etiamnum membris sive Ecclesiis provincialibus observatu. Quicquid enim a Spiritu Sancto procedit, eo ipso nomine sanctum est, & necessariò ab omnibus observandum.

Et præterea quæcunque Ecclesia singularis hujusmodi communes Universæ ritus non observat, eo se eodem, quo universa, spiritu non duci, adeoque verum sanumque illius membrum non esse prodit. Inter omnes autem constat, quod ad rectam Ecclesiæ cujuscumque Provincialis constitutionem, ante omnia necessarium sit, ut verum sanumque universalis Ecclesiæ membrum fiat, ac propterea non potest etiam non necessarium esse, ut communes illius ritus exquisitè observet.

Tertium in hac causa argumentum petimus ex Apostolica institutione omnium istiusmodi rituum, qui ab Universali Ecclesia observati sunt. Quicquid enim Apostoli in prima Ecclesiarum institutione, illis observandum tradiderunt, ad rectam earum constitutionem necessarium esse extra dubium est. Alioquin enim aliquid superfluum ab iis institutum fuisset: Quod in Apoſtolos cadere non potuit, utpote qui nihil in Eccleſia inſtituerint, niſi quod divinitus ſibi commiſſum habuerunt. Quod cum omnibus Chriſtianis perſuaſum ſit, de nihilo inter eos magis convenit, quam Apoſtolicam Eccleſiarum conſtitutionem, normam eſſe & regulam ſecundum quam ſingulæ hiſce etiam diebus Eccleſiæ conſtituendæ ſunt. Adeo ut nulla Eccleſiæ cuiuſvis conſtitutio recta dicatur, niſi quæ illi ad amuſſim quadrat. Ex hoc autem conſeſſo ſequitur, quod nulla Eccleſia ſingularis rectè conſtituta dicatur, niſi omnes Eccleſiæ univerſalis ritus ab eadem obſerventur. Quicumque enim ritus ab univerſali per omnes ætates Eccleſia obſervati ſunt, aliter quam ab Apoſtolis inſtitui non poterant. Quoniam enim pacto poſſibile cuipiam videatur, ut omnes Eccleſiæ longe lateque per univerſum terrarum orbem diſperſæ, in eoſdem ubique ritus conſpirarent, niſi eos unà cum fide ab Apoſtolis traditos accepiſſent.
in

Conſtat ſane Apoſtolos omnes fere regiones peragraſſe & Eccleſias in illis conſtituiſſe ſingulis. Conſtat eos omnes eodem ſpiritu ductos fuiſſe: Conſtat denique eos uniformitati in omnibus Eccleſiis ſtudiuiſſe: ac propterea mirum nemini videatur, quod illi eoſdem ubique ritus inſtituerint: mirum potius fuiſſet, ſi aliter feciſſent. Quod ſi generales huiuſmodi ritus ab ipsis Apoſtolis non inſtituti fuerint, unde in omnes ubique Eccleſias tanto locorum intervallo à ſe invicem diſjunctas manare poterant? A generaliſſimis conciliis? Id enim unum dicendum reſtat. Vel enim ab Apoſtolis, vel à generaliſſimis conciliis inſtituti ſint neceſſe eſt, ut D. Auguſtinus in Epistoſa ad Januarium obſervat, dicens, Ille quæ non ſcriptæ ſed traditæ cuſtodimus, quæ quidem toto terrarum orbe obſervantur, datur intelligi vel ab ipsis ipſis Apoſtoliſ vel à Plenariis conciliis, quorum eſt in Eccleſia ſaluberrima autoritas, commendata atque ſtatuta retineri. At vero nos hoc in loco de iſtiusmodi ſolis diſputamus ritibus, qui ab univerſa Eccleſia prius obſervati ſunt, quam generalia concilia celebrare cœperint, quique propterea ab iis inſtitui non poterunt. Reſtat igitur, ut Apoſtolicæ tantum inſtitutioni attribuantur, ſecundum vulgatam illam doctiſſimi ejuſdem Patris regulam, dicentis, Quod univerſa tenet Eccleſia, nec conciliis inſtitutum, ſed ſemper retentum eſt, non niſi autoritate Apoſtolicâ traditum rectiſſime traditur.

Et hæc quidem non mea ſolius eſt Opinio, ſed communis eſt, ſemperque fuit omnium fere, præſertim veterum, Chriſtianorum ſententia. Hoc ex eo patet, quod ſiqua olim controverſia de ritu quovis Eccleſiaſtico à ſingulari aliqua Eccleſia recepto exorta eſſet, in Eccleſiæ univerſalis praxim & conſtantem ea de re conſuetudinem inquirere & ſententiam ex ea ferre ſemper ſolenne fuit. Exempla paſſim occurrunt. Unum in præſenti ſeligere non pigebit. Primitiva, ut nôſtis, Eccleſia gravi iſta de tempore quo paſcha celebranda eſſet, contentione diu ſolicitata fuit. Aſiana enim Eccleſia eam quarta decima luna, in quamcunque hebdomadis feriâ incidere, cum Judæis peragendam eſſe contendebat. At aliæ omnes Eccleſiæ non niſi dominicæ reſurrectionis die jejunia ſolvere & feſtum illud celebrare ſolebant. Viguit per quamplurimos annos hæc controverſia donec tandem ad Synodum Univerſalem Nicææ habitam delata eſt. Ubi probatum eſt omnes alias præter Aſianam Eccleſias feſtum illud die dominico celebrare conſuetas eſſe fuiſſe. Kai τὴν ἑνῆκα, & eam ob cauſam omnes in Synodo congregati patres, æquum rectumque judicabant, ut Aſiana etiam Eccleſia eodem illud die celebraret, ut Auguſtiſſimus ille Imperator Conſtantine, à quo Synodus convocata eſt, in Epiſtolâ ad Eccleſias diſertè affirmavit. Unde conſtat Patres Nicænos eodem contra Aſianam pugnâſſe argumento, quo Apoſtolus contra Eccleſiam Corinthiacam uſus eſt, ex aliarum ſcilicet omnium Eccleſiarum conſuetudine ducto. Eodem etiam uſus eſt D. Cyprianus contra Novatianum, & contra Donatiſtas. S. Auguſtinus : Epiphanius autem contra hæreticos pariter ac Schiſmaticos univerſos ; eos omnes hæreſeos condemnans, qui vel in doctrina vel in diſciplina ab Eccleſia univerſali diſcedunt.

Sed infinitus eſſent ſi omnia huiusmodi concilia Patresque vel indigitarem, quibus hoc argumentum uſitatum eſt. Et e quibus propterea propoſitio noſtra legitime inferri poteſt. Hoc enim argumentum ab Eccleſia Catholica ſemper uſitatum, pro conſeſſo ſumis, neceſſarium eſſe, ut omnes ipſius ritus ubique retineantur. Et præterea Sola Catholica Eccleſia eſt, quæ verum cultum retinet, ut Lactantius Firmianus olim rectiſſime obſervavit. Quocirca quæcunque Eccleſia ſingularis eodem quo Catholica modo Deum non colit, verum ſane cultum habere nequit ; ac proinde neque recte conſtituta dici poteſt. Nihil enim ad rectam Eccleſiæ cuiuſvis con-consuetudinem magis necessarium esse potest, quam ut Deum recte colat. Adeoque nihil etiam magis, quam ut omnes Ecclesie Catholicae in eo colendo ritus scrupulose retineat. Hoc itaque ultimum sit nostrum argumentum, ex ipsa Ecclesiae universalis praxi & sententia ductum.

Hæc fusius idcirco prosecuti sumus, quod apertissimam nobis viam sternant, ad reprimedos omnes cuiuscunque generis adversarios, à quibus Ecclesia nostra Anglicana hisce diebus impugnatur. Isti ad duas fere classes redigan-tur, ad Pontificios & Sectarios. E quibus illi rituum nostrorum paucitatem, hi è contrario multitudinem nobis objiciunt. Illi vitio nobis vertunt, quod ritus à se nuper inventos non ob-servemus; hi eos etiam quos observamus super-stitionis insimulare non erubescunt. Inter utrosque autem convenit, quod Ecclesie Catho-licae æque ac Anglicanae adversentur, quodque novos utrique ritus excogitarint, Ecclesie uni-versali vel repudiatos prorsus vel saltem inaudi-tos. De quibus propterea omnibus hæc ipsa A-postoli verba usurpare liceat, quod nos tales consuetudines non habemus, neque Ecclesie Dei.

Quod primo ad Pontificios spectat, illi, fateor, sese Catholicos vocant, atque ab aliis etiam ita vocari amant. Sed omnium indignissimi sunt qui glorioso isthoc nomine nuncupentur. Illi enim soli Catholici antiquitus appellati sunt, hodieque merito appellari possunt, qui Ecclesie universalis fidem ac disciplinam pie tenent, sancteque observant. At vero Romana ista Ec-clesia, in cujus fidem moresque Pontificii omnes jurati sunt, tot nova dogmata adinvenit, torque novos ritus Ecclesie universali vel rejectos, vel incognitos nuper inſtituit, hodieque imperat, ut vix Eccleſiæ Chriſtianæ, niſi forſitan corruptiſſimæ, nedum Catholicæ nomen mereatur. Nihil enim cum Catholica, nihil cum omnibus aliis Eccleſiis commune habet, ſed omnia potius diverſa & contraria, præter ea in quibus cum Anglicana conſentit.

Ut fidem enim taceam, quippe non hujus loci, omnes aliæ Eccleſiæ ſolum Deum omnipotentem, Patrem, Filium & Spiritum Sanctum, religione colere conſueverunt. At Romana omnes etiam ſanctos, ipſasque eorundem imagines & reliquias, adhuc panem Eucharifticum, ipſamque ligneam crucem invocant, adorant, eodem quo ipſum Deum honore proſequitur. Omnes aliæ Eccleſiæ publicas ſuas preces lingua vulgo cognita celebrare ſolite fuerunt: At Romana ſuas lingua non modo laicis peregrina, verum ipſis etiam Sacerdotibus plerique vix intellecta peragit.

Quin ipſa etiam Sacramenta à Domino inſtituta, quanto caeremoniarum acervo onerant Pontificii, contra ac omnibus aliis Eccleſiis adeoque Catholicæ uſitatum eſt? In Baptiſmi adminiſtratione baſamum, ſalem, & ſalivam adhibent, necnon exſufflationes & nescio quos terribiles ad fugandum dæmonem exorcismos. In myſtici corporis ſanguiniſque Chriſti ſacramento, pane azymo, tenui, ac minuto utuntur: Hunc Sacerdos conſecrat quidem, ſed ſummiſſa adeo voce, ut nemo aſtantium audiat, ſciatve utrum conſecret, an excretur: Hoſtiam utcunque ſic conſecratam in altum elevat, ut populus nolæ geſtatilis ſono admonitus eam adoret. Unam porro hoſtiam Sacerdos in tres partes frangit, quas ipſe omnes ſumit: quas autem communicantibus diſtribuit, non frangit, ſed cas

cas integras in eorum, non manus, ſed ora immittit.

Quid Miſſas ſolitarias indies ab iis celebratas memorem, in quibus nemo præter Miſſificantem communicat? Quid quod ſacerdos qui celebrat, caſtem ſacrum ipſe ſolus totum exhauriat, ne-mini vero communicantium diſtribuat? Quid quod Miſſas æque ac Indulgentias venales proponant? Quid denique quod particulæ quædam Eucharifticæ in pyxide ſemper ab iis reſerventur, ut certis quibuſdam temporibus per vias ac loca publica magna cum pompa in proceſſionibus circumferantur?

His adjungere licet, quod præter Sacramenta, alias res plurimas miros in uſus conſecrent. Salem enim conſecrant, ut ſaluti ſit iis qui eum fumunt: Aquam, ut auram repurget, repellat morbos, & dæmones ejiciat. Quilibet etiam Papa, primo & deinde ſeptimo quoque Pontifi-catus ſui anno, formas quædam cereas, Agnos dei vocatas, conſecrat, quæ tantæ, ut aiunt, ſunt virtutis, ut iis vel tactis vel etiam viſis, imbres, procellæ, turbines, reliquæque tempeſtates avertantur, compescatur ventorum rabies, inſeſta tonitrua temperentur, & omnes maligni ſpiritus timore perterriti contremiſcant.

Sed dies mihi deficeret ſi omnes hujusmodi cæremonias à Pontificiis hodie uſitatas percenſere velim: Quæ ſcilicet in tantum creverunt nu-merum, ut nec peritiſſimus inter ipſos Sacerdos, nec Eminentiffimus Cardinalis, nec ipſe qui ſummus vocatur Pontifex dimidiam earum par-tem enumerare poſſit. De iſtis autem quos modo recenſuimus, deque aliis compluribus ejuſdem farinæ ritibus ab Eccleſia Romana hodie obſervatis, audacter pronunciare poſſumus quod muſtei ſunt & novitii, haud ita multis abhinc

annis excogitati. Etenim hi non ante decimum, illi poſt duodecimum, alii vix ante decimum quartum à Chriſti Nativitate ſeculum uſurpari cœperunt: Nulli autem eorum in ullis aliis Eccleſiis, nec in ipſa Romana ut antiquitus conſtituta, vel præceptum, vel exemplum habuerunt. Adeo ut eos omnes illinc exterminari debere, ipſamque proinde hodiernam à qua uſurpantur Romæ Eccleſiam, omnium peſſime conſtitutam eſſe, ex hoc uno Apoſtoli argumento apertiffime colligamus quod nos, vere Catholici, tales non habeamus conſuetudines, neque Eccleſiæ Dei.

Quod ſi inter Eccleſiam Catholicam & Romanam, quæ Catholicæ nomen ſibi ſoli uſurpavit, tantum ſit discriminis, quid ſentiendum eſt de aliis iſtis Eccleſiæ noſtræ adverſariis, quos ſub generali Sectariorum nomine complexus ſum? Eorum ſane nec ipſa nomina Eccleſiæ univerſali per mille & quingentos annos audita fuerunt, atque ideo neque digna ſunt quæ nobis hoc in loco commemorentur. Quod autem ad nova eorum figmenta attinet, licet à ſe invicem haud minus quam à nobis diſſideant, in hoc tamen omnes ſectæ conſentiunt, quod totam Eccleſiæ Catholicæ diſciplinam reſpuant, & illius loco novam, & quidem aliam atque aliam, pro ſuo quæque ingenio, ſubſtituendam eſſe contendant.

Dicite enim, Fratres dilectiſſimi, quo terrarum loco Eccleſiâ unquam ſine Epifcopo Presbyteris præſidente ante præſens hoc noſtrum proximumque ſeculum conſtituta eſt? Ubi gentium Ordinatio, aliaque ſumma Eccleſiæ negotia à Presbyterorum claſſe tractata ſunt? Quanam eſt illa Eccleſia? Quanam unquam fuit, quæ nulla feſta, nulla ſtata jejunia obſervavit? Quæ per per ipſam etiam Quadrageſimam gulæ atque ebrietati indulſit? Quæ baptiſmum ſine ſponſoribus, & alterum ſalutis noſtræ Sacramentum ſine quovis externo ſubmiſſi gratique erga Deum ani-mi indicio adminiſtrare conſueta eſt? Omnes evolvice antiquitatis Eccleſiaſtica commentarios, omnes orbis hiſce etiam diebus Chriſtiani angulos perluftrate, & inveſtigate, ſi poteſtis Eccleſiam quæ nullam habet certam & præſcriptam precum publicarum formulam, ſed quæ cuique etiam ſtipiti, quicquid in buccam venerit, ad ipſum omnipotentem Deum temere & extempore effutire permittit? Hæc noſtrorum tantummodo Phanaticorum ſunt commenta, nos tales non habemus conſuetudines, neque Eccleſiæ Dei.

Ut Pontificii denique ſuas, ſuas etiam ſectarii novitates habent, ſic utrique eaſdem vi ac armis propagare conati ſunt. Quid enim fecerunt ſectarii noſtri? Quid non fecerunt, quo Eccleſiam omnium puriſſimam everterent, ſuaque inſomnia ſtabilirent? Hanc ob cauſam ini-ta, ut noſtis, factione bellum inteſtinum commoverunt; totum hoc, florentiſſimum antea regnum, publicis latrociniis infeſtum reddide-runt: Omnia violarunt jura, divina pariter ac humana. Nihil tam ſublime, tam auguſtum, tam ſacrum ſanctumque fuit quod non ab im-probis iſtorum manibus, pollutum, exciſum, funefarum eſt. Imo vero ut ſeſe ex omnium ſcelerum colluvione natos eſſe demonſtrarent, Regem pientiſſimum regno, libertate, domo, ux-ore, liberis, ipſaque tandem, horreſco referens, communi etiam luce ſpoliarunt.

Et tamen gemini ipſorum pontificii, in impietate, in nequitiâ, in crudelitate illis haud-quaquam inferiores fuerunt. Ut illi enim ſe ſolos ſanctos, ſic & hi ſe ſolos Catholicos eſſe putant, ac proinde in omnes alios quippe ut iſti præjudicant hæreticos aut infideles, non Chriſtianorum non hominum, imo vero belluarum more ſævierunt. Reſugit animus, eaque reformat dicere quæ ab illis in Germaniâ, in Italiâ, in Belgio, in Galliâ, in Hiberniâ ſub Religionis prætextu perpetrata ſunt. Satis, eheu! pluſquam ſatis conſtat, quas illi ſtrages in hoc ipſo regno antehac ediderint, quaſque nuper etiam edituri erant, longe ſi fieri potuit ſæviores, niſi ſumma Dei miſericordiâ proſiti ac præpediti, fuiſſent. Non tantum enim omnia Eccleſiæ Anglicanæ membra ferro flammisque addixerant, verum ipſum etiam ſupremum illius ſub Chriſto caput, ſtrenuiſſimum fidei noſtræ Deſenſorem, unicum omnium noſtrorum in terris gaudiorum centrum, Regem noſtrum ſereniſſimum, nobis eripere & horrendum dictu! dolo occidere apud ipſos decretum, ut noſtis, & conſtitutum fuit.

Hæccine autem Eccleſiæ Catholicæ conſuetudo? Hi Chriſtianorum mores? Hæc religio? Quid potius eſt, ſi hoc non eſt, religionem, ut noſtra loquitur Eccleſia, in rebellionem, & fidem in factionem convertere? Sub fidei ſcilicet ac pietatis umbrâ atrociffima patrare flagitia, qualia in omni barbariâ nec facta, nec viſa nec audita ſunt. Nos ſane non ita Chriſtum didicimus. Sed noſtra juxta ac Eccleſia vere Catholica à nefariis hujusmodi cœptis ſemper abhorruit. A prima enim illius reformatæ origine uſque ad præſentem diem, acerrimi, quos plures habuit, inimici tale quippiam ei objicere nunquam potuerunt. Adeo ut nos omneſque genuini Eccleſiæ Anglicanæ filii omnium veriſſimè aſſeveremus, quod nos talem non habemus conſuetudinem, neque Eccleſiæ Dei,

Quæ

Quæ cum ita ſint, Reverendi in Chriſto Patres, Fratresque dilectiſſimi, liceat mihi pauca vobis in mentem revocare, ex iis collecta, quæ hucusque differuimus. Ad rectam ſingularis cujuſlibet Eccleſiæ conſtitutionem, neceſſarium eſſe, ut diſciplina ritusque Eccleſiæ univerſalis ab eadem retineantur, fuſè à nobis demonſtratum eſt. Oſtendimus etiam nec Pontificios, nec Sectarios Eccleſiæ univerſalis ritus obſervare, ſed contrarios prorſus à ſe non ita pridem excogitados; atque ideo Eccleſiam, ſi quam habent, non rectè, ſed perperam & vitioſe apud ipſos conſtitutam eſſe. At noſtra è contrario Eccleſia, ad univerſalem uſque adeo accommodata eſt, ut nihil ab eâ in doctrinam admittatur, niſi quod ubique quod ſemper, quod ab omnibus creditum, nihil in diſciplinam, niſi quod ubique quod ſemper, quod ab omnibus, vel ſaltem à multo maximâ Eccleſiarum parte obſervatum fuit. Quò factum eſt, ut Eccleſia Anglicana omnium quæ ſin univerſo orbe modo exiſtunt, rectiſſime conſtituta jure meritoque habeatur.

Hinc itaque conſtat, quanti æſtimanda ſit Eccleſia noſtra, quamque ſedulo nobis advigilandum, ut conſtantes ei ſtabilesque perpetuo maneamus. Nunquam ſatis adorare poſſumus infinitam illam Creatoris noſtri benignitatem, quod in tam ſanctæ tam Apoſtolicæ, tam vere Chriſtianæ Eccleſiæ gremio nati, & hucusque educati ſimus. Hac enim ratione, Fidem Catholicam unâ cum lacte materno ſuximus: Sub Chriſti ipſius Diſciplinâ vitam hætenus felices tranſegimus: Omnia ad ſempiternam cujuſque ſalutem neceſſaria, auribus animiſque noſtris ab ipſis incunabulis tradita & inculcata habuimus. Adeo ut nihil dubii eſſe poſſit, quin nos omnes ſummam cujus à natura capaces ſumus felicitatem rem aſſequamur, ſi modo illius cujus membra ſumus Eccleſiæ fidem & diſciplinam ea qua par eſt, religione obſervemus.

Alii itaque novitiis ſuis inventiunculis glorientur, & in cœlum ſi poſſint, via privata atque antehac inuſitata aſcendant, nos trita illi ac frequenti viæ inſiſtamus, qua majores noſtri, qua Patres Primitivi, qua Apoſtoli, qua omnes veri Chriſtiani ad æternam gloriam pervenerunt: Quam Eccleſia ſcilicet Anglicana nobis aperuit & commonſtravit. Si hanc in omnibus ſequamur, neque ad dextram, neque ad finiſtram declinantes, nos etiam ad cœleſtem Paradiſum rectâ progrediemur. Quo autem alii a-bituri ſint, nihil eſt quod nos ſoliciti ſimus; ipſi viderint.

Adhæc cum Eccleſia noſtra, ut hodie refor-mata, recte adeo conſtituatur, eam omnes pro ſua quiſque parte tueri & à malevolis, quibus utrinque opprimitur adverſariis vindicare ſtude-amus. Cui, magno ſane negotio, ut pares ſi-mus & idonei, omnia Hiſtoriæ Eccleſiaſticæ monumenta, conciliorum Acta, Patrumque ſcripta perlegamus, ut ex iis Eccleſiæ noſtræ Antiquitatem pariter atque puritatem demon-ſtrare poſſimus. Satis, fateor, exploratum ha-bemus, quam inſipida & ingrata hujusmodi antiquitatis Eccleſiaſticæ ſtudia hiſce diebus videantur; quibus ſcilicet nihil fere ſapit niſi quod novum eſt. Cum inter omnes autem conſtet nos nec ſolos nec primos eſſe Chriſtianos, ſed perquam plurimos omnibus retro ſeculis per eam quam nos proſitemur religionem eandem quam nos expetimus felicitàtem adeptos fuiſſe, quicquid hodie in Religione Chriſtiana novum eſt eo nomine vel falſum, vel vanum ſaltem & ſuperfluum ſit neceſſe eſt. Adeo ut ſi probare poſſipoſſumus, quod quidem abunde poſſumus, Eccleſiam noſtram Primitivæ & Catholicæ conformem eſſe & conſentaneam, omnes adverſariorum in eam objectiones facillime diluantur.

Quæcunque autem in Eccleſiam noſtram ſtudia conferimus nihil unquam proficient, niſi bonis cperibus acuantur. Quocirca per Deum immortalem, per ſalvatorem noſtrum Jeſum Chriſtum, per Eccleſiam Catholicam, per Anglicanam vos omnes obſecro & adhortor, vitam ita iſtituatis, ut talis, tam ſanctæ Eccleſiæ filios decet. Summam erga Deum pietatem, erga Regem noſtrum ſereniſſimum fidem & obedientiam, erga homines amicitiam, juſtitiam, liberalitatem, reliquasque virtutes Chriſtianas colere & præſtare pergatis. Videant adverſarii & admirentur præclaram Eccleſiæ Anglicanæ ſanctitatem in eo quod viros omnium ſanctiſſimos producat. Hoc modo non homines tantum, ſed & ipſum etiam Deum nobis propitium habeamus : Qui ſolus Eccleſiam à ſe primo exstructam & denuo reſtitutam, à Phanaticorum rabie, à Papistarum aſtu, à dæmonum furore, ab ipſis Jeſuitarum technis defendere & in omne ævum conſervare poteſt.

Exurgat itaque Deus & diſſipentur inimici ejus. Faxit ut Eccleſia noſtra, vel potius ſua, magis magisque indies ſtabiliatur, floreatque. Faxit, ut nec Romæ, nec Genevæ, nec ipſæ inferorum portæ adverſus eam unquam prævaleant. Faxit denique ut nos omnes à puriſſima hac in terris militanti, tandem aliquando ad ipſam in coelis triumphantem Eccleſiam evehamur per Dominum noſtrum Jeſum Chriſtum, cui cum Patre

Patre & Spiritu Sancto Gloria fit & Honor
nunc & in æternum. Amen.

*Gratia Domini nostri Jezu Christi, & charitas Dei, & communicatio Spiritus Sancti sit cum omnibus vobis.

1 COR. XV. 52.

For the Trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

THAT it is appointed for all Men once to die, the Eternal God hath not been pleased only to avouch it, but frail Man hath had almost 6000 Years woful Experience of it. In the Infancy of the World, for the better Peopling of it, it pleased God to spin out the Thread of some Mens Lives to Six-hundred, Seven-hundred, yea, Methuselah's to a Thousand within Thirty-one Years; yet, be sure, how long soever he span it out, at length he cut it off; tho' it was never so long a Life that he had lent unto them, yet at last he took it from them. And therefore 'tis observable, in the fifth Chapter of Genesis, as we have the Ages, so we have the Deaths of our long-lived Fathers recorded to us. How long soever any of them lived, yet at length there comes in a וַיָּמָוֶה and he died; Seth lived Nine-hundred and twelve Years וַיָּמָוֶה and he died; Cainan lived Nine-hundred hundred and ten Years רמ"י and he died, v. 14. Adam lived Nine hundred and thirty Years רמ"ג and he died, v. 5. Jared lived Nine hundred sixty two Years רמ"ב and he died, v. 20. Yea Metuſalah lived Nine hundred and ſixty nine Years, yet he hath a רמ"ט too, and he died, v. 27. Thus none of them lived ſo long but ſtill they died at laſt; and as it was in the Infancy, ſo is it in this the Dotage of the World; none of us that enjoy the Pleaſures of Life, but at laſt we muſt be ſwallow'd up by the Jaws of Death. They indeed reckon'd their Years by Hundreds, we ours by Scores. Many of them lived almoſt to a Thouſand, but 'tis a Miracle to ſee any of us reach to an Hundred Years. And as they had after their long, ſo ſhall we have after our ſhort-liv'd Days a רמ"י, and he dies. Some of us perhaps may paſs thirty, forty, fifty, yea perhaps One in a Thouſand may accompany this our dear deceaſed Brother beyond the threſcorth Year, yet one Day will it be ſaid of us, what we may ſay of him, He's dead, he's gone.

But let us not be dejected that we have ſo ſhort a Time allotted us in this, ſeeing we have an Eternity appointed us in the other World. I know it is not long but we muſt all leave our Houſes upon Earth, and go to dwell in the Chambers of Death; but this may be our Comfort and Support, That as our Fellow-Creatures ſhall carry us to the Earth, ſo will our glorious Creator raiſe us from it: Men may make a mournful Funeral for us, but God will give a joyful Reſurrection to us; For the Trumpet ſhall blow, and the Dead ſhall be raiſed incorruptible, and we ſhall be changed. The Words are the Compendium or Abſtract of the whole Chapter; the Apoſtle Apoſtle ſhewing in this Verſe, what he is proving thro' the whole Chapter, That we ſhall as certainly be taken from the Grave, as ever we were ſhoulder'd to it. And that not only they that are gone before us, ſuch as ſhall accompany us, and thoſe that follow us into the Valley of Death, ſhall be taken thence by the Lord of Life, but thoſe alſo that at the Coming of our Lord and Saviour ſhall be alive in this, will be immediately ſnatch'd away into another World. For the Trumpet, &c.

The Doctrine that I ſhall ſpeak to from this Text, ſhall be only the Text it ſelf converted into a Doctrine, even this: The Trumpet ſhall blow, and the Dead ſhall be raiſed incorruptible, and we ſhall be changed.

For the Opening and Confirming of which Doctrine, I ſhall answer theſe following Queſtions.

First, What are we to underſtand by the Sounding of the Trumpet?

Secondly, Who are thoſe Dead that ſhall be raiſed at the Sound of it?

Thirdly, In what manner ſhall the Dead be raiſed at the Sound of it?

Fourthly, Whence may it appear, that the Dead ſhall be raiſed?

Fifthly, In what ſenſe they ſhall be incorruptible when they are raiſed?

Sixthly, What is the true Purpoſe and Meaning of the laſt Words, And we ſhall be changed?

I. What

I. What are we to understand by the Sounding of the Trumpet? That at our Saviour's Coming to Judgment a Trumpet shall sound to alarm all Men to his Tribunal, is frequently asserted in his holy Scriptures, Mal. xxiv. 31. 1 Thes. iv. 16. and so twice in this Verse. What we are to understand by it, most Expositors acknowledge themselves to be in the dark about; and we shall never know exactly what it means until we come to hear it sounding in our Ears, Arise, ye Dead, and come to Judgment. Only I think in general, that as at the Giving of the Law, Exod. xix. 16. so at the Judging of Men according to that Law, the eternal God shall cause some such terrible Sound to be utter'd, as shall be heard over the whole World, and summon all Men that ever did or shall live upon the Face of the Earth, immediately to appear before his Judgment-Seat; and when this, the Voice of God, as a Trumpet, sounds in our Ears, then shall the Dead be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

II. Who are those Dead that shall be raised at the Sound of this Trumpet? There is a threefold Life that Man is capable of, a natural, spiritual and eternal Life: The first consisting in the Union of the Soul to the Body; the second, in the Union of CHRIST to the Soul; the third, in the Communion of the Soul with GOD. Answerable to this threefold Life, there is likewise a threefold Death made mention of in Scripture, a natural, a spiritual and an eternal Death; the first consisting in the Separation of the Soul from the Body; the second, in the Separation of CHRIST from the Soul; the third, in the Separation of the Soul from GOD.

1. A natural Death, when the Soul and Body, dy, having liv'd for ſome time together like loving Mates, at length are divorc'd from one another. Whilſt our Souls are joyned with our Bodies we are ſaid to live, when our Souls are taken from our Bodies we are ſaid to die. This is that which is meant when it is ſaid, It is appointed for all Men once to die, Heb. ix. 27. that is, All Men that live a natural Life, muſt one Day die a natural Death.

2. A ſpiritual Death, which is the Separation of the Soul from CHRIST, as a ſpiritual Life is the Union of CHRIST unto the Soul. Now this ſpiritual Death, tho' many by Grace are redeemed from it, yet all by Nature are ſubject to it. And as all by Nature are ſubject to it, ſo do moſt by Practice ſtill lie under it; ſo that many, yea moſt of thoſe that live a natural Life, are the Children of this ſpiritual Death. Inſomuch that as it is ſaid, There was a great Cry in Egypt; for there was not an Houſe where there was not one dead, Exod. xii. 30. ſo may you and I take up a bitter Lamentation this Evening, that there is ſcarce an Houſe in here *, no nor * Elings in England itſelf, wherein there is not one dead, yea wherein there are not many dead Perſons. And to go no farther than ourſelves, how many of us that are aſſembled together at this time, who naturally live upon GOD, are ſpiritually dead before him? Dead as to all ſenſe of our Sins; dead as to all ſpiritual Graces; dead as to all heavenly Comforts; dead as to that Life of Faith which the Children of the great GOD are quicken'd with; even as dead to all ſpiritual as our deceaſed Brother is to his natural Life. He hath loſt his natural, and how many of you are deprived of your ſpiritual Senſes? He feels nothing that is laid upon him by Men, and how little do you feel any thing that is ſaid unto you by GOD? Tho' you ſhould anoint him with the ſweeteſt Perfumes imaginable, he could not ſmell them; and ſhould I break the Alabaſter-Box of ſpiritual Oyntments before you, and open the ſweeteſt of all divine Comforts unto you, how little would you perceive them? His Eyes are cloſed up, not being able to ſee any thing that is before him; and how many of us have the Eyes of our Minds ſhut up, not able to behold the Things that belong to our ever-laſting Peace before they be hid from us? Give him the richeſt Dainties, alas! he cannot taſte them; and ſhould CHRIST preſent you this Evening with the ſpiritual Supper of his own Body and Blood, the Bread and Water of Life, what little Pleaſure could you take in them? In a Word, I am now ſpeaking of him, but he doth not hear me; and how long may I ſpeak to many of you before you'll hearken unto me? He lies dead before us, but doth not know he is ſo; and how many of us are dead before GOD, but do not think we are ſo? His Soul is ſeparated from his Body; and how many of your Souls are ſeparated from CHRIST your Head? What made this Separation of his Soul and Body but Sickneſs? And what hath ſeparated GOD from your Souls but Sin? Iſa. lix. 2. I know, my Brethren, he perceives nothing of all that hath been ſpoken of him, and that becauſe he hath loſt his Soul; and I fear many of you perceive and apply nothing of what is ſpoken to you, and that becauſe you have loſt your GOD. Oh! therefore that our Eyes were a Fountain of Tears, that we might weep Day and Night for thoſe dead Perſons that live amongſt us. Cease therefore, my Beloved, ceaſe gazing upon the dead Person that is before you, and turn your Eyes into yourselves, to behold and mourn for the dead Souls that are within you; and the more you think yourselves to be alive, the more suspect yourselves to be in Death; as knowing that you may be dead even whilst you are alive: You may live in a natural Sense to us, and yet be dead in a spiritual Sense to God.

on

3. Eternal Death, which consisteth in the Separation of the Soul from God; an eternal Life consisteth in the Communion of the Soul with him. And this is the Death the Pangs whereof the Damned in Hell continually undergo, weeping, and wailing, and gnashing their Teeth, and crying out, Wo and alas that ever we lost our spiritual Life on Earth, for now we have found an eternal Death in Hell. For it is this spiritual which leadeth to this eternal Death; and you that lie under the spiritual Death of Sin must either get yourselves quicken'd by the Life of Faith in CHRIST, or else expect by eternal Death to be separated from the Lord of Life. And truly 'tis good to live upon eternal Death by Meditation here, that we may not die it by Condemnation hereafter.

Thus you see how Men may be dead Naturally, Spiritually or Eternally, now which of these three sorts of dead Persons shall be raised at the last Day? Why I must confess, That those also who were Spiritually dead on Earth, and eternally dead in Hell, shall all be raised to their last Doom: Yet 'tis the Naturally dead which are chiefly to be understood in this place, as comprehending all that are Naturally dead, tho' Spiritually alive. So that every Person Spiritually alive, or Spiritually dead, that hath or shall at any time be carry'd to the Grave, shall certainly be raised thence; For the Trumpet ſhall ſound, &c.

III. How ſhall the Dead be raised? Why in brief, when the Trumpet ſhall ſound Alarum by the Power of the moſt high G O D, the Duſt of every Man's Body ſhall immediately haſte to its proper Place, gathering up it ſelf perhaps from ſeveral Nations and Countries where it hath been ſcattered, and all to make up that Body which once it was. I know our Bodies may run thro' a thouſand Changes before that Day come; but howſoever he that hath made our Bodies of ſuch far-fetcht Parts as I could ſhow you they are compounded of, can as eaſily fetch each Part from the moſt ſecret or exempt Place that it can be carry'd or transform'd into. And as he eaſily can, ſo he really will gather up all our Parts, and ſo put them together as to make the ſame Individual that was before compounded of them. And the Body being made fit to receive its Soul, the Soul ſhall immediately be united to its Body, and ſo we, both our Souls and Bodies, even the very ſelf-ſame Perſons that now we are, ſhall be raised up at the laſt Day, to answer for what we have done in this, and to receive what we muſt have in the other World. For the Trumpet, &c.

IV. How doth it appear that the Dead ſhall thus be raised?

First, From Scripture, Iſa. xxvi. 19. Dan. xii. 2. Matth. v. 28, 29. Matth. xxii. 31, 32. Whence I cannot but believe with Job, and know that my Redeemer liveth, Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

Secondly, From Reason.

1. The 2nd, That it will be.

First,

First, From the Resurrection of Christ, 1 Cor. xv. 12. Tho' he lay some time in the State of Death, he was afterwards restored unto Life; so that he that was betrayed by Judas, &c. was raised by God, and appeared to several of his Disciples afterwards; not continually, but now and then, that he might by degrees wean them from his bodily Presence, which e'er long was quite to be taken from them.

Secondly, The Immortality of the Soul is a clear Proof of the Resurrection of the Body: for it is against all Reason, that one essential Part of Man should be continued in its Being, and the other should be turned to nothing. Especially considering that it is the Form of the Body, and therefore, as Philosophers are pleased to phrase it, Appetit materiam, it hath a natural Inclination to the Matter which once it was the Form of, which Inclination God would never have implanted in it, did he not intend to give its desire to it. But the greatest Question may be, How it appears that the Soul is immortal? Why it appears from its Nature; it is a spiritual, and therefore must needs be an immortal Substance. Whatsoever dies, dies either from outward Force or inward Diseases: From outward Force the Soul will never dye, because there is none can have that Power over it as to kill it but he that made it. None can turn any thing into nothing but he that can turn nothing into any thing, even God. Now as there is none but God can do it, so we may be sure God will never kill the Soul, that is, he'll never send it back into the Womb of Nothing from whence he took it: He having so frequently promised Rest and Salvation to our Souls. Mat. xi. 29. Now it is impossible he should give any thing to our Souls, if he ſhould reduce our Souls to nothing; eſpecially it is impoſſible to give eternal Life to them, and yet to take their natural Immortality from them, which is brought to light by the Goſpel, 2 Tim. i. 10. And as it ſhall not be killed by outward Force, ſo neither will it die of inward Diſeaſes: For the Soul as it is a ſpiritual, muſt needs be a pure Subſtance, having no ſuch thing as contrary Principles in it which it can be diſſolved into, nor therefore any Diſeaſes which it can be diſſolved by. The Body, that is deſtroy'd of itſelf, by its own prevalent Humours and Corruptions; but the Soul has no ſuch Humours or Corruptions in itſelf, and therefore cannot be ſaid to die or be diſſolved of itſelf. Hence it is that tho' many of you have been at the Funerals of dead Bodies, but tell me which of you was ever at the Funeral of a dead Soul? You have read perhaps of the Lives and Deaths of many noble Perſons, but tell me which of you ever read or heard of the Life and Death of a ſpiritual Soul? Or if any one pretend to it, let him tell me what Death the Soul died? Was ſhe ſhrivel'd up to nothing with a lingring Conſumption? Or was ſhe burſt aſunder with a ſwelling Tympany? Did ſhe ſhake off her Being with the returning Fits of a cold Ague? Or was ſhe conſumed with the Scorchings of a burning Fever? Was not a Sword ſheathed in her Bowels, and ſo her Blood let out? Or when the Walls of Fleſh wherein ſhe dwelt fell down, was ſhe not cruſh'd to pieces by them? Alas theſe are fond Conceits, for how can any Diſeaſes ariſe in a ſpiritual Subſtance, wherein there is no ſuch thing as contrariety of Principles, or fighting Elements. Can an Angel be ſick or die? If not an Angel, why

why a Soul, which is endowed with the ſame ſpiritual Nature now, and ſhall be adorned with the ſame eternal Glory hereafter? No, no, it is appointed for all Men once to die, but it is appointed for all Souls ever to live. And ſeeing the Soul ſhall never die, certainly the Body muſt be raiſed up to be united to it, that they may live together, like loving Mates, to all Eternity.

Thirdly, The Juſtice of God is a clear Proof for the Reſurrection of the Dead; and that becauſe Juſtice requires, that they that are Co-partners in Vice and Vertues, ſhould be Co-partners alſo in Punishments and Rewards. Now there is ſcarce a Sin that we commit but our Bodies have an hand in it; tho' the Sin committed would not be a Sin without the Soul, yet it would not be committed without the Body. The Body could not ſin unleſs the Soul conſented, the Soul would not ſin ſo often unleſs the Body tempted: As in Whoredom, Drunkenneſs, and the like, which Sins the Soul would never think of nor conſent unto, did not the prevalent Humours of the Body draw it. In the Commiſſion of which Sins, the Sinfulneſs of the Act depends principally upon the Soul, but the Act that is ſo ſinful is performed only by the Body; ſo that the Body doth not only accompany the Soul in Sin, and enjoy the Delights of it, but often leads the Soul into it. Whence we may eaſily gather, that, according to the Rules of Juſtice, the Body ſhould be ſharer with the Soul in undergoing the Miſeries which are laid upon it. Yea and further, What doth Juſtice require but to puniſh the Perſon that doth offend for the Commiſſion of theſe Offences? But if the Soul only and not the Body ſuffers, the Perſon ſuffers not at all, the Body being part of the

Perſon

Person as well as the Soul, and so the Soul no Person without the Body. And therefore is it as clear as the Noon-Day Sun, that as the Soul shall never be carry'd to the Grave, so shall the Body be certainly taken from it, and so that, the Trumpet, &c.

2. The שני, Why shall the Dead be raised? Why that every Person may receive hereafter according as he lives here. There is indeed a particular Judgment past upon each Soul at its first Departure from the Body, Ecc. xii. 7. Targ. "וְכָל נֶפֶשׁ לִפְנֵי יְהוָה לִמְשֹׁךְ" to stand in Judgment before God. But besides this there is a General Judgment, a Grand Assize kept for all the World to appear at, when not only the Souls, but the Bodies also of all that ever lived upon the Face of the Earth must appear before the Judgment-Seat of CHRIST, that every one may receive according to what he hath done in the Flesh, whether it be good or evil, 2 Cor. v. 16. So that in those very Bodies which you have now brought into the Church of God, in them must you e'er long stand before the Tribunal of CHRIST: That as your Bodies have been Partners in Vice and Vertues here, your Bodies may be Sharers in Punishments or Rewards hereafter.

V. How shall they be raised incorruptible? For this you must know, that the Apostle here treats of principally the Resurrection of the Saints, including the other under it, who shall be raised incorruptible.

1. In their Souls. Those Corruptions of their Souls that here often foiled them, they there shall have a perfect Conquest over; their Souls being there wrought up into an exact Conformity to the Will of God, and so empty'd ty'd of all Corruptions, and bleſſed with all Perfections. Hence it is that the Apoſtle, preſſing after Perfection of Life, labours to attain unto the Reſurrection of the Dead, Phil. iii. 11. that is, he labour'd after that Perfection whilſt he enjoy'd this Life, which the Saints enjoy when raiſed up from Death.

2. In Body, As our Souls ſhall be void of all Corruptions, ſo ſhall our Bodies be of all Imperfections. Here they are ſubject to many, but there to no deſtroying Sickneſs and predominant Corruptions; for theſe our vile Bodies ſhall be made like unto Chriſt's glorious Body, Phil. iii. 21. Yea, what is a ſown a natural ſhall be raiſed a ſpiritual Body, 1 Cor. xv. 44. that is, it ſhall be ſuch a Body as ſhall not any longer be a domineering Maſter, but a faithful Servant to the Soul; it ſhall not any longer be a clog to us in the Performance of Duties to God, but it ſhall be as quick, agile and ſubſervient, as if it was advanc'd beyond the Degree of a Body, and had commenc'd a Soul. And ſo, v. 42. It is ſown in Corruption, but it ſhall be raiſed in Incorruption, that is, thoſe Corruptions and Humours which once reign'd over it ſhall now be baniſh'd from it, and that which is here corruptible ſhall there be clothed with Incorruption, v. 53. ſo that when they are once raiſed from Death they ſhall never more be ſubject to it, but ſhall live with their Souls for evermore.

3. In their Happineſs. As their Souls and Bodies, ſo ſhall their Happineſs too there put on Incorruption, ſo that what they enjoy ſhall be continu'd to them without interruption for evermore. There ſhall be no Croſſes in their Relations, no Loſſes in their Poſſeſſions, no Diſgrace in their Honours, no Fears in their Preſent Preferments, no Sickneſſes in their Bodies, no Imperfections in their Souls, no Miſapprehenſions in their Minds, no Irregularities in their Affections, no Sorrow in their Joys, no Gall in their Cups, no Bitterneſs in their Sweets, no Darkneſs in their Light, not one Drop of Miſery in the whole Ocean of Happineſs they ſhall enjoy.

VI. What is here to be underſtood by the laſt Words, And we ſhall be changed? Why the Apoſtle is here ſpeaking of thoſe who ſhall be alive at the Coming of our Saviour unto Judgment, and looking upon himſelf as living in the laſt Times, he puts himſelf into their Number; and therefore having in the foregoing Verſe ſhewed that they ſhall not ſleep or die, but be changed; in this he aſſerts it again of them, and of himſelf amongſt them, that the Trumpet ſhall ſound, and the Dead ſhall be raiſed incorruptible; and we (who remain alive at that Day) ſhall be changed. that is, Our Bodies ſhall know no ſuch thing as rotting in their Graves, or being eaten up of Worms, but ſhall immediately launch out with our Souls into the vaſt Ocean of Eternity. This, I ſay, I look upon as the true Purport and Senſe of the Words, tho' we may take them, in a larger Senſe, for our Change from Life to Death; at which time there are many things we ſhall be changed in: I ſhall name but Two.

I. Our Opinions. We ſhall think otherwiſe of all or moſt things when dead, than whiſt we are alive. Here we are apt to look upon Sin as amiable, and Grace as not deſirable; upon the Happineſs of Heaven as not worth the looking after, and Holineſs upon Earth as more ado than needful. Here we think ſumptuous Houſes and large large Possessions excel CHRIST with all his Possessions; and that if we can but be prefer'd to Honours in this, 'tis no matter for the Glory of the World to come. But when we are once dead our Judgments shall be presently changed, and we that once esteemed all things before GOD, shall look upon GOD as to be esteemed above all things; thinking and looking upon Sin as sinful, upon Profaneness as madness, upon carking Cares as tormenting Dreams, upon carnal Pleasures as sugar'd Poyson, upon popular Honour as a painted Shadow, upon Covetousness as Idolatry, and upon all things besides GOD as nothing in comparison of him.

2. Our Conditions: a Dives in this, may become a Lazarus in the other World; and a Lazarus here a Dives there: many that had nothing upon Earth shall have all things in Heaven; and such as enjoyed all things upon Earth have nothing to enjoy in Hell. The Poor, in time, may prove Rich to Eternity; and they poor to Eternity, who were rich in Time. And thus shall vain Man's Condition be turned upside down. Now perhaps thou swimest in a deluge of Carnal Pleasures, but there thou may'st not have a drop of Water to cool thy inflamed Tongue. Here, perhaps, thou hast thy Chambers adorned with the richest Tapestry, but there thy Chambers of Death shall be hung about with nothing but the mournful Sables of eternal Darkness. Here thou may'st be lift up to popular Dignities, but there thrown down into infernal Misery. Here thou may'st lie each Night upon a Bed of Down, but there have nothing but a Bed of Flames to roll thyself upon for ever. And so on the other side, Now, perhaps, thou dwellest in a sorry Cottage, but but hereafter thou may'ſt have a glorious Palace, even eternal Mansions to dwell in. Here, perhaps, thou haſt ſcarce a drop of Beer to quench thy Thirſt, but hereafter may'ſt have Rivers of Pleaſures to ſatisfy thy Soul. Many that are ſcorned by Men are honoured by God, and many of them that have nothing to enjoy in Time, ſhall have all things to enjoy to all Eternity. And thus ſhall we be changed in our Opinions and Conditions when once arrived at the other World.

USE,

I. Conſolation to all that have loſt any Relations in general, and to the Relations of this our deceased Brother in particular. Methinks this Doctrine drops as ſo much ſpiritual Manna from Heaven to revive your ſinking Spirits! Did you uſe to be ſorry when he was aſleep? No, Becauſe you knew he would awake. Why, let me tell you, your Relation is not Dead, but Aſleep, and ſhall as certainly Awake in the bright Morning of the Reſurrection, as he now Sleepeth in this the black Night of his Diſſolution. Suppose at his departure hence he had gone into a far but fine Country, where you ſhould not ſee him of a long time, but howſoever you might hear he was in Life, Health, and Proſperity, and that one day you were certain to behold his Face again, would not this be a great Comfort and Refreshment to your Souls? Why, my Beloved, when he died he did but go into a far Country, and a very fine one too, where, tho' you cannot ſee him for the preſent, yet you cannot but believe him to be in Health, Life, and greater Proſperity than ever he here enjoyed. For as really as his Body lies dead before

fore us, is his Soul alive to God, rejoycing, we hope, himself in the Arms of divine Love, whilst we are feeding ourselves upon the Husks of Creature-Comforts. But you'll say you cannot see him, and therefore you cannot but grieve for him. Not see him! you could not see him when he was in one place and you in another, yet you could then comfort yourselves e'relong you should behold his Face again. Why, he is but in one place and you in another. Yea, we hope, in God's higher House in Heaven, whilst you are here in this his House on Earth. But be of good Comfort, and in the multitude of your Thoughts within you, let this refresh your Soul, that tho' you do not see him now, yet you shall hereafter, and that he shall as really be raised from the Grave, as ever he shall be carried to it: For the Trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

II. Exhortation.

1. Be constant in your Meditations upon the Resurrection.
2. Be diligent in your Preparations for it.

And as you desire to be in readiness when the Trump sounds, let me exhort you

1. To live like God's Creatures, like none of your own.
2. Live like changing Creatures, whose Mountain may stand strong now, but e'relong may be tumbled upside down.
3. Live like dying Creatures; be daily living as daily dying.

4. Live

4. Live like riſing Creatures, as thoſe who one day ſhall riſe up to Life, as really as ever you fall down to Death.

5. Live like Creatures ready each Moment to appear before your Maker. Always live as thou deſireſt to be found living when Death comes to ſummon thee to appear before the Tribunal of the moſt High God. Think, ſpeak, act, pray, hear, as if thou wert juſt ready to give up thy Account to the Great God, of all thy Thoughts, and Words, and Actions, &c.

6. Live on Earth as you hope to live in Heaven; antedate the Happineſs of Heaven, by following Holineſs upon Earth.

My Brethren, our Days are ſhort, our Work is great, our Sun's a ſetting, Death is haſting to put a Period to all our Works: Or howſoever, if we be not diſſolved, we muſt be changed; and how ſoon none of us can tell; only this we know, it will be done in the twinkling of an Eye. So that we cannot promiſe ourſelves to live one Moment longer than juſt we ſee ourſelves alive. I cannot promiſe myſelf to ſpeak this Sentence out to you, neither can you promiſe yourſelves to hear this Sentence out from me; for before I have ſpoken, or you have heard theſe Words we may all be ſtanding in another World, before the Judgment-ſeat of CHRIST. And thus do we all ſtand upon the very Brink of Eternity, ready every Moment to launch into it. O! lavish not out therefore your golden Opportunity, but whiſt you find yourſelves alive prepare yourſelves for Death; that ſo dying preparedly you may riſe joyfully, and live with God eternally.

And

And, in the Conclusion of all, I know you expect (my Brethren) that I should speak something concerning the manner of his Life amongst us, whose Death is now a celebrating by us. but I believe many, yea, most of you, have had the Happiness of his Acquaintance longer, and therefore able to do it better than myself: only thus much I dare say of him, that he was one who did not use to sound a Trumpet at the giving his Alms when he was alive, and therefore, I believe, if he knew it, would be loath that I should sound it now he's dead. Give me leave in general to say, if any of you be ignorant of his Life, to send you to those who shall thoroughly acquaint you with it. Would you know his Charity? Go to the Poor of all Places wheresoever he lived, and if their Purses and Bellies were not the Coffers where he laid much of his Treasure in, tell me, I was not acquainted with him, and then expect not that I should speak any thing concerning him. Would you know his Piety and Love to the Ordinances of God? Ask his House, whether he was not constant in the performance of Family Duties, calling his Family twice each Day together, and pouring forth his Soul with them unto God, and then retiring to his private Meditations. And ask the whole Parish, whether there was ever a Sermon preach'd here, and he, if in the Parish and well, did not come for his share in it? Would you know his Honesty and faithful Dealing in his Calling? Ask all that ever had any thing to do with him, and they'll give you a sufficient Character of him. Would you know his real Love to, and tender Care of all his Relations, I am sure there are none of his Relations but have abundant Experience of it, and there-therefore cannot but give you a ſufficient Teſtimonial for it. In a word, Would you know his Humility, his Contentedneſs, his Liberality, his Heavenly-mindedneſs, or any other Grace which GOD had implanted in him? Ask but any that ever were acquainted with him, and they will tell you how conſtantly theſe Graces were put into Practice by him. But why ſhould we be ſpeaking his Praiſes upon Earth, who is now ſinging forth the Praiſes of GOD in Heaven? He, we have good Ground to hope, hath received Praise from GOD, and therefore ſtands not in need of Praise from Men. Neither hath any thing been ſpoken only for his Commendation who is dead, but principally for your Imitation who are alive, that you might do as he did on Earth, that ſo you may be where he is, in Heaven. I ſay in Heaven, where we have cauſe to believe his Soul is ſhining before GOD, whiſt his Body is lying before us.

And, O! my Brethren, that you and I could be perſwaded, this Evening, to give up ourſelves to him, who, one Day, thus will take our Souls from us; that we might walk in the Ways of Holineſs here, and ſo come to the Joys of Happineſs hereafter. That when our Bodies ſhall lie in the ſame Poſture as his doth, our Souls may enjoy the ſame Glory that he hath; where all Tears ſhall be wiped from our Eyes, all Sorrow taken out of our Hearts, all Imperfections from our Minds, all Aches from our Bodies; and that which is the brighteſt Jewel in the Crown of Glory, all Sin ſhall be baniſh'd from our Souls. And we ſhall take our fill of Love and Joy, triumphing in the Praiſes of our glorious glorious Maker, rejoycing in the Boſom of our gracious Father, and ſolacing ourſelves with thoſe Heart-refreſhments, and Soul-raviſhments which ſhall transport our bleſſed Spirits unto all Eternity.

O A FU-

FUNERAL SERMON,

Panegyrical.

REV. xiv. 13.

I heard a Voice from Heaven, saying, Write; From henceforth blessed are the Dead which die in the Lord, &c.

I Suppose none of you are ignorant of the sad Occasion of our present assembling, and that it is not to celebrate this Funeral Obsequies of our deceas'd Brother, for it was absolutely necessary he should be, as he was; interr'd before now; and therefore we are rather met to celebrate his Memory, that he may be as great an Inticement to Vertue now he's dead, that he was an Example of it whilst he liv'd; for what greater Encouragement can there be to Vertue in this Life, than a serious Consideration of its Reward in the World to come? Let us therefore, for a while, leave the puffing Vanities of this transient Life, and go up and take a View of the new Jerusalem which is above, and where, we have just Grounds to believe, our deceas'd Brother is now a glorious Inhabitant; for that all which die in the LORD are blessed in the World to come, we are here assured by a Voice from Heaven, And I heard a Voice from Heaven, &c.

Thus

Thus we have had a transient Glimpse of the Blessedness of such as die in the Lord; and verily all that die in the Profession of the Christian Faith, the Laws of Charity and of our Religion command us to believe and hope they die in the Lord, and by consequence are Partakers of this promised Felicity. Hence it was that the first Council at Nice, long ago, decreed, That whosoever desir'd it, and thereby profess'd his Faith in Christ, should not be deny'd his portion, viz. the blessed Eucharist, whereby he might be the better strengthen'd to travel to the Mansions of Glory. And hence also, I suppose, it is that our Church hath prudently order'd, that the Words of my Text be read at the Burial of each deceas'd Christian amongst us, thereby to testify our belief and hope, that he being dead in the Lord, is blessed with him: Yet, I must confess, there are some whom we may have stronger Grounds to believe to be happy after Death, than we have of others, viz. Such as whilst they are here below do more visibly perform the Conditions requir'd by the Gospel, in order to our partaking of the Promises which are made in it; amongst whom I cannot, I dare not but reckon our deceas'd Brother, concerning whom therefore I think it not convenient only, but necessary I should add something.

It is true, I scarce ever before now could be persuaded to speak much in Commendation of the Dead, as still fearing lest I might speak too much. But in giving you a Relation of this incomparable Person I need fear no Hyperbole, unless it be Meiosis, being conscious to myself, that if I offend on either part, it will be in defect rather than excess: especially considering how exemplary he was in his Piety towards God, and Loyalty to his Sovereign; in his Dutifulness towards his Parents, and his Christian and Humble Carriage towards all Men, together with all the other glorious Vertues wherewith his precious Soul was deck'd, and his Life adorn'd. I should be injurious to him, but much more to you, should I suffer his Virtues to be bury'd in Oblivion, and not rather display them, at least in part, before you, that they may excite and stir you up to be, and to do like him: And, I assure you, I shall say no more than what I am either certain of upon my own personal Knowledge, or have receiv'd from such as have been the Ear and Eye-Witnesses of his Words and Actions.
O 2 and

Last Tuesday therefore, being the 26th of this present July, before his third Climaterical Year was half expir'd, he left us feeding upon Husks with the Swine here below, to go to his Father's House, and so was actually possess'd of the Inheritance purchas'd for him in Heaven before he could have been admitted unto that he was born to here. And yet in this little, alas! very little Time that he stood Candidate for the Crown of Glory, he outstripped many grey Heads amongst you, having attained to more Grace and Vertue, than many who have liv'd his Years thrice told, ever so much as thought of or desir'd. His Parents, from his Birth to his Death, never restrain'd him of his Liberty, which notwithstanding he was so far from abusing to Licentiousness, that he made it a continual Spur to his greater Devotion to God, and Submission to them; insomuch that as they, like indulgent Parents, were never known to cross him, so he, like an obedient Son, was never observ'd to cross them in the least: But if they ever affected cted any thing which at firſt ſight ſeem'd contrary to his preſent Inclinations, he had attain'd that ſtrange Power over himſelf, that he would preſently turn the Stream of his own Inclinations into the ſame Channel where he obſerv'd theirs to run.

Nay, happy Man, ſo great a Command he had of his own Paſſions, that he could never be diſcern'd to be in any, by thoſe who daily attended on him; inſomuch, that in his lawful Recreations (for he never uſed any other, and them but rarely) ſuch Accidents as would cauſe others to ſwell and rage, could never ſo much as move him; but whatſoever happen'd, he was ſtill in one and the ſelf ſame even and compos'd Temper.

And if ever he was more earneſt than ordinary, it was in a good Cauſe, even when he happen'd to Diſcourſe with any in the Churches Behalf, which he was always a zealous Promoter of: and ſtill with that Gravity and becoming Modeſty that he could offend none, but might juſtly have gain'd many; and that by his Example, as well as Diſcourſe, being a conſtant Attendant upon the publick Ordinances.

Ambitious I confeſs he was; but that which in others is a Sin, in him was a noble Vertue: For all the Ambition that ever could be obſerv'd in him, was only that he might be ſerviceable in his Generation; and he hath been often heard to ſay, That he eſteem'd himſelf Unfortunate, that he could not do his King and Country Service. And, ſome few Days before his fatal Sickneſs ſeiz'd upon him, diſcourſing of the preſent Government with more than ordinary Zeal, utter'd theſe Words, If all the Hairs of my Head were ſo many Lives, I could freely lay them down to ſerve my King and Country. Hence it was, that whilst others of his Rank and Quality have been indulging their pamper'd Flesh in carnal Pleasures, and sensual Delights, he hath still been in his Closet, performing his Devotions to the most High, with whom he now is; or else in his Study, sucking in those Languages, Arts, and Sciences (wherein he had made very great Proficiency) which might make him more capable of understanding the Intrigues of State, and more able to manage whatsoever publick Trust should ever be repos'd in him, for the Honour of his Sovereign, and the Benefit of his Country.

A Company-keeper I confess he was, but it was with his own Parents, in whose Society he still took more solid Pleasure and Satisfaction, than our jovial Blades ever did, or can do, in their foolish and boon Companions: and so he cross'd the old Proverb, That Father and Son can never make good Company. But whether Converſing with his Parents, or others, none can say they ever heard an Oath, no not so much as an undecent Expression fall from him, but though Heir to so Ancient and Noble a Family, and so great an Estate, though in Strength of Body, and in the Vigour of his Youth, he still carry'd himself with that Gravity, Modesty, Charity, Meekness, and Humility towards all, that he may justly be a Pattern to the Gentry, not only of the present, but of all succeeding Ages. Especially considering, that of all those who had the Happiness to be acquainted with him most intimately, none could ever see, or say that he was addicted to any Vice. And yet himself was all along so sensible of his own inward Misdemeanors and natural Imperfections, that, upon that Account

Account, not long before his Death he, disputing with one of a contrary Opinion, asserted, ~~That none can be assured of their future Happiness, by reason of their present infirmity.~~ And therefore upon his Death Bed being ask'd how he hop'd to be saved, his Answer was, Only by relying upon ~~Jesus Christ.~~

And, verily, of this his precedent pious and devout Life, he found the Benefit and Comfort ~~when approaching unto Death.~~ For notwithstanding there was nothing in this Life that was ever deny'd him, but he always enjoy'd what this World was able to afford him, yet in all his Sickneses he was never observ'd to desire the Pleasures of this World any longer; but still his Discourse ran upon, and his Desires were carry'd after the Happiness of the World to come. And for the confirming of his Hope in it, he desir'd the Eighth of the Romans to be read to him; and for that End, I think, he could scarce have chosen any other Chapter more fit to be read to him in all the Bible. In the reading whereof he still desir'd them to pause a while, that he might exercise his Meditations upon what was read; and therefore when he came to Verses 33 and 34, (methinks I see how his Soul triumph'd in the Mercies of God, and in the Merits of our blessed Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST) which so encourag'd and confirm'd his departing Soul, that when a Stander-by in a Christian Manner advis'd him not to be discourag'd at Death, he with an holy Scorn, as contemning the Advice, reply'd, ~~What,~~ discourag'd now I am going to my Saviour. And when he was just ready to give up the Ghost, being desir'd to call upon God, he answer'd, In him alone is my Trust: And having said ſaid thoſe Words, immediately turning himſelf, he reſign'd his Soul into the Hands of CHRIST; where we'll now leave him, ſolacing himſelf in the Viſion and Fruition of the chiefſt Good, and joining with the glorious Querifters above, in warbling out that celeftial Anthem, or, howſoever, ſome other to the ſame Intent and Purpose,

Glory be to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghoſt ;

*As it was in the Beginning is now, and ever ſhall be : World without end.
Amen.*

A SER-

SERMON

Preach'd before the SONS of the CLERGY.

MATT. V. 16.

Let your Light so shine before Men, that they may see your good Works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven.

WE are here met together at this time in a double Capacity, as Members of CHRIST'S Church, and as SONS of His CLERGY. His Clergy, I say; for all that are admitted into Holy Orders, and so to the sacred Ministry of his Church, are properly his Καὶνος, his Lot and Portion, separate from the rest of Mankind, and set apart wholly for his Service. Which having been the Case of our respective Fathers, we their Children should look upon ourselves as nearly related to CHRIST, upon that Account, and more highly obliged in our several Places and Callings to Serve and Honour him, who was pleased pleased to honour our Parents, so far as to employ them in his more immediate Service, and to make them the Instruments in his Hand to open Mens Eyes, and to turn them from Darkness to Light, from the Power of Satan unto God. And amongst the many Services which we owe to this our Fathers, as well as our own great Lord and Master, it is not the least, to take care of such Widows and Orphans which any of those who served him in the same Capacity as our Fathers did, have left behind them, destitute of any other Maintenance than what he hath allotted them out of the Abundance which he, for that and such like Purposes, hath put into ours and other Mens Hands.

For the better Performance of which great and necessary Duty it hath pleased our gracious Sovereign, by his Letters Patents, to make us a Body Politick or Corporate, by the Name of The Governors of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows and Children of Clergymen; which Title shews it to be a very high and honourable, a truly Christian Society or Corporation, in that the end of its Institution is only to do good. There are other Companies and Corporations in this City, which are made such only for the better management of the several Trades and worldly Mysteries which are exercised in it; but this is instituted purely upon a Pious and Charitable Account, for the better management of Good Works, and so for the exercise of the great Mystery of imitating God himself; in doing all the good we can to others. Which Consideration duly weigh'd, as it would make all who are capable of it ambitious of being admitted into such a Society, so it would make those who are already admitted into it, faithful and and diligent in promoting the great Ends of its Institution, that they may give a good Account of it, not only to the Viſitors which His Maſteſty hath appointed, but likewiſe to CHRIST himſelf; when he ſhall hold his General Viſitation at the Laſt Day, when all Accompts ſhall be audited.

And as the only End of eſtabliſhing this Corporation was for the better governing and ordering of good Works, ſo the great End of our aſſembling together at this time, next to the performing our Devotions to Almighty God, is that we may be excited to the exerciſe of them. For which purpoſe, therefore, I have pitch'd upon theſe Words, from whence to demonſtrate to you how much you are obliged, as Chriſtians, to do all the good you can. Which done, it will be eaſy to apply it to our preſent Occaſion, and to ſhew, by the parity of Reaſon, what Obligations lie upon you, as ye are the Sons of Clergymen, to do not only Good Works in general, but theſe alſo in particular, which this Corporation is appointed and empower'd to govern and order to the beſt Advantage.

Thus now we ſee how much they who profeſs the Chriſtian Religion are obliged, by the Religion they profeſs, to be the moſt Pious, moſt Righteous, moſt Charitable, every way the moſt excellent Perſons upon Earth. So that if we ſhould look upon ourſelves only under that reſpect, we are bound to exceed all of any other Profeſſion, in whatſoever is good and Praiſe-worthy. But as we are the Sons of Clergymen, we have ſome peculiar Obligations upon us to be and to do good more than others. As Chriſtians we are bound to be the beſt of Men; but as as the Sons of Clergy-men, by the parity of Reason, we are bound to be the best of Christians. For,

I. Our Fathers being CHRIST's immediate, and, if I may so say, domestick Servants, it is to be suppos'd that they were always doing their Master's Work, and strictly observing all those pious, wise, and good Laws that he set before them; by which means we had a better Example of Vertue and Goodness than other Christians usually have. So that we cannot pretend to follow our Fathers Steps, except we walk in the narrow Path that leads to Bliss.

And besides, Our Fathers being authorized and required to administer the Means of Grace and Salvation to CHRIST's Flock, we who were bred up under them, have always had the opportunity of enjoying the said Means, having, from our Infancy, been trained up and exercised continually in them. And therefore unless they have their due effect upon us, we shall be much more inexcusable than they who enjoy them only now and then. We have been all along accustomed to praying and praising God, to reading the Holy Scriptures, to the hearing them read and expounded to us, and to the receiving the mystical Body and Blood of CHRIST, when we came to Years of Discretion; and so true Religion was not only planted in us at first, but it hath been continually water'd and nourish'd by those Means which CHRIST hath appointed for that End, who therefore expects that we bring forth much Fruit, answerable to the great Care and Pains that he hath taken with us.

Especially considering, that we have always had the best Directions and Instructions given us us what to believe and do that we may be ſaved ; and ſo have been brought up, as the Apoſtle ſpeaks, in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, whereby our Parts have been enlarged, our Gifts improv'd, and our natural Notions of God, and of Good and Evil, have been excited and quickened in us. We could be ignorant of no Truth that was neceſſary for us to know, but we were preſently taught it : We could neglect no Duty but we were put in mind of it : We could fall into no Vice but we were reprov'd for it : We could be ſubject to no Temptations, but we were ſtill forewarned, and ſo forearmed againſt it. And if, after all, we ſhould not be much better than other People, we may be juſtly reputed to be much worſe ; ſo obſtinate and hard-hearted that the moſt powerful Inſtructions could never make any Impreſſion upon us. But if we come ſhort of others, we are a ſhame both to our Religion and our Parents too ; making as if they had not been ſo prudent, or not ſo careful as they ought in our Education. For it is plain, that the Sins of Clergymens Children do, in a more than ordinary manner, reflect upon their Parents. Inſomuch that if a Clergyman have unfaithful, riotous, or unruly Children, the Apoſtle makes it a bar to his being ever advanced to the Order or Degree of a Biſhop in the Church, as taking it for granted, that they who cannot govern their own Children, are not fit to be intruſted with the Flock of CHRIST : For this cauſe, ſaith he to Titus, left I thee in Crete, that thou ſhouldeſt ſet in order the things that are wanting, and ordain Elders in every City. If any man be blameleſs, the husband of one Wiſe, having faithful Children, not accuſed of riot or unruly, Tit. i. 5, 6.

In which Words there are two things very observable upon this occasion. First, That the Apostle here asserts our legitimacy, as the Sons of Clergymen, against all the impertinent Cavils of the Church of Rome, which hath the Confidence to condemn the Marriage of the Clergy as unlawful, notwithstanding that St. Paul here doth so plainly and expressly allow and approve of it. But having the great Apostle himself so firmly on our side, we need not matter what all the Papists upon Earth, or Devils in Hell can say against us.

But then we must observe withal, what it is that the Apostle requires of us, and of all the Children of Clergymen, as such, in an especial manner above other People, that we be Faithful, not accused of Riot, nor Unruly.

First, Faithful, that is, That we be not Infidels, or Hereticks, but true Believers, Orthodox Christians, rooted and established in the Faith of CHRIST, as it is revealed to us in the Gospel: Not carried to and fro with every wind of Doctrine, but holding fast the form of sound words, which we have received from our Fathers, and they from CHRIST and his Apostles; lest otherwise we deny the Faith which our Fathers preached, and so be worse than Infidels.

And as we must be Faithful, so, in the next place, not accused of Riot, or as the words μη εν ὀργῇ δουλέω, under no Accusation of Suspicion of Riot or Luxury, Excess or Prodigality, Intemperance or Debauchery of any kind: For these are such brutish Vices, that they who indulge themselves in them, are not worthy to be called the Sons of Clergymen, nor scarce of Men, being more like to the Beasts that perish.

And

And then, in the laſt place, we muſt not unruly, Ανυπακούετα, not headſtrong or untractable, not refractory or rebellious againſt our Spiritual, our Civil, or Natural Parents. But, the contrary, we muſt be Loyal to the King, obedient to the Church, dutiful, humble and ſubmiſſive to all our Superiors; yea, ſo far as exceed all others, as much as poſſible, in the noble and truly Chriſtian Vertues: For this Apoſtle requires of the Sons of Clergymen an eſpecial manner. And therefore they who are either Rebels or Schiſmaticks, or, as the poſſible here expreſſeth it, in one word, Unruly Ungovernable, ſuch deſerve not to be of the Society; which as it is in Duty bound, ſo hope it will always give all other Corporations in the whole Kingdom an exact Pattern and Example of ſteady Allegiance to the King, and Conformity to the Church in all things.

Theſe are, in ſhort, thoſe excellent Qualifications which the Apoſtle is pleaſed to Inſtance particularly in, as neceſſarily required in the Sons of Clergymen above others, Faith, Sobriety and Obedience to Governours. To which the occaſion of our meeting together upon this Day requires us to add a fourth, and that is Charity which is a Duty incumbent upon us, not only as we are Men, and as we are Chriſtians, but alſo likewiſe as we are the Sons of Clergymen, incorporated, as I obſerved before, by the Name of, The Governours of the Charity for the Relief of Widows and Children of Clergymen. In which Title of our Corporation there are as many Arguments almoſt as Words, exciting us to the exerciſe of this Vertue upon the preſent Occaſion. For,

1. It is Charity in general, The Queen of Graces, as the Ancients called it, or rather Grace itself, as the Word signifies, under which all other Graces are comprehended, and without which there can be no such thing as Grace or Vertue in us.

2. It is Charity for the Relief of others, which is an high commendation of it. Charity in general is of that large extent, that it reaches as high as to the GOD of Heaven, and as far as to all the Creatures upon Earth that bear his Image, whether they stand in any need or no. But this is Charity, for the Relief of others Necessities: So that as we do Good, others receive Good by it; we supplying their Wants, as well as fulfilling our own Duty. By which means it becomes a double Charity; Charity to others as well as in ourselves.

Neither is it for the Relief of the Poor in general, but of Widows and Orphans, the greatest Objects of Charity in the World, as being not only in Want, but destitute of these ordinary Means whereby they should be supplied. And therefore GOD himself is pleased to take care of them in a more especial manner than of other poor People, having often promised to be a Father to the Fatherless, and an Husband to the Widow. So that by our relieving them, we do not only imitate GOD, as in all other Acts of Charity, but we act under him, and in his stead, being subservient to him in fulfilling the Promises which he hath made to them. Which is certainly as great an Honour as it is a Duty.

Especially considering what kind of Widows and Orphans they are which this Charity is designed for, even those of Clergytmen: Persons of the same Rank and Order with our Fathers, who

who having ſpent their Time in the Service of GOD, and finiſhed the Work which He gave them to do, left their Widows and Children to be maintained by the Providence of their Maker, and the Charity of Good People. And who are fitter to relieve the Widows and Children of Clergymen, than we, who are the Children of Clergymen ourſelves, and have wherewithal to do it, and therefore have it that we might do it? For we, as well as they, were, in a great measure, maintained and brought up by the Revenues of the Church; all which we are to look upon as one common Fund for the Maintenance of GOD's Clergy in general, and of thoſe who depend upon them. And tho' ſome have more and others leſs of it, all ought, ſome way or other to be maintained out of it: And therefore they who either immediately, by inheriting what their Fathers got, or elſe occaſionally, by being put out to ſome Trade or Calling, are now grown Rich by the Revenues of the Church, ought, out of their Abundance, to ſupply the Neceſſities of others, and to expreſs their Thankfulneſs to GOD for what they have, by a Liberal Contribution to the Widows and Children of Clergymen that want it.

And, for your encouragement hereunto, I deſire you to conſider, in the laſt place, that this Corporation is eſtabliſhed on purpoſe for the better governing and ordering of ſuch Charity as this is. So that you cannot now make that blind excuſe, that you do not know how it will be diſpoſ'd of; for the Society is now ſo ſettled, that there cannot be any Fraud, nor ſcarce ſo much as a Miſtake in the Management of it: There being as many Overſeers as there are Governours in it, who, as they would not if they could, ſo they could not if they would, embezzle or divert your Charity to any other uſe than that to which you give it, even to the Relief of Widows and Children of Clergymen.

Let me therefore deſire you, not only to exerciſe your Charity upon this Occaſion, but to do it to the utmoſt of your Power. For if you do not proportion your Charity to your Eſtates, God may juſtly proportion your Eſtates to your Charity, and make you unable to give any more than you do, ſeeing you are not willing to give as much as you are able.

I ſhall ſay no more, but only deſire you to remember your Saviour's Words, and act accordingly upon this and all other Occaſions, as becomes the Sons of God and of his Clergy, Let your Light ſo ſhine before Men, that they may ſee your good Works, and glorify your Father which is in Heaven.

DISCOURSE
CHURCH-MUSICK.

PSAL. cl. 5, 6.

*Praise him upon the well-tun'd Cymbals:
Praise him upon the loud Cymbals.*

Let every thing that hath Breath praise the Lord.

AS the DUTY of Praise was the great End of our Creation, so it ought to be the principal Thing in our Devotion, whensoever we come into the House of GOD, even Praise and Honour him in whose House we are; by acknowledging his Greatness and Glory in himself, his Power, his Goodness, and his Mercy towards us. Hence it is that a great, if not the greatest Part of our Liturgy, or Service we perform to GOD, consists of Confessions of him, Psalms and Hymns, or Songs of Praise to him, which we either plainly repeat, or else sing to some grave Tune fitted to them: Which was always reckon'd the best Way of our setting forth the Praises of GOD, and expressing our Thankfulness to him; and therefore it was us'd by CHRIST, by his Apostles, and by his Catholick Church ever since, and, by consequence, by ours too. And, for the better Performance of so considerable a Part of the Worship we owe to GOD, ours, as well as other Reform'd Churches beyond the Sea, hath ever since the Reformation retain'd and allow'd Organs, or Musical Instruments, invented and fitted for so solemn an Oocasion. Which being now erected here, and considering that some question the Lawfulness, others are ignorant of the Usefulness of such Instrumental Musick in the Worship and Service of GOD, I shall endeavour briefly to explain both these things to you.
P 2 by

First, As to the Lawfulness of Instrumental Musick in the Service of GOD, it is so generally acknowledg'd by the Reform'd Churches in other Places, both Lutherans and Calvinists, that there would be no need of proving it any where else but in England, where People are apt to scruple every thing but what they ought. But I cannot but wonder, how they who use Vocal, should notwithstanding question the Lawfulness of Instrumental Musick, in praising GOD? As if the setting or singing a Psalm to a certain Tune was any where in Scripture commanded or allow'd, more than the playing that Tune upon Musical Instruments; especially considering how constantly it was practis'd by the Church of GOD, under the old Law. I know that some have had the Ignorance to fancy, and the Confidence to assert, that this was part of the Levitical or Ceremonial Law, and therefore abrogated by CHRIST: Which is so great a Mistake and Falshood, that I cannot imagine how any Man of common Sense could ever dream of it; for Moses, in all the Levitical Law, never ſo much as once makes mention of any ſuch thing. Nay, and we find it us'd before the Law was given; for Miriam the Prophetess, and the Women with her, ſang their Praises to GOD with Timbrels, which were Instruments of Musick, ſo ſoon as they were come out of Egypt, Exod. xv. 20. Neither do we find any Law for it, but the Law of Nature and Reason, 'till David's time, near Five hundred Years after the Law was given; who being a Man after GOD's own Heart, the ſweet Pſalmist or Singer of Israel, and both a King and a Prophet too, it cannot be imagin'd that he ſhould ordain any thing in the Church but what was very lawful. Then we may infallibly conclude it to be therefore lawful, becauſe he, who was inſpir'd by the infallible Spirit of GOD, ordain'd it: For as we read that he commonly us'd it himſelf, as, Cbron. xiii. 6. 8. Chap. xv. 28. ſo alſo that he ordain'd it, 2 Cbron. xxix. 27. Yea, it is alſo expreſſy ſaid, that it was done by the Commandment of the LORD, v. 25. And certainly what GOD commanded is ſo far from being unlawful, that it becomes a Duty, by the very Commandment. And hence it is that the Church of GOD, from that time, did conſtantly obſerve it; not only in the firſt, but likewise in the ſecond Temple, Ezra iii. 10. Nehem. xii. 27, 31, 36. And the ſame was continu'd all along 'till our Saviour's time, who, conſtantly frequenting the publick Worſhip of GOD in the Temple, when he was at Jeruſalem, he himſelf alſo joyn'd with the Church at that time in praizing GOD after this manner, with Instruments of Muſick. So far was he from thinking it unlawful, (as ſome who pretend to be his Followers now do) that he, by his own Practice, hath

Le-

hath commended it to us: For we never read that he ever ſpoke one Word againſt Inſtrumental Muſick in the Worſhip of GOD, nor ever abſented himſelf upon any ſuch Account; which certainly he would have done, had there been the leaſt Shadow of Sin or Unlawfulneſs in it. And ſeeing our Maſter himſelf did not, I ſee no reaſon why his Diſciples ſhould do it; and ſo pretend to be wiſer than their Maſter. But they who abſent themſelves from Church upon this, or any ſuch Account, I fear, will have but a bad Account to give to him another Day.

But as for all ſuch amongſt us as deſire to be the Diſciples of the bleſſed JESUS indeed, let them look upon our Lord's Example as a ſufficient Warrant, and follow him in this and all things elſe to the utmoſt of their Power. And be ſo far from thinking it unlawful, as rather to bleſs and praiſe Almighty GOD, that they have ſuch Aſſiſtances wherewith to do it.

Theſe things, duly conſider'd, are ſufficient to ſatisfy any ſober Chriſtian in this Point: Howſoever I ſhall add one Obſervation more. And that is, Praiſing GOD with Inſtruments of Muſick hath not only been practic'd by the Church of GOD upon Earth, but St. John the Evangelist ſaw it, and heard it done in Heaven, Apo. v. 8. Chap. xiv. 23. Chap. xv. 2, 3. And ſeeing thoſe pure and perfect Creatures that are in Heaven are thus repreſented, as Praiſing GOD with Inſtrumental as well as Vocal Muſick, it is Madneſs to think it either unlawful, or needleſs for us poor Mortals upon Earth to do it: But we ſhould rather be glad of any Opportunity of joyning with them in time, as we hope to do it for ever.

The other thing I promis'd to shew, is the Usefulness of Church-Musick. Usefulness, I say, not the Necessity; for doubtless we may and ought to Praise GOD aright, altho' we do not Sing at all, and so use neither Vocal nor Instrumental Musick, as in our repeating the Psalms, the Te Deum, and other Hymns. And so we may too when we use only Vocal, and not Instrumental Musick. But, howsoever, no considering Christian can easily believe that David, one of the most expert Persons that ever was upon Earth at Praising GOD, should both use himself, and ordain Instruments of Musick to be us'd by others in Praising GOD, if it was not very useful as well as lawful to do it. Much less would the Spirit of GOD, which assisted him in compiling the Psalms, so often have called upon us to Praise GOD, as he doth, with Instruments of Musick, if there had been no need or use of them, as Psal. xxxiii. 1, 2, 3. Psal. xcvi. 4, 5, 6. Psal. cl. 3, 4, 5.

The Usefulness of it appears,

1. In that it keeps the People in Tune and Concord while they sing, and so prevents that Disorder and Confusion which we have often found, by Experience, in this and other Churches: Some singing one, and others another Tune, and very few singing any Tune aright. Which, as it breeds Confusion, it cannot be so pleasing nor so agreeable to him that is the GOD of Order, as to Praise him with one Voice, and in one Tone and Tune, as well as with one Heart. To which nothing doth nor can contribute more than Organs, or other Instruments of Musick.

2. It conduceth very much to the composing and fixing our Thoughts, and so to the preventing these Distractions we are all subject to, especially in Religious Duties. For this hath been commonly found in all Ages to be the natural Effect of Musick: it having that power and force over the Mind, as to keep it close to the Work it is engag'd in. Insomuch, that none of us but may find by Experience, if we do but observe it, that whilst Musick is sounding in our Ears we cannot so easily think of any thing else, but that one thing that we are then about. So that by the constant Use of Instrumental Musick in Praising G O D, we may be able to say as David did, who constantly us'd it, My Heart is fixed, O God, my Heart is fixed, I will sing and give Praise, Psal. lvii. 7.

3. It is useful to the suppressing and curing the evil Passions and Distempers of the Mind, as Anger and Fury, Sadness and Melancholy, Dullness and Stupidity, which make us unfit for the Service of G O D, and obnoxious to the Temptations of the Devil, who makes use of such disorderly Passions as his Instruments, whereby to convey his Temptations into us, and so to get Possession of us, and exercise his Tyranny and Dominion over us. And how much Musick conduceth to the reducing such Passions into order, and so to the preventing of such Temptations, is plain from that remarkable Instance of Saul, of whom it is said, When the evil Spirit was upon Saul, David took his Harp, and played with his Hand: So Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil Spirit departed from him, 1 Sam. xvi. 23. Not that Musick hath any such immediate Power over that wicked Spirit, as to cast him out; but Saul's Mind being disturb'd, and his Passions out of Tune, the Devil by them insinuated himself into him. And when by David's playing upon the Harp his Mind was refreshed, and his Passions sions brought into due order, the Devil had nothing to work upon, and therefore was forc'd to depart from him. This was observ'd of Musick long ago; for we find in Justin Martyr's Works, that Musick in the Church καταλείπει τὴν αἰσθητικὴν ἐκπαίδευσιν, Suppresseth the Passions that arise from the Flesh. And so, τὰς ἐν τῷ νῷ ἐνεχόμενας ἔχθρας ἐμβάλλουσιν ἡμῶν λογισμοὺς ποιεῖν ἀπώθηται, It expelleth those evil Thoughts that are injected into us by our invisible Enemies. The Truth whereof might be prov'd from many Instances, both in Ecclesiastical and other Writers. But we need not give ourselves the Trouble of consulting them, there being none of us but may have found it true by our own Experience. And if Musick could do no more than this, it must needs be acknowledg'd to be of great Use in the Service of GOD.

But in the next place, As it suppresseth evil, so it excites and stirs up good Affections: For by reason of the Affinity and Correspondence betwixt the Harmony in Musick, and that observed by Nature in our Tempers and Constitutions, the harmonious Vibrations or Motions of the Air, caus'd by the Concords in Musick, being convey'd thro' the Ear into the Brain, raise up the animal Spirits there, and make them quick and lively, active and nimble, regular and orderly, like themselves; whereby the Mind is cheer'd, and the Soul is refresh'd, and free'd from its former Clogs, and so is not only able to act more freely of itself, but likewise is more capable of divine Assistances from the Spirit of GOD. And therefore when the Prophet Elisha was desir'd by the Kings of Israel and Jadab, to tell them what to do in their Distress, the Prophet called for a Minstrel, to play upon a musical Instrument: And it came to pass that when

Minstrel played, the Hand of the Lord was upon him, 2 Kings iii. 15. For why should the Prophet call for a Minstrel? And why should the Spirit come upon him more at that than at any other time, but only for the aforesaid Reason, even because his Mind was, by that Means, brought into a better and fitter Temper for the Spirit to work upon? Which one Instance plainly shews the great Usefulness of Musick in our Religious Services, which can never be rightly perform'd without the Assistance of God's Spirit moving upon our Minds and Affections. Hence therefore, in the last place, Church-Musick is useful towards the great Ends for which we come to Church: Not only in that it conduceth to our Worshipping and Praising the most High God, with greater Solemnity and Magnificence, tho' that also be very considerable; but also in that it raiseth up our Spirits, and so quickens and inflameth our Devotions to God, that we may be in a fit Temper for so high, so heavenly a Work, as Praising and Magnifying the eternal God is; that we may sing Psalms, and Hymns, and Spiritual Songs, so as to make Melody in our Hearts to the LORD, Ephes. v. 19. And unless we find this Benefit by it, it will signify nothing to us; for it is the Heart that God principally observes in all the Services we perform to him, and nothing is acceptable to him, but what proceeds from thence. And therefore they that sing only with the Voice, and not with their Hearts, had even as good hold their Tongues. And they that come hither only to hear the Organs, had as good stay away. For whatsoever I have said concerning Church-Musick, before it will avail them nothing, that come not with an hearty and sincere cere Deſire to Serve and Honour G O D. For it is only an help to Devotion, and, therefore, they that do not truly endeavour to perform their Devotions to G O D, cannot poſſibly have any help by it. But as for thoſe who ſhall come with ſincere Deſires to Praise and Adore the moſt High G O D, I do not queſtion but, by his Bleſſing, they will receive great Benefit and Advantage from it, and will have cauſe to Bleſs his Name for ſuch extraordinary Helps that are here provided for them. And if any one ſhould find but any one of theſe Uſes of the Organs, in their Praiſing G O D, ſo as to do it better, all the Pains and Coſts that any have, or ſhall beſtow upon them, will be to very good purpoſe: Much more if many of us ſhall do ſo, as I hope we ſhall.

But for that end, even that you may all experience the Truth of what you have now heard, concerning the Uſefulneſs of Church-Muſick in the Service of G O D, I deſire you to obſerve this one Rule: All the while that you are Singing, and Praiſing G O D, keep your Minds as intent as you can upon it, without taking any Notice at all of the Organs, for they will have their Effect upon you better if you do not mind them, than if you do; for your minding of them will divert your Thoughts from the Work you are about. Whereas if your Minds be wholly taken up with Praiſing, Admiring, and Magnifying the Eternal G O D, your Maker and Redeemer, the muſical harmonious Notes ſounding all the while in your Ears, will elevate and raiſe up your Thoughts and Affections higher and higher, and be as ſo many Wings, wherewith your Souls may fly up, and ſoare aloft in the high Praiſes of G O D, as David ſpeaks, Pſalm cxlix.

EXF. 6. So that by this means we upon Earth may, and ought to join with the Quire of Heaven, in Praising the moſt High GOD, and the Lamb, that ſitteth upon the Throne, ſinging that heavenly Anthem in the Revelations; Hallelujah, Salvation, Glory, Honour, and Power be to the Lord our God, for ever and ever. Amen.

PROV. iii. 6.

בְּכָל־דְּרָכָיִךְ יָעִידוּ וְהוּא יִשָּׂר אֲדֹמָתֶיךָ

In all thy Ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy Paths.

ALL that we poor Mortals upon Earth can do for him that Governs, as well as Made the World, is only to acknowledge, it is he that doth it, that nothing can happen to any private Person, but according to his Will and Pleasure; muchless any Revolutions in States or Empires, but what are manag'd by his infinite Wisdom, Power and Goodness. He that lives not under a constant Sense of this, lives as without God in the World; but he whose Mind is continually possess'd with right and clear Apprehensions of the Divine Providence, in and over the World, and expresseth the same by all the Means and Methods that he can, doth all that is requir'd of him, or, indeed, that he is capable of doing for him that made him; who, being infinitely Glorious in himself, cannot possibly receive any Accessions of Glory from us, who have nothing but what we receive from him. But, howsoever, of his own essential Goodness and Benignity, he is pleas'd to acknowledge himself, as glorify'd by us, when we only acknowledge the Glory that is in him. And as this is the only way whereby it is possible for us to give any Glory unto God, so it is the way too, whereby to obtain his Assistance and Blessing upon what we do. As the wise Man

Man long ago observ'd, ſaying, In all thy Ways acknowledge him, and he ſhall direct thy Paths.

Words much to be observ'd at all times, eſpecially when we undertake any thing of more than ordinary Weight and Moment; for we cannot but be all ſenſible of the many Errors and Miſtakes we are ſubject to in all our moſt ſerious Attempts and Enterprizes: Nothing being more common with us, than to fancy that to be Good for us, which we afterwards find to be Evil; and therefore to do many things, and then to wiſh we had not done them. And altho' the End we aim at happen to be ſometimes Good, yet we commonly make uſe either of wrong Means, or elſe of the right Means in a wrong Manner, and ſo are ſeldom able to accompliſh it. Whereby it comes to paſs, that the greateſt Deſigns and Projects in the World, uſually, turn to little or no Account to us, if not to a very bad one. And therefore, as we deſire not to Labour in vain, and to ſpend our Time and Strength, and Parts to no purpoſe, it muſt needs be a Matter of extraordinary Conſequence to us all, to find out a Way how to be always certain of ſuch Aſſiſtances and Directions, in the Ordering and Managing of our Affairs, that we may be ſure to bring them to a good Iſſue. And this is that which we are here taught by the infallible Pen of the wiſeſt of Men, inspir'd by God himſelf, in the Words which I have now read. Eſpecially upon this Day, wherein we commemorate the Deliverance not only of three Kingdoms, but likewise of one of the beſt Churches in the World, from utter Ruin and Deſtruction. Wherein we may obſerve two Things. A Precept, and a Promise annex'd to it. The Precept, Acknowledge him in all thy Ways. The Promise,
And

And he ſhall direct thy Path. In the Precept we ſhall conſider the Object, Him; the Act, Acknowledge him; and the Latitude or Extent of it, In all thy Ways.

As for the Object whom we are to underſtand by Him that we ought to acknowledge, is plain from the foregoing Verſe, Trust in the Lord with all thine Heart, and lean not to thine own Underſtanding; and then it follows, Acknowledge him, that is, the Lord before ſpoken of, even that invincible, all-glorious, infinite, eternal, ſupream and incomprehenſible Being, which we, in English, call GOD. And who, in Hebrew, is pleas'd to call himſelf Jehovah, which we tranſlate the Lord. Tho' I much queſtion whether there be any Word, either in our own or any other Language, that can fully expreſs what is meant by that great and terrible Name, whereby the moſt high GOD is pleas'd to manifeſt and reveal himſelf to us. That which I think comes neareſt to it is Being, or Effence, for ſo the Word plainly ſignifies, and therefore intimates what kind of Notion or Idea of himſelf, this Almighty Being would have us to frame in our Minds: Not to conceive of him under any particular Form or Shape, or kind of Being, but as BEING itſelf in general. And therefore, when Moses ask'd him his Name, he ſaid, I am that I am; and ſimply, I am; not I am Great, and Wife, and Good, and True, and Powerful; nor only, I am Greatneſs, and Wiſdom, and Goodneſs, and Truth, and Power in the Abſtract, but abſolutely and indefinitely, I am, and I am that I am. Whereby he plainly ſuggeſts to us, That he would not have our Thoughts of him confin'd to any one, or more, or all the Perfections that we are able to imagine, but be ſo

ſo far extended, enlarg'd, and exalted above all particular Beings and Perfections imaginable, till they are even ſwallow'd up in the Abyſs of Being and Perfection itſelf; no way able to recover themſelves, but by paſſing, as faſt as they can, from the Contemplation of what he is in himſelf, to what he is to all Things elſe, even the Source and Principle of their Being and Exiſtence: For this alſo is imported by his Name Jehovah, even that we do not only live and move, but have our Being in him. And not only we, but every thing that is: For of him, and through him, and to him are all things, Rom. xi. Yea, all things exiſt ſo continually in him, that it is as impoſſible for any thing to be without him, as it is for him not to be. For as GOD is Being and Eſſence itſelf, to ſay a thing may be without GOD, is the ſame as to ſay, it may be without Being, which is a plain Contradiction. And therefore, whatſoever it is that we can bring within the Compaſs of our Thoughts, we are ſtill to apprehend it as exiſting in him, who is the Fountain and Origen of all Exiſtence in the whole World, infinitely more clearly than the Sun is of the Light that is in the Air. So that whether we fix our Thoughts upon the Bodies which are here below, within or upon the Earth; or raiſe them up into the Air, and there conſider the Sun, Moon and Stars; or elſe carry them into the higheſt Heaven, and there think upon theſe thinking Subſtances which we call Angels. After all this, we may, and ought to mount them up higher and higher ſtill, until they come to the Great Jehovah, the ſupream and univerſal Being of the World, and Contemplate upon him; not only as raiſing the ſeveral things, which we before thought of, out of nothing at the firſt, but likewise as ſupplying all and every one of them with Being and Exiſtence continually from himſelf. And not only the things themſelves, but their ſeveral Motions and Actions too, yea, their very Activity itſelf, or Power of Acting. Whatſoever Virtue or Quality there is in Herbs or Plants, in Stones, in Metals, in Minerals, or the like ; whatſoever Life, or Strength, or Propenſity, or Inclination there is in Beaſts, or Birds, or Fiſhes, or even in the minuteſt Inſects ; whatſoever Faculty of Underſtanding, Reasoning, Diſcourſing, Willing, or Affecting there is in Men ; whatſoever Sympathies or Antipathies there is betwixt any earthy ; whatſoever Force or Influence in the heavenly Bodies ; yea, whatſoever Knowledge, or Subtilty, or Power, or Agility, or whatſoever elſe it is that the Inhabitants of the other World are endow'd withal, it was not only inſus'd into them at firſt, but flows continually from Jehovah, the Fountain, the inexhauſtible Fountain of Being. Inſomuch, that ſhould he withdraw or ſuſpend his Influence, all things would be at a ſtand, not able to move or ſtir a Jot. But ſhould he ceaſe from iſſuing forth any Being or Exiſtence from himſelf, every thing would immediately ceaſe to be, and, in the twinkling of an Eye, drop down to nothing. For as he is Jehovah, the Being of all Beings, he muſt needs be the Cauſe of all Cauſes ; the Principal of all Motions ; the Spring, the Center, the Perfection of all Perfections whatſoever. And therefore without him there can be no ſuch thing as Perfection, Motion, Converſation, or Being in the World.
of

All this, and infinitely more than I am able to expreſs or conceive, is imply'd under this,
Q the

the most proper Name of G O D here us'd, Jebo-vab. In whom, as there are infinite Perfections, so every Perfection is infinite ; and therefore the highest of our finite Conceptions of him, cannot but be infinitely below him. Infomuch, that when I set myself in good Earnest to think upon him by whom alone I think, in whom alone I live and am, the Eye of my Mind is presently dazled, my whole Soul is amazed, and confounded at his transcendant Splendour and Majesty ; And (as Job saith) by reason of his highness, I cannot endure, Job xxxi. 23. Yet howso-ever, seeing he hath been pleas'd to call himself Jebovab, and under that Name to unveil and discover himself to us, I have endeavour'd, not only to raise my Thoughts as high as I could in the Contemplation of what is signify'd by it, but also to express the same, as well as I could,
to you, that so I might, by his Blessing and Assistance, excite and quicken these natural Notions of this Almighty Being, which he himself hath implanted in you ; and, by consequence, prepare you the better to understand and practice the great Duty which he is pleas'd here to require of you, even to acknowledge him.

A Duty which, at first sight, I confess, may seem very plain and common ; but, upon due Consideration, we shall find it to be not only the greatest, but that under which all other Duties are contain'd, and to which they tend. For,
as in order to our acknowledging G O D aright,
it is necessary to perform universal Obedience to him ; so universal Obedience to him is requir'd, only in order to our right Acknowledgment of him. This being the great End and Reason why we ought to obey him, that we may thereby testify our Acknowledgment of his Power

Power and Sovereignty over us; his Justice, Goodness and Mercy to us. Yea, for this End it was that he himself made the World, and us, and other Creatures in it, capable of reflecting upon, and acknowledging him that made us. For it is said, that he made all things for himself, Prov. xvi. 4. How so? Not that he stood in need of anything for himself, being infinitely happy in the Enjoyment of himself. But howsoever, of his own essential Goodness, which is naturally Communicative of itself, he was pleased, by his almighty Word, to Command the stately Fabrick of the World out of nothing, and to exert his infinite Perfections in the Establishment of the Whole, and in the Disposition and Endowment of every Part in it. But when all is done, tho' every thing he made be good, yet he that is the chiefest Good, could not be the better for anything he made. Neither would the whole Creation have signify'd anything, if there had been none but himself to contemplate upon it. For he could not but behold infinitely more Good in himself than in all his Creatures, which could have no other Goodness but what proceeded from him. Hence therefore, he was pleased to endow several of his Creatures, as the Angels in Heaven, and upon Earth Mankind, with the Power of Thinking, Discerning, and Considering of what he, their Creator, had done, that so they might always admire and acknowledge his infinite Wisdom, Power and Goodness in the Creation, Contrivance and Government of the World: Which if we neglect to do, we frustrate, as much as in us lies, the very End of our Creation. For our Creator having made us only for himself, and his own Glory, unless we acknowledge him in what he hath done, and ſtill doth for us, and other Creatures, we do not do the Work, the only Work which we were made for. There being no way but this, whereby it is poſſible for us to give any Glory to our Great Creator. So that whatſoever it is we do, it is no farther a good Work, or acceptable unto God, than as it is done for the ſame End for which he himſelf doth all things, even for the Advancement of his Glory, by our Acknowledgment of it.

Seeing, therefore, that we cannot answer the Ends of our Creation, without doing the Duty which is here requir'd of us, we cannot, ſurely, but look upon ourſelves as highly concern'd to underſtand how to do it aright. For which purpoſe we muſt conſider, that in order to our acknowledging the Lord, Jehovah, it is neceſſary, That we firſt have an habitual Knowledge of him; as the Hebrew Word here us'd moſt commonly ſignifies. That we do not only think, or ſuppoſe, or hope; but certainly know, ſtedfaſtly believe, and be fully perſuaded of what he is in himſelf, and what he hath done, and ſtill doth in the World. That in himſelf he is, in and of himſelf, an Omnipreſent and Omnſcient, infinitely Wiſe and Powerful, Good, Holy, Juſt, Merciful and Eternal Being. So Omnipreſent, that whereſoever anything elſe is, beſure he is; without whom nothing can be. So Omnſcient, that he knows all Thoughts, Affections, Words, Actions, Motions, and Things that ever were, or are, or will, or can be in the World. So infinitely Wiſe, that he deſigns, contrives, and carries on every thing he doth in the beſt Manner, and for the beſt Ends and Purpoſes that can be. So Powerful, that he can do whatſoever he pleaſes;
and

and that too, either with Means, or without Means, as he himſelf ſees good. So Good, that he is all Good, the chiefſt, the only Good, Goodneſs itſelf, diffuſing itſelf over all his Works. So Holy, that he can neither Sin himſelf, nor be the Author of it in others, it being directly contrary, yea, contradictory to his very Nature. So Juſt, as to puniſh every Sin that is committed ; and yet ſo Merciful too, as to pardon every Sinner that repenteth. And in all theſe and other his Perfections he is ſo eternal, that he always is not younger at the Beginning, nor older at the End of Time, but always one and the ſame pure, ſimple, unchangeable Eternal Act.

Neither muſt we only know what GOD is in himſelf, but likewiſe what he hath done, and ſtill doth in the World. That as he made, ſo he preſerves and upholds the World by the Word of his Power ; and governs, orders and diſpoſeth of all things in it, according to his Will and Pleaſure. So that he concerns himſelf, and exerciſeth his divine Perfections equally in the Management of the grèateſt and the leaſt, the higheſt and the loweſt Things that are in Heaven or Earth. For if we go up into the higheſt Heavens, and take a View of the ſeveral Ranks and Orders of Angels, Archangels, Thrones, Dominions, Principalities, Powers, and the reſt of that celeftial Hierarchy, we may behold them all depending upon the Goodneſs, and ſubject to the Power and Pleaſure of the Great Jehovah, always praizing and adoring him, and ready every Moment to receive and obſerve his Commands, in miniſtering to his Saints and Servants upon Earth, and diſtributing his Bounty and Largeſſes among them. And if we bring down our Thoughts from Heaven, and ſend them as low as Hell, we may there behold the Devils themſelves, thoſe impure Spirits that rebell'd againſt GOD, kept notwithstanding, in perpetual Subjection to him, being reſerv'd by him in everlaſting Chains, under Darkneſs, to the Judgment of the Great Day. And tho' he employs them, as his Executioners, to execute his Judgments upon his rebellious Subjects upon Earth; yet, as they can hurt none but ſuch as he hath firſt Condemn'd, ſo neither can they ever go beyond their Commiſſion, nor execute any other Punishments, nor for any longer Time, than juſt as he orders them. As is plain from the Inſtance of Job; for Satan himſelf, the Prince of Devils, could not ſo much as touch his Goods, 'till he had obtained a Commiſſion from GOD; nor his Body afterwards, 'till his Commiſſion was enlarg'd. Nay, we find in the Goſpel, that the Devils could not enter into the very Swine 'till CHRIST had given them leave, Matth. viii. 31, 32.

And if we conſider the Heavens, the Sun, Moon and Stars, which GOD hath ordain'd, they never yet did, nor ever can move otherwiſe than as he would have them; who, when he pleaſeth, can make them all ſtand ſtill, as the Sun did in the Days of Joſhua. And not only their Motions, but their very Powers and Influences, whereby they affect one another, or elſe any earthly Bodies, whether ſeverally or conjunctly, are all directed and govern'd by Almighty GOD, who can make them fight againſt his Enemies, as we read the Stars, in their Courſes, did againſt Sifera.

The ſame holds good as to all and every thing in this lower World, the Beaſts of the Earth, the the Fiſhes in the Sea, the Birds of the Air, from the greateſt to the leaſt, are all under his Care and Conduct. So that not ſo much as a Sparrow can do ſo much as fall to the Ground, without our heavenly Father; as our LORD himſelf hath taught us. But Men are of more Value than many Sparrows. And therefore nothing beſure can happen to any of them, without his ſpecial Providence and Order. Inſomuch, that if one be cleaving of Wood, and the Head of his Ax happen to fall off, and kill another, tho', in reſpect of Men, it be only Chance-medley, yet it is expreſſy ſaid, that GOD deliver'd the Man into his Hand, Exod. xxi. Deut. xix. And in a Fight, when Men ſhoot at random, every Bullet or Arrow that is ſo ſhot, obſerves the Orders of the Generaliſſimo of the World, and only executes his Will and Pleaſure: As in the Caſe of Abab, when a Man drew a Bow at a venture; and ſmote him between the Joynts of the Harneſs, and wounded him, ſo that he died that Evening, as GOD, by his Prophet, had foretold he ſhould, 1 Kings xxii. 34. Yea, we read, that in the very caſting of Lots, the moſt accidental Thing that is, the whole diſpoſing thereof is of the LORD, Prov. xvi. 33. And therefore the Apoſtles took this Courſe to know whom GOD would have to be his Apoſtle in the room of Judas, Acts i. And if ſuch things as theſe, which to us are meer Contingences, be notwithstanding manag'd by the ſteady Hand of Divine Providence, we cannot but acknowledge, that whatſoever can any way concern us, muſt needs be ſo too. Inſomuch, that every Man, at this time upon the Face of Earth, is juſt in that Condition that GOD would have him to be in, both as to his Mind, Body, and Eſtate in general; ral ; and likewise, as to every individual Circumſtance belonging to any of them. For the very Hairs of our Head are all numbred. In ſhort therefore, we muſt know, That as there is not one Grain of Matter more or leſs now, than there was in the Beginning of the World, ſo neither is there any Generation, Corruption, Motion, Change or Alteration of any one thing in it, but what is order'd by the Wiſdom of God, ſo as is moſt for the Good of the Whole, and for the Glory of him that made and governs it.

Now this habitual Knowledge of God and his Providence, being preſuppos'd, it is eaſy to obſerve, what it is properly to acknowledge him. For that is nothing elſe, but to bring this Habit into Act, ſo as upon all Occaſions actually to apprehend the Lord Jebovah, as interpoſing his Power, exerciſing his Wiſdom, manifeſting his Goodneſs, and ſignifying his Pleaſure in every thing that happens in the World ; and to ſay, with old Eli, It is the Lord, let him do what ſeemeth him good, 1 Sam. iii. 18. For which purpoſe it is neceſſary, that we do not ſuffer our Thoughts to lie intangl'd amongſt the ſecondary Cauſes, but that we raiſe them up into the firſt, and keep them always fix'd upon him, as ranging and managing the whole Chain of all other Cauſes, ſo as to make them fulfil his Pleaſure, and produce what he would have effected in the World. As for Example at this time, Whatſoever inferior Cauſes have concurr'd towards it, yet I apprehend the ſupreme Being in the World, as ordering the whole Affair that we are now engag'd in. It is by him that we are come from our ſeveral Places of Abode, and are met together in this Place. It is by him, and his Providence, that I now Preach; and that I now Preach concerning him and his Providence. Yea, it is by him, and him alone, that I now speak, and you hear. And whatsoever Impression is made upon you by the Words you hear, doth not proceed from any Virtue or Efficacy in the Words themselves, but from his Power and Grace accompanying of them. And thus it is, that whatsoever is, or falls out in the World, whether from the Concurrence of necessary Causes, or else, as we say, by Accident, we are still to lift up our Eyes to the Lord, Jehovah, and look upon him as ordering, over-ruling and disposing of it. And this is truly to acknowledge him.
and

But here we must observe, That wheresoever there is such a quick and lively Sense of God's special Providence in and over the World, it cannot but put forth, and manifest itself some way or other upon all Occasions. For if we thus acknowledge God in whatsoever comes to pass, when any thing happens contrary to our present Expectations or Desires, we cannot murmur and repine at it; but must needs quietly and patiently submit unto it, and acquiesce in it, as David did, saying, I was dumb, and open'd not my Mouth, because that Jehovah did it, Psal. xxxix. When by our Wisdom and Foresight, by our Care or Industry, by our Friends, or any other Means, we accomplish our Designs, and attain to any thing that is for our Profit and Advantage, we must acknowledge ourselves obliged to God for it, saying, with the same Royal Prophet, This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our Eyes, Psal. cxviii. Thus, whether we gain or lose; whether any thing be bestow'd upon us, or taken from us; by what Instruments struments ſoever it be brought about, we looking upon it as the Product of infinite Wiſdom and Goodneſs, muſt bleſs and thank the Lord for it, in the words of Job, The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, bleſſed be the Name of the Lord, Job i.

Moreover, if we be thus truly ſenſible of GOD's over-ruling Providence, we cannot but fear and dread his Divine Diſpleaſure above all things in the World; ſo as to do nothing that is contrary, nor leave any thing undone that is agreeable to his Revealed Will, whatſoever may come of it. For as no Man can fear GOD except he acknowledge him, ſo no Man can acknowledge GOD, but he muſt needs fear him. And he that truly fears him that governs the World, dares not offend him for all things in it; as knowing that all things in it can do him neither good nor hurt, but according to his Will that governs it. Who, if he be offended by us, can bring what Evil he pleaſe upon us; and it will not be in the Power of all the Creatures in the World to help or defend us. And if he be well-pleaſed with us, we need not fear what any one, or all the Creatures in the World can do againſt us; they being able to do nothing but what he enables them to do.

Hence therefore, as ever we deſire to teſtify our Acknowledgment of GOD, whatſoever Streights we are brought into, we muſt not endeavour to extricate ourſelves by any unlawful Means, by doing any thing contrary to thoſe known Rules that he hath ſet us. For that is, in effect, to deny GOD, and to ſhew that we have no Fear nor Regard at all either of him or his Laws, in that we chuſe to Act contrary to what he hath commanded, and ſo to provoke his Diſpleaſure againſt us, rather than patiently to bear what he hath laid upon us, or go to him to eaſe us of it, in the uſe of ſuch Means as he himſelf hath preſcribed. Which is one of the greateſt Affronts that we can offer to his Divine Majeſty, and that which he will certainly puniſh with the utmoſt Severity; not only in the World to come, but moſt commonly in this too. For he ſo orders it in his Providence, that they who take ſuch indirect Courſes to prevent or remove any Evil they fear or feel, do very rarely effect what they deſign by them, and often the quite contrary. So that what they feared, inſtead of being prevented, is thereby brought upon them; and what they felt, inſtead of being removed, is not only continued to them, but encreaſed and made heavier. And if at any time they ſuffer them to ſucceed, ſo that they are delivered from their preſent Fear and Trouble, yet that very Deliverance ſhall be only in order to the bringing of ſome greater Judgment upon them. So abſurd and ridiculous a thing it is ever to expect to get Good by doing Evil, to prevent or remove any Trouble from us, by offending him who alone can do it. And who, if we acknowledge him in all our Ways, hath promiſed to direct us in all our Paths. But, on the other ſide, he will croſs us as much in all our Deſigns, if we do not acknowledge him. As they, beſure, do not who fear any Thing or Perſon in the World as much or more than him. For they whoſe Minds are conſtantly poſſeſſed with a due ſenſe of his abſolute and ſupreme Authority over the World, cannot but fear and dread him above all things in it, ſo as not to dare do any thing that may offend him, altho' they might gain the whole World by it, and had rather hazard their own Lives a thousand times than once incur his Displeasure in whom they live.

Furthermore, as he who acknowledgeth the Lord must needs fear him, so he cannot also but trust on him; and not only on him, but on him only, so as to depend upon nothing else but him, as knowing that all things else depend wholly upon him, and can neither Be nor Act without him. This is that which is expressly required of us in this very Place, in the Words before my Text, Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and then here, Acknowledge him in all thy ways, viz. by trusting in him with all thine Heart; and, by consequence, above all things else. And this, certainly, is one of the highest Acts whereby we can ever declare our Acknowledgment of God, when in the various Changes and Chances we meet with in the World, we can support ourselves with the serious Consideration of, and an humble Confidence upon the infinite Wisdom and Power, Goodness and Mercy of him that governs it. But this we can never do as we ought, if we look upon him only as the Creator and Governor of the World. For we being conscious to ourselves that we have broken these wise, and righteous, and good Laws that he hath set before us, and thereby have incensed his Wrath and Indignation against us, if we consider him only as the supreme and universal Monarch of the World, we have just cause to fear and tremble, as the Devils do, at the apprehensions of his Greatness and Justice; but have no more ground in ourselves than they have, to expect any Grace or Favour at his Righteous Hands, much less to trust and confide in him for it.

Where-

Wherefore, in order to our truſting on him, it is neceſſary to conſider, that in theſe Holy Writings, wherein this Almighty Being hath revealed himſelf to us, he hath likewiſe acquainted us, that as he is in himſelf Jehovah, one moſt pure and ſimple Being, ſo he was pleaſed, from all Eternity, to communicate this his moſt pure and ſimple Being to another, who is therefore called his SON, as being the brightneſs of his Glory, and the expreſs Image of his Perſon, of the ſame Subſtance or Nature with himſelf the Father. And that from theſe two proceedeth a Third Perſon, called the Holy Ghoſt, of the ſelf-ſame individual Eſſence with both: So that all and every one of theſe Perſons is that Jehovah whom we are here commanded to acknowledge. Moreover, we muſt conſider alſo, That the ſecond of theſe glorious Perſons, the SON, was pleaſed, by the Almighty Power of the Third, to unite our humane Nature to his own divine Perſon, ſo as to become Immanuel, God with us, GOD and Man in one and the ſame Perſon. Who having thus taken their Nature upon him, was pleaſed, in it, to converſe with Men upon Earth, for ſeveral Years together. All which time he ſpent in teaching them all ſuch Truths as were neceſſary for them to believe or know, in working Miracles to convince them of the Divinity of his Perſon, and the truth of the Doctrine which he taught them: in inſtructing them in their whole Duty to God and Man, both by his Precept and Example. And then, by the one Oblation of himſelf, once offered, he made a full, perfect, and ſufficient Sacrifice, Oblation, and Satisfaction for the Sins of the whole World: Even of all that partake of that Nature which he aſſumed, and in which he ſuffered.

suffer'd. After which, riſing again the third Day, he aſcended up into Heaven, where ever he hath been ever ſince, and ever will be, making Interceſſion for us. And therefore is truly call'd not only CHRIST, but JESUS, a Saviour, as being able to ſave, to the utmoſt, all that come unto GOD by him.

Now theſe things being duly conſider'd, it is eaſy to obſerve, what Grounds we have to truſt on the Great JEHOVAH, notwithstanding the Sins that we have committed againſt him. For he having inflicted the Punishments which, by his Law, were due to the Sins of Mankind, upon the whole Nature of Man, united to the Perſon of his own Son, hence he is now ready to receive all of that Nature into his Grace and Favour again, if they will but repent and believe in him. For if we do this, he, in his ſaid Son JESUS CHRIST, our Saviour, hath promis'd us all the good things that we can deſire, to make us both holy and happy for ever. And he hath not only permitted, but commanded us to truſt and rely upon him for the Performance of his ſaid Promiſes. So that we have the ſame Obligations upon us, to truſt on his Promiſes, as we have to obey his Precepts. And beſides that, this is the great and neceſſary Condition that he requires of us, in order to the Performance of all his Promiſes to us, That we ſtedfaſtly believe and truſt on him for the Performance of them; without which, we make ourſelves incapable of ever having them perform'd to us. And the Reason is, Becauſe, unleſs we take his Word for what he hath ſaid, and reſt confident that he will act accordingly, we make him a Lyar, and deny his Truth and Faithfulneſs. Which is ſo eſſential to him, that the Apoſtle ſaith, He cannot lye; it being

ing a Contradiction to his Nature and Effence, which is Truth itſelf. And there is all the reaſon in the World, that they who will not acknowledge GOD, by believing him to be faithful to his Word, ſhould not have it fulfilled to them. From whence we may alſo obſerve, how indiſpenſably neceſſary it is, in order to our acknowledging GOD, that we put our whole Truſt and Confidence on him for all the good Things that he hath promis'd in his holy Goſpel, and what Ground we have to do ſo, having nothing leſs than the Word of Truth itſelf for it, and that too, ſeal'd and confirm'd to us in the Blood of his only Son. Which is ſo ſure and firm a Ground whereupon to build our Hopes of all good Things to be receiv'd at the Hands of GOD, that we neither need, nor ought to trouble our Heads about any thing, but only to repent of our former Sins, and ſerve GOD ſincerely for the future; for if we do that, we may, and ought to reſt fully ſatisfy'd and perſwaded in our Minds, that he, for his Son's ſake, who is now, in our Nature, interceding for us in Heaven, will pardon all that is paſt; aſſiſt and accept our ſincere, inſtead of perfect Obedience; and give us all things neceſſary both for Life and Godlineſs. That he will defend us from all evil, that Men or Devils can deſign againſt us; and cauſe all Things in Heaven and Earth to work together for our Good. And at laſt, he will take us up unto himſelf, to live with him, and enjoy him, the chiefeſt Good, for evermore. This is properly to truſt in the Lord Jehovah, when we thus fear nothing but him; and whatſoever happens in the World, ſtill look upon ourſelves as ſafe and ſecure under his Protection; firmly believing, that he, according to his Promise in JESUS CHRIST, will be merciful unto us, and bless us, and keep us from all evil, and bestow upon us whatsoever is, or can be really for our good. And this is so high and clear an Acknowledgment of GOD, that we can do nothing more pleasing and acceptable unto him, nor more advantageous and profitable for ourselves; for they who thus trust in the LORD, to be deliver'd and sav'd by him, shall therefore be deliver'd and sav'd by him, because they trust on him. They have his own Word for it, that he will deliver them from the Wicked, and save them, because they trust on him, Psal. xxxvii. 40. Thus when the LORD acquainted his Prophet Jeremiab, that Jerusalem should be taken and sack'd by the Chaldeans, he added withal, But I will deliver thee in that Day, saith the Lord, and thou shalt not be given into the Hand of the Men of whom thou art afraid. For I will deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the Sword, but thy Life shall be for a Prey unto thee, because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the Lord, Jer. xxxix. 18.
to

But here we must farther take notice, that to our having the Promises of GOD fulfilled to us, it is requir'd, that as we trust in him, so likewise that we pray unto him for it, Ezek. xxxvi. 37. Which is itself also a great Acknowledgment of him. For by our constant and devout Application of ourselves to him to pardon our Sins, to prevent our Fears, to remove our Troubles, and to supply us with what we want, either for our Souls or Bodies, we plainly acknowledge our Dependance upon him; that he is the Author and Giver of every good and perfect Gift; and that we have nothing but what we receive at his gracious and bountiful Hands.

But

But as ~~we~~ cannot ſtedfaſtly truſt on him, except we pray unto him; ſo neither can we pray unto him effectually, except we truſt on him. And as this is an high Acknowledgment of GOD, it is the moſt effectual way for the obtaining of any thing we deſire of him. (Witness the great Deliverance we this Day commemorate.) For we cannot but now acknowledge, to his Honour and Glory, that he, according to his Promiſes to that purpoſe, hath heard the Prayers, and granted the Petitions we have put up unto him, in that he hath abated the Pride, aſſwag'd the Malice, and confounded the Devices of all our Enemies. Blessed be his Name for it! For all our Hopes, that he will grant what we pray for, being grounded only upon his Promiſes to do it, unleſs we believe and truſt on ſuch Promiſes, we have no Ground to expect, that he ſhould grant us any thing we pray for. And therefore our Lord inserts this Condition in the very Promiſes that he makes us, to this purpoſe, ſaying, And all things whatſoever ye ſhall ask in Prayer; believing, ye ſhall receive, Matth. xxi. 22. And elſewhere, Therefore I ſay unto you, what things ſoever ye deſire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye ſhall have them, Matth. xi. 24. From whence it is plain, that if, when we pray, we likewiſe believe that GOD, according to his Promiſe, will hear and answer us, then he will do it, otherwiſe not. And therefore we find in the holy Scriptures, how the Saints of old, when they pray'd, expreſs'd themſelves commonly in the future Tenſe, as in the 51ſt Pſalm, Thou wilt purge me with Hyſſop, and I ſhall be clean; thou wilt waſh me, and I ſhall be whiter than Snow. Thou wilt not caſt me away from thy Preſence, nor take thy holy Spirit from me.— For ſo it runs in the Original. And ſo doth the 67th ~~Psalm~~ Psalm begin, God will be merciful unto us, and will bleſs us, and will cauſe his Face to ſhine upon us. And the fourth ends after the ſame manner; I will both lay me down and ſleep, for thou, Lord, only wilt make me dwell in ſafety. If we conſult the Hebrew Text, we may obſerve many ſuch Exprefſions uſed in the Prayers which are there recorded, as ſo many Acts or Exercifes of their Truſt and Confidence in GOD. And tho' it be not always neceſſary thus to expreſs it in Words, yet in our Minds we muſt always act our Faith and Truſt in GOD, for all the good things we pray for at his Hands; for otherwiſe we ſhall pray in vain, and to no purpoſe. Whereas if we both preſent our Petitions to him, and at the ſame time believe that he will grant them, according to the Promiſes that he hath made us in JESUS CHRIST our Saviour, we ſhall thereby acknowledge both his Power and Faithfulneſs, and then ſhall be ſure to find Grace and Favour with him.
R . . . the

And as we ought to teſtify our Acknowledgment of GOD by Praying to him, ſo likewise by Praiſing of him, and giving him Thanks. I put them both together, becauſe they are one and the ſame thing, and are uſually expreſſ'd in Hebrew by one and the ſame word; which alſo ſignifies in general, to confeſs or acknowledge. All the Praiſe and Thanks that we can give to GOD, being nothing elſe but our Acknowledgment of what he is in himſelf, and hath done for us. And therefore when we read, Oh that Men would praiſe the Lord for his Goodneſs, &c. in Hebrew it is, Oh that Men would acknowledge to the Lord his Goodneſs: and his wonderful Works to the Children of Men, Pſal. cvii. And elſewhere, Oh give give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever, Pſal. cxviii. the words may properly be tender'd, Acknowledge to the Lord, that he is good, that his mercy endureth for ever. And then it follows, Let Israel now ſay, that his mercy endureth for ever. From whence it appears, that this our Acknowledgment of him ought to be expreſs'd and declar'd by words, or ſome ſuch outward Signs, and then it is properly that which we call Praiſing God, or giving Thanks to him. And therefore David, when he would Praise God, as he often doth in the Pſalms, he only declares and repeats what God hath done for Mankind in general, or for his own People in particular. And thus our Church continually Praiseſh God in that no leſs excellent than ancient Hymn, the Te Deum. Which begins, We praise thee, O God: We acknowledge thee to be the Lord. Where the latter words explain the former, even that we praise God, by acknowledging him to be the Lord. And the whole is nothing elſe but a Declaration that we, and the whole Church both in Heaven and Earth, acknowledge his Glory, and Goodneſs to Mankind. Yea, thus it is that the glorify'd Saints and Angels in Heaven praise him, ſaying, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hoſts, the whole Earth is full of his Glory, Iſa. vi. And, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive Glory, and Honour, and Power; for thou haſt created all things, and for thy pleaſure they are and were created, Rev. iv. And again, Great and marvellous are thy Works, thou Lord God Almighty: Juſt and true are thy Ways, thou King of Saints, Chap. xv. And this is the meaning of that ſhort, but comprehensive Hymn, which they in Heaven, as well as we upon Earth, continually uſe, even Hallelujah, Praise ye the Lord;

Lord ; or, as the word ſignifies, Acknowledge and declare the Glory and Splendour of Jehovah. And therefore, when they have called upon one another to praife God, ſaying, Hallelujah, they immediately all joyn together to do it, as it was in one Chorus, ſaying, Salvation, and Glory, and Honour, and Power unto the Lord our God, Rev. xix. 1. And as we hope to joyn with them hereafter, we ought to begin it here, by having the Praiſes of God continually in our Mouth, and ſo testifying to one another, and to all the World, that we own and acknowledge him for our great Creator, and continual Benefactor. Eſpecially upon this Occaſion, what cauſe have we to praife and magnify his all-glorious Name, and to joyn with the Quire of Heaven, ſaying, Hallelujah, Salvation, and Honour, and Glory, and Power be to the Lord our God. Bleſſing, and Honour, and Glory, and Power be unto him that ſitteth upon the Throne, and to the Lamb, for ever and ever.

But we muſt remember, in the laſt Place, to acknowledge him in our Works as well as Words, by performing ſincere and univerſal Obedience to him ; otherwiſe we ſhall come into the Number of thoſe who, as the Apoſtle ſaith, profefs to know God, but in good Works they deny him, being abominable, diſobedient, and to every good Work reprobate, Tit. 1. For if we reſuſe, or neglect to obey what God hath commanded, we, in effect, deny and diſown his Power and Authority over us. Whereas by walking, to the utmoſt of our Power, in all his Commandments blameleſs, we manifeſt to all the World, that we acknowledge him to be our Lord and Maſter, and that all his Commandments are true, and holy, and juſt, and good for us. And hence it is that this is called our ſerving God. And it is, indeed, all the Service that we can do him, for the manifold Mercies that we continually receive from him. And whatsoever it is that he is pleas'd to require of us, he therefore only requires it of us; and we are therefore oblig'd to perform it to him, that we may thereby observe this one Commandment, into which all the rest do ultimately resolve themselves, even Acknowledge him that made us.

Having thus discovered how we ought to acknowledge GOD, we should now consider the extent of this Duty, how we ought to do it, in all our Ways. But that will be dispatch'd in few words: For, by all our ways, we are certainly to understand, the whole course of our Lives; so that this is not a thing to be done only now and then; but as it was the End of our Creation, it ought to be so of all our Actions. And as of all in general, so, by consequence, of every one in particular; for whatsoever it is we undertake, we are first to consider, whether it be agreeable to GOD's Revealed Will, for fear lest we should offend him in doing it. And if we find it to be so, then we are to pray to him, and trust on him to assist and direct us in it; so as to begin, continue, and end it only in him. And when it is done, we are to ascribe all the Honour and Glory of it only unto him. Thus it is that we may and ought to acknowledge the Lord Jehovah in all our Ways. And if we do this, he himself here promisseth that he will direct our Paths.

And that is the other thing observable in these words, even the Promise that Almighty GOD here makes to direct our Paths, in case we acknowledge him in all our Ways. Which Promise is certainly of the same extent and latitude with the Command : For as the Command contains whatſoever GOD requires of us, ſo doth this Promise whatſoever we can deſire of him. By that he obligeth us to do all we can for him; by this he obligeth himſelf to do all he can for us. For if he directs, or as the word may be tranſlated, makes our Paths ſtrait and plain before us, as we ſhall never go out of the way, ſo neither ſhall we ſtumble in it, Prov. iii. 23. For there ſhall be no Rubs in it; nothing to hinder or impede our Progreſs. But whatſoever it is that we thus undertake, ſo far as it is really for our Good, all things ſhall concur to it. For he that governs all things will do ſo. To this purpoſe is that remarkable Paſſage alſo in the Pſalms, Delight thyſelf in the Lord, and he ſhall give thee the Deſires of thine Heart. Commit thy Way unto the Lord: truſt alſo on him, and he ſhall bring it to paſs, Pſal. xxxvii. 4, 5. For he will order and diſpoſe of all inferior Cauſes ſo, that they ſhall joyn their Forces together for the effecting of it. As none of us but may have often obſerv'd, how when Almighty GOD either wills a thing ſhould not be brought about, or doth not will it ſhould, theſe things that ſhould concur to it, all run counter; or, at leaſt, like Pharaoh's Chariots in the Red-Sea, their Wheels are off, ſo that they drive heavily, and can never attain to the End they were deſign'd for. But when, upon our acknowledging and owning GOD in what we undertake, he is pleas'd to intereſt and engage himſelf in it, all things elſe, acting and moving only under him, put forth all their Power and Vigour, ſtriving, as it were, which ſhould contribute moſt towards the accompliſhing of it. And nothing in the World ſhall be able to oppoſe or hinder it. For when a Man's Ways

Ways please the Lord, he maketh even his Enemies to be at Peace with him, Prov. xvi. 17. Yea, the Stones of the Earth, the Beasts of the Field, the Fowls of the Air, and the very creeping Things of the Ground shall enter into the same League, and become his sure Friends' and Allies, Job v. 23. Hos. ii. 18. And so will all the holy Angels that are in Heaven. So that he shall have no Enemies in the World, but those who are so to GOD, even the Devils in Hell. And yet they too, for all their implacable Hatred and Malice, shall be so far at Peace with him, that they shall not be able to bring any Evil upon him; but whatsoever they attempt against him, shall, in spite of their Teeth, wheel about, and turn to his Good.

Thus therefore it is, That if we acknowledge the Lord in all our Ways, and so always please him, all Things that he hath made shall some way or other, make for us, and promote our Interest and Good in the World. And where the ordinary Power of all the Natural Causes fails us, he himself is pleas'd to appear in an extraordinary and supernatural Manner for us, so as to invert the Course of Nature, encrease its Power, or else to act without it, immediately from himself. As seeing our Souls are of that sublime and spiritual Nature, that no inferior Cause can reach them, so as to work effectually upon them to any good Purpose; therefore he himself, by his own holy Spirit proceeding from him, is pleas'd to move upon them, and to influence all their Powers and Faculties, enlightning our Minds, informing our Judgments, inclining our Wills, regulating our Affections, directing our very Thoughts, and ordering the subtile Spirits in our Brains, so that they may occur, occur, which ſhall be moſt for our Advantage. As the wiſe Man assures us, ſaying, Commit thy Works unto the Lord, and thy Thoughts ſhall be eſtabliſh'd, or directed, Prov. xvi. 3. Inſomuch, that when we are in a Miſt, and know not which way to take, upon the liſting up our Hearts to GOD, he liſts up the Light of his Countenance upon us, and then immediately the Clouds are diſpers'd, and all is ſerene and clear about us. In his Light we ſee Light; and our Ears, as the Prophet ſaith, hear a Word behind us, ſaying, This is the Way, walk ye in it, Iſa. xxx. 21. Hence it is, that they whoſe Minds are always fix'd upon GOD, live above the World, far beyond the reach of all Things in it; even the very Fiends of Hell, and of Fate or Fortune, as the Heathen obſerved *. Which being nothing elſe but the Series of Natural Cauſes, muſt needs be much inferior to thoſe who are acted by a Supernatural Principle, the Spirit of GOD himſelf, the GOD of Nature; who did not only eſtabliſh the whole Courſe of Nature at firſt, but ſtill continues to diſpoſe and order it, according to his own Will and Pleaſure. And therefore, ſo long as we acknowledge and truſt in GOD, as we ought not, ſo we need not concern ourſelves about the Influences of the Stars, the Prodigies of Nature, or any Preſages of future Events, what may, may, or may not happen hereafter in the World; for whatſoever becomes of others, he whom we acknowledge to govern all Things, will be ſure to direct our Paths for us. For he will guide us by his Counſel; aſſiſt us by his Grace; conduct us by his Spirit; and protect us by his Power, until, at length, he receive us to himſelf in Glory.

* Denique affirmat eos Hermes qui cognoverint Deum, non tantum ab incurſionibus Dæmonum tutos eſſe. Verumetiam ne fato quidem teneri, μία, inquit, φυλακὴ ἢ ὑσώβεια, ὑσώβεις γὰρ ἀνθρώπους ἐλδαίμων κακός ἔτε εἰμαρμένην κρατεῖ. Θεός γὰρ ρύεται τὴν ὑσώβειαν ἐν παντί καὶ τὸ γὰρ ἐν τῇ μόνον ἐν ἀνθρώποις ἐστὶν ἀγαθὴν ὑσώβειαν. Quid ſit autem ὑσώβεια, alio loco his verbis teſtatur dicens, ἢ γὰρ ὑσώβεια, κακός δὲ τὸ βλά. Lactant. lib. 2. c. xv. p. 221.

But here we muſt farther obſerve, That theſe Words concern not only ſingle Perſons, but likewise all Societies of Men, or Bodies Politick, as ſuch. For they alſo, if they acknowledge GOD in all their Ways, will have their Paths directed by him. And, doubtleſs, every Man is bound as to acknowledge GOD by himſelf, ſo to expreſs and manifeſt the ſame in Company with others. For this is the great End of Human Societies, That as the Angels in Heaven, ſo we upon Earth may joyn together in paying our Acknowledgments to our common Creator and Governour, and aſſiſt and excite each other in the doing of it. And as this is the End, ſo it ought to be the great Care of all Societies of Men, from the leaſt to the greateſt, even of whole Kingdoms or Empires, where vaſt Companies of Men are, for this Purpoſe, incorporated, and live together under one common Head. For as the LORD, and he alone is the God of all the Kingdoms of the Earth, Iſa. xxxvii. 16. the Lord of Lords, and King of Kings; all the Kingdoms of the Earth muſt needs be oblig'd to own and acknowledge him to be ſo; and to take what care they can, that all and every one of their reſpective Members do the ſame accordingly. For it is this publick and general Acknowledgment of GOD in it, that we call the Religion of any Nation or Kingdom. Upon the due Performance whereof, as the Happineſs of every Member, ſo the Peace and Tranquility of the whole Body depends. And therefore it is worth our while to enquire how this may, and ought to be done. For which Purpoſe I ſhall firſt premiſe three Things.

Firſt, Whatſoever Number of Perſons there are in any, or all the Kingdoms upon Earth, who are Baptized in the Name of the Father, Son and Holy Ghoſt, and acknowledge the true GOD, and JESUS CHRIST, whom he hath ſent, as they have a civil Reſpect to the Kingdom or Nation, wherein they live as Subjects, ſo they are viſible Members alſo of CHRIST'S Catholick Church. Which, altho' it be a Kingdom of itſelf, Governed by its own Officers, Inſtituted by our Lord CHRIST, and therefore is not of this World, but purely Spiritual, having relation only to Mens Souls, and future States ; yet it is neceſſary it ſhould be, and always is ſeated in the Temporal Kingdoms upon Earth, (as the Soul is in the Body) and in ſome Places is of the ſame Extent and Latitude with them, in others not. As in our own particularly ; there being at this time, to our great Shame and Grief, many Subjects of this Realm who were never Baptized, according to the Inſtitution of CHRIST, and ſo are not admitted into his Church. But howſoever, where the publick Acknowledgment of GOD, according to the Doctrine and Diſcipline taught and preſcribed in the Goſpel of CHRIST, is allowed and eſtabliſhed by the Laws of any Kingdom or Nation, tho' there may be ſome particular Perſons in it that do not profeſs it, yet the Chriſtianity is ſtill the publick Religion of that Kingdom or Nation ; and the Church of CHRIST that that is ſettled in it, is, properly, a National Church ; and the King, Queen, Prince or Emperor, or whoſoever he be that hath the ſovereign Power in that Nation, is over all Perſons, in all Cauſes, as well Eccleſiaſtical as Temporal, ſupreme Governor upon Earth. To whom is committed the ſupreme Care of the Church that is ſeated in his Kingdom, as well as of the Kingdom in which 'tis ſeated.

Secondly, Where the Church of CHRIST is thus ſettl'd in any Kingdom, (as it ought to be in all) and ſo the Chriſtian is the only Religion publickly profeſs'd in it, many People are apt to profeſs it only upon that Account ; not becauſe of the Truth and Excellency of it in itſelf, but only becauſe it is the Religion of that Country where they live. Which Reaſon, if it may be call'd ſo, holding for all other Religions that are any where publickly profeſs'd, as well as for that, they are properly of no Religion, at leaſt not of the Chriſtian, any farther than by outward Profeſſion. And therefore all ſuch Perſons, which, we have cauſe to fear, are very many in all Kingdoms ; all ſuch, I ſay, will obſerve the Rules and Precepts of their Religion, and ſo acknowledge God no farther than they are oblig'd to do it by the Laws of the Land, whereby it is eſtabliſh'd. Which reaching only to the outward Man, inwardly they are as Bad and Vicious, as if they had never heard of any ſuch thing as Goodneſs or Vertue : As Heady and High-minded, as Proud and Self-conceited, as Covetous and Uncharitable, as Malicious and Revengeful, as if the Goſpel of CHRIST had never been planted amongſt them. And their Minds being thus diſtemper'd and corrupted, they are apt, upon all Occaſions, not only

only to fall into all manner of perſonal Wickedneſs and Immorality , but likewise to raiſe Schiſms and Factions in the Church, and Tumults and Sedition in the State. Which therefore cannot, with any ſhew of Reaſon, be imputed to the Religion they profeſs, but to their bare Profeſſion, without the Practice of it. For ſuch things as theſe are directly contrary to the Principles of the Chriſtian Religion: Which requires us to live Soberly, Righteouſly and Godly in this preſent World; to be Meek and Lowly in Heart; to follow Peace with all Men; to be Obedient and Submiſſive to our Governors; and to ſuffer the greateſt, rather than to do the leaſt Wrong to any Man. And therefore, they that act not according to theſe Principles, whatſoever they may profeſs, they like not to retain GOD in their Knowledge, but are Enemies to him, and to his Church for his ſake, becauſe he is truly acknowledg'd in it. And hence it is, that the Church of CHRIST always did, and ever will meet with Oppoſition in the World, ſo long as there are either Devils in Hell, or ſinful Men upon Earth to make it.

Laſtly, This, therefore, being the State and Condition of the Chriſtian Religion, whereſoever it is publickly receiv'd into any Kingdom, in order to the free and conſtant Exerciſe thereof throughout the ſaid Kingdom, it is neceſſary that it be encourag'd, defended, back'd and enforc'd by the Civil Government, and the Laws of the Land, which have more force upon carnal and ſinful Men, than the Laws of the Church, or of CHRIST himſelf. I know that CHRIST hath left ſufficient Power with his Church to govern itſelf, and its own Members, and to fit them for Heaven, without the Aſſiſtance ſiſtance of any other. But as for the Defence and Protection of it againſt its Enemies, that he takes care of himſelf, or elſe commits it to the Civil Magiſtrate, where it is publicly own'd. In the firſt Ages of the Church, before the Empire became Chriſtian, CHRIST himſelf appear'd, in a miraculous Manner for it, diſtributing his Power of working Miracles commonly amongſt the Members of it; whereby his Church was not only preſerv'd and kept up in the World, but propagated too, maugre all the Oppoſition that Men or Devils could make againſt it. But when Emperors and Kings themſelves embrac'd the Chriſtian Religion, the Power of working Miracles preſently ceaſ'd, and the Care and Patronage of the Church was then put into their Hands, and ſo it hath been ever ſince: There being no need of extraordinary Means, where the ordinary Means may do as well. And this is certainly the higheſt Honour that can be conferr'd upon any Prince, to be CHRIST's Vicegerent upon Earth, in Defending and Aſſiſting his Church in the free Exerciſe of that Religion which he hath eſtabliſh'd in the World. And as this is the Prince's Honour, ſo both his own and his People's Welfare depends upon the due Performance of it: By making and publiſhing ſuch Laws as are neceſſary for that purpoſe. For ſeeing it is only in the Exerciſe of the Chriſtian Religion that the moſt High GOD is duly acknowledg'd in any Kingdom, the very making and conſenting to ſuch Laws as tend to the ſettling, ſecuring and promoting of that, is itſelf a publick Acknowledgment of GOD made by the whole Realm, and ſo entitles it to the great Promise in my Text, of being directed by him.

And

And therefore, this muſt needs be the main thing that the Civil Government ought to look after; for that, certainly, is not ſo much concern'd in the Salvation of particular Perſons, as in the keeping up of that Religion in order, whereby they may be ſav'd, and GOD truly acknowledg'd in the Kingdom. To which there are many things neceſſary, which are not ſo in themſelves to the Salvation of this or that Man in it, any farther than as every one is bound in Conſcience to obſerve and obey ſuch Laws, as are enacted for that pious and good End.

Theſe things being premis'd in general, we ſhall now conſider particularly what thoſe things are, which ought to be thus eſtabliſh'd and perform'd throughout the Kingdom, in order to the due Acknowledgment of Almighty GOD in it.

First, therefore, it is neceſſary, that there be certain Places and Times ſet up, where and when it ſhould be done, throughout the Kingdom: As alſo, certain Perſons or Officers, who may aſſiſt the reſt of the Kingdom in the doing of it. For theſe things, in general, are ſo neceſſary to the Eſtabliſhment of Religion in any Place, that no Religion can any where ſubſiſt without them. Nor yet without their being eſteem'd Sacred and Religious, by reaſon of their near and intimate relation to Religion in general. And as they are ſuppos'd in all Religions, ſo the Religion of any Nation is ſpecify'd by them. As the Chriſtian is known and diſtinguiſh'd from all other Religions, by its being publicly exercis'd at ſuch Times, in ſuch Places, and ſuch Officers as were appointed by CHRIST and his Apoſtles, and have been obſerv'd by his Catholick Churches in all Ages. And therefore to take away all or any of theſe things, as now eſtabliſh'd amongſt us, (as ſome heretofore have endeavour'd to do) is plainly to undermine the Chriſtian Religion, and to make way for any, or no Religion at all. But, on the other ſide, where there is ſufficient Proviſion made by the Laws of any Kingdom, for the better obſerving of ſuch Times, for the erecting and upholding ſuch Places, and for the defending and maintaining of ſuch Officers as CHRIST hath ſet- tled in his Church, for the due Acknowledg- ment of GOD, according to his Goſpel; there his Religion is publickly own'd, and the true GOD ſo far acknowledged by that Kingdom.

Now theſe things being thus eſtabliſh'd throughout the Kingdom, that GOD may be duly acknowledged in it, it is farther neceſſary, that there be a ſet Form of Publick Devotions drawn up by the Church, and ſo confirm'd and enforc'd by the Civil Power, that all Perſons may be oblig'd to join together in the Perfor- mance of them at the Times and Places, and by the Perſons or Officers beforemention'd. Otherwiſe, whatſoever ſome particular Perſons in it may do, the Nation, in general, could not be ſaid to acknowledge GOD. For if all People ſhould be left to their own Liberty, to do what they pleas'd in this caſe, by reaſon of the Im- prudence, Ignorance, and Wickedneſs of the greateſt Part of Mankind, ſome would never meet together at all upon any ſuch Account; others would meet together ſo as to diſhonour GOD, rather than acknowledge him as they ought, by their impertinent Talking, and irre- verent Carriage before him. And beſides, that by this means the Kingdom would be ſoon di- vided into as many Opinions about Religion, as there are Pariſhes ; and there would be as many ſeveral Modes of Religious Worſhip, as particular Congregations in it. None of which could be ſaid to be the Opinion or Religion of the whole Kingdom. And if it ſhould ſo happen, which can never be expected, that all the Perſons in any Nation ſhould agree in Acknowledging and Worſhipping Almighty God aright, yet ſtill there would be no Thanks due to the Nation in general, as a Body Politick for it, they having no Obligation upon them from the Laws of the Land to do ſo. But where there is a Grave and ſolemn Form of Common-Prayer, compos'd by the Church, ſeated in any Kingdom, according to which the moſt High God may be duly and fully acknowledg'd and worſhipped in it ; and this is enjoined, not only by the Eccleſiaſtical, but likewise by the Civil Power of the ſaid Kingdom, to be every where obſerv'd and us'd, altho' there may be ſome particular Perſons who, thro' Ignorance, Prejudice, or any evil Habit, may reſuſe or neglect to join with the reſt of the Kingdom in the uſing of it ; yet, howſoever, the Kingdom in general doth perform its Duty, and duly acknowledge God, by its conſenting unto, and enjoining ſuch a Form to be every where obſerved, whereby he is, or may be duly acknowledged.

But for that Purpoſe it is neceſſary, that the ſaid Form, containing all things requiſite to the Publick Acknowledgment of God in the Kingdom, be us'd in the Vulgar Tongue, which is commonly ſpoken and underſtood by all the People in it. For otherwiſe, whatſoever Acknowledgments of God there may be in the Composition, there can be none made by the People

People in the Uſe of it. Who not knowing what is ſaid of G O D, cannot poſſibly join in the Acknowledgment of him. And altho' the enjoining of ſuch a Form in general, be a Publick Acknowledgment of G O D, yet the enjoining it to be uſ'd in an unknown Tongue, is, in effect, a forbidding the People to Acknowledge him, by making it impoſſible for them to do it. By which means, whatſoever Acknowledgment of him was deſign'd in the Injunction itſelf, is in the Practice made void, and of none effect.

Moreover, it is neceſſary alſo, that all the Prayers in the ſaid Form be directed only to the moſt High G O D; not to Saints or Angels, or any Creature whatſoever. For that would be to acknowledge the Creature inſtead of the Creator, G O D bleſſed for evermore. And beſides that, whatſoever Diſtinctions Learned Men may make, in all the Popiſh Countries, where their Prayers are uſually directed to the Virgin Mary, or other Saints, to Images, Crucifixes, or the like, it is notorious, that the Common People pay more Reſpect and Reverence to them, than they themſelves do to Almighty G O D himſelf. And therefore, whatſoever Kingdom publicly commands or allows this, plainly detracts ſo much from that publick Acknowledgment which is due to him, and to him only.

And as it is neceſſary that the Prayers be made only to G O D, ſo alſo, that they be made to him in the moſt humble manner that may be, whereby to expreſs our Fear and Reverence of his Divine Majeſty, and our Acknowledgment of his Power and Sovereignty over us. And likewiſe that, together with our Prayers, we ſing Pſalms, and Hymns, and Spiritual Songs to him; and ſo actually acknowledge his Glory and Goodneſs, and the wonderful Works he hath done, and ſtill doth in the World. To which muſt be added alſo, the publick Reading and Expounding of the holy Scriptures, as containing his Reveal'd Will, concerning what he would have us to believe and do. For this is a publick Acknowledgment, that we are all bound to believe and do what he ſaith, and, by conſequence, that he is our Great Lord and Maſter, whoſe Will is a Law to us.

And as for the Sacraments which CHRIST hath ordained in his Church, the one for the Admiſſion of Perſons into it, the other for the perpetual Commemoration of that Sacrifice which he hath offer'd up for the Sins of the World, it is neceſſary, that they be duly adminiſter'd all over the Kingdom, according to his Inſtitution; both that the People may not want the great Means that he hath appointed for their obtaining Grace and Salvation by him, and that the Nation, in general, may thereby teſtify its Acknowledgment of the true GOD, according to the Manifeſtations that he hath made of himſelf, and his Will to Mankind, in the Goſpel of CHRIST.

Where ſuch a Form of Divine Service as this is conſtantly uſ'd throughout a Kingdom, with that Decency and Solemnity as becomes ſo Great a Work, it doth not only contribute very much to the Edification and Salvation of particular Perſons in it, but it keeps up the Knowledge of GOD, and the Senſe of Religion, in the whole. A thing which the Civil Government is highly concern'd, in Intereſt as well as Duty, to take ſpecial Care of, both by reaſon of the Influence it hath upon the Peace and Quiet of the Kingdom itself, and, likewise, because it conducing so much to the general Acknowledgment of God in it, doth thereby procure his Favour and Blessing upon it, especially where it is so establish'd by the Laws of the Realm, that all People are oblig'd to join in it. For by that Means the whole Nation, as such, does so far what it can towards the right Acknowledgment of Almighty God. But for the making of it still more compleat and effectual, it is very expedient, that People should be oblig'd, from their Infancy, to be Catechiz'd and Instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion, that so they may be better prepar'd and dispos'd for the Performance of this their Duty and Service to God. And if that was done, I do not see what more is requir'd for the due Acknowledgment of God in any Nation, as to this Particular.

But there is still another particular Duty behind, whereby every Nation and Kingdom upon Earth is bound to express its Acknowledgment of God, which, in short, is this. It cannot be deny'd, but that every Kingdom hath Power within itself, to make such Laws as are necessary for the supporting the Government, and for the securing the Peace and Tranquillity of those that live under it. But the most High God we know, as the supreme Lawgiver of the World, hath implanted in our Natures, and publish'd by Writing, several Laws for all Mankind to walk by. Which ought, therefore, to be strictly observ'd in the making of all Human Laws. For as it is in each particular Kingdom, every City or Corporation that is in it, hath Power from the Prince, to make what By-Laws

ſhall ſeem neceſſary for the regulating of its own private Affairs; but ſtill with this Proviſo, That none of them be repugnant to the Laws of the Kingdom in general. So here. Altho' G O D, the univerſal Monarch of the World, hath given ſufficient Authority to every Kingdom, to make Laws for the Government of itſelf; yet it is ſtill with this Caution, That all ſuch Laws be agreeable to the Common Laws of the whole World, and according to thoſe Eternal Rules of Juſtice and Equity, which the King of all the Kings and Kingdoms upon Earth commands all his Subjects, and ſo Mankind in general, to regulate their Actions by. And therefore, where this is not punctually obſerv'd in the drawing-up of all Human Laws, all ſuch Laws, as being contrary to the Laws of G O D, are not only null and void of themſelves, but the Kingdom by which they are made, doth thereby incurr the Diſpleaſure of the ſupreme Governor of the World, who will never ſuffer the Violation of his own Laws to go unpuniſh'd. And that Kingdom or Nation that offers to do it, ſhall, one time or other, ſmart for it. And thoſe very Laws, howſoever design'd for its Peace and Welfare, ſhall prove the Occaſion of its greater Trouble and Diſtraction. Whereas, in the compiling and making Laws for the better Government of any Kingdom, to have a due and ſincere Reſpect to the reveal'd Will of G O D, and never to deviate in the leaſt from that, either for Fear or Favour, to any Thing or Perſon upon Earth, is one of the higheſt Acts, whereby it is poſſible for any Kingdom to Acknowledge G O D, as being a plain Acknowledgment, both of his abſolute Power to give us Laws, and of his infinite Wiſdom, Juſtice and Goodneſs in thoſe that he hath given

given us. And therefore, the Kingdom that keeps close to this, and leaves the Event to God, will, moſt certainly, find it to be very good. For as we can never break God's Laws without being the worſe, we can never obſerve them without being the better for it.

Having thus conſider'd, how a Kingdom or Nation in general, may, and ought to perform the Duty in my Text, it is eaſy to ſhew, how the Promise ſhall be perform'd to it. For ſeeing that, altho' the particular Perſons concern'd in the Government of any Kingdom be, yet the Kingdom itſelf, as ſuch, is not capable of Punishments or Rewards in the other World, the Promise can have reference only unto this: And, therefore, the Direction which God here promiſeth, as it relates to any Kingdom, acknowledging of him the ſeveral ways before ſpecify'd, cannot amount to leſs than this: That he will ſo over-rule the Counſels, and direct the Publick Affairs of ſuch a Kingdom, as ſhall be moſt for its Peace and Safety, both from Domeſtick and Foreign Enemies. As it owns him, he will own it, and look upon it as his Kingdom, in a peculiar manner, as he formerly did the Nation of the Jews; and take that ſpecial Care of it, that whatſoever Attempts are made againſt it ſhall be brought to nothing, but all things ſhall proſper and ſucceed that can any way conduce to its Eaſe and Quiet. Thus it is, that whatſoever Kingdom ſhall acknowledge him in all its Ways, ſhall be directed by him in its Paths.

Happy are the People that are in ſuch a Caſe; Yea, happy are the People that have thus the Lord to be their God. They are always ſafe under his Conduct and Protection. For tho' the wiſeſt among them, neither apart by themselves, nor ~~kn~~yn'd together in Publick Councils, know what is doing in any Part of the Earth, but where they themselves are; nor what will be the Issue of the Counsels they take, yet the Lord their God doth. He knows what is now a doing all the World over. For nothing can be done, nothing can be without him. He is present at the most secret Councils, and intimately acquainted with all the Intrigues and Designs that are carrying on in the Courts of all the Princes and Potentates upon Earth. And where he sees any consulting or devising Mischief against the Kingdom that truly acknowledgeth him, he can in-fatuate their Counsels, or confound their Devices, when he pleaseth: if he sees good to suffer them to go on for a while, can suggest such Thoughts and Counsels to the Governors of his said Kingdom, as shall effectually undermine and prevent the Mischief devis'd against it, and make it fall upon the Head of those who devis'd it.

And that he will do it for those who acknowledge him in all their Ways, we cannot doubt, seeing he himself hath promis'd to direct their Paths.

Vid. VOL. IV. SER. 3.

2 COR. V. 7.

For we Walk by Faith, not by Sight.

HAVING thus discover'd what that Faith is by which a Christian walks, even the Substance of things hoped for, and the Evidence of things not seen, we are now to consider how we may, and ought to walk by this Faith. For that all Christians ought to walk by Faith, none can doubt of, who considers that it is only by Faith that we either are, or walk like Christians. It is by Faith that we are made Christians, real Members of that Body whereof CHRIST is Head. And, therefore, a Christian and an Infidel are directly oppos'd to one another, as one that doth, and one that doth not believe; and, by consequence, as one that shall, and one that shall not be saved. For as our Saviour himself tells us, He that believeth on him, is not condemned; but he that believeth not, is condemned already, John iii. 18. So that we have the same Obligation upon us to believe in CHRIST, as we have to be Christians; it being by that, that we are made so: And it is as much our Duty to believe in him, as it is our Interest to be saved by him; it being by that, that we attain to this.

And as it is only by Faith that we are made Christians, ſo it is only by Faith too that we continue and live as ſuch. He that ceaſeth to believe, ceaſeth to be a Chriſtian: And he that walketh not by Faith, walketh not as becometh a Chriſtian to do. For as Reason being the ſpecifick Difference betwixt Men and other Animals, he that acts not by Reason, doth not act the Man. So here: Faith being the ſpecifick Difference betwixt Chriſtians and other Men, he that acts not by Faith, doth not act the Chriſtian, but a meer Man at the beſt, if not a Brute. This our Saviour himſelf intimates to us, where he ſaith, that his Kingdom is not of this World, John xviii. 36. For if CHRIST's Kingdom be not of this World, a Chriſtian's πολίτευμα, or Converſation, as ſuch, cannot be of this World, but of the other, where CHRIST is. But there is no other way whereby it is poſſible for us to Converſe with the other World, but only by Faith; the Subſtance of thoſe things which we there hope for, and the only Evidence of thoſe things which are there: They being no other way viſible to us. And, therefore, a Chriſtian, as ſuch, always having his Converſation in Heaven, as the Apoſtle ſpeaks, Phil. iii. 20. he muſt needs walk by Faith, and not by Sight; it being impoſſible for him any other way to walk as becometh a Chriſtian, worthy of the Goſpel of CHRIST, and of that Vocation where-with he is call'd.

Wherefore taking it for granted, that all true Chriſtians walk continually by Faith, we ſhall now ſhew how they do it, and, by conſequence, how we may walk like Chriſtians. For which purpoſe, we ſhall conſider the ſeveral Duties which a Chriſtian is oblig'd to perform to God; the the ſeveral Temptations he may be under from the Devil ; the ſeveral ways that he Converſeth with Men ; and the ſeveral States and Conditions he may be in whilſt here below. And ſhew how he walks thro' them all by Faith.

First, therefore, As to the Duties which a Chriſtian owes, and therefore performs immediately to GOD. The Object of them all, even GOD himſelf, being the Object, not of his Sight, but Faith, he can never ſet about them, muchleſs perform them as he ought, without acting and exerciſing his Faith all the while. There are two Things eſpecially wherein it is neceſſary to act our Faith, whatſoever Duties we perform, in order to our performing them aright and acceptably to GOD. First, it is neceſſary, That we believe in him for his aſſiſtance of us in what we do : And then, For his Acceptance of it when done. For GOD being not only the chiefſt, but the only Good, as no good Thing can be had but what comes from him, ſo no good Thing can be done but what is done by him. And hence it is, that GOD hath ſo often promis'd the Aſſiſtance of his own Grace and Spirit, to carry us thro' the Duties which he is pleas'd to require of us, and hath ſeal'd and confirm'd the ſaid Promiſes to us in his own Son, who therefore tells us, that without him we can do nothing, John xv. 5. that is, we can do nothing good or acceptable unto GOD, without the Aſſiſtance and Co-operation of his Spirit with us, according to the Promiſes which he hath made us to that purpoſe, in our Lord and Saviour CHRIST. But he that doth not believe in CHRIST, and ſo in the ſaid Promiſes which are made us in him, deprives himſelf of the Uſe and Benefit of them. And, by conſequence, what-whatsoever he doth, doing it only by his own Strength, without GOD's special Grace and Assistance, it cannot be well-pleasing to him. Whereas if we believe in the said Promises with such a Faith, as is the Substance of them to us, we thereby have them fulfill'd to us. For GOD is then pleas'd to direct, influence and assist us in the Performance of our Devotions to him, so as that he shall receive much Glory, and we ourselves real Comfort or Advantage from them.

And this I take to be the Meaning of these Words of the Apostle, where, speaking of our Spiritual Exercises, he saith, And whatsoever ye do, in Word or in Deed, do all in the Name of the Lord Jesus, giving Thanks unto God, and the Father by him, Col. iii. 17. that is, Whatsoever Duty ye perform to GOD, be sure to do it in the Name of CHRIST, believing and trusting on him for his Assistance of you, that so you may do it by him, even by CHRIST assisting of you with his own Grace and Spirit in the doing of it.

Hence ye may see the reason of that pious Custom, which always did, and still doth prevail in the Church amongst such as really desire to Worship and Serve GOD, That they no sooner come into the Church, but they presently fall upon their Knees, imploring GOD's Aid and Assistance of them in the great Work they are now to undertake. For seeing they cannot do it by their own Strength, and have no ground to expect any Assistance from GOD, except they desire it of him; they find it not only reasonable, but necessary, to prepare themselves for their publick Devotions by some private Eularations, and Prayers to GOD, for his Blessing

ſing and Aſſiſtance upon what they do. And, I verily believe, that the Neglect or Omiſſion of this, is one great Reaſon why ſo many neither do, nor receive any Good at Church, but come hither, and return home again neither wiſer nor better than they come. And, therefore, I adviſe all ſuch amongſt you as deſire to Serve GOD to good purpoſe, That whenſoever you come into his ſpecial Preſence, you would firſt liſt up your Hearts to GOD, and act your Faith and Confidence on him for his Aſſiſtance of you in what you go about, for CHRIST JESUS's ſake. Do but this heartily and ſincerely, as ye ought, and (as I do not queſtion but many of you do) you will ſoon find the Benefit and Advantage of it by your own Experience, far better than I am able to expreſs it.

And as we ought thus to act our Faith on GOD for his Aſſiſtance of us in what we do, ſo, likewise, for his Acceptance of it, when done, for CHRIST JESUS's ſake. For there are ſo many Infirmities, Defects and Imperfections in our beſt Performances, that ſhould GOD examine them by the ſtrict Rules of his Juſtice, inſtead of accepting, he could not but abhor and loath them. But our Comfort is, that what is wanting in us, our Saviour is always ready to ſupply with his own all-ſufficient Merit, and Mediation for us. Inſomuch, that in and thro' him, our imperfect Duties may be accepted of as well as if they were perfect. As St. Peter aſſures us, ſaying, Ye alſo as lively Stones, are built up a ſpiritual Houſe, an holy Priſthood, to offer up ſpiritual Sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jeſus Chriſt, 1 Pet. ii. 5. But for this purpoſe it is neceſſary, that we act our Faith in CHRIST, without which, nothing that he hath done for us will ſtand

ſtand us in any ſtead. Whereas, by ſuch a Faith in him, as is the Subſtance of the good Things we hope for from him, we may obtain ſo much Grace and Favour in the Sight of GOD, that he will accept of our ſincere Endeavours, inſtead of abſolute Perfection, upon the Account of what his Son, in whom we believe, hath done and ſuffer'd for us.

And hence we may ſee the reaſon, why they who are truly devout, as they begin, ſo they end their Devotions with ſome heavenly Ejaculations to this purpoſe, That GOD would be pleas'd to accept of what they have done for his Son, our Saviour, CHRIST JESUS's ſake. For nothing that we do being acceptable to GOD, but only upon the Account of CHRIST, nor upon his neither, except we believe in him for it; they that deſire to Serve GOD acceptably, as they do it with Reverence and Godly Fear, ſo they always act their Faith in CHRIST, for GOD's acceptance of what they do, for his ſake. Concluding their Devotions, whether Publick or Private, as David doth the Nineteenth Psalm, Let the Words of my Mouth, and the Meditation of my Heart, be acceptable in thy Sight, O Lord, my Strength and my Redeemer. Or with Words to the ſame effect: As, Accept, O Lord, of what I have now done, for thy Son, my Redeemer's ſake, who is now interceding for me at thy right Hand in Heaven. He that takes care thus to exerciſe his Faith, both at the beginning and end of his Devotions, takes the moſt effectual Courſe in the World, both to be aſſiſted in the Performance of them, and to have them accepted when they are performed. And, therefore, I heartily wiſh that as, by the Bleſſing of GOD, many of you do it already, you would all for the future do ſo.

Then

Then you would ſoon find your Devotions quite another thing than what they us'd to be.

Having thus conſider'd, how a Chriſtian acts his Faith in the Performance of all Duties in general, we ſhall now conſider them particularly ; and ſhew, how he walks, by Faith, thro' every one of them. And for that purpoſe, ſhall begin with that which is the daily Exerciſe of every devout Soul, even Prayer, which cannot poſſibly be performed aright without Faith. As St. James intimates, ſaying, If any one lack Wiſdom, let him ask it of God. But let him ask in Faith, nothing wavering, Jam. i. 5, 6. And St. Paul, I will that Men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting, 1 Tim. ii. 8. So that, it ſeems, as we muſt Pray in Charity, ſo likewise in Faith too ; as we muſt not have any wrathful or revengeful Thoughts againſt others, ſo neither muſt we have any doubtful or unbelieving Thoughts in ourſelves when we Pray. Yea, Faith is ſo eſſential to the effectual fervent Prayer of a Righteous and Good Man, that it is from thence call'd, The Prayer of Faith, Jam. v. 15. becauſe, that it is only by Faith that any Prayer becomes either fervent or effectual.

He, therefore, that would Pray aright, muſt not only begin and end his Prayer with Faith, according to what I have ſhewn already, but he muſt walk by Faith thro' the whole Duty. There being no part of it any farther Prayer, than as it is quicken'd and actuated by a true and lively Faith, either as it is the Subſtance of things hoped for, or elſe the Evidence of things not ſeen. For, firſt, when we Pray, we ſpeak to one whom we never did, nor do, nor can ſee with our Bodily Eyes, even to Almighty God, who dwelleth in that Light, which no Mortal Mortal Eye is able to approach : So that we have no other way to look up to him, or upon him, when we Pray, but only by the Eye of Faith. And, therefore, they who do not exercise their Faith in Prayer, Pray to one whom they do not see ; and, by consequence, cannot possibly raise up their Heart and Affections to him as they ought. Whereas by Faith we may behold him to whom we Pray, as clearly as we can behold ourselves Praying to him ; and are as certain that he hears what we speak or think, as we are that we either speak or think it ; and as certain that he sees us, as we are that we do not see him any otherwise than by Faith. By which means, our Minds are fixed upon him, our Desires are carry'd after him, and our whole Souls are fill'd with an holy Awe and Reverence of his Greatness and Glory.

And this is the Reason, why they who are truly Pious, carry themselves so Humbly and Reverently before God, all the while they are Praying to him. Because they Praying always in Faith, their Minds are thereby possess'd with so quick a Sense of God's Presence with them, that they cannot but fall down and worship him, adoring those Divine Perfections which their Faith represents so clearly to them. And, therefore, they who sit, or stand and stare about them, whilst we are Praying, do thereby plainly discover they do not Pray in Faith, and so have not God before their Eyes ; for if they had, so glorious a Sight could not but make them fall upon their Knees, and prostrate themselves before him.

When Jacob saw God but in a Dream, he presently was afraid, and cried out, How dreadful is this Place? This is none other but the House of God,

God, and this is the Gate of Heaven, Gen. xxviii. 17. How much more we who have our Eyes open, even the Eyes of our Faith, and with them behold the Glory of the LORD filling this Place where we are assembled ; what cause, I say, have we to be afraid, and cry out, How dreadful is this Place ? It is no other but the House of God, the Place of his special Presence. Who can believe this, and not express his fear and dread of so Great a Majesty, by carrying himself with all manner of Reverence and Humility before him ? Yet this is our Case every time that we come hither to Pray unto GOD, we come into his special Presence, where GOD himself hath promised to meet with us, and we behold him accordingly with the Eye of Faith ; and, therefore, cannot but say with Job, I have heard of thee with the hearing of the Ear, but now mine Eye seeth thee : Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in Dust and Ashes, Job xlii. 5, 6. In short, therefore, let any one but exercise his Faith when he Prays, and by it look upon GOD as looking upon him, and as taking notice both of the inward Motions of his Heart, and of the outward Gestures of his Body, and then let him be careless and hypocritical, let him be prophane and irreverent before him if he can : I am confident he cannot. And that all that Carelessness and Indifferency, that Dulness and Stupidity, that Stiffness and Irreverence, which any of you are guilty of, in GOD's Presence, proceeds meerly from your want of Faith, from your not believing, that GOD is really present with you. For if ye did believe it, you durst not, you could not but carry yourselves accordingly.

Moreover, as whensoever we Pray, we thus, by Faith, apprehend GOD as specially present with with us, ſo, likewise, by the ſame Faith we apprehend CHRIST as interceding for us, and offering up our Prayers to GOD, with the Incenſe of his own Merit, whereby alone they become either acceptable to GOD, or effectual to ourſelves. And by this means it is, that our Faith in Prayer, is not only the Evidence of Things not ſeen, but alſo the Subſtance of Things hoped for. For firmly believing our Saviour's Mediation for us, and the Truth of that Promise which he hath made us, That whatſoever we ask the Father in his Name, he will give us it, John xvi. 23. we are thereby fully perſuaded in our own Minds, that whatſoever we pray for that is really good for us, we ſhall moſt certainly receive it. Which Faith, or truſting upon GOD for what we deſire of him, according to the Promiſes which he hath made to that purpoſe, is, as I have ſhewn already, the moſt ſure and certain Way whereby to obtain it. Itſelf, if ſincere and rightly grounded upon the Promiſes of GOD, being the very Subſtance of them to us, and ſo putting us into the actual Poſſeſſion of the Thing promis'd. And, therefore, this believing and truſting upon GOD for what we pray for, is that which gives Life and Efficacy to our Prayers; without which, all our Praying is a meer dead and formal Exerciſe, that will ſtand us in no ſtead at all: But with it, our Prayers are both pleaſing unto GOD, and profitable to ourſelves; inſomuch, that we may thereby be always ſecure of all and every thing that can any way conduce to make us happy.

But for this purpoſe, tho' that be alſo neceſſary, yet it is not ſufficient to act our Faith and Truſt in GOD, to answer our Prayers by the Lump, when we have finiſh'd them; but all the while while that we are Praying, at every Petition we put up to him, we are ſtill, in our Minds, to believe and truſt on GOD for the granting of it; and ſo to walk by Faith from one Petition to another thro' the whole Prayer: For this is properly to pray in Faith. And whatſoever Requeſt we put up to GOD without this, is plainly loſt, and to no purpoſe. Which the Saints of old were ſo ſenſible of, that their very Prayers themſelves were ſo order'd, that they were, in a manner, nothing elſe but an Exerciſe of their Faith in GOD, for his granting what they had need of. Thus David, in the 51ſt Pſalm, doth frequently expreſs himſelf, ſo as to act his Faith in GOD for what he deſires of him, ſaying, as it is in the Original, Thou ſhalt purge me with Hyſop, and I ſhall be clean; thou ſhalt waſh me, and I ſhall be whiter than Snow. Thou ſhalt make me to bear of Joy and Gladneſs, that the Bones which thou haſt broken may rejoyce, Pſal. li. 7, 8. and ſo often in that Pſalm. As, likewise, in the 67th, GOD ſhall bleſs us, and all the Ends of the World ſhall fear him. He that conſults the Hebrew Text, will find many ſuch Expreſſions in the Pſalms; which, tho' they be not properly formal Petitions, are the moſt proper and effectual Prayers that can be, as being ſo many Expreſſions of their Faith in GOD, for the good Things they deſire of him. And altho' it be not neceſſary for us thus to expreſs ourſelves when we pray to GOD, yet it is neceſſary to act our Faith in GOD, for the granting of every Petition that we put up unto him. Which whoſoever doth, can never pray in vain.

And as we thus walk by Faith in our Praying unto GOD, ſo we muſt do alſo in our Praiſing of him; for ſeeing we praiſe one whom we cannot ſee, unleſs we liſt our Hearts by Faith unto him, all our praizing of him with our Mouth will ſignify but little. Whereas, if, at the ſame time that we acknowledge the Greatneſs and Goodneſs of GOD with our Mouths, we apprehend it alſo by Faith, and ſo admire and extol it in our Hearts and Spirits, by this means we joyn with the holy Angels and Spirits of Juſt Men made perfect, in our Praizing GOD, and ſo begin that Work in time, which we hope to continue for ever. Which it is impoſſible for us to do, any otherwiſe than by acting our Faith upon GOD, all the while that we are Praizing him.

The ſame may be ſaid alſo of Reading GOD's holy Word, and of hearing it either Read or Preach'd. For it can no way profit us, any farther than as we believe it. This the Apoſtle teacheth us, ſaying, that the Word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with Faith in them that heard it, Heb. iv. 2. And this, queſtionleſs, is one great Reaſon why People, in our Days, hear ſo many Sermons to no purpoſe, even becauſe they only hear them, but do not really believe what they hear; for if they did, they would ſoon find the Word of GOD have that power and force upon them, that they could not but ſubmit themſelves, and conform their Actions to it. This they who are truly pious, find by daily Experience. For whenſoever they read or hear the Word of GOD, they, like the Theſſalonians, receive it not as the Word of Men, but (as it is in truth) the Word of God, which effectually worketh in them that believe, 1 Theſ. ii. 13. In them that believe, and none elſe: So that all others loſe the Efficacy of it. All the Benefit which we receive from the Word, being according.

according to the Faith wherewith we receive it.

Whensoever, therefore, ye read or hear GOD's Word, besure to observe this Rule, even firmly to believe it to be the Word of GOD, the Word of him that made and governs the World, by which you must be one Day judged. And use your Faith after this manner, not only upon the Scriptures in general, but upon every part and parcel of them. By this means you will receive more benefit by reading of one Chapter, or hearing of one Sermon, than by a cursory running over the whole Bible, or a customary hearing of Sermons all your Life long.

But then as for the other great Duty, even the receiving of the Holy Sacrament, Faith is so indispensably necessary to the due performance of it, that no part of it can be perform'd without it. The whole being indeed nothing else but a continued exercise of our Faith in CHRIST, as by his Blessing I shall endeavour to shew in a Discourse on purpose.

And as whatsoever Duties they perform to GOD, so whatsoever Temptations they are assaulted with by the Devil, they who are truly Pious walk through them all by Faith. The only Defence that a Christian hath against his ghostly Enemies. And therefore the Apostle calls it a Shield, and adviseth, That in all our Conflicts with Principalities and Powers, and the Rulers of the darkness of this World, we take especial care to have it always with us: Above all things, saith he, taking the Shield of Faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery Darts of the wicked, Eph. vi. 16. And our Lord himself suggests as much to us, where he saith to St. Peter, Simon, Simon, behold Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as Wheat. But I have prayed that thy Faith fail not, Luke xxii. 31, 32. For from hence it is plain, that if our Faith do not fail, we need not fear what all the Devils in Hell can do againſt us. And the Reason is, becauſe that as that GOD in whom we believe is able to defend us againſt them, ſo if we believe in him, he will as certainly do it. It being an undeniable Maxim, grounded upon Scripture, and proved by the Experience of all the Saints that ever were, that GOD never fails them that believe and truſt on him: So that if our Faith do not firſt fail us, we may be confident GOD will not. And if He, whole Power no Creature is able to reſiſt, ſtand by us, beſure the Powers of Hell can never prevail againſt us.
T 2 that

Thus it was that our Lord himſelf overcame the Temptations of the Devil, even by acting his Faith on the Word of GOD, and retorting it againſt him, ſaying, It is written. As when he tempted him to miſtruſt the ordinary Providence of GOD, and to work a Miracle to feed himſelf when hungry, ſaying, If thou be the Son of GOD, command that theſe Stones be made Bread. Our Lord replied, It is written, Man ſhall not live by Bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of GOD, Matt. iv. 4. And ſo for the other Temptations, He conquered them all, and made the Tempter fly the Field by his ſtedfaſt Faith in the Word of GOD. And this, doubtleſs, was written and left upon Record on purpoſe for our Admonition, that we may always know how the Captain of our Salvation did, and, by conſequence, how we may and ought to reſiſt the Devil, by Faith in GOD.

As for Example: Are we tempted to Idolatry, to the Worſhipping of Images or Idols? we may answer as our Lord did, It is written, Thou ſhalt worſhip

worship the Lord thy GOD, and him only shalt thou serve, Matt. iv. 10. And so, Are ye tempted to Pride and Selfconceitedness? say, It is written, The proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord, though hand join in hand he shall not go unpunished, Prov. xvi. 5. Are we tempted to Gluttony and Drunkenness? say, It is written, Take heed to your selves lest at any time your Hearts be overcharged with Surfeiting and Drunkenness, and the Cares of this Life, and so that day come upon you unawares, Luke xxi. 34. Are ye tempted to Whoredom or Adultery? say, It is written, Marriage is honourable and the Bed undefiled; but Whoremongers and Adulterers GOD will judge, Heb. xiii. 4. Are ye tempted to Covetousness, or mistrust of God's Providence, say, It is written, Let your Conversation be without Covetousness, and be content with such things as ye have. For he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee, Heb. xiii. 5. Are ye tempted to treasonable Devices and Conspiracies against the King, say, It is written, Curse not the King, no not in thy thought: and curse not the Rich in thy Bed-Chamber, for a Bird of the Air shall carry the Voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter, Eccles. x. 20. Are ye tempted to Resist and Rebel against your Prince? say, It is written, Let every Soul be subject to the higher Powers, for there is no Power but of GOD, the Powers that be are ordained of GOD. Whosoever therefore resisteth the Power, resisteth the Ordinance of GOD: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation, Rom. xiii. 1, 2. Are ye tempted to presume upon the Mercy of God, whether ye repent or no? say, It is written, Except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish, Luke xiii. 3. Are ye tempted to Despair, altho' ye do repent and turn to God? say, It is written, Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous Man his Thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and so our GOD, for he will abundantly pardon, Isai. lv. 7. Again, It is written, Come unto me all ye that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest, Matt. xi. 29. And again, Him that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out, John vi. 37.

Thus whatsoever Temptation we can possibly be assaulted withal, either from the World or Devil himself, if we have but recourse to what is written in GOD's Word, and act our Faith in that, there is no fear of our falling. For the Faith we walk by will not only support us under it, but carry us through it with Joy and Triumph.

Furthermore, As a Christian thus walks by Faith thro' all the Duties he performs to GOD, and thro' all the Temptations he suffers from the Devil; so likewise thro' his whole Life and Conversation with Men: whatsoever relation he stands in to them, whatsoever Office he hath among them, whatsoever Commerce or Business he hath with them, he still walks by Faith, and so keeps himself from those Snares wherewith others are so apt to be entangled in their Temporal Affairs. For by Faith he always lives as under the Eye of GOD, the Maker of all things, and the Judge of all Men, still apprehending him as taking special notice of every Circumstance of his Life and Actions; how he fulfils the several Relations he stands in as a Subject to his Prince, as a Master to his Servants, as an Husband to his Wife, as a Father to his Children, as a Neighbour to those that are about him, and as a Christian to all Men. By Faith he sees the Duties which GOD requires of him in those several Relations, and looks upon GOD as observing whether he perform them or no, and therefore dare not but live accordingly. And whatsoever Office is conferred upon him by the Providence of GOD, either in Church or State, he by Faith looks upon himself as GOD's Servant, and hath CHRIST's Judgment-Seat always before his Eyes, where he must one Day give an Account of his Stewardship. And so in his outward Calling or Employment, in his Trading or Trafficking with Men, in every thing he saith or doth with them, by Faith he always beholds the Judgments which GOD hath threatned against those who Oppress, or Lye, or Steal, or Cheat and Over-reach their Neighbours, and the Blessings which he hath promis'd to those who are just and righteous in all their Dealings. By which means he living thus in the true Faith and Fear of GOD, he cannot but live also in humble Obedience to the King, and in Justice and Equity, Love and Charity towards all Men. As firmly believing that he can say nothing but GOD hears it, he can do nothing but GOD sees it, and that he shall one Day receive, according to what he now doth, whether it be Good or Evil. Which his Faith represents so clearly to him, that he dare not tell a Lye to gain the World, nor commit the least Sin to avoid the greatest Suffering in it. He dares no more Cheat in his Shop than he dares Rob upon the High-way; and is as careful to avoid secret, as he is to avoid the most open and notorious Sins that be.

Until a Man hath attained to this he cannot be said to walk by Faith: For that being the Evidence of things not seen, he that walks by that, cannot but walk continually as in the sight of GOD, in one place as well as in another. And this is the great Reason why thoſe who are truly Pious towards GOD, are ſo exact and circumſpect in all their Dealings towards Men, becauſe they always walk by Faith in them.

And ſo they do, in the laſt place, thro' the ſeveral States and Conditions they meet with in the World. Whiſt we are here below, our Life is like the Air we live in, ſometimes ſerene and calm, at other times ſtormy and tempeſtuous. Now all things ſeem dark and gloomy about us, but preſently the Clouds are diſperſed, and we are lightſome and pleaſant again. At leaſt, we can never promiſe ourſelves to continue one whole Day together in one and the ſame State of Life, all and every Circumſtance of it being liable to continual Changes. So that ſhould we walk only by ſight, and look no farther than to the preſent, our Minds would be as changable as our Condition, toſſed to and fro with every Wind that blows upon us. Sometimes liſted up with Succeſs and Proſperity, and preſently caſt down again with Croſſes and Diſappointments, and ſo never continuing in one ſtay.

But now they that have attained the Art of living by Faith, live always above theſe lower Regions of the World, and ſo are not ſubject to the many Changes and Mutations that are in them. For they looking down upon all things here below with the Eye of Faith, do thereby clearly perceive that all things that happen, are equally for their good, one thing as well as another. Inſomuch that Riches or Poverty, Health or Sickneſs, Honour or Diſgrace, is in effect the ſame to them, not only as proceeding from the ſame Wiſdom and Goodneſs, but likewise as equally contributing to their Comfort and Happineſs.

pineſs. For by Faith we not only think, or ſuppoſe, or hope, but we know that all things work together for good, to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpoſe, Rom. viii. 28. He that believes and knows this, as all that believe the Goſpel muſt needs do, what need he concern or trouble himſelf about any thing that falls out in the World, when at the ſame time he believes and knows it is for his Advantage, and that it would be worſe for him if it was not ſo?

And verily, altho' ſome things may ſo fall out, that by the Eye of Senſe and Reaſon we cannot ſee how they can be good for us, yet having the Word of GOD for it, by Faith we plainly ſee, not only that they may be, but are ſo: and that there is no one thing ever happen'd to us, but what was ſome way or other profitable and advantageous for us: that whatſoever our Condition be, it is that which the Wiſdom that governs the World knows to be the beſt for us, and therefore that which we ourſelves ſhould chuſe was it left to us. And this is that which makes a Chriſtian's Life ſo pleaſant and deſirable: Becauſe by Faith we always look upon GOD as ordering and diſpoſing of every thing in the World: that he is our Father, and therefore hath a ſpecial regard to us in all his Providences, and, by conſequence, that whatſoever our Condition be, it is that which our heavenly Father hath allotted for us. And that he would not have allotted it, but that he knew it to be the beſt we could be in at that time. Could we but walk by ſuch a Faith as this, among all the Changes and Chances of this mortal Life, what happy and what holy Lives ſhould we then lead? For then, as we ſhould never be dejected at any Trouble, ſo neither

ther ſhould we be diſcompoſed in our Minds at any Succeſs that happens to us.

For, as for all the Troubles and Croſſes which beſal us, by Faith we know they could not beſal us, but according to the Will of our heavenly Father, who always willing our Good, would not ſuffer them to fall upon us, but that he knows them to be good for us, and as neceſſary for our Souls, as Phyſick is to a ſick Body. By Faith we ſee his Love and Favour in laying any Affliction upon us, as well as in removing it from us; and in taking any outward Bleſſing from us, as well as in his beſtowing it upon us; and ſo are always able to bleſs him for the one, as well as for the other, as Job did, ſaying, The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, bleſſed be the Name of the Lord, Job i. 21. By Faith we look upon all the Troubles that do or can beſal us in this World, as far leſs than our Iniquities deſerve; and therefore inſtead of repining at them, cannot but acknowledge GOD's Mercy and Goodneſs in them. By Faith we beheld GOD ſupporting us under the Troubles which he lays upon us, and ſo as manifeſting his Mercy in the miſt of Judgment. By Faith we beheld him timing and ordering every Affliction, ſo as to make it conduce to his Glory and our own Good; the ſickneſs of our Bodies to the health of our Souls, the loſs of Temporal to our gaining of Spiritual Riches, and our preſent Diſgrace to our future Honour. In ſhort, By Faith we are fully aſſur'd, that, as the Apoſtle ſpeaks, Our light affliction which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while, by Faith, we look not at the things which are ſeen, but at the things which are not ſeen: for the things which are ſeen are temporal, but the things things which are not ſeen are eternal, 2 Cor iv. 17, 18.

Thus all that are truly Pious walk by Faith, thro' all the Calamities they meet with here below; and therefore it is no wonder that they are neither dejected at any thing that befalls them at preſent, nor diſturb'd with Fear of what may happen hereafter. For their Hearts being always fixed, truſting in the Lord, whatſoever Storms and Tempeſts may be without them, there is ſtill Tranquility and Peace within, grounded upon a full aſſurance, that GOD never chaſteneſh us but for our Profit, that we might be partakers of his Holineſs, Heb. xii. 10. and that whatſoever we or others may think at preſent, if not before, at leaſt when we come into the other World, we ſhall then moſt perfectly underſtand what cauſe we have to ſay with David, It is good for me that I have been afflicted: and to praise and magnify the Eternal GOD for all and every Loſs, and Croſs, and Trouble that ever beſet us in this World.

And then as for outward Proſperity and Succeſs, which is commonly a Snare to others, it alſo is really good to thoſe that are ſo; and all becauſe they walk by Faith thro' it. For whiſt they who look no further than the outside of things, are mightily taken with the ſeeming Pleaſures, and Profits, and Grandure of this World, ſo as to ſell their Souls to purchaſe and enjoy them; They who behold them with the Eye of Faith, and ſo look into the inside of them, they plainly diſcover, that there is nothing at all in them wherefore they ſhould be deſir'd. For by Faith we ſee that all things upon Earth are not only Vanity itſelf, but Vanity of Vanities, and Vexation of Spirit too; having no other Exiſtence istence but in Mens distracted Fancies ; nor any other effect upon us in themselves, but to vex and torment us with Cares and Fears. By Faith we know that he who made all things in the World, made nothing in it to satisfy our Desires, intending himself alone, and his own Perfections for the Object of our Felicity, and, by consequence, that it is in vain for us to expect it from any thing here below. By Faith we perceive that the Love of this World is inconsistent with the Love of GOD ; for if any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him, 1 John ii. 15. and therefore we dare not set our Affection upon any thing here below, lest we should thereby take it off from him who alone deserves it. By Faith we are fully assured, that a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of Heaven, Matt. xix. 23. and therefore that Riches ought to be feared rather than desired by us, in that they are so far from furthering our Progress towards Heaven, that they make our Passage thither more streight and difficult than otherwise it would be. By Faith we perceive the fashion of this World passeth away ; and the time is coming, when they that have Wives shall be as tho' they had them not : they that weep as tho' they wept not : they that rejoice, as tho' they rejoiced not ; and they that buy, as tho' they possessed not, 1 Cor. vii. 30, 31. and therefore that it is great Folly and Madness to be so eager in the pursuit of such things, which we are not certain whether we shall ever obtain, but most certain that we shall not enjoy them long. By Faith I see myself, and every one here present, stript of all we have, and going out of the World as poor and naked as we came into it ; and other People scrambling for what we leave behind us. In brief, By Faith I see

I ſee myſelf and all Mankind before CHRIST's Tribunal, giving up an Account of the ſeveral Talents which were here entrusted with us : where they that had more, will have more to answer for ; and the greater Proſperity they enjoyed in this World, if not rightly improv'd, will occaſion the greater Miſery and Torment in the other : and they only who did good with what they had, ſhall be ever the better for it.

Whiſt we thus walk by Faith thro' this lower World, we need never fear being enſnar'd by it. For howſoever great and conſiderable all things in it may ſeem to others, Faith will repreſent them to us in their due proportion, even as ſo little and inſignificant, that they deſerve to be the Objects of our Scorn, rather than our Admiration. And beſides that, by Faith we may conſtantly behold the Glory, Beauty, Excellency, and Perfections of the Moſt High GOD, the chiefſt, the only Good, in compariſon of whom nothing can ſeem good or lovely; nothing pleaſing or deſirable to us. And when we have once arrived at this, what will all the Pomps and Vanities of this wicked World ſignify to us, whoſe Minds are taken up with the Contemplation of ſuch divine Perfections as theſe are? How mean and deſpiſable, how vile and baſe muſt all things elſe needs ſeem unto us? Yet thus it is with all that walk by Faith, and not by Sight. And therefore it is no wonder they are ſo indifferent as to all things here below. The greateſt Wonder is, How any can pretend to believe the Goſpel, and yet concern themſelves ſo much about them. For this plainly ſhews, that whatſoever they pretend, they walk by Sight and not by Faith, and therefore directly contrary to all true Believers, and to their own Pretences. Thus

Thus we ſee, both what it is to walk by Faith, and how they who are real Chriſtians always do ſo. What now remains, but that we ſhould follow their Steps, and walk by Faith too ! Which that we may do, it is neceſſary to get our Faith in GOD's Word ſtrengthened and confirmed every Day more and more, that ſo we may be able to walk by it. For which purpoſe, Faith being the Gift of GOD, we muſt, in the firſt place, go to him for it, ſaying with him in the Goſpel, Lord I believe, help thou mine unbelief, Mark ix. 24. And with the Apoſtles, Lord encrease our Faith, Luke xvii. 5. But ſeeing we have no ground to expect that he ſhould grant our Requeſt, except we uſe the Means which he hath appointed for that End, hence we muſt exerciſe ourſelves in his moſt Holy Word, For Faith comes by hearing, Rom. x. 17. Not only by hearing of Sermons, but by reading or hearing GOD's Word read or expounded, or any way made known to us. And whatſoever we thus read or hear, we are ſtill to conſider, what ſure and certain ground we have to believe it, even nothing leſs than the infallible Teſtimony of him who cannot Lye. Which being the ſtrongeſt foundation that we can poſſibly have, whereupon to build our moſt Holy Faith, we ought to build our Faith accordingly upon it ; ſo that whatſoever we find to be there revealed, we are ſtill to ſay or think within ourſelves, GOD ſaith this, and therefore I am ſure it is true : GOD promiſeth this, and therefore I'll take his Word for it. By this accuſtoming ourſelves to act our Faith upon the particular Truths and Promiſes revealed in Holy Writ, we may ſoon, by the Bleſſing of GOD, arrive at that degree of Faith, as to be able to walk by it.

it. Eſpecially if to our frequent Meditations upon GOD's Word, we add alſo frequent receiving of his Myſtical Body and Blood, in the Holy Sacrament, ordained on purpoſe to put us in Mind of what our Lord hath done and ſuffered for us, and ſo to ſtrengthen and confirm our Faith in him and his Holy Goſpel; and ſo in every thing that is there either revealed or promiſed to us.

Could we, by theſe and the like means, once learn and practice this excellent and moſt Chriſtian Art of walking always by Faith, and not by Sight, how ſoberly, how righteouſly, how godly ſhould we then live? We ſhould then live above this World, for our Converſation would be always in Heaven, where the great Objects of our Faith are. We ſhould then deſpiſe the higheſt Proffers that this World can make us, as infinitely below the Glories which our Faith continually repreſents unto us. We ſhould then walk above the Sun and Stars themſelves, and conſequentially with CHRIST, with GOD himſelf, and ſolace ourſelves in the enjoyment of that Love and Favour which he hath promiſed to us in the Goſpel. And then we ſhould begin to live like Chriſtians indeed, like the true Diſciples of the Bleſſed JESUS; as thoſe who are none of our own, but are bought with a Price, no leſs a Price than his Blood; and ſo ſhould glorify God both in our Bodies and in our Spirits, which are his. And walking thus by Faith, and not by Sight in Time, we ſhould be certain to walk by Sight, and not by Faith to all Eternity, even in the perfect viſion and fruition of the chiefeſt Good, Father, Son, and Holy Ghoſt. To whom be Glory and Honour now and for ever.

A Sermon on this Text Vol. II. Serm. II.
but not the ſame.

JOHN iii. 16.

For God ſo loved the World, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whoſoever believeth in him, ſhould not periſh, but have everlaſting life.

WHEN I read of that ſad Epithet which the Apoſtle Peter lays upon ſome Hereſies, 2 Pet. ii. 1. That there are damnable Hereſies, by which the Broachers and Abettors of them bring upon themſelves ſwift deſtruction, it preſently ſtrikes me into a Fear and Jealouſy of myſelf, leſt thro' the weakneſs of my own Judgment, and the deceits of mine own Heart, prompted by the ſecret Workings of the Prince of Darkneſs, myſelf ſhould be betrayed into ſuch damnable Hereſies which have ſwift deſtruction attending on them. And likewiſe it cannot but make mine Heart to tremble when I conſider what a ſlight Matter many make of venting, and others of receiving and entertaining whatſoever Opinions firſt preſent themſelves, without any ſerious Scrutiny and Search into the Holy Scriptures, with the good Bereans, to ſee whether theſe things be ſo or no. But ſurely, Brethren, you will be cured of this Spiritual Diſeaſe, and drawn out of this indifferency of Spirit, in Matters

ters of Opinion, if you do but ponder whatever now hath been ſaid in your ſerious Meditations, and conſider, that as your cruel Murders are damnable, as your filthy Adulteries and Fornications are damnable, as your idolatrous Covetouſneſs, horrid Oaths, brutiſh Drunkenneſs, and ſuch like crimſon Sins are damnable, ſo your erroneous Opinions and maintained Hereſies may be damnable too: not only your Errors in Practiſe, but likewise your Errors in Judgment are damnable Sins. Hence it is that I look upon it as a Miniſter's Duty, and mine own amongſt the reſt (tho' the meaneſt and unwortheiſt of all my Maſter's Servants) to preach Truth, as well as preſs Duty, to endeavour for the Information of your Judgments, as well as the Reformation of your Lives; the Correction of your Heads, as well as Hearts. In one word, To bring you off, and keep you from damnable Hereſies, as well as damnable Iniquities. And as it is my Duty to preach Truth, ſo is it yours to hear it; not with Hearts poſſeſt with Prejudice, nor fraught with Wrath and Malice againſt the Preaching or Preacher of it: but to hear it with Hearts ready to embrace it, as it ſhall be deliver'd and explain'd to you out of the Scriptures, which are the Word of GOD, the GOD of Truth, and therefore the Touchſtone to bring all Truth to, to examine whether they be current or no in the Kingdom of CHRIST, the Church of GOD. And indeed that which I ſhall endeavour to ſpeak a little to at this time, concerning GOD's Love to, and CHRIST's Redemption of Mankind, requires as much of our ſerious Search into as any, and that if we either conſider the ſad Conſequents, or the ſo general maintaining in your Error in it. My Thoughts therefore concerning it I ſhall endeavour to explain out of theſe Words ; And God ſo loved, &c. In the ſpeaking to theſe Words I ſhall firſt endeavour the Explication of them, then I ſhall draw the Obſervation from them, then arm the Truth with Argument, and, laſtly, defend it from thoſe Objections which commonly are, or may be ſhot againſt it.

As for the Explication of the Words (that I may proceed the more clearly and methodically) give me leave to lay it down in theſe following Propositions, which ſhall chiefly tend to the explaining of the Word World, which is the Word principally controverted in this place.

1. I think the World, in this place, needs not be contracted into ſo narrow a room as to ſignify only the World, the little World of GOD's Elect. I muſt indeed acknowledge, that moſt, yea, all of our Orthodox Divines (ſo far as I can ſee) take the word World, in this place, according to that limited ſence, and that leſt otherwiſe they ſhould be forced to acknowledge GOD's univerſal Love of, and CHRIST's univerſal Redemption of all the World. But that Fear is groundleſs, as I ſhall endeavour to ſhow in my following Diſcourſe. For the preſent, let me only tell you, That tho' I think the word World may, yea, ought to be, in ſome places, taken for the World of GOD's Elect, yet I ſee not how it can be taken ſo here ; for in this World here ſpoken of, there is intimated a double Rank of Perſons, Believers and Unbelievers, which (beſides the Context) the Text itſelf holds forth in theſe words, ὅσα πᾶς ὁ μένων, that whoſoever believes ; for if by the word World was only meant the World of GOD's Elect, it could not be ſaid, that whoſoever believes, for then all the World will queſti-questionless believe. I confess I dare not absolutely speak against this Interpretation of the Words, lest I be thought to swim against the Stream of so many Learned Divines who assert it. Yet, howsoever, methinks the words, if put together according to this Exposition, does not sound well; For God so loved his Elect, (who shall certainly believe) that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth, should not perish, but have everlasting Life. Let others Ears judge of the Harmony of these words; for my part, I think, according to this Interpretation of the word World, they should rather have run, For God so loved his Elect, that he gave his only begotten Son for them, that believing they might not perish but have everlasting Life.

2. By World, in this place, we cannot understand the World in its largest sence, according to the general Description or Definition of it, as it is compages omnium Creaturarum, as it contains under it all Creatures, of whatsoever Denomination; for according to this sence not only all the Persons upon the face of the Earth, but even the Reprobates in Hell, the Devil himself, the Holy Angels, yea, and CHRIST himself, as to his Human Nature, are parts of the World. Now you cannot think that GOD so loved all these, that he sent his only begotten Son, that whosoever amongst them all should believe, should not perish, but have everlasting Life. For CHRIST was never intended as Redeemer for any part of the World, but only Man; which is so clear that it needs no demonstration. So then, of necessity, we must understand the word World synecdochically, as it is taken for that part of the World Mankind.

3. Neither (I think) can every particular Person in the World, Man and Woman, be meant by the World here ; for GOD cannot be said to love every particular Person in the World, for himself saith, that he hateth all workers of Iniquity, Psal. v. 5. Who are workers of Iniquity, if not such who are not invested and adorned with the glorious Robes of CHRIST's Righteousness? And have all the World put off the filthy Rags of their own wickedness, and put on these Robes of our Saviour's Righteousness? No, surely. And yet more particularly, Mal. i. 2, 3. and Rom. ix. 13. where it is said, Jacob have I loved, Esau have I hated; and that, if you observe the Context, before they had done Good or Evil. Now if he hated Esau, how could he be said to love every particular Person in the World? And this will likewise further appear, if you do but consider that the words cannot bear this Interpretation without a very senseless Construction. For admit of this Interpretation, and the words should run thus, μεγαλαςινος, For GOD so loved every particular Person in the World, Jacob and Esau, such as shall believe, and such as shall not believe, that such as shall believe should not perish, but have everlasting Life. If he gave his only begotten Son, that such as should believe should be saved, surely he cannot be said to embrace Unbelievers too with the same Affection. Surely according to that sense the words should rather have run thus, For God so loved every particular Person that he gave his only begotten Son, that none might perish, but that all might come to everlasting Life. But how can GOD, without a great Absurdity, be said to love such a Person with this peculiar and special Love, whom he never intends to bring to the enjoyment of Him-

Himself. What ! shall the Flames of God's Love be enkindled towards such a Person in particular, whom the Flames of Hell-fire must scorch unto all Eternity ? No, surely ; every one that God so loves upon Earth, shall one Day take their fill of his Love in Heaven.

4. By World in this place (methinks) we may well understand Mankind in general, yet without respect unto any particular Person whatsoever. ; and so the Sense runs thus, For God so loved the little World of Mankind, upon which at the first he enstamped his own Image, that he sent his only Son, that whatsoever particular Person, contained under this general Nature should believe in him, should not perish, but have everlasting Life. Now, lest, by avouching this, I should be thought to assert the Universality of CHRIST'S Redemption, I would have you to consider, that it is not said, For God so loved the World, that he gave his only begotten Son for it, then, I confess, Arminius might have thought to have picked something out of what hath been said, for the proping up of his Opinion ; but, He gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believes in him. As if he should have said, For God so loved Mankind, that he sent his only begotten Son, for the Redemption of every such Person amongst them who shall believe, that such might not perish, but have everlasting Life. Now you cannot gather hence, that he intended the Redemption and Salvation of every particular Person, but rather the contrary, only of such who shall believe. Let me Instance it by a familiar Comparison. A King having many Kingdoms under his Dominion, one amongst the rest becomes Disloyal, Refractory and Disobedient, for which cause he lays upon them great Presſures and heavy Bondage; yet, it being one of his own Countries, he ſo far loves it, that he'll ſend his Son, his only Son into it, that whatſoever Perſons in all the Nation ſhall Reverence this his Son, (tho' he knows all will not, nay, he knows that ſuch and ſuch in particular will not) and perform due Homage and Obeifance to him, ſhall be deliver'd from their Bondage, and reſtor'd to their former Liberty. Now, you'll ſay, this the King may, from that Reſpect which he hath for the Nation in general, without having reſpect to any particular Perſons whatſoever. And farther, you may eaſily perceive, the King, by ſending his Son amongſt them, did not intend the Redemption of all, (for he knew all would not perform the Condition) but only of ſuch who ſhall perform the Condition of doing Reverence and giving Obedience to his Son. The Caſe is the ſame here: Tho' Man hath rebell'd againſt his Maker, the King of Glory, yet ſo far doth this good King reſpect Mankind, that he'll ſend his only begotten Son amongſt them, not with an Intention to redeem and ſave all, (for himſelf knows all will not believe, nay, he knows none can believe, but ſuch which he ſhall by his own Grace enable to it) but only with an Intention to ſave ſuch who, by Grace deriv'd from himſelf, ſhall believe in his Son. The Words being thus explain'd, you may eaſily ſee, That notwithstanding that I take not the Word World only for the World of GOD's Elect, yet that univerſal Redemption, or GOD's intending to ſave all by CHRIST's Death, is ſo far from finding any footing upon this Text, that the contrary is clearly drawn from it.

The Proposition, therefore, which theſe Words,

Words, thus explained, preſent us with is this, GOD ſent his only begotten Son into the World, only for the Salvation and Redemption of ſuch as believe in him. Or thus, The End of CHRIST's coming into the World, was not the Salvation of all and every particular Perſon in it, but only of thoſe who ſhall believe in him. This Aſſertion the Arminians, or Remonſtrants, brand with notorious Falſity, and would ſet the Crown of Truth upon the Head of the quite contrary. Let one of them ſpeak for all. The Author to the Book intitl'd, God's Love to Mankind, in the 82d Page, Edit. 1633. upon thoſe Words, John xii. 47. and John iii. 17. ſaith, That theſe Negations, joined with Affirmations, ſhew, that the Salvation of all Men was the End of Chriſt's coming into the World, the End excluſively, no other End was properly intended by it but this. And preſently after, The End of Chriſt's coming into the World, was the Salvation of all and every Perſon in it. This, therefore, is the Queſtion, which, by GOD's Aſſiſtance, and your Patience, I ſhall endeavour to ſpeak a little to, and ſhew you, that CHRIST did not come into the World intentionally to ſave every particular Perſon in it. A Truth which, tho' it hath many and ſtrong Opponents, yet, I think, it may be defended by one of weak Parts, I mean mine own. Truth wanting nothing but its own Nakedneſs and Explication to ſet it out. But before I enter the Liſts, give me leave to premiſe this Conſideration, That when I ſay Chriſt's Death was not intended for all, I do not ſay that Chriſt's Death was not ſufficient for all; for I aſſert, and really believe, That that Ransom which Chriſt paid to his Father for our Redemption, was both of Value and Vertue enough to have redeemed every particular Person in the World, if Christ had intended it for them, and God should apply it to them. So that if we respect the Price paid by Christ to his Father; if God, of his own good Will and Pleasure, should shew Mercy upon all, yet would not his Justice be any loser. But I would have you observe this Distinction, It is one thing for Christ's Death to be sufficient for all, and another thing for Christ to die sufficiently for all; the first we assert, but deny the second. For to say that Christ died sufficiently for all, implies that his End and Intention in dying, was to make sufficient Satisfaction for the Sins of every particular Person in the World, and, likewise, that by his Death he hath merited sufficient Grace for every one, for the attainment of Eternal Happiness. So that these two, universal Grace and universal Redemption, border each upon the other, so that I cannot speak to the one, but I must likewise be forced to speak something to the other; and if either fall, the other cannot stand.

To prove, therefore, that it was not Christ's End and Intention, in coming into the World, to save all and every particular Person in it, I might produce these Places of Scripture where the Merit of his Death is restrain'd to many, as Matt. xx. 28. And to give his Life λύτρον ἀντὶ πολλῶν, a Ransom for many. So Matt. xxvi. 28. For this is the Blood of the New Testament, τὸ αἷμα πολλῶν, which was shed for many, for the Remission of Sins. Heb. ix. 28. So Christ was once offered ἑαυτὸν ὑπὲρ πολλῶν ἀνευγερῶν ἁμαρτίας, to bear the Sins of many. Which Words seem to be taken from Isa. liii. 12. And he was numbred amongst the Transgressors, נֹשֵׁאׁת עֲוֹנוֹת נֹשֵׁאׁת, and he bare the Sins of many. Now that we may better understand what is to be understood by many, Scripture

Scripture interprets them of thoſe who believe, and ſo are really engrafted in him, ſometimes calling them his Sheep, as John x. 15. And I lay down my Life, ἵνα τὸν ποιμαίνω, for the Sheep. If he had died for the Goats as well as for the Sheep, why ſhould he reſtrain the End and Merit of his Death only to the Sheep? Sometimes he is ſaid to have died for his Church. Ephes. v. 25. Husbands love your Wives, even as Chriſt alſo loved his Church, and gave himſelf, ἵνα αὐτὴν, for it. If Pagans and Heathens, as well as Chriſtians; Infidels, as well as Believers, had a ſhare in Chriſt's Sufferings, ſurely he would have given himſelf for the one as well as the other. So likewiſe he is ſaid to have purchas'd the Church of GOD with his own Blood, Acts xx. 28. To ſave his People from their Sins, Matt. i. 21. and to gather together the diſperſed Children of God, John xi. 51, 52. Now, how could the End of his coming be reſtrain'd only to theſe, if he came to ſave all and every Perſon in the World? If the Devil's Brats, as well as GOD's Children; the Reprobates, as well as the Elect; all the World, as well the Church of GOD, was Redeemed by Chriſt, or intended to have been Redeemed by him, ſurely we had never read or heard of any ſuch Places in Scripture as theſe are. And theſe and ſuch like Texts muſt be raced out of the Word of GOD, before Chriſt can be ſaid to have died for all. But for the Reaſons take Three.

1. If Chriſt intended by his Death to ſave and redeem all, then either all are ſaved, or Chriſt is frustrated of his Intentions. One of theſe muſt of neceſſity follow. For either Chriſt had his End, or elſe he had not his End. If he had his End, then all are ſaved; if he had not his End, then was he frustrated of his Intentions. But that that both theſe are falſe, I mean, that neither all are ſaved, nor yet Chriſt fruſtrated of his Intentions, is evident ; yea, the Sun in all its Meridian Glory is not ſo clear as either. As for the firſt, That all are not ſaved, our Saviour plainly ſhews, when he ſaith, more ſhall be damned than ſaved, more ſhall go to Hell's Miſeries than to Heaven's Manſions, Matt. vii. 13, 14. But, I ſuppoſe, none of you doubt of this. But for to aſſert, that Chriſt is at any time fruſtrate of his Intentions, is to bring his Divinity into queſtion, to take away his Omnipotency, and to brand him with Impotency, viz. That he is not able to bring about what himſelf intends. Suppoſe there were 20 Priſoners ſhut up in a Dungeon together, I having a mind to bring them all out, go to the State, intending to pay a ſufficient Ransom for the Redemption of every particular Perſon amongſt them ; but when I come there my Hopes are daſh'd, my Intentions fruſtrated, for all that I can do, is only to bring out ſome three or four of them. Now doth not this argue mine own Weakneſs, either in that I intended more than I was able to perform, or elſe in that I was not able to perform what I intended. Change but the Name, and the Caſe is ours. All the Perſons in the World were but like ſo many poor Priſoners, captivated by the Devil, and bound with the Fetters of their own Corruptions : Chriſt ſeeing this, addreſſes himſelf to his Father, lets out his own Blood, lays down his own Life, with an Intention that every particular Perſon might be redeemed : But when all is done, there are only ſome few that receive any Benefit by his Death and Paſſions. Now, doth not this argue Chriſt's Weakneſs, in that he intended more than than he could do, or else could not do so much as he intended? And is not this, in plain Terms, to deny Christ's Divinity, or else! GOD's Omnipotency? And is not that horrid Blasphemy?

2. If Christ died so for all, then hath he satisfy'd Divine Justice for the Sins of every particular Person in the World. But that is false. Therefore, that I may explain this to the meanest Capacity in the Congregation, I shall speak to each Proposition distinctly.

First, I say, If Christ thus died for every Person, then hath he satisfy'd Divine Justice for the Sins of every Person; for otherwise his Death, as to some Persons for whom he died, would have been in vain. The Reason of Christ's coming into the World was, because we, by the Transgression of the most holy Law of GOD, are become liable and obnoxious to the Strokes of Divine Justice. And it cannot stand with the Justice of GOD to pardon any one Sin, without Satisfaction made. Hence Christ comes into the World, and by his Death makes sufficient satisfaction. Our Sins, we know, commonly go under the Name of Debts. Hence the Greeks call them ὀφειλήματα, and the Syrians ܐܡܬܐܢܐ, and Sinners are called ܥܡܝܐ, Debtors. And the reason is, because that by our Sins we owe Punishment to Divine Justice, which must most certainly be paid, either in our own or some other fit Person. But now Christ, as our Surety, undertakes the Payment of our Debts, and suffers those Punishments which were due to GOD from us. So that all the large Scores of our Sins are blotted out of the Book of GOD's Remembrance, by the Blood of our Saviour: So that for as many ny as he undertakes to pay their Debts for them, for the Sins of so many hath he satisfied Divine Justice.

Secondly, But now, That the Divine Justice is not satisfied for the Sins of every Person, is evident, for then GOD could not punish nor damn any for their Sins. For how can it stand with the Justice of GOD, to punish any one for those Sins which Christ hath made satisfaction for. A Debtor owes so much to another, his Surety makes satisfaction to the Creditor for this Debt. Now how can the Creditor justly come upon the Debtor again for the Payment of the same Debt? Hence it is that we say, that in that Place which is so much insisted upon by our Adversaries, 2 Cor. v. 19. viz. That God was in Christ, reconciling the World to himself, not imputing their Sins unto them, it cannot possibly be meant of every particular Person in the World: For if GOD be actually Reconciled with every particular Person in the World, what is the reason that he is still at Enmity with any one? And if GOD imputes their Sins to none, how can he damn any? How can he damn any for those Sins which he doth not impute unto them? So that this Place of necessity must be understood only of such Persons who, by Faith, are really interested in the Death of Christ. Neither will Arminius's Distinction, which he so much insists upon, especially in his Treatise against Perkins, That per mortem Christi redemptio est omnibus impetrata, licet non sit omnibus applicata, That by the Death of Christ, Redemption is obtained for all, (and that by Prayer too, as the Word Impetrata imports, tho' Christ himself says he prays not for all, John xvii. 9.) tho' not applied to all. This Distinction, I say, availeth nothing; for in vain is it obtained for all, if not applied to all. And again, if Chriſt hath purchas'd Redemption for all, and that with his own Blood, how can it ſtand with the Juſtice of GOD, to withhold it from any? I purchaſe ſo much Land from another, for the Uſe of ten Perſons: Now would it not be Injuſtice in this Man, to keep any of theſe ten Perſons from the Enjoyment of it?

Thirdly, For whomſoever Chriſt died, for them hath he merited as the Pardon of their Sins, ſo likewiſe ſufficient Grace for the Attainment of Salvation. And hence it is that they are forced to run to their univerſal Grace, for the keeping up of their univerſal Redemption. But now, that there is no ſuch thing as univerſal Grace, or that every Perſon in the World hath not ſufficient Grace and Means for Salvation, I might prove,

1. From the Heathen, who have no higher, no other Means than the Light of Nature. And how far that can go, the Athenian Philoſophers ſeem to ſhew in that Inſcription which was engrav'd upon their Altar at Athens, Acts xvii. Αγνώστῳ θεῷ, To the Unknown God. That there was a GOD they knew, but what this GOD was they knew not. And again, Tho' the Heathens may know ſomething of GOD, as a Creator, yet can they know nothing of him, as a Redeemer. All their great Aſtrologers could never read Chriſt's Satisfaction for the Sins of Man in the Stars. No; there was never any but one Star that lead to Chriſt, and that, I am ſure, they never ſaw. And did many of them never hear of Chriſt? Then, I am ſure, they cannot be ſaved. For there is no Name given under Heaven by which we can be ſaved, but the Name of Chriſt, Acts iv. 12. And if they never heard of Chriſt, Chriſt, ſurely they can never be ſaved by him. But I ſhall inſiſt no longer upon that.

2. If there be any ſuch thing as univerſal Grace, or every Man have Grace ſufficient for their Salvation, then either all do, or all do not participate of this Grace alike. One of theſe muſt neceſſarily follow, becauſe they are contradictory one to the other. But now, that this univerſal Grace, ſufficient for the Salvation of all Men, can neither be ſaid to be equally, nor yet unequally diſtributed amongſt Men, I ſhall endeavour to prove by Parts.

Fiſt, If all do not participate of this Grace alike, then either ſome have more than enough, or elſe others have not enough to bring them to Salvation, Ex. gr. Peter and Judas. If Judas had not ſo much Grace as Peter, and yet had enough to bring him to Heaven, then Peter, who had more than Judas, had more than enough; for if he had had but as much as Judas, he had had enough. And then on the other ſide, if Peter had only Grace enough to bring him to Heaven, (as, queſtionleſs, it is impoſſible any ſhould have more than enough Grace) then Judas, who had not ſo much as Peter, had not enough.

Secondly, If all have Grace alike, then it neceſſarily follows, That either all muſt be ſaved, or elſe all muſt be damned. Let me inſtance in the ſame Perſons. If Peter and Judas had the ſame Grace, or Grace alike, what is the reaſon that one ſhould be ſaved, and the other damned? To this they answer, Becauſe Peter made uſe of his Grace, but Judas did not. I reply; Did Peter make uſe of his Grace, and Judas not? Why then Peter had more Grace than Judas; Peter had Grace to make uſe of his Grace, which Judas had not. But now to ſolve this, they are forced forced into a worſe Abſurdity than before, viz. to ſay, That the reaſon why one makes uſe of his Grace and another not, is not from ſupernatural Grace, but from their natural Abilities: Which is as much as to ſay, That the Salvation of Man depends upon his own free Will; the reaſon why any Man is ſaved is not from GOD, but from himſelf. Why then may not a Man boaſt and glory in himſelf, and vaunt it over his Neighbour, from whom himſelf hath made himſelf to differ? Juſt contrary to what the Apoſtle ſaith, 1 Cor. iv. 7. Who made thee to differ? Or what haſt thou, which thou haſt not received? Now if thou receivedſt it, why doſt thou glory, as if thou receivedſt it not?

I might bring many other Arguments againſt both univerſal Grace, and univerſal Redemption; but I ſhall rather ſpend the remainder of the Time, in answering thoſe Arguments which commonly are brought for them.

1. They object. 1 John ii. 2. And he is a Propitiation for our Sins: and not for ours only, but alſo πρὸς ὅλην τὴν κόσμῳ, for the whole World, or, For the Sins of the whole World.

To this I answer, That by whole World, there cannot poſſibly be underſtood every particular Perſon in the World: Which is clear, if you look into the force of the word ἱλασμός, Propitiation in the Text. Which as it denotes the expiation of Sins, ſo ſometimes (as in this place) it ſignifies, Id quo & propter quod peccata expiantur & Deus placatur, That whereby our Sins are actually expiated, and God pleaſed, Zanchy. Now, if by CHRIST's Death all the Sins of every particular Man be expiated, and GOD pleaſed with all, how comes it to paſs that all are not ſaved? You'll ſay, Becauſe all do not believe in CHRIST; they they do not lay hold upon this Propitiation. To that I answer, If their Sins be not pardoned, if GOD be not pleased, and if their Souls be not saved, because they do not believe in CHRIST, therefore likewise was not CHRIST a Propitiation for them, because they will not believe ; and, by consequence, he is not a Propitiation for every particular Person in the World, but only for such as believe. But then, how are the words to be understood ? (Mark !)

And he is a Propitiation for our Sins : and not only for our Sins, but for the Sins of the whole World. As if he should have said, Neither would I have you think, that he is a Propitiation for ours only, for ours who live and believe here in Patmos (where he is suppos'd to have been when he wrote this Epistle) only, but, likewise, for the Sins of the whole World ; that wheresoever and whensoever, in any Part of the whole World, any believe in him, for their Sins likewise will he be a Propitiation, as well as for ours. And so, likewise, is the whole World taken not for every particular Person in it, even for such who had heard of CHRIST and Faith, (which we cannot say every particular Person in the World had) Rom. i. 8. Hence you may also see how to understand that place, Col. i. 20, By him to reconcile all things to himself : You cannot say, by the Death of CHRIST all things are reconciled to GOD, for then the Devils, yea, and holy Angels, who were never out with him, should be reconciled to him, but that whatsoever things in Heaven above or Earth beneath, are reconciled to him, it is only in and thro' the Merits of CHRIST JESUS. And so for these places, Rom. v. 18. and 1 Cor. xv. 22. where the Apostle seems to extend our Guilt by Adam, and

GOD'S

GOD'S Gift by CHRIST, to an equal Latitude. But the words cannot be understood ſo; for then, as every particular Perſon is made guilty by Adam, ſo every particular Perſon ſhould be juſtified by CHRIST: But if that was ſo, truly Hell would be very empty, unleſs juſtified Perſons ſhould be ſent thither with CHRIST's Merits upon their Backs. And how that can ſtand with the Juſtice of God, judge you. But Saint Auguſtine ſeems to give the beſt, yea, and that a full gloſs upon theſe words, ſaying, Hoc loco non indicatur omnes homines juſtificari in Chriſto, ſed omnes qui juſtificantur non aliter poſſe juſtificari quam in Chriſto. This place (ſaith he) doth not hold forth that all Perſons are juſtified by Chriſt, but that all that are juſtified, are juſtified no other way than in Chriſt. That as there is but one way whereby all that are made Sinners become ſo, even by the firſt Adam; ſo there is but one way whereby all that are made Righteous and Juſtified become ſo, even by the ſecond Adam. And in this ſenſe do we commonly take the word all in our vulgar Speech. As ſuppoſe there was but one Door to come into the Church at, you would ſay that all came in at that Door; not as if every particular Perſon in the World came in at it, but that all that do come in, only come in that way. And this, likewise, gives light to that place, Heb. ii. 9. where CHRIST is ſaid to taſte Death for every Man, that is, It is by CHRIST alone that any Man can be ſaved; none hath taſted Death, none hath ſuffered for our Sins, but only CHRIST. And again, CHRIST taſted Death for every Man, that is, it cannot be underſtood of every particular Perſon, Believer or Unbeliever; for, for whomſoever CHRIST taſteth Death, the Punishment of their Sins doth he undergo, and then, surely, they shall never undergo them too in their own Persons; but he tasted Death for every Man that, by the Grace of God, shall be enabled to believe in him. And in such a restrained and limited Sense, you may clearly see the words every Man taken, Col. i. 28.

2. They object. If all be bound to believe that Christ died for them, then did Christ die for all. But all are bound to believe that Christ died for them. This is that Argumentum, πολυθεύχαννον, whereby Arminius and his Fellows think to conquer all Gainsayers, triumph over the Truth, and erect the Trophies of their own Opinions. But give me leave to answer it in these following Propositions.

First, To the whole. If this kind of Argumentation was true and prevalent, then likewise would it follow, that because all Men are bound to believe they are elected, therefore are all elected. That all are bound to believe they are elected by God, is as manifest as that all are bound to believe they are Redeemed by CHRIST. For, questionless, none can be Redeemed by CHRIST, but such as are elected by God; neither could any one be elected by God, but such as should be Redeemed by CHRIST. And again, if all were not bound to believe they were elected, then might some lawfully Sin, as not being bound not to despair; which, I hope, will be granted to be a Sin. But now, I believe, there is none of you have your Understandings so far darkned, as to conclude, That because all are bound to believe they are elected, therefore all are elected. And so likewise here, Tho' all are bound to believe that Christ died for them, yet doth it not follow that he died for all.

Secondly,

Secondly, To the minor I answer, All are not bound absolutely to believe Christ died for them, but only Conditionally. I mean, All are bound only to believe Christ died for them, if they repent of their Sins, and believe in him. This is the Method which our Saviour himself prescribes, Mark i. 15. Repent, and believe the Gospel. What! do you think that so long as any lie wallowing in the Mire of their Sins, that they are bound to believe Christ died for them? No, surely, they are rather to think, that unless they repent of their Sins, Hell is preparing to torment them to all Eternity. But this they are to believe, That if they turn from their Sins, and turn to GOD in Christ, they were Elected, are Redeemed, and shall be Saved.

Thirdly, Admit of an absolute Obligation lying upon all Men to believe that Christ died for them, yet doth it not follow that he died for all Men; for therefore did he not die for all Men, because all would not believe in him, and so believe that he died for them. Let me explain myself thus: It is a Duty incumbent upon all Persons, to believe that Christ died for them; yea, so far as that this is made as a Condition, insomuch that if they do not believe this, Christ did not die for them. Now, all not doing this Duty which they are thus bound to do, and so not performing the Condition upon which Christ is offered, therefore it is that Christ did not die for all. And herein, likewise, lies the Punishment of their Incredulity, even their denial of any Redemption by that Christ, in whom they will not believe. I should be larger in explaining my Thoughts of this, but that there are other Objections to be answered.

3. If GOD did not so love every Person, as to X 2 send

ſend his Son to Redeem him, then is not every Man bound to love G O D, becauſe 'tis ſaid, 1 John iv. 19. We love him, becauſe he loved us firſt? This Argument favours not much of Arminian Subtilty, and therefore I ſhall ſpeak but little to it. Only conſider theſe two Things.

Firſt, What tho' Chriſt did not die for all, yet there is never a Man in this Life that can be aſſured he did not die for him: Nay, as they themſelves in the foregoing Objection avouch, every Man is bound to believe that Chriſt died for him. Now ſhall every Man be bound to believe that Chriſt died for him, and ſhall not every Man be bound to love that G O D, who firſt ſo loved him, as to give his only Son to die for him.

Secondly, What tho' I was aſſured Chriſt did not die for me, yet am I bound to love G O D upon this ſame ground, becauſe he firſt loved me, yea, and hath expreſſed his love unto me in many Particulars. Believe it, Chriſtians, every Morſel of Bread, every Drop of Drink, every Farthing of Money, every Moment of Health, yea, every Moment of Life and Being in the World, is a Monument of G O D's love to us, and ſhall not we love him again?

4. They object. 2 Pet. iii. 9. G O D is ſaid, Not to be willing any ſhould periſh, but that all ſhould come to Repentance. And, 1 Tim. ii. 4. Who will have all Men to be ſaved, and come to the knowledge of the Truth. And hence they infer, That G O D hath given all Men Grace ſufficient for the attainment of Eternal Happineſs. But for the better underſtanding of theſe Places, and ſo the anſwering this Objection, let me premiſe but this one Conſideration, That we may apprehend in G O D, not only his abſolute efficacious

cious Will, which is always joyned with his Power, to bring about whatſoever he thus willeth, but alſo a ſimple Complacency, or Wil-lingneſs, which is not always accompany'd with this his irrefiſtable Power. Now this ſimple Velleity, or Willingneſs in God, I cannot better explain to you, than by that Willingneſs whereby a Lawgiver is willing, yea, wills his Laws ſhould be obey'd, but yet doth not exert the utmoſt of his Power for the keeping of his Subjects in their Obedience to theſe his Laws, but ſimply, as they are his Laws, he would have them kept, and reſolves to puniſh the Breach of them with due Punishment. This Diſtinction Arminius himſelf admits of; and therefore, I hope, will not be denied by any of his Followers.
This being premiſed, I answer,

Fiſt, This Place cannot be underſtood of the absolute efficacious Will of God, for of that it is well ſaid, Who hath reſiſted his Will? And this we may likewiſe ſee, in that it is not ſaid, ὅς θείας πίſτας διδράμεις ſάζειν, but ſωθῆναι, not Who will ſave all Men, but, Who will have all Men to be ſaved; that is, It is his Will and Commandment, tho'
he intends not to make uſe of all means tending to it, for then 'tis impoſſible but all ſhould be ſaved. Neither will it avail any thing here to ſay, God will will it efficaciously if Man wills
it, (as our Adverſaries are forced to ſay) for then the Efficaciousneſs of God's Will would depend upon the Determination of the Will of Man, and ſo the fiſt Cauſe be determin'd by the ſecond, which is againſt all, even Philoſophical Principles. And again, It cannot be ſaid God wills it efficaciously if Man wills it, for Man cannot will it, unleſs God fiſt wills it efficaci-ouſly; that is, unleſs God fiſt ſo wills it, as to use his Power in the bringing it about, and so work this Will in Man. For 'tis he alone that worketh in us both to will and to do.

Secondly, It must therefore necessarily be understood of his simple Willingness, whereby God, as Lawgiver, wills his Laws should be obey'd, rather than his Subjects punish'd for their Disobedience. And this, indeed, Arminius himself adheres to. Which, likewise, seems to come in with that Distinction of Damascens, (which he makes so much of, and insisteth so long in the explaining of it in his Treatise against Mr. Perkins de Predestinatione) viz. Of the Will of God in Antecedentum & Consequentem.

But now, hence to conclude, That because God is willing all should be saved, and come to the Knowledge of the Truth, viz. As he is the supreme Lawgiver, and so commands all should endeavour to be saved, and come to the Knowledge of the Truth, that therefore he sent his Son to die for all, or give sufficient Grace to all for their Salvation, argues much weakness; for if he use all the means he can for the bringing them to Salvation, (as he must do, if he gives them sufficient Grace) it is no longer his simple Velleity or Willingness, but his absolute efficacious Will. Let me express my meaning thus: A King issues forth his Commands, and, amongst other of his Laws, enacts, That none shall commit Adultery under pain of death. You'll say he takes no pleasure in the Death of the Disobedient, but had rather they had obey'd his Commands; yet hence doth it not follow, that he must set a Guard about every Person, to keep them from the Breach of this Law. So 'tis here. God, the King of Heaven and Earth, commands all Men should repent and believe, and whosoever doth not, shall per- ish

riſh. So that it is his Will and Command, that all ſhould be ſaved, and come to the knowledge of the Truth; yet doth it not follow, that he muſt ſet a Guard of Graces about every Man, ſufficient to keep them from the Breach of the Law; to enable them to obey what he hath commanded, and ſo to avoid what he hath threatned. And hence we may likewise bring light to theſe places, Ezek. xviii. 31. For I have no pleaſure in the Death of him that dieth. And chap. xxxiii. 11, וְחַי אֲנִי נָא אֲדֹנָי יְהוִה אֲחַפֵּץ, As I live, ſaith the Lord, I have no pleaſure in the Death of the Wicked, but that the Wicked turn from his way and live. As he is the Great Lawgiver of Heaven and Earth, he had rather his Commandments were obey'd, than his Punishments inflicted; yet doth it not follow, that he'll give all Grace, which, by their good Husbandry, (as one doth not ſtick to ſay) may be ſufficient for their Salvation, or to keep them from the Tranſgreſſion of his Laws; nor yet a CHRIST, to die for all the Tranſgreſſors of it. And therefore he doth not ſay, I will give you Grace ſufficient to turn you, but he calls upon them to do it, and commandſt them, Turn you, turn you from your evil Ways; for why will you die, O Houſe of Iſrael? And this brings me to the laſt Objection.

5. If all have not Grace ſufficient for Salvation, what uſe then is there of Ordinances, eſpecially to ſuch Perſons who are not endu'd with this ſufficient Grace? Or how can GOD lay his Injunctions upon ſuch who have not power to do what he commands? I have not time now to give a full Answer to this, only conſider,

First, That when GOD firſt enacted his Laws, at the ſame time that he gave Laws to be obeyed, he gave Strength to obey thoſe Laws. And ſo he may juſtly require that to be done by us now, which himſelf once gave us Strength to do, tho' we proved Bankrupts, and loſt it. Hence he may juſtly threaten Punishment to the Refractory and Diſobedient, and promiſe Rewards, under the Condition of Obedience. So that the afore-mention'd Author's Simile, in this Caſe, doth not hold. Saith he, It is all one, for me to offer a Piece of Money to one blind Man, under Condition that he will open his Eyes, and tell me what Stamp it bath upon it, and flatly deny it to another. I ſay it is not all one, if that blind Man pull'd out his own Eyes, for ſo himſelf becomes the cauſe of his loſing the Money offer'd; for had not he been ſo fooliſh as to pull out his own Eyes, he might have performed the Condition upon which the Money was proffered, and ſo have had the Money, which the other, to whom it was never offer'd, could never have.

Secondly, The Ordinances of GOD chiefly tend to the bringing about of their Salvation, whom GOD intends effectually to bring to himſelf. Hence are all theſe paſſionate Wiſhes, heart-melting Conſiderations, ſtrong Expoſtulations, and other pathetical Expreſſions in the Word of GOD. Giye me leave to make uſe of one of them; and then I ſhall apply it, Ezek. xxxiii. 11. Turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O Houſe of Iſrael? Let me paraphraſe a little upon theſe words. You who came to the Church at this time, and brought Hearts with you full fraught with all manner of Corruption, delighting in Sin, ſupporting and pleaſing yourſelves in breaking the Laws, and incenſing the Wrath of Almighty GOD againſt you; to you, I ſay, Turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O ye ſinful Wretches? You Carnal Epicures, who can ravel out the precious Minutes of your short-liv'd Days in indulging your carnal Appetites with sinful Pleasures, in whose Religion Seriousness is an Heresy, who can spend whole Days, Weeks, yea, Months and Years, without any serious Thoughts of Heaven and Eternity, O turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways ; for why will you die, ye Carnal Epicures ? You Covetous Worldlings, who live like so many brute Beasts, always poring upon Earth, panting and breathing after the Dust thereof, whose Great Diana, that you so much honour and cry up, is nothing else but Riches, who can see poor Creatures starve for want of Food, and you, out of your Abundance, not relieve them, O turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways ; for why will ye die, ye Covetous Worldlings ? You Ambitious Aspirers after Vain-glory, who are always endeavouring to clamber up to the highest Pinnacle of Honour, who prefer your own, before the Glory of God, and had rather be honour'd of your Fellow-Creatures, than your Great Creator, O turn ye, turn ye ; for why will ye die ? You Prophane, Hypocritical Sabbath-breakers, who can come, perhaps, to Church once or twice upon a Sunday, but neither mind what is said when there, nor endeavour to practice it when you come Home ; you who sit or stand where ye do, but have your Thoughts busily employ'd about something else, who matter not what either Man or God can say unto you, O turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways ; for why will ye die, ye gazing Hypocrites, ye miserable Caitifs ? O every one amongst ye, Man and Woman, Rich and Poor, Old and Young, who live in any one known darling Sin, who are not yet turned from your Sins to Almighty God, every Moment

ment poſting headlong to Eternal Deſtruction, let me now prevail with you, in the Name of Almighty GOD, your Great Creator, the GOD of Heaven and Earth, O turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways ; for why will ye die, O my Chriſtian Brethren ? Chriſtians, if I could have ſpoken more pathetically to you, I promiſe ye I would : But for all that I have ſaid, I know not whether there be Twenty of you have minded what I have been ſpeaking ; and of all this vaſt Congregation, perhaps but one that will now reſolve to to turn from his evil ways, and live ; perhaps but one Converted by all that I have ſaid. Yet let me tell thee, my happy, my bleſſed, becauſe my converted Brother, or Siſter, it was for thy ſake chiefly that this Sermon was preached ; it was for thy ſake GOD ſent me hither to Day, and put theſe Words into my Mouth, for which thou haſt cauſe to bleſs and praiſe his Name to all Eternity.

And thus, my Brethren, have I endeavour'd to arm this Truth with Arguments, and likewise to repel whatſoever Darts are uſually ſhot againſt it ; and if the Arguments produced ſeem not convincing, or the Arguments objected ſeem not convicted, I deſire you not to impute it to the weakneſs of the Cauſe defended, but to the weakneſs of him who hath endeavour'd to defend it. And if any of you ſeem not yet fully ſatisfied as to this Point, I deſire you to roll what hath been ſaid a little better in your Thoughts, to ſteep them in your Meditations, ruminare longer upon them, and perhaps they may give you farther ſatisfaction. However, I would not have you to believe the contrary only becauſe any Man ſaith it, but rather to ſearch the Scriptures, tures, and conſult right Reaſon in the deduction of Inferences from it, and I fear not but, at the length, your Judgments will readily embrace the Truth diſcover'd. For the preſent I ſhall ſpeak no more, but only exhort you not to be carry'd up and down with every Wind of Doctrine; take heed of drinking in every Opinion that is broach'd, leſt at the length you reel into Hereſy; but endeavour to eſtabliſh your Judgments upon the true Foundation of Chriſtian Religion. And thus your Judgments being rightly informed in the Truth, your Affections may be conformed to the Will of God; and ſo upon the Wings of Faith and Love your Souls may, at the length, mount up to the Belief in, and Embrace-ment of that Saviour, of whoſe Redemption we have now been ſpeaking, and by whom, e're long, after a few Years, or Weeks, or Days ſpent in this lower World, we hope to be carry'd up to the Enjoyment of our Maker, the chiefeſt Good, where we ſhall ſolace ourſelves in the Sweetneſſes of Heaven; be raviſhed with the unſpeakable Joys of that unſpeakable Glory; and bathe ourſelves in thoſe Rivers of Pleaſure which are at GOD's right Hand for evermore.

Vid.

Vid. Vol. II. Serm. VI.משיח על הצלב Christ Crucified.

ST. PAUL, in this and his other Epistles, often calls himself the Apostle and the Servant of JESUS CHRIST, which is the highest Title he could give himself; yea, the highest that can be given to any one upon Earth. For JESUS CHRIST being the greatest, as well as the best Master in the World, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, his Service must needs be the most noble Employment, and the greatest Honour that any Mortal can have; which St. Paul was so sensible of, that he delighted and gloried in it, as he well might, more than all things else. And always looking upon himself as standing in this Relation to JESUS CHRIST, he made it his whole business to serve Him, his great Lord and Master, by setting forth his Glory and Goodness in the Redemption of Mankind. And this he did not with excellency of Speech or of Wisdom, as he speaks in the Verse before my Text, but with that plainness and simplicity which became the Gospel of Christ. Which, lest any should wonder at, he here gives the Corinthians the reason of it, even because he determin'd not to know, or make known any thing among them, save Jesus Christ and him Crucified.

This was the Summ and Substance of all his Writing, and of all his Preaching. And so it ought to be of all theirs who succeed him, and the the reſt of the Apoſtles in the Miniſtry of the Goſpel : For neceſſity is laid upon us, yea, we unto us, if we preach not the Goſpel of JESUS CHRIST, 1 Cor. ix. 16. Unless we do that, we do not answer the End of our Miniſtry, which was ordained on purpoſe to plant, propagate, and keep up the Knowledge of JESUS CHRIST upon Earth; that Men may alway know him by whom they may be ſaved, and without whom they can never be ſaved : For there is none other Name under Heaven given among men, whereby we muſt be ſaved, Acts iv. 12. And therefore it is in vain to expect it from any other. Aristotle can never ſave us with all his Philoſophy, nor Tully with all his Rhetorick, nor Plato neither with his fine Notions borrow'd from Moses; no, nor Moses himſelf; he muſt lead us through the Wilderneſs, but Joſhua, or, as the Greeks call him, Jesus muſt bring us to the Land of Canaan. The Law muſt direct our Steps, the Goſpel only can ſave our Souls. The Goſpel, as it reveals JESUS CHRIST our Saviour to us; and therefore reveals him that we may know him, and how to be ſaved by him.

Which kind of Knowledge the Apoſtle preferred before all other; and not only before the Knowledge of all other things, but before all other things he knew : Yea doubtless, I count all things but loſs for the excellency of the knowledge of Chriſt Jeſus my Lord, Phil. iii. 8. He having attained to the Knowledge of Chriſt Jeſus his Lord, he found ſo much excellency in it, that he reckon'd that he ſhould have been a great Loſer, if he had gain'd all things elſe without knowing him; and therefore thought he could not do any Man a greater Kindneſs, than to communicate this moſt excellent Knowledge to them, by preach-preaching Jeſus Chriſt, and him Crucified. Which he therefore did, notwithstanding that in thoſe Days alſo, as well as ours, there were ſome who were offended, and others that laughed at him for it: We preach, ſaith he, Chriſt Crucified, to the Jews a ſtumbling-block, and to the Greeks fooliſhneſs, but to them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Chriſt the Power of God, and the Wiſdom of God, 1 Cor. i. 23, 24. They who were called to the Knowledge of Jeſus Chriſt, could not but admire and adore him, as the Power of the Almighty, and the Wiſdom of the alwiſe God; but other People would either ſtumble or make mock at it. But what ſort of People were they? That we may learn from the ſame Apoſtle, ſaying, The preaching of the Croſs is to them that periſh fooliſhneſs, 1 Cor. i. 18. And again, If the Goſpel be hid, it is hid to them that are loſt. In whom the God of this World hath blinded the Eyes of them who believe not, leſt the light of the glorious Goſpel of Chriſt, who is the Image of God, ſhould ſhine upon them, 2 Cor. iv. 3. Wherefore ſuch, if there be any ſuch now, who deride the preaching of the Goſpel, or deſpiſe the Knowledge of Jeſus Chriſt, have little reaſon to value themſelves upon it. For my part, I would not be in their Caſe for all this World.

St. Paul, beſure, when Inſpired by God himſelf, was of another Mind; for he determined, not to know any thing, nor to make any thing known among them, to whom he preached, but Jeſus Chriſt, and him Crucified. And having the Example of ſo great an Apoſtle before me, I ſhall, by God's Aſſiſtance, entertain your Devout Meditations at this time, with conſidering only what we ought to know of JESUS CHRIST, and how much that is to be deſir'd and taught before all other Knowledge. That

That there was ſuch a Perſon once upon Earth who was called JESUS CHRIST, we all know; but we muſt know withal, that he was ſuch a Perſon, that there never was, nor ever can be ſuch another in the World. For he was not only a Man, ſuch as we are, but GOD: nor GOD only, ſuch as the Father is, but Man too: And both GOD and Man in one and the ſame Perſon. For unleſs we know him to be GOD, we cannot believe him to be JESUS, the Saviour; unleſs we know him to be Man, we cannot believe him to be CHRIST, the Anointed: and unleſs we know him to be both GOD and Man in one Perſon, we cannot believe him to be the one Mediator between GOD and Men. So that this is the moſt fundamental Article of the Chriſtian Faith, upon which all our Hopes and Expectations are grounded; and therefore ſo clearly revealed in GOD's Holy Word, that none but ſuch as wilfully ſhut their Eyes, or harden their Hearts, can be either ignorant or doubtful of it. And if we know this, and carry it always in our Minds, it will give us great Light into all things elſe that we ought to know or believe concerning JESUS CHRIST.

Now this Immanuel, God with us, as the Prophet calls him, Iſai. vii. 14. or, as the Angels call him, Τὸ Ἅγιον, that Holy Thing, Luke i. 35. A Thing made up of the moſt Holy GOD, and a Holy Man together, being conceived and made ſo by the Holy Ghoſt coming upon, and the Power of the Hiſheſt overſhadowing the Bleſſed Virgin, he was accordingly born of her, and grew up by degrees, as Men uſe to do, living as it were incognito till he was about Thirty Years of Age, and then he ſhewed himſelf openly to the World, and manifeſted forth his Divine Power

Power and Glory, by doing ſuch Works which none could do as he did them, but GOD only; that Men might ſee and believe, that altho' he appear'd among them only as a Man, yet he was at the ſame time the one almighty GOD. He ſpoke as never Man ſpoke, for his Answers were all the Oracles of GOD. He declared, that the End of his being made the Son of Man, and coming as ſuch among them was, to give his Life a Ranſome for many, Matt. xx. 28. He revealed many great Truths which had before been hid, ſuch eſpecially as were neceſſary to the purifying Mens Hearts with a right Faith in GOD. He vindicated the Law which he had publiſhed upon Mount Sinai, from the falſe Gloſſes which the Jews had put upon it, declaring the true meaning and the full extent of it. He taught Men their whole Duty to GOD, to themſelves, and to one another; and that they muſt give Account to Him at the Laſt-Day how they have perform'd it. He ſhewed them how to do what he taught, by doing it himſelf, and living in all reſpects as he taught them to live. For he never thought, or ſpoke, or did amiſs, but went about continually doing good. So that he fulfilled all Righteouſneſs in the Nature of Man, as much as any Man, or Adam himſelf, in his State of Innocence, was capable of doing it: And more too, for his Righteouſneſs was the Righteouſneſs not only of Man, but of GOD too, which was more than ever was, or could be requir'd of meer Man; and of greater Worth than the Righteouſneſs of all the Men in the World could have been, if they had all continued in a State of abſolute Perfection.

The only begotten Son of God, of one Substance with the Father, having thus converſed with Men in their Nature alſo, for ſome Years, until he had finiſhed all he was to do, while he lived upon Earth : he then ſuffer'd himſelf to be Apprehended, Arraigned, Condemned, and at laſt Crucified, as if he had been ſome great Malefactor.

This the Apoſtle here lays great ſtreſs upon, determining with himſelf, not only to know Jeſus Chriſt, but him Crucified. For unleſs he had died, and unleſs he had died the accuſed Death of the Croſs, he could not have answered the End of his coming into the World ; for he would not have given his Life as a Ransom for any, ſo as to redeem them from the Curſe which God had laid upon all that continue not in all things which are written in the Book of the Law to do them, Deut. xxvii. 26. Gal. iii. 10. Which therefore that he might, while he hung upon the Croſs, he voluntarily and of his own accord gave up the Ghoſt, and died in that Nature which was united to his Divine Perſon, offering it up as a Sacrifice inſtead of all that are of that Nature, ſo as to be a propitiation for the Sins of the whole World, 1 John ii. 2. The Death that he ſuffered in the whole Nature of Man, being equivalent to the Death of all Mankind : and of infinitely greater Value and Merit. For if all Mankind had died eternally, their Death could have been no more than the Death of ſo many humane and finite Perſons, whereas his was the Death of a Perſon who was Infinite and Divine : And therefore by his dying upon the Croſs, he did not only redeem us from the Curſe of the Law, being made a Curſe for us, Gal. iii. 14. But he merited alſo for us the Favour of God, and all the Bleſſings we can deſire, to make us happy : which GOD therefore, for his ſake, hath promiſed to all that believe in him.

Now the Word of GOD being thus fulfilled, and his Juſtice being abundantly ſatisfied for the Sins of Mankind, by the Death which his only begotten Son had ſuffer'd in their Nature, and in their ſtead, the third Day after he roſe again, and continued forty Days upon Earth, to convince his Diſciples that he was indeed riſen; and then he went up to Heaven, where he hath been ever ſince, and is now at the right-hand of God, Angels, and Authorities, and Powers being made ſubject to him, 1 Pet. iii. 22. For GOD hath there ſet him above all Principalities and Powers, and Might, and Dominion, and every Name that is named, not only in this World, but alſo in that which is to come : and hath put all things under his Feet, and given him to be Head over all things to the Church, which is his Body, Eph. i. 21, 22. To the Church, which he hath purchaſed with his own Blood, Acts xx. 28. It was for the ſake of that, that this ſupreme Authority and Power over all things is given to him, that he may order and diſpoſe of all things ſo, that nothing may ever deſtroy his Church, or hinder the Salvation of any of the ſound Members of it, but that, according to his Word, whoſoever believeth in him ſhould not periſh, but have everlaſting Life, John iii. 16.

Such a glorious, ſuch an almighty Saviour have we now in Heaven, ſitting at the right-hand of GOD, where he is the Mediator between GOD and Men, 1 Tim. ii. 5. and is able to ſave them to the uttermoſt that come unto God by him, ſeeing he ever liveth to make Interceſſion for them, Heb. vii. 25. For GOD hath exalted him with his right-hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour, to give repen- tance to Israel, and forgiveness of Sins, Acts v. 31. First Repentance, and then Forgiveness. And if we accordingly believe and trust on him, in the first place, to give us Grace to repent and turn to God with all our Hearts, he will certainly give us it, in the use of the Means which he hath appointed in his Church for that End. And when we have obtained that, then, and not till then, we may be sure that he will take us into his own particular Care and Conduct, he will wash us from our Sins in his own Blood: He will reconcile us to his Father, and make our Peace with him: He will supply the defects of our Righteousness with his own: His Grace shall be always sufficient for us, and his Strength made perfect in our Weakness, thro' the whole course of our Lives; and then he will bring us to that everlasting Kingdom which he hath purchased, and is now preparing for all that believe in him and keep his Commandments. Which God therefore grant we may all for the future do.

These few, of the many great Truths concerning JESUS CHRIST, being revealed in his Holy Gospel, I thought it my Duty, in his Name, to put you in mind of them, tho' I do not question but ye know them already, and heartily wish that all Men did so. And that they had not only a superficial and speculative, but a practical and experimental Knowledge of them: For that, after all, is the Knowledge of Jesus Christ, and him Crucified, which the Apostle speaks of, and accounts so excellent. Not that which swims only in the Brain, but that which sinks into the Heart, moves the Affections, and puts us upon believing and living, in all respects, according to what we know. So that we have them not only in the Theory, but ſee and taſte the wondrous things that he hath done for us, and feel the happy Effects of them in ourſelves, finding, by our own Experience, that he assumed our Humane, by our partaking of his Divine Nature : that he died for our Sins, by our living unto Righteouſneſs : that he is exalted above all things in Heaven, by our preferring him before all things upon Earth. They who have attained to ſuch a Knowledge of CHRIST as this, will need no Arguments to perſwade them, that it excels all other. They feel more of it than others can tell them, and more than they themſelves can tell to others. Whereas they who never had any ſenſe or experience of it upon their own Minds, will hardly be convinced of the excellency of it by any Words that can be uſed about it. Neither indeed are there any to be found whereby it can be fully expreſſ'd.

But, howſoever, it may not be amiſs to obſerve, that the excellency of this Knowledge appears ſufficiently from the height and excellency of the Objects upon which it is exerciſ'd. For whereas our Knowledge of other things lies low and flat upon the Ground, perplex'd and entangl'd among the Creatures which God hath made, this ſoars aloft upon him that made them; among the Divine Perfections which he maniſteſted in the Redemption of Mankind, and the higheſt Myſteries of his Holy and Everlaſting Goſpel. For by knowing Chriſt Jeſus we know the Word and Son of God, by whom all things were made, and without whom nothing was made that was made, John i. 2. By knowing the Son, we know the Father alſo, whom no Man knoweth ſave the Son, and he to whomſoever the Son ſhall reveal him, Matt. xi. 27. By knowing Jeſus Chriſt, Chriſt, and him Crucified, we know how Grace and Truth came into the World, John i. 17. How the Almighty Creator of all things comes to be ſo merciful and propitious to fallen Men, and not to fallen Angels, altho' they be both alike his own Creatures! How all the Loſſes that we ſuſtained in the firſt Adam, are abundantly repair'd and made up by another! How, as by one Man's Diſobedience many were made Sinners; ſo by the Obedience of one, many are made Righteous! How the Devotions and good Works which we ſincerely perform, come to be acceptable to GOD, notwithstanding their manifold Imperfections! How all things come to work together for good to thoſe who love God! Rom. viii. 28. How there comes to be ſuch a Mediator between GOD and Men, who can bring two Parties, that are at ſuch an infinite diſtance, together, and reconcile them to one another! How we, who (at preſent) are ſinful Mortals upon Earth, may, e'relong, be made glorified Saints in Heaven. But why do I offer at ſhewing any of theſe glorious Sights which the Knowledge of Chriſt lets us into? Theſe are Contemplations fit for Angels; The Angels themſelves deſire to look into them: and the more they ſee, the more they admire and wonder. How much more ſhould we do ſo, who are ſo highly concern'd in them more than the Angels are? We certainly may well deſire and determine with St. Paul, not to know any thing ſave Jeſus Chriſt, and him Crucified.

And yet, it is much to be obſerv'd, that tho' this Knowledge be ſo high and wonderful, it is the moſt certain Knowledge that we can have of any thing that is. In compariſon of which, our Knowledge of other things is generally no more than mere gueſſs and conjecture; as being received only from our Senſes or Reaſon, or eſſe from the Teſtimony of other Men; which ways, we know, are all Fallib'e. Whereas we have the Knowledge of Chriſt, and from the infallible Teſtimony of GOD himſelf; who hath reveal'd all things neceſſary for us to know concerning Him in his own Word. Whereby it comes to paſs, that we are as certain of every thing that is written or ſaid there concerning Jeſus Chriſt, as we can be of the moſt evident thing that is. As certain that He and the Father are One, as that two and two make four, John x. 30. As certain that he came into the World to ſave Sinners, as that there are any Sinners in the World to ſave. As certain that he roſe from the Dead, as that we are now alive. As certain that he is at the right-hand of GOD in Heaven, as that we are now in this place. For our Knowledge of theſe and ſuch like things being grounded upon the Word of GOD, of Truth itſelf, it muſt needs be as certain as it is poſſible to be, as certain as that GOD is true.

And it is very well for us that it is ſo: conſidering the great uſe and need we have always of it. I do not deny but that the Knowledge of other things is, in many Caſes, very uſeful: Some to private Perſons, ſome to publick Societies, ſome to whole Kingdoms, ſome to Mankind in general, ſome to the right underſtanding of the Holy Scriptures, and ſo to the Knowledge of Chriſt himſelf. Yea, there is ſcarce any ſort of Knowledge but, ſome way or other, helps towards the raiſing, refining, and enlarging our Underſtandings; and ſo to the making us more capable of knowing him. But whatſoever it may be at preſent, unleſs it tends to that end, end, at laſt it will ſtand us in no ſtead. For what if we were ſkill'd in all the Arts and Sciences that ever were invented, and could manage them every one to the beſt Advantage? What if we had the whole System of Logic in our Heads, and could argue with all the Art and Sophiſtry that ever Men did? What if we could dive into all the depths of Natural Philoſophy, and ſee into Springs and Movements of all Second Cauſes? What if we had turned over all the Records of the Church, and the Hiſtories of all Places and Ages ſince the World began, and could reduce every thing that ever happen'd to its proper Time? What if we could count the number of the Stars, call them all by their Names, and deſcribe their Motions to an Hair's breadth? What if we underſtood all Languages, and could diſcourſe with People of all the Nations upon Earth in their own Mother Tongue? What then? Notwithſtanding all this, without the knowledge of Jeſus Chriſt, and him Crucified, we ſhould be loſt and undone for ever. For as much as there is no way to be ſaved but by him, neither can any be ſaved by him, except they believe in him; nor believe in him, except they firſt know him. For, as the Apoſtle obſerves, How can they believe in him of whom they have not heard, and ſo know not what to believe? Rom. x. 14.

This Knowledge, therefore, being ſo neceſſary to our believing in Chriſt, it is ſo likewise to every thing requiſite to our obtaining the End of our Faith, even the ſalvation of our Souls. So that we cannot make one true Step towards Heaven without it, no more than the Children of Iſrael could have gone thro' the Wilderneſs to the Land of Canaan, without having that Type of Christ, the Pillar of a Cloud by Day, and of Fire by Night to guide them. For the whole of our Salvation, from first to last; is begun, continued, and finished by God our Saviour. And unless we know him, we can neither know what to do; nor do any thing we know, in order to our being saved by him. And therefore we see how they who live without the Knowledge of Christ, live as without God in the World. They may profess to know God, but in Works they deny him, being, abominable, disobedient, and to every good Work reprobate, Tit. i. 16. Their Eyes are so blind that they cannot see, and their Hearts so hard that they cannot feel any difference between Good and Evil. They may be wise to do Evil, but to do Good they have no knowledge, Jer. iv. 22. They live in perfect Slavery to their own Humours and Passions, and to the Devil himself, being taken captive by him at his Will, 2 Tim. ii. 26. And all because they know not him who was manifested to destroy the Works of the Devil, 1 John iii. 8.

But, as the Apostle observes, Men escape the pollutions of the World, through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, 2 Pet. ii. 20. For by it we know how to overcome the World, so as to live above it: how to resist the Devil, so as to make him flee from us: how to work out our Salvation with fear and trembling, so as to make our Calling and Election sure: how to mortify our Sins, so as to walk in newness of Life, through all the Changes and Chances of this mortal Life, till we come to Life eternal. To which the true Knowledge of Christ will as certainly bring us at last, as if we had it already; as we hear from him who alone can give it, saying to his Father, This is Life eternal, that they might might know thee the only true God, and Jeſus Chriſt, whom thou haſt ſent, John xvii. 3.

When I think of theſe things I cannot but reflect upon the Corruptions of the Age we live in, and the great cauſe of them. It was our unſpeakable Happineſs, that in the laſt Age ſave one, the Doctrine of our Church was ſo reformed, that it agrees exactly with God's Holy Word, as underſtood and interpreted by his whole Catholick Church. And it might reaſonably be expected, that where the Doctrine was ſo well reformed, Mens Lives ſhould be ſo too: but we find the contrary by ſad Experience; that piece of Reformation is ſtill wanting, and ſeems to be reſerved for this Age, and for this happy and glorious Reign: wherein ſome Attempts have been made already towards it; but all will be in vain, unleſs a way could be found out, that all who are born and bred within the Pale of our Church may underſtand the Doctrine which ſhe teacheth, particularly that which reſpects our bleſſed Saviour. For otherwiſe, altho' the Branches may be lopt off, or kept from ſpreading abroad; or above Ground, the Root of Vice and Wickedneſs will ſtill remain; for that can never be deſtroyed, but by the Knowledge of Jeſus Chriſt, and him Crucified, which he knows is but rarely found among us; and that hitherto there hath not been that Care taken for the Propagation of it, which he deſigned and expected, when he was graciously pleaſed, in ſo wonderful a manner, to cauſe the Doctrine of our Church to be ſo well reformed.

But, to our great Comfort, he knows withal, that the Fault is not in our Church itſelf; for that ſhe hath done all ſhe could think of, to ſpread his Gospel all over the Kingdom, that all might

might know him, from the highest to the lowest Person in it. She hath ordered that all that are young or ignorant should be instructed in the Principles of the Christian Religion every Sunday and Holiday in the Year. She hath set apart several Feasts and Fast-Days every Year, to keep up the Memory, and put People in Mind of what our blessed Saviour said, or did, or suffered for us, and of what his Evangelists and Apostles did or taught by his Direction and Assistance. She hath so composed her Liturgy of Lessons, Psalms, Hymns, Creeds, Prayers and Collects, all concluding in the Name of JESUS CHRIST, that it contains all the Fundamental Articles of the Christian Faith: So that it seems morally impossible that any who heartily use, and attend diligently to the Prayers of our Church, as they ought to do every Day, should be ignorant of any one thing that is needful for them to know. So great Care hath our Church taken, that all who live in her Communion might come to the true Knowledge of CHRIST their Saviour. And if her Rules and Orders were but as Religiously observed by the whole Nation, as they are wisely and piously contrived by her, what an understanding, what a wise, what an holy People should we then be? Then would be fulfilled that which was spoken by the Prophet, That the Earth, or at least this part of it, shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the Waters cover the Sea, Isai. xi. 9. And then we should clearly see of what mighty use and advantage it is, not only for particular Persons, but for the whole Kingdom, to know Jesus Christ and him Crucified.

Neither is this so unpleasant or so insipid a kind of Knowledge, as some imagine. But to them only who never taſted of it; for they who have, cannot but have found ſo much ſweetneſs in it, that they can reliſh no other, but long for more and more of it every Day; never thinking they can have enough. It is indeed the only true Joy and Comfort of a Chriſtian's Heart. The Knowledge of other things may pleaſe our Fancies, this only can ſatisfy and delight our Souls. For whatſoever elſe we know, beſure we all know ourſelves to be Sinners: and if Sinners, then liable to the Wrath of our Almighty Creator, and to all the Curſes and Judgments that he hath threatned againſt Sinners. The thoughts whereof lie ſo heavy upon ſome Mens Minds, that they are ready to ſink down into Horror and Deſpair. And they make all Men ſometimes ſad and melancholy, do what they can, in the miſt of all their Mirth and Jollity. And where ſhall we ſeek for any Comfort or Support? We may look where we will, but we ſhall never find any but in the Chriſtian Religion: For it is that and that only which affords us certain Principles whereon to truſt for God's Mercy in the Pardon of our Sins, and his Reconciliation to us in his beloved Son, in whom he is well-pleaſed. Wherefore they who know not him, can ſee no ground on which to build any hope of Pardon and Salvation, but whenſoever they reflect upon themſelves, if they ever do ſo, are tormented with the frightful Apprehenſions of that judgment and fiery Indignation which will at laſt devour them. Whereas to know Jeſus Chriſt, and him Crucified; to know that the only begotten Son of God came into the World to ſave Sinners, ſuch Sinners as we are; that he is the Propitiation for the Sins of the whole World, and for ours among the reſt; that he was deliver'd for *our Offences, and rais'd again for our Juſtification ; that he is now our Mediator and Advocate with the Father, appearing continually before him on our behalf, and preparing a place in Heaven for us, againſt our departure out of this wicked World ;

our

this raiſeth and refresheth our drooping Spirits,
this fills our Souls with ſolid and ſubſtantial Joy, with Joy in him, whom having not ſeen ye love ;
in whom though now ye ſee him not, yet believing ye rejoice with Joy unſpeakable and full of glory,

2 PET. i. 6.

And to Knowledge, Temperance; and to Temperance, Patience,

TEMPERANCE.

First, What is Temperance?

- I. GOD hath made ſeveral Objects pleaſing to Man's Senſes.
- II. The Affections of the Soul are apt to follow the Senſes of the Body.
- III. Hence ſenſual Pleaſures are apt to draw us into Vice.
- IV. It is our great Duty and Concern to moderate our Affections towards ſenſual Pleaſures.
- V. Herein conſiſts the true nature of Temperance, not in deſtroying the Affections, More particularly it conſiſts,
 1. In ſubjecting our Affections to Reaſon, and ſo denying them, Tit. ii. 12.
 2. In abſtaining principally from ſuch Luſts as we are moſt obnoxious to, 1 Pet. iv. 2, 3, 4.
 3. In abſtaining from the inward Deſires, as well as the outward Acts of Intemperance, Rom. viii. 13.
 4. In not being too much liſt up with the Enjoyment, nor caſt down for the loſs of carnal Pleaſures, 1 Cor. vii. 29, 30, 31. 2 Cor. vi. 10.

U s E. Add Temperance.

4. Suppress the first Risings, Jam. i. 14, 15.
5. Employ your Thoughts and Affections still upon right Objects, 1 Cor. ix. 27.

PATIENCE.

I. What is Patience?

1. GOD orders the World, Matt. x. 29, 30.
2. As he gives Pleasures, so sometimes Troubles to us, Isai. xlv. 7.
3. As we are to moderate our concupiscible Affections to the Pleasures, so our irascible to Troubles.
4. This must be done from a sense of God's Will, Job i. 20. 1 Sam. iii. 17.
5. As we must not repine at GOD himself, so neither at his Instruments, 1 Pet. ii. 23. Chap. iii. 9.

II. How may we exercise this Grace.

1. Faint not under Troubles, Heb. xii. 5.
2. Be ready always to bear the greatest, Acts xxi. 13.
3. Rather Rejoice than Faint under Tribulations, Heb. x. 34. Matt. v. 11, 12.

Considering,

2. His Glory was known to none but himſelf till the Creation.
3. At the Creation he made all things for the manifeſtation of his Glory, Prov. xvi. 4.
4. Yet none on Earth but Man is made capable of knowing and acknowledging that Glory, Pſal. xix. 1.
5. Hence we may conclude, that Man was deſign'd to make all imaginable acknowledgment of God's Glory.
6. Theſe Expreſſions of our acknowledgment of God's Glory are properly that which we call the Worſhip of God.

7. This

7. This Worship of God is in Scripture called Holiness, ἁγιότητα.

Secondly, Wherein doth it particularly consist?

I. In knowing him.

1. As in himself, Heb. xi. 6. Exod. xx. 2.

2. As he is to us.

II. In preferring him in our Judgments before all things else, Psal. cxxxvii. 6. Matt. xix. 17. Phil. iii. 8.

1. Praying.

2. Hearing.

3. Sacraments.

VIII. In reverencing him, Psal. xcv. 6.

1. When we think of him, Psal. cxxxix. 58.

2. When we speak of him, Deut. xxviii.

3. When we come before him, Gen. xxviii. 16, 17.

Thirdly, Why ought this to be added to our other Vertues,

1. Because it was the end of our Creation.

2. Of

2. Of our Preservation.

3. Because without this there is no ſuch thing as real Vertue, this being the ground of all Vertues.

U s E. Add Godlineſs.

1. Your Happineſs on Earth conſiſts in it.

2. Only by this can ye be capable of Heaven.

3. Be Godly here and Happy hereafter, Heb. xii. 14.

1. We have all the ſame Father.

2. The ſame Mother, Gal. iv. 26.

3. The ſame elder Brother, Heb. ii. 11.

III. Why

III. Why should we thus love one another ?

1. We are expressly commanded.
2. We are to love our very Enemies, Matt. v. 44.
3. There can be no true love to God, where there is not Brotherly-kindness, 1 John iv. 20, 21.

USE. Add Brotherly-kindness to Godliness.

1. Without this it is not true Godliness.
2. Unless we love others God will not love us.

Secondly, CHARITY. Which consists,

I. In loving other Persons as ourselves, Lev. xix. 18. Rom. xiii. 3, 9.

1. In wishing him no more Evil than ourselves.

2. In the Name of CHRIST, Mark ix. 41.
3. In proportion to our Estates, 2 Cor. ix. 5, 6, 7.
1. Hereby we imitate GOD, Luke vi. 35, 26.
2. GOD gives us Estates only to lay out as he prescribes.
3. VVhat we give to the Poor we lend to GOD, Prov. xix. 17.

USE. Add Charity to your other Vertues.

1. This is accounted the chief Grace, 1 Cor. xiii. ult.
2. No true Grace without it, 1ac. i. 27.
3. VVithout this we have no ground to expect GOD's Favour.
4. If we be Charitable to others GOD will be so to us.
5. At the Day of Judgment our Charity will be narrowly examined, Matth. xxv. 34, 35, &c.

2 P E T. I. 10.

2. Equity to our Neighbour, 1 Thess. iv. 6.
3. Charity to the Poor, 1 Tim. vi. 17, 18, 19.

2 P. E. T. iii. 18.

Grow in Grace.

WE ought not only to endeavour after the Truth, but the growth of Grace.

Before I open this, consider Four things :

I. All Men have not Grace, 2 Thess. iii. 2.

II. None have Grace without Sin.

III. Of those that have Grace, some have more, some less.

1. Some are strong, others weak, Rom. xv. 1.

2. Some Men, some Babes, 1 Cor. iii. 1.

3. Some Cedars, Psal. xcii. 12. others Reeds, 1 King. xiv. 13. Isai. xl. 11. Matt. xii. 20.

IV. The strongest as well as weakest should endeavour to grow in Grace.

First, What is the Grace we should grow in?

I. Negative.

1. Not Knowledge and Abilities.

2. Not only in temporary Faith and Affections.

3. Not only in outward Performances.

II. Positive. In the truth of Grace.

Particularly,

1. Sincere Repentance, 2 Cor. vii. 10.

2. Saving Faith.

3. True Love to G O D, Matt. xxii. 37.

4. Christian Charity to all, Matt. v. 44.

5. An holy Submission to G O D's Will, 1 Sam. iii. 18.

6. Resolved Selfdenial, Matt. xvi. 24.

7. Well-

7. Well-grounded Humility; Act. xx. 19.
8. Trustful dependance upon God,
1 Chron. xx. 12.
9. Heavenly-mindedness, Col. iii. 2.
10. Hearty Thankfulness for all things,
1 Theſſ. v. 18.

Secondly, How may we grow in Grace?

1. By the Performance of Duties.
2. The Exercise of Graces.
3. Be humble, Jam. iv. 6. 1 Tim. i. 15.
4. Pray for it, Jam. i. 5, 6. Luke xi. 13.
and xvii. 5.
5. Fast often, 1 Cor. ix. 27.
6. Receive the Sacraments as often as you can.

Thirdly, How should we grow in Grace?

1. In the Root.
2. The Habits.
3. The Acts of Grace, 2 Pet. i. 5.
4. In all Graces proportionably.

Fourthly, Why grow in Grace?

1. The Saints of God have still grown in Grace, Pſalm lxxxiv. 7. Phil. iii. 11.
2. They have prayed for their own and one another's growth, Eph. ili. 14, 15,
16. Phil. i. 9. Col. i. 9, 10. Luke xvii. 5.
3. We are commanded to grow in Grace,
Heb. vi. 1. 2 Pet. i. 5. 1 Cor. xv. 58.
1 Theſſ. iv. 1.

Use I. Examine whether you grow in Grace.

1. Are you better able to withstand Temptations than you were?
2. Can you perform Duties better?

3. Art thou more conversant in the strictest Exercises of Religion?
4. Canst thou trust in God better than thou didst? Rom. iv. 18, 19, 20.

USE II. Exhortation: Labour to grow in Grace.

Consider,

1. We have strong Temptations to deal with.
 1. Strong Temptations from Satan, Eph. vi. 10, 11.
 2. Strong Oppositions from the World, 1 Cor. xvi. 9, 13.
 3. Strong Corruptions in our own Hearts.

I. The natural Law, Rom. i. 32.

Πάν τὸ πνεῦν τὸν λόγον τὸν ὀρθὸν οὗτο ἀμαρτάνει δὲ, Clem.

This appears

1. From Civil Laws made by Heathens, Rom. ii. 14.

2. By their own Conſcience, ver. 15.

2. Judicial.

3. Moral, contained in עשרה הוראות

Deut. iv. 13. This is not abrogated.

1. No where in Scripture.

2. It is confirmed, Mat. v. 17. Chap. xix.

17, 18. Rom. iii. 31.

3. It

3. It is plain, becauſe this Law was enacted before CHRIST was promis'd, Matth. xix. 8.

διδόλαι καὶ δόλῃ ἐδενί, Basil.

Peccatum eſt factum dictum aut cona-tum contra æternam legem, Aug.

Secondly, What is it to tranſgreſs the Law?

Ἀμαρτάνειν & ΝΩΠ ἃ vid & ſcopo aberrare.

Two Ways the Law is tranſgreſs'd,

1. In reſpect of the Matter and Subſtance.

2. The manner of Performance.

1. As to the Principal, 1 Tim. i. 5.

2. Circumſtances.

3. End, Matth. vi. 2.

Thirdly, What are the ſeveral Differences and Diſtinctions of Sin?

I. Some are of

2. Commiſſion.

II. Some are of the

1. Head and Thoughts, Gen. vi. 5.

2. Heart, Prov. ii. 14. Rom. vii. 22.

3. Mouth, Matth. xii. 36.

4. Hands, Iſai. i. 15.

III. Some ſmall, others great. There is a difference, John xix. 11. No Sin little in itſelf.

1. But the leaſt Sin

1. Tranſgreſſeth the Law.

2. Offends GOD.

3. Defiles the Soul.

4. Deſerveth Hell.

He that sees the Works of CHRIST, done by the Spirit, and yet saith they are not done by GOD, or the Son of GOD, but Beelzebub, sins against the Holy Ghost.

Simulata ſanctitas eſt duplex iniquitas.

10. Sins frequently committed are great Sins, Pſalm lxxviii. 40.

Qui autem peccare conſuevit ſepultus eſt & bene de eo dicitur fetet, Aug.

ENQUIRY.

Whether is there now, or ever was any one good Man, beſides CHRIST, perfectly void of Sin? No: as appears,

I. From Scripture, Gal. iii. 22.

1. 1 King: viii. 46. 2 Chron. vi. 36.

2. Eccleſ. vii. 20.

3. Jam. iii. 2.

4. 1 John 1. 8, 10.

Who then can ſay, I have made my Heart clean, I am pure from Sin? Prov. xx. 9.

II. From Reason: for,

1. In Adam the whole humane Nature was corrupted, Rom. v. 12.

2. The very Graces and Duties of the beſt of Saints are imperfect, and ſo far ſinful.

Omnis humana juſtitia injuſtitia eſſe convincitur ſi diſtinctè judicetur, Greg.

Virtue is here ſo imperfect ut ad ejus perfectionem pertinet ipſius etiam imperfectionis agnitio, Aug.

Virtus & Charitas, in aliis major, in aliis minor, in aliis nulla, pleniffima vero in nemine, Aug.

U S E,

1. See what Cause we have all to be humbled, not Proud.
2. See what Cause we have to bleſs GOD for CHRIST.
3. Repent of Sin, 1 John i. 9.
4. Lay hold upon CHRIST for its Pardon.
5. Endeavour to avoid it as much as you can.

What Means muſt we uſe ?

1. Act Faith in CHRIST, Prov. xxi. 4.
Chap. xv. 8. Iſai. lxvi. 3. Chap. i. 11, 12.
2. Get thy Conſcience rightly informed of thy Duty out of the Scriptures, Rom.
xiv. 2, 3.
3. Live always as under GOD's Eye.
4. Be much in Prayer with GOD.

 2. Upon the Death of CHRIST.
 3. Upon the Account thou muſt, e'relong, give at the Judgment-Seat of CHRIST, 2 Cor. v. 10.

What Motives may we use to prevail with ourselves and others to forsake Sin?

I. Consider the Properties of GOD, that he is

1. A good and gracious, Hes. iii. 5. Psalm cxxx. 4.
2. A great and glorious GOD, Jer. x. 6, 7.
3. A just and righteous, Isai. xlv. 21.
4. A wise and understanding, Luke xvi. 15.
5. A powerful and almighty, Matt. x. 28.
6. A pure and holy GOD, Hab. i. 13. Lev. xi. 44.

II. Consider the Death of CHRIST, that

1. CHRIST died for Sin, Isai. liii. 4, 5.
2. GOD punished Sin upon his own Son, Isai. liii. 6.
3. CHRIST hath purchased for us a Way whereby to be freed from Sin; and therefore died for Sin that we might not live in it, Acts iii. 26. Tit. ii. 14.

III. Consider the odiousness of Sin in itself; it is,

1. Our Shame, Ezra ix. 6. Ezek. xliii. 10.
2. Our Folly, Psal. xciv. 8.
3. Our Defilement, Jam. i. 21. Mat. xv. 20.
4. Our Slavery, Rom. viii. 21. Char. vi. 20.
Plato called it

Δυλοπρεπὲς μὲν τὸν κακίαν, ἐλευθεροπρεπὲς δὲ τὸν ἀρετήν.

5. Our Sickneſs, Isai. i. 5, 6.

ὡς ἀμαρτίας κλαίει αὐτὴ ἀρρώστια ψυχῆς, Basil.

6. Our Death, Rom. viii. 6. C. vii. 24. Eph. ii. 1.

Ἄυτη θανάτου ὅτι τῆς ἀθανάτου, Basil.

7. Our imitation of Satan, 1 John iii. 8.
John viii. 44.

8. Our alienation from GOD, Iſai. lix. 2.
Peccatum eſt medium ſeparans, Aug.

IV. Conſider your Vows and Promiſes unto GOD, Eccleſ. v. 4.

1. In Baptiſm, Dent. xxvi. 17, 18.

2. The Lord's-Supper.

3. In Sickneſs and Afflictions, Ex. viii. 8, 15.

V. Conſider how many Engagements GOD hath laid upon you to forſake Sin.

1. He made you rational Creatures and upright.

2. He continues your Lives to you.

Plutarch calls this Life, Χειρὸς τοῦ θεοῦ ἐμπόδιον.

3. He ſent his Son to die for you.

4. He entruſteth his Ordinances with you,
Jer. vii. 13. 25.

5. He hath ſent me, at this time, to call you from your Sins, Ezek. xxxiii. 11.

VI. Conſider the Prayers you make to GOD.

1. That he would pardon Sin. How ſo, if you do not forſake it?

2. That he would ſubdue it. So that you mock GOD unleſs you labour againſt it.

VII. Sin is the Fountain of all Evil.

1. Temporal, Lam. i. 5. C. v. 16. Pſ. cvii. 17.

2. Spiritual.

VIII. Conſider GOD's Threatnings againſt
 Sin and Sinners.

1. Prov. i. 24.

2. Mal. ii. 2.

3. Job xviii. 5, 8, 11, 12.

4. Ezek. vi. 12. Amos ix. 12.

Peccatum ſive hinc ſive inde trahat opus eſt diaboli, Aug.

IX. Conſider GOD's Punishments againſt Sinners, Cain, Pharaoh, Sodom and Gomorrah, Nadab and Abihu, Korah, Dathan and Abiſon,

ram, Achitophel, Jeroboam, Judas, &c.
which is,

1. Certain, Numb. xxiii. 19.
2. Sudden, Prov. i. 27. Chap. vi. 15. Num. xvi. 31, 32.
3. Great, according to his Threatnings.
4. Remediless, Prov. xxix. 1.

Quest. But do not Sinners live pleasantly?
'Tis true: but they have no reason to brag of their Impunity; for,

1. The longer it is before their Punishment comes, the greater it will be when it does come.
2. God punishes them whilst he spares them.
Maxima peccati pena est peccasse, Sen. So that they carry their Punishment along with them.

1 JOHN iii. 9.

Whoſoever is born of God doth not commit Sin.

Quæſtio 3. m. 1.

First, IT is the great Privilege of ſome Perſons to be born of GOD.

I. What is it to be born ?

There is a twofold Birth, old and new. In which laſt (for the opening of it) conſider,

1. We are conceived by the Spirit, John
iii. 3. Rom. viii. 15.
2. The Seed, or Means, is the Word, Jan.
i. 18. Rom. x. 17.
3. This Birth is with Pains and Sorrow.
4. But hereby we have a new Principle of Life put into us, Ezek. xxxvi. 26.
5. We are born into another World.
6. Have other Relations.
7. Become new Creatures, and have, 2 Cor.
v. 17.
 1. New Underſtandings.
 2. New Wills.
 3. New Deſires and Affections.

II. In what ſenſe are we born of GOD ?

1. Not Natural, as CHRIST ;
2. But Gratid : becauſe it is GOD, who of his Mercy infuſeth this new Life into us by his Spirit, Eph. ii. 10.

III. What

III. What a Privilege is it to be born of GOD?

1 John iii. 2. 1 Sam. xviii. 23.

1. GOD, as their Father, will love them.
2. Protect them, Isai. xli. 14.
3. Provide for them, Luke xv. 17, 18.
4. Pardon their Miscoarriages, Luke xv. 18.
5. Order all things for their good, Rom. viii. 28.
6. Supply them with Grace necessary here,
7. And give them an Inheritance hereafter.

IV. How may we know whether we be born of GOD or no?

1. By our bearing his Image, being like to him, Heb. i. 2. Eph. viii. 1. 1 Pet. i. 14, 15.

1. In Knowledge.

2. Righteousness, Eph. iv. 24.

3. Mercy, Matt. v. 48. Luke vi. 36.

4. Love to all, Matt. v. 44.

5. Intending his Glory in all, 1 Cor. x. 31.

2. By your honouring him, Mat. i. 6.

3. By fearing him, 1 Pet. i. 17.

4. By desiring his Favour, Psalms iv. 8.

5. By delighting in his Presence, Job. viii. 47.

6. By patient submitting to his Fatherly Chastisements, Heb. xii. 6, 7.

7. By being of a more heavenly Spirit than the Men of this World, Numb. iv. 24. Prov. xvii. 27.

8. By not committing Sin.

OBSERVATION.

Secondly, He that is thus born of GOD doth not commit Sin, 1 John v. 28.

In what sense do they not commit Sin?

1. Negatively.

1. Not as if they had no Relicks of Sin in them.

2. Not

2. Not as if they did not sometimes fall into Sin.

II. Positively. He doth not Sin.

1. Not with Reluctancy, Rom. vii. 15.

2. Not with Desire, Prov. xi. 23.

3. Not with Delight, Prov. ii. 14. Matt. xxvi. 75. Psal. li. 8.

4. Not without Shame, Jer. vi. 15. Ezra ix. 6. Luke xviii. 13.

5. Not with a Resolution to it, Jer. ii. 25. Chap. xlv. 16. Psalm xvii. 3. Josh. xxiv. 15.

6. Not without Temptation, 1 Chron. xxi. 1. 1 Sam. xxv. 32, 33.

7. Not always, as a Sinner, who doth not only Sin, but only Sins; Prov. xxi. 1. Chap. xv. 8.

8. Not with any allowance of themselves in it.

U S E.

I. Examine whether ye be the Sons of God.

II. Manifest yourselves to be so, by not committing Sin.

Considering,

1. How gracious a God it offends.

2. How holy a Law it breaks.

3. How precious a Soul it defiles.

4. How many Mercies it deprives you of.

5. How many Curses it brings on you.

6. How much our Saviour hath suffer'd for it.

7. How much you must suffer too.

M E A N S.

1. Live as under the Eye of God.

2. Keep your Heart.

3. Avoid the Occasions of it.

4. Often think of Death and Judgment.

I JOHN

I JOHN iii. 14.

We know that we have passed from Death to Life, because we love the Brethren: he that loveth not his Brother, abideth in Death.

Doct. 1. CONVERSION is a passing from Death to Life.

First, The state of Sin is a state of Death, Eph. ii. 1. Col. ii. 13.

1. Death is a separation of the Soul and Body, Sin of the Soul and GOD, Isai. lix. 2.
2. The Dead know nothing, 1 Cor. ii. 14.
3. Are sensible of nothing.
4. Desire nothing, Job xxi. 14.
5. Enjoy nothing, Job xxi. 15.
6. Can act nothing, Job xv. 5.
7. Good for nothing, nor accepted by any, Psalms x. 3.
8. The longer a Man is dead the worse he is; so is it with the dead in Sin.

Secondly, How is Conversion a passing from Death to Life?

1. In passing from Death to Life there is a reunion of a Principle of Life before separated. So here.
2. It can be effected only by the Power of GOD, Eph. ii. 1.

USE.

- I. See how many are Dead, Exod. xii. 30.
- II. Consider your Misery if you be not Converted.
 1. You are dead in Sin.
 2. Unless you pass from Death to Life, you must pass from Life to eternal Death.
 3. Labour to hate and avoid Sin, the cause of this Death, Rom. vi. 23.
 4. Do what you can to be translated from it.
 5. Examine yourselves.

Doct. II. True Love to the Brethren is a true sign of Conversion.

I. What are the Brethren we should Love?

1. The Godly.
2. Because Godly, 1 Pet. ii. 17.
3. All the Godly, 1 Pet. ii. 17. Jam. ii. 2, 5.
4. The more Godly they are the more we should love them.

II. How love them?

1. Really to wish well to them.
2. Delight in their Company, Psal. cxix. 63.
3. Desire and rejoice in their Graces, John iii. 30.
4. Do as much good as may be to their Souls and Bodies, Gal. vi. 10.
5. Not be ashamed of the meanest of them, tho' in Times of Persecution, Mark viii. 38.

USE, Love the Brethren.

Consider,

- I. How Wise, Psalms cxi. 10.
- II. How Good, 1 Pet. i. 15, 16.
- III. How Rich

1. In Grace in Poſſeſſion, Jam. ii. 5.

2. In Glory in Reverſion.

IV. How Honourable,

1. In their Relations,

2. Retinue, Heb. i. 14. Pſalm xci. 11.

3. Employment,

4. Free Admittance, Eph. v. 2. Heb. iv. 16.

5. Habitation, 1 John xiv. 13.

V. How uſeful they are.

1 JOHN iv. 13.

I. JOHN V. 7.

For there are Three that bear record in Heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these Three are One.

First, THERE are Three Persons in the Godhead.

What's a Person?

Not known by Nature, but Scripture.

In the Old Testament a Plurality, אלהים

Gen. i. 26. Chap. iii. 22. a Trinity, Num. vi. 23, 24, 25, 26. Isai. vi. 3. 2 Sam. xxiii. 2.

New Testament, Matt. iii. 16, 17. Chap. xxviii. 19. Luke i. 35. 2 Cor. xiii. 14.

A Person is a particular Being indivisible, reasonable, subsisting in itself, not having part of another, but by some incommunicable Property distinct from all other things.

A Person in the Godhead is a ἰσότης, isotēs, A manner of being in the Godhead, distinguished by some incommunicable Properties.

U S E.

1. Trust in his Promises, and tremble at his Threatnings establish'd by Three Witness, Deut. xix. 15. 2 Cor. xiii. 1.
2. Bless God for revealing this Mystery, without which no Salvation.

3. Apprehend and admire GOD as Three Persons in the Divine Nature.

Secondly, Each of these Three Persons is really and essentially GOD.

I. Really.

1. The Father, Rom. i. 7. Epheſ. iii. 14.
2. The Son, Heb. i. 8. Rom. ix. 5.
3. The Holy Ghost, Acts v. iii. 4.

II. Essentially, otherwise not Really.

U S E.

1. Stick fast in this Faith.
2. Frame your Lives according to it.

Thirdly, Tho' each of these Three Persons be really GOD, yet all Three are but One GOD, Deut. vi. 4. Exod. iii. 14. He is one Almighty, Gen. xvii. 1. Rev. xix. 6. and unius effectus, one integræ & perfectæ in eodem ordine causæ esse non possint. So that what one doth the other could not do.

U S E.

Acknowledge Three Persons, Worship but One GOD, John x. 30. Chap. xvii. 22.

Fourthly, Tho' these Three Persons are really but One GOD, yet are they as really distinct from one another, and that by Notes.

- I. Internal : Which Internal distinction is not in Nature, but Relation and Order, each having his particular and proper Relation to the other.

1. The Father begets.
2. The Son begotten.
3. The Holy Ghost proceeding.

II. Hence learn your Duty to each Perſon.

1. Love to the Perſon of the Father.

2. Faith in the Merits of the Son.

3. Obedience to the Motions of the Spirit.

III. And ſeeing G O D hath revealed this Myſtery to you,

2. Live up to it, even as thoſe who believe in and worſhip a Trinity in Unity, and Unity in Trinity.

A P O C. vii. 3.

Saying, Hurt not the Earth, neither the Sea, nor the Trees, till I have sealed the Servants of our God in their Foreheads.

ALTHO' Mankind in general be very much corrupted and depraved both in their Principles and Practises, yet, nevertheless, there have been some, in all Ages who have sincerely endeavour'd to serve GOD themselves, and to set others an Example how to do it. But this they did, not by their own natural Strength, but by the special Grace and Assistance of GOD's Holy Spirit enlightening their Minds, purifying their Hearts, directing and inclining them to Goodness and Vertue, and enabling them to act accordingly. Hence the Church of CHRIST always looked upon itself as obliged to Praise GOD for such Persons as these, who thus lived and died in his true Faith and Fear, and to pray unto him for the like Grace and Assistance to follow their good Example. For which purpose our Church, in conformity to the Catholick, hath set apart several Days in every Year, which are therefore called Holy Days, because dedicated to the Service of the Most High GOD, and to the setting forth the Glory of his Grace, in vouchsafing such Assistances to his Saints and People.

As for the Apostles, and some other of the most eminent Saints, whose Praise is in the Gospel, and whose Lives and Actions are there particularly recorded for our Imitation, there is a particular Day assigned for the Celebration of each of their respective Memories, or rather of that Grace and Vertue which God had bestow'd upon each of them respectively. But both before and since that time there have been many, who, in their several Generations, have shone as Lights in the World; some whereof are mention'd in the Records of the Church. But others, and they the far greatest part, are as yet altogether unknown to us, having left no other Monument behind them, but the effect of their Pious Example, in the respective Times and Places where they lived. And hence it is that the Church finding it impossible to commemorate every one of them particularly, hath appointed this as a Day of General Thanksgiving for all the Saints that ever lived. And therefore in the Collect for this Day we acknowledge, to the Praise of God's Goodness and Mercy, that it is he who hath knit together his Elect in one Communion and Fellowship, in the mystical Body of his Son JESUS CHRIST our Lord. And pray unto him, that he would grant us Grace so to follow his blessed Saints in all virtuous and godly Living, that we also may come to those unspeakable Joys which he hath prepared for them who unfeignedly love him, through the same JESUS CHRIST our Lord.

And the better to excite and stir us up to an hearty and sincere Performance of these Duties, instead of the Epistle for the Day, this Portion of Scripture is appointed to be read, wherein
we

we find, that St. John, in a Vision from GOD, ſaw four Angels ſtanding ready to deſtroy the Earth, and another Angel crying to them and ſaying, Hurt not the Earth, neither the Sea, nor the Trees, till we have ſealed the Servants of our God in their Foreheads. After which he ſaw Twelve Thouſand Sealed of each of the Twelve Tribes of Israel; and beſides a great multitude, which no Man could number, of all Nations, and Kindreds, and People, and Tongues, ſtanding before the Throne, and before the Lamb, cloathed with white Robes, and Palms in their Hands, and crying with a loud Voice, Salvation to our God which ſitteth upon the Throne, and unto the Lamb, ver. 9, 10. From whence we may obſerve, to our great Comfort and Encouragement, that the Saints of GOD, although they be but few, in compariſon of the reſt of Mankind, yet abſolutely conſider'd, they are ſo many that no Man can number them.

But not to trouble you with any nice or critical Diſcourſe concerning the Deſign of the Viſion in general, in the Words that I have choſen for my Text, two things are plain and obvious.

First, The great Care that GOD takes of his Saints and Servants, in that he would not ſuffer the deſtroying Angels to hurt the Earth, till his own Servants had a Seal or Mark put upon them, whereby the deſtroying Angels, knowing who they were, might not dare to meddle with them. As it was with the Children of Israel, when GOD commanded them to ſprinkle the Blood of the Paſchal Lamb upon the Poſts of their Doors, that the Angel that was ſent to deſtroy the Firſt-Born

Born of the Egyptians, ſeeing that Mark, might paſs over thoſe Houſes, and hurt none there.

The other thing, and that which I would have you principally to obſerve here, is the Name which the Saints are here called by, The Servants of God. From whence we may ſee into the Notion of a Saint, he is one that ſerves God; and whoſoever doth not do that, whatſoever he may pretend, he is no Saint. Wherefore that you may know how to imitate thoſe whoſe Memories we this Day celebrate, ſo as to become Saints yourſelves, I ſhall endeavour to ſhew what it is properly to ſerve God, and how ye may and ought to do it.
